Former Mayor of Superior pleads guilty

PHOENIX- Attorney General Mark Brnovich announced Jayme Valenzuela, the former Mayor of the Town of Superior, pleaded guilty to one count of Attempted Theft, a class 6 undesignated felony. In July 2016, a State Grand Jury indicted Valenzuela on one count of theft.

The charge against Valenzuela came after he was accused of making eight personal withdrawals totaling more than $2,300 from the Superior town debit card between August 2013 and December 2014. The withdrawals were made public in December 2015 by former Superior Town Clerk Rachelle Sanchez in her testimony at a meeting of the Superior Town Council. Her report was later verified by the auditing firm of Colby & Powell LLC and the Special Investigations Section (SIS) of the Arizona Office of the Attorney General.

The SIS investigation, as reported last summer in the Superior Sun, alleged that Valenzuela carried the town debit card with himself instead of returning it to the Superior Town Hall between uses as is policy, and used the card on eight occasions when his personal banking card was low on funds. These transactions were not reported. An addiction to gambling was cited as a reason for the misuse of the Superior debit card, with two transactions made at an ATM in the Wild Horse Pass Casino in Chandler, the SIS report alleged.

Valenzuela has contended that his misuse of the town debit card was a "mistake" and after the December 2015 revelation he reimbursed Superior in two payments.

Valenzuela is scheduled to be sentenced on May 3rd, 2017. He faces a probation term of up to 3 years under the terms of his plea agreement.

Assistant Attorney General Adam J. Schwartz prosecuted this case.

Fire destroys garage in Superior; Superior, Queen Valley responds

A detached garage in the 200 block of Heiner Dr. was destroyed by fire Friday.

SFD | Submitted

On Friday, March 31, at 3:55 p.m., Superior Fire Department was dispatched to an active fire in a detached garage on the 200 block of Heiner Dr. Initial reports indicated heavy fuels and propane tanks present.

The first arriving engine was able to stop the spread of the fully engulfed garage fire to the adjacent residence on property and to the neighbors' yards. Reserve firefighters also came out from home and quickly responded in a second engine to help attack and knock down the fire.

A patient on site received burns to their arm but refused medical transport.

Investigation revealed the cause of the fire was from the homeowner starting a dune buggy in the garage that ignited flammable products nearby. The fire was extinguished with only the garage and part of a storage container burned.

Superior Police Department and Queen Valley Fire assisted with the call.

"We would like to remind citizens we are grateful for their intentions to help us on our scenes," said Superior Fire Captain Richard Drennan, "however, cannot allow non-fire department members to help due to safety and liability concerns. We encourage you to look into joining the SFD as a reserve (paid per call) firefighter!"

Flames and smoke filled the view for one Superior resident. A fire destroyed a detached garage.

Gemini Hospice/Reflections Hospice

Just a few short years ago - Superior and the Copper Corridor region welcomed Gemini Hospice and Outreach to the region. Their services have helped dozens of families over the years to keep their loved ones comfortable during the end of life stage. Today the team at Gemini continues to offer the quality services and education with integrity and compassion as they transition into a new brand, Reflections Hospice and Palliative Care. The palliative care services are a lighter version of hospice services that can help people who are going through aggressive treatments for Cancer or other life threatening illnesses.

A few months ago, the family that owned Gemini Hospice sold to Centrix Health Resources. Centrix has a multitude of services that they plan to roll out into the region in the coming year including Doves Home Senior Care, medical equipment and Sunrise Health Services.

Gemini Outreach doing business as Reflections Hospice offers many unique outreach services that typical hospice services do not. Those outreach services include art therapy during their First Friday socials, pet therapy, in home blood pressure checks along with Lunch and Learn Education and Blood Pressure Clinics at the Superior Arboretum Apartments, Madera Peak Vista Apartments in Globe, Pleasant Valley Mobile Home Park in San Tan Valley, Norm's IGA in Kearny and Senior Centers in Superior, Hayden, Kearny, Miami and Globe.

One unique service that is available at the Gemini Outreach office in Superior is the Pay-It-Forward room. The staff keeps a room that has donated clothes, durable medical equipment like shower chairs, wheelchairs, walkers and other basic medical equipment that is lightly used and donated to the room. They also have some household items and medical supplies. "If someone is in need of these types of items, stop in and check it out," said Connie Perez, a team member at Gemini. The staff at Gemini also provides resources to Veterans through their Veterans outreach services, locally they support the Superior VFW by assisting with their events and they also hosted a special pin ceremony for local Vets.

"We provide many of these outreach and education services for free as a service to the communities we serve," said Elizabeth Magallanez, a Community Educator for Gemini. Hospice services are funded through Medicare insurances, when in need of those services it is important to understand how the benefit can be used. The outreach activities help the company to educate consumers on the benefit.

As the name of the company changes and new services are added to the service area by Centrix Health Resources, residents can continue to count on the quality and compassionate services that have always been a core value for the team at Gemini.

Cards of Thanks

Our most sincere and heartfelt gratitude for all the expressions of sympathy shown to us during the recent passing of our husband, father, stepfather, grandfather, and great-grandfather, Enrique O. For the Orozco primos for their love, presence and pictures; for the prayers, cards, visits, phone calls, flowers and food. Your thoughtfulness and generosity was deeply appreciated. We especially thank Wero for his kind and loving heart. For all the memories he left with us. His joy at meeting each new great-grandbaby He will remain forever in our hearts.

Again, thank you.
