LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Covenants and contracts

Contracts and Covenants are only as good as the honor of those that manage them.

When the citizen enters military service for his Nation, the terms of agreement are in compensation to honor the veteran with care of body for having bore the burden in suffering and sacrifice.

Veteran health care is not a benefit. It is a contractual obligation, a covenant, a pledge from those protected and receiving material gain due to the veteran's service. The issue is honor quid pro quo.

Patriot, Potentate, Praetorian... herein lies the dilemma. The Potentate or conniving tyrant, uses the Patriot as a praetorian and through facilitating control by means of the treasury, establishes a bureaucracy to cheat the Patriot.

A Patriot is a citizen who lays life on the line for their neighbor sustaining a way of freedom, liberty and justice. A praetorian is a hired mercenary compensated with plunder.

The American culture of individual liberty and justice is established on biblical principles, drawing strength and success from understanding carried forward by Patriots since our inception some 240 years ago.

A weak and conniving potentate projects an image of righteousness and biblical responsibility with no intent of reciprocation; he deceives. World history is replete with betrayal of veteran by potentate through lie and bureaucratic subterfuge. Those that pledged to each other their lives, fortunes and sacred honor; establishing the American Nation, understood history all too well.

The eventual outcome for the potentate is always the same. His is the greed that represents the end of the cycle as he is devoured; eaten up and defecated by the praetorian employed. The hireling consumes the presupposed elite as they have not the courage to do their dirty work. Cowards always succumb to devils deployed and, bureaucrats are ground into dust.

Only an educated, responsible and accountable citizenry will turn the tide. Only when the citizenry understand and demand Patriots, not praetorian and potentate.

Vandals' mess cleaned up by local business

Last week Superior Police Department received a report from a volunteer at the Caboose Visitor Center at the US 60 Park that the mining history display has been knocked over by vandals.

Copper Area News posted a live video on Facebook that generated much outrage and offers to help.

On Friday, Danny Stevenson from Southwest Tire and 24 Hour Towing offered up his services to the Town of Superior to repair the damages made by the vandals. Danny and his crew returned the ore carts to an upright position and welded them securely into place on the railroad tracks on the display.

Anyone having information on the vandalism are asked to call police to report it. Citizens can call Silent Witness at 1-800-358-INFO, Crime Stop at 689-5611 or the Information Tip Line at 520-827-0065 if they have information that may help the police department.

Southwest Towing offered its assistance in cleaning up the damage caused by vandals.

Resolution Copper helps to protect endangered cactus

April 25, 2016 - Superior, AZ -- Located in far eastern Pinal County, east of Superior and west of Miami, Arizona is the JI Ranch, a 266-acre site known for tall stands of Emory oak trees, rocky outcrops and natural beauty. Owned by Resolution Copper, the ranch is nestled within a Madrean Evergreen Woodland and surrounded by the Tonto National Forest. There are no freeways, no chain restaurants, no big-box retailers, and no industrial development – in fact it's the perfect location to protect an endangered plant known as the Arizona hedgehog cactus.

"The endangered Arizona Hedgehog cactus, listed under the Endangered Species Act, is an important part of Arizona's natural landscape and cultural heritage," says Tara Kitcheyan, Sr. Advisor, Native American Affairs, Resolution Copper. "The vision of Resolution Copper is not only to stimulate the Copper Triangle economy, but to also preserve the cultural and historical heritage of the region, including the cultural heritage of the San Carlos Apache Tribe. We are honored to have the opportunity to protect and preserve the Arizona hedgehog cactus, a plant that is mutually important to the San Carlos Apache Tribe and to Resolution Copper," Kitcheyan said.

In August 2012, under the watchful eye of biologists from Tucson-based WestLand Resources, approximately 1,000 small vegetative propagations, called "offsets" or "pups" were collected from mature Arizona hedgehog cactus growing on the JI Ranch. These cacti were planted in pots containing a mixture of native soil and sand, and kept in a greenhouse at the JI Ranch where they were monitored and watered monthly for more than three years. Some were observed budding, flowering, and producing "pups" of their own while in the greenhouse.

In March 2016, 364 Arizona hedgehog cactus offsets were planted by Resolution Copper within suitable habitat at the JI Ranch and with the help of volunteers from a youth group affiliated with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Chandler Stake. Habitat chosen for transplant sites included rock crevices, the base of boulders, and soil pockets under shrubs, with partial shade. The remaining Arizona offsets continue to be nurtured in the greenhouse for future planting.

"Working with young people in our community helps connect the youth to the environment and educates them on how to protect these natural ecosystems," says Kami Ballard, Environmental Advisor, Resolution Copper. "In addition, these transplants will enhance the natural cactus population at the JI Ranch by increasing Arizona hedgehog cactus density."

Arizona hedgehog cactus (Echinocereus triglochidiatus var. arizonicus) is a low-growing succulent native to the southwestern United States. On October 25, 1979, it was listed as an endangered plant under the Endangered Species Act. This cactus earned its name because its short, spiny stems resemble hedgehogs.

Plans underway now for 2016 St. Francis Fiesta

By Yolanda Najera-Ewing
Superior Sun

St. Francis Church Fiesta Committee is well on the road to preparing for the community's 37th Annual St. Francis Church Fiesta scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 17 and 18, on the church grounds at Church Avenue and Main Street.

First on the committee's agenda is raising seed money for the 37th Annual Fiesta. To that end, they have scheduled the 4th Annual Fiesta Golf Tournament for Saturday, June 11, at Queen Valley Golf Club approximately 3 miles north of U.S. Highway 60 turn-off. The tournament is open to the public and, in particular, for anyone who enjoys playing golf.

Registration will begin prior to tee-off at 7 a.m. The registration fee, which includes lunch, is $45. In addition to the lunch, breakfast burros will also be sold. Sponsorships for a donation of $50 each are needed for all 18 holes of golf. Sponsors can then elect to have the name of their business, organization or family placed at the individual golf holes.

Monetary donations, donations of food and of giveaway items are needed as well as volunteers to help register players, to cook, to sell tickets and to set-up. Those interested in participating in any of the above, or in registering for the tournament, are asked to contact St. Francis of Assisi Church office at 520-689-2250.

Another top priority for the Fiesta Committee is the selection of a theme for this year's fiesta. Last year's theme was "God's Work – Our Hands." Other themes have included "Joy in Serving," and "Let There Be Peace." A number of themes are being considered, and it is hoped that one can be selected which will incorporate, "Year of Mercy," the theme selected for 2016 by Pope Francis. A selection is needed as soon as possible in order to start advertising and ordering items for the fiesta. Suggestions can be turned into the church office or at the next Fiesta Committee meeting set.

This year, the committee has decided to open fiesta royalty to young men as well as young women. Anyone interested in being a king candidate or queen candidate is asked to contact Fiesta Royalty Chairperson, Marcella Garcia. She can be reached at 480-939-1313 or through the church office at 520-689-2250. Candidates are urged to contact Marcella Garcia as soon as possible as candidates will start their fund raising very quickly.

Another urgent need is that of a Fiesta Entertainment Chairperson. Anyone interested is asked to call the church office. Mariachi recruitment must start now as many groups contract appearances as early as February and March.

All booth chairpersons are reminded that they need to plan fund raising to help with the expense of their booth. Chairpersons are still needed for the following booths: menudo, empanadas, and burros. Again, call the church office if you are able to volunteer.

St. Francis of Assisi Church pastor, Father Samuel Jandeh, is looking forward to presiding over the Annual Church Fiestas Patrias. Father Jandeh, along with the Fiesta Chairpersons, stressed that all members of the community are invited to attend the Annual Fiesta with their friends and family as well as any out of town visitors.

Top-ranked Lady Panthers are dominating during most recent streak

By Andrew Luberdia
Superior Sun

The top-ranked and defending state champion Superior softball team has now won four-straight games after wins against Alchey and No. 8 Pima last week.

Since a 16 – 6 loss on Apr. 8 to Apache Junction – the fifth-ranked team in Division III – the Lady Panthers have won four consecutive games by at least 10 runs or more. They won the four games before Apache Junction by double-digits as well.

It's safe to say to the champs are peaking at the right time, looking for all the world like a team that intends to win back-to-back state championships.

Senior ace Ivie Lopez was on her game in the 11 – 1 win at Pima last Thursday, tossing a complete game and surrendering only an unearned on eight scattered hits with two walks and 10 strikeouts.

Phalitee Thomas provided all the run support Lopez would need with one swing of the bat, hitting a three-run home run to make her lone hit of the game a big one.

Superior hit four doubles in the game, including two by Paradise Valley commit Gabby Salcido. Arianna San Miguel and Yuvithzia Romero hit the Lady Panthers' other two-base hits in the game. San Miguel and Tori Juarez each had two RBI against the Roughriders.

The Lady Panthers wrap up the regular season this week with games at Hayden and a home game versus No. 3 Ray, game that could be a preview of the 2016 Division V State Championship.

We'll see.

Panthers drop consecutive games for first time

By Andrew Luberdia
Superior Sun

The Superior baseball team lost back-to-back games last week for the first time this season. The ninth-ranked Panthers were defeated at home 6 – 3 by No. 11 Alchey last Tuesday before a 6 – 0 loss at No. 2 Pima last Thursday.

Perhaps most concerning is the loss to Pima was the second time in the Panthers' last five games that they have been shutout. They lost to Miami at home on Apr. 7, 11 – 0.

At a time when playoff teams should be peaking, the Panthers appear to be in a mini-slump offensively. But their offense is too good to be down for long and has the ability to turn things around quickly, which it can in the upcoming final week of the regular season.

Eli Olmos tripled and had one of the Panthers' three hits in the loss to the Falcons last Tuesday. Edgar Galindo, Steven Ybarra, and Nicolaus Cruz each drove in a run. Ybarra, a freshman, and Cruz accounted for the Panthers' other two hits in the game.

Upcoming schedule: Apr. 26 at Hayden and Apr. 27 vs. Ray. Both games are scheduled for 4 p.m. Upcoming schedule: Apr. 26 at Hayden and Apr. 27 vs. Ray (regular season finale and Senior Day). Both games are scheduled for 4 p.m.

CAC president vows that current board will not close Aravaipa campus

By Mila Besich-Lira
Copper Area News

It is well known that in small towns and organizations everyone must wear multiple hats, and if you are not wearing at least two or three then you must not be busy enough.

Last week business owners, elected officials students, faculty, Copper Corridor residents filled the cafeteria at the CAC Aravaipa Campus to share with the board during call to the public how important the Aravaipa campus is to them and its benefit to the community. Many of those speaking wear multiple roles in their community from teachers and elected officials, business owners and non-profit board members.

The board heard over 50 comments from these community members in the call to the public, some of them were encouraging the board to approve a two percent pay increase for the staff and a majority of the comments were personal stories and requests that the board do everything in their power to keep the

There were a few residents who explained that they are not against education but they are not in favor of additional tax increases and called for the board to be more fiscally conservative.

Board President Gladys Christiansen thanked everyone for their comments and stated that they would not close the campus for as long as they can keep it open. Since late 2015 there have been major rumblings and suggestions made to the Central Arizona College Governing Board that the Aravaipa Campus should be closed in order to save money and avoid any further property tax increases to the tax payers of Pinal County. Investments, they were told, should be concentrated in the populated areas of the county. The board has been hearing from many anti tax groups who have become very vocal at board meetings.

Following the two-hour call to the public session, the board went into executive (secret) session. After the executive session the board voted unanimously to provide staff with a two percent pay increase and not to increase the cost of the employee benefits and not to increase taxes to accommodate this increase.

The board also received a report on financial expenditures and viewed a presentation by CAC Aravaipa student Edward Aguirre, who showcased many student success stories from the CAC Aravaipa Campus.

What does college, and career ready mean?

Cobre Valley Institute of Technology (CVIT) provides answers.

College today means a lot more than just perusing a four-year degree at a university. Being “college ready” means being prepared for any postsecondary experience, including study at 2- and –four year institutions leading to a postsecondary credential (i.e. a certificate, license, Associate’s and Bachelor’s degree). In today’s economy a career is not just a job. A career provides a family-sustaining wage and pathways to advancement.

About 40 years ago, 72% of U.S jobs were held by individuals with a high school degree or less. By 2018, only 38% of jobs will be available to individuals without some education and training after high school. Nearly one-half of all job openings in the United States are in “middle skill” jobs, all of which require at least some postsecondary education and training. By contrast, those with a high school diploma or less are eligible only for the one-fifth of all job openings that are deemed “low skill”.

CVIT with its Central Programs offers career readiness while still in high school. Superior, Globe, Miami, San Carlos and Hayden-Winkelman students take advantage of free college training that leads to community college and/or industry certifications. “With a wide range of program offering we hope not only to reach interest of students in our communities, but also meet the industry needs,” says Pete Guzman CVIT’s Superintendent.

Medical Assistant, Certified Nursing Assistant, Fire Science, Welding Technology, Graphic Design and Cosmetology programs are provided in cooperation with Gila Community College. All CVIT programs are tuition free to the students. CVIT also provides books, supplies and uniforms without cost to the student.

“Our 2016-2017 academic year enrollment is open, and we would like to encourage all the high school students in our communities to apply for one of the programs and start creating their futures of success,” said Beata Tarasiuk, CVIT” Executive Program Director.

Beata can be reached at 928-961-2446 or btarasiuk@cvit81.org. Application is available in High School counseling offices, Gila Pueblo Campus of Gila Community College and online at www.cvit81.org.
