LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Supervisor Rios responds to Sheriff Babeu

I read with great interest the letter to the editor from Sheriff Paul Babeu.

As an elected official, he does have the right to place his staff where he feels they are needed most. But I sincerely hope the sheriff is not playing politics in trying to coerce the supervisors into giving him more money in this next budget.

Sheriff Babeu has asked for more funding throughout the past two years. One request was for $12 million. That was simply impossible to fulfill. We ended up agreeing on giving him a portion of what he asked for in early 2013.

I will be candid when I say one of the biggest priorities for this board is public safety. Over 60 percent of our general fund goes toward public safety expenditures from the sheriff to our constables. Public safety is a concern for residents across the county, not in just one area. The sheriff feels that San Tan Valley deserves more of a priority than other areas. I disagree with this move.

Taxpayers have been quite vocal that they want to see accountability when it comes to our spending of their money. I agree. It is important that we manage our resources carefully and get the biggest bang for the buck. That is why I am in favor of Supervisor Cheryl Chase's suggestion that we go through the sheriff's budget line by line and see where the money is going and offer suggestions where he could get the most for your money.

The sheriff has other avenues to pursue for additional revenue. There are RICO and grant funding sources available to the department. It would be prudent to look at these areas and see if the sheriff can fund more of his needs through these monies.

I look forward to working with my fellow supervisors and the sheriff to see if we can find more efficient and effective ways way to help fund law enforcement throughout all of Pinal County.

Thank you,
/s/ Pete Rios

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

It was a pleasure to be a part of Apache Leap Mining Fest

To the Chamber of Commerce, all the members and the Town of Superior, I would like to congratulate all of you on the great turnout for the very successful 26th annual Apache Leap Mining Festival.

The turnout and response are such a wonderful validation of all of the planning, time and energy it takes each and every year to stage this event and continue the traditions that make Superior a place we all enjoy.

I cannot begin to express how much I enjoyed the festival, parade and all the other festivities, which each of you took so much time and care in planning.

Thank you for allowing me to represent the Chamber and the Town as the Grand Marshal in the parade "Celebrating the Magma Railroad." It was a truly wonderful way to remember and enjoy my years working for the Magma Railroad.

Sincerely,

Free social media class to be held

First, a huge shout out "THANK YOU" to the Chamber of Commerce and all their volunteers for hosting a wonderful Pioneer Days festival. And CONGRATULATIONS on the reopening of Buzzy's! The very first customers served by Buzzy's when they reopened were the Jason Chiquete family. This was because the Chiquetes launched a special Facebook page titled Operation Rebuild Buzzy's.

The Copper Basin Sportsmen's club used Facebook to build up support for their Well Armed Woman classes and local firearm safety classes. The CBSC was able to enter a float in the Pioneer Days parade, and they've posted photos on their Facebook site.

Facebook is becoming a very useful tool for people, community organizations, churches and businesses to "get the word out" about what they are doing.

And the Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition (CCEDC) is actually providing a FREE OF CHARGE class that is open to all that specifically helps you better understand and utilize all forms of Social Media to promote your cause, your interests, or your business.

This FREE CLASS will be held on TUESDAY, April 8, 2014 beginning at 11 a.m. local time. Mila Besich Lira will be the instructor.

Come one and all to the Church of the Good Shepherd "Little Gallery" located on school hill on Tuesday, April 8 at 11 a.m. to LEARN MORE FOR FREE right here in colorful downtown Kearny, Arizona!

Final note: This is the FOURTH of FOUR

FREE Classes that are being put on by the Business Success Center that is funded through the Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition. # Resolution Copper Project moving forward

By Mila Besich Lira
Superior Sun

During a recent community open house, last week Resolution Copper Project Director Andrew Taplin updated the public on the mining project. Following his update, the public was able to meet with senior leadership at Resolution about the various segments of the project such as the land exchange legislation, water reclamation, community involvement and geology.

During his presentation, Taplin explained that Resolution is still trying to work with the officials from the Town of Superior on their support for the project. While the Town of Superior has yet to renew their support for the project, the project continues to move forward. In late 2013 the shaft sinking of the number 10 shaft was halted, and many crew members were laid off due to the extreme temperatures underground. Sundt construction, an Arizona based construction company has been awarded the bid to install the necessary cooling and ventilation system that will allow the shaft sinking to continue.

The company will be starting to work on tailings reclamation in the lower smelter pond area in the coming months. Taplin also reported that the Forest Service is moving steadily through the review of the Mine Plan of Operations, he explained that the public participation process will begin in April regarding the baseline studies and NEPA for the tailings site. The community will have several opportunities to express their support or concerns through these public participation processes.

The Southeast Arizona Land Exchange and Conservation Act is still being supported by Representatives Ann Kirkpatrick and Dr. Paul Gosar in the US House of Representatives. In the Senate, Senators John McCain and Jeff Flake are working to move the bill through committees for a vote in the Senate. At this time there are no hearings set for the legislation at this time.

Pinal County to suspend issuance of open burn permits beginning April 29

FLORENCE, AZ - Starting April 2, Pinal County Air Quality will only issue three-day open burning permits. All permits will expire by May 1 and Pinal County will suspend the issuance of open burning permits on April 29.

Burn permits allow for the disposal of plant material by open burning during limited daytime hours.

Additionally, State law prohibits open burning in Area A from May 1 thru September 30. The Pinal County portion of Area A includes Apache Junction, Queen Creek, Gold Canyon, San Tan Valley and portions of Florence.

This year's winter rains contributed to wildflower, brush and native plant growth, which will soon dry. The annual cycle of rising temperatures will quickly dry seasonal vegetation, leading to an acute wildfire risk in the desert and upland areas of the County.

The suspension on burn permits will continue until the summer monsoons arrive and mitigate the dual risks to public safety and public health.

Additional information on the Pinal County Air Quality program can be found at www.pinalcountyaz.gov or by calling the Pinal County Air Quality Division at 520-866-

Key Dates:

As of April 2, 2014, Pinal County Air Quality will only issue 3-day open burning permits.

Pinal County Air Quality will suspend the issuance of all open burning permits starting April 29, 2014 and continuing until further notice.

All open burning is prohibited by State law in the Apache Junction, Queen Creek, Gold Canyon, San Tan Valley, and portions of Florence from May 1 through Sept. 30.

Lady Panthers suffer first loss of the season

By Andrew Luberta
Superior Sun

After starting the season with eight consecutive victories, the Lady Panthers lost their first game of the season last Saturday. The Ray Bearcats defeated the Lady Panthers in the Salt

Lady Panthers' Cierra Navarrette at the plate.

Kelli Luberta | Sun

River Tournament, 6 – 3. “We knew Ray was going to be a good team so we just needed to grind it out,” head coach Martin Navarrette said after the game. “We needed to get hits in critical situations. We got some but (not enough). They just had a better day than we did.”

The Bearcats held the Lady Panthers to their lowest scoring output of the season, but their head coach knows his team has the talent and ability to bounce back.

“It’s all about the team concept,” Navarrette answered when asked how his team has improved from last season.

To some, the Lady Panthers may have exceeded expectations but not to their coach who has a good explanation for their early season success.

“They hustle and they give 110 percent so I’m definitely proud of the girls,” Navarrette said. “Every game that we win they’re getting more confidence and it’s showing.”

Upcoming schedule: April 2 vs. Hayden and April 4 at Ft. Thomas. Both games are scheduled for 4:00 p.m.

Superior Head Start Happenings: Preschoolers take walking field trip of new flower shop, celebrate Dr. Seuss Day

Superior - The month of March has been exciting and eventful at Superior Head Start.

Each day, the children learned, through play and reading, more about socializing. There was an emphasis on acceptable manners, cooperation, sharing, and, problem solving. In addition, the students learned about healthy habits, discussing healthful eating and exercising in fun ways.

On March 5, for their third Fatherhood Activity, the children celebrated Dr. Seuss' birthday. Their teacher spoke about Dr. Seuss' book collection, his role in children's literacy and what an important job it is to write children's stories. At the same time, they learned some new words and their meaning.

Superior Head Start students also studied about farms, animals and countrysides. The teacher discussed the animals, spoke about the sounds different animals make, their size, what their babies are called, how it moves, what it eats, and, more.

The children enjoyed comparing the animal's features with other animals in the Dr. Seuss story books. Then, they created their own version of Dr. Seuss' 'Cat in the Hat' hats, and listened to Dr. Seuss stories before being presented with a gift bag, each, filled with developmentally appropriate school readiness items.

The children also selected three new books to add to their personal home library. The items were purchased using RICO grant fund monies received from the Pinal County Attorney's office.

The Pinal County Attorney and staff visited the Superior Head Start preschool classroom. Pinal County Attorney Lando Voyles concluded his visit by reading the Dr. Seuss book, "Go Dogs Go." Afterwards, he presented the children with a hardcover copy, along with a matching stuffed animal.

On Monday, March 31, the children participated in a walking field trip to tour O's Creation Floral Shop. There, they gained experience interacting with the business community and discussed floral arranging. They learned how the floral business uses colors, patterns, numerals, & letters, calendar, water, arts and crafts, eye to hand coordination, communication, and the concepts of opposites daily as part of their school readiness activities.

On March 12, while the students and staff were taking

SERVICE SALUTE

Urquieta speaks at Sapper Leader Course

Major Ernest M. Urquieta, an Engineer within the United States Army who hails from Superior, Arizona, was invited to be the guest speaker at the Sapper Leader Course the Engineers premier small unit tactics course.

Major Urquieta, who started his military career as an enlisted soldier, is intimately familiar with this course, as he served as an Instructor from 1995-1997 prior to becoming a commissioned officer. The 28 day Sapper Leader Course fundamentally is one of the most physically and mentally challenging courses the Army has to test students in Leadership. The demands of the course require more than conditioning, it requires will, the will to lead in any austere environment.

Major Urquieta's message to the graduates was about Leadership, that it is a privilege to lead the sons and daughters, we train not for ourselves but those we lead!

Major Urquieta, the son of Neto Urquieta, attributes his success to lessons learned in his hometown of Superior, Arizona. The son of a copper miner, Major Urquieta joined the Engineer Regiment because of the history of Sappers and correlation with Miners. A Sapper is a versatile, mentally and physically fit soldier capable of operating in any environment and under all conditions – the same as a miner!

With more than 25 years of military service, Major Urquieta stated that he was "humbled by the opportunity to be the guest speaker." There are many positive highlights in the course of a military career, but to impart the importance of leading to Sapper Leader Course graduates as the Army transitions is by far a humbling and prideful experience.

Major Urquieta is currently writing a book on leadership, A Miner's Son, and still serves on active duty in Missouri.

Major Ernest M. Urquieta

Panthers lose high-scoring game to Braves

By Andrew Luberda
Superior Sun

The Superior Panthers and San Carlos Braves combined for 36 runs in a game last Tuesday, in which the Panthers came up short, 19 – 17. It was the second straight game the Panthers have allowed at least 17 runs to their opponent.

Against the Braves, the Panthers pounded out 14 hits, including 4 triples and a double. Freshmen Nicholas Cruz and Austin Navarrette led the offensive attack with 3 hits each. Navarrette also had a team-high 3 RBI in the game. Matthew Zavala and Ceasar Villalobos each had 2 hits against the Braves.

After being shutout 17 – 0 in their last game, it was a positive sign to see the young Panthers bounce back offensively in this game.

Four Panthers' pitchers struggled equally in allowing the 19 runs. However, Ricky Longoria was able to strike out five Braves' hitters.

Upcoming schedule: April 2 vs. Hayden (2:00 p.m.) and April 4 at Fort Thomas (4:00 p.m.).
