PCAO seeing alarming increase in the number of Felony DUIs

The Pinal County Attorney's Office is launching a new safe driving campaign to help curb a concerning uptick in the number of Felony DUIs across the county.

PCAO is launching the campaign with the motto, "Drive Drunk or High, People Might Die." This will be featured at various events, on community handouts and part of messaging going forward.

"A single impaired driver puts other families at risk and it's not acceptable," said County Attorney Kent Volkmer. "Given the rise we're seeing, we are very concerned with how many people are getting behind the wheel when they shouldn't."

In 2022, the Pinal County Attorney's Office charged 243 Felony DUI cases. That represents a roughly 75% increase over 2021.

Already in 2023, PCAO has charged more than 115

Felony DUIs, putting us on pace to easily surpass last year's total.

"We hope an increased focus on this issue helps people think harder about the decisions they make and decide against getting behind the wheel while impaired, whether it be alcohol, illicit drugs or even prescription medication," Volkmer said.

Over the past several years, law enforcement has begun issuing more drug DUI citations than alcohol related.

"Please realize just one bad decision could be your last," Volkmer said. "Or it could kill someone else."

The Pinal County Attorney's Office encourages everyone, especially those attending the upcoming Country Thunder Music Festival in Florence, to designate a sober driver.

Felony DUI (A.R.S. 28-1383) is committing a DUI or extreme DUI and one of the following:

- While the person's license is suspended, canceled, revoked, refused, or there is a DUI-related restriction.
- It is the third DUI within 84 months.
- Has a person under the age of 15 in the vehicle.
- While the person is required to have an ignition interlock device installed.
- While driving the wrong way.

Panthers open Epic tourney with 11-0 shut out over Monument Valley

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Superior Sun

The Superior baseball team spent their weekend competing in Epic Tourney Baseball Classic. During their first game of the tournament, the Panthers played against Monument Valley. The boys started the game off scoring 4 runs in the first inning. The boys continued to show control, as they kept the Mustangs from scoring any runs. The game ended with a 11-0 final score, with a victory going to Superior.

The second game of the tournament was against the Blue Ridge Yellow Jackets. The Yellow Jackets scored 2 runs in the first inning, and the Panthers were able to score 1 run. The boys played a tough game, but were unable to score any other runs. The boys suffered a tough loss of 1-6. The final game of the tournament, the Panthers took on Chandler Prep. Taking control right from the start, the boys scored 2 runs in the first inning, and another 3 in the third inning. Chandler Prep was kept at bay, and only were able to score 2 runs. The game ended with a 9-2 win for the Panthers, putting them in third place for the tournament.

"We played really well we looked like a baseball team. I was happy with the way we played we just have to keep it up if we want to reach our goal. We need to keep up this play for our upcoming games," said head coach Manuel Ortega.

Marcos Galindo got the complete game win vs Monument Valley, he pitched 5 innings, gave up 0 runs, 1 hit, and had 9 strikeouts.

Zach Duarte went 4-8, batting .500, with 3 RBIs, 2 BB and 2 triples. He also pitched and got the complete game win vs Chandler Prep, where he pitched 6 innings, gave up 3 hits, 1 run, and had 6 strikeouts.

Jesse Arroyos selected as Superior Chamber Executive Director

Jesse Arroyos has been hired by the Superior Chamber of Commerce to be their full time Executive Director.

Jesse has replaced Shayna Beasley, who will remain on the team on as a social media and marketing coordinator. Beasley currently has a full time career in addition to her contract role with the Chamber of Commerce.

"We appreciate the work that Shayna has done for the Chamber," explained Rick Cartier, Chamber President.

Arroyos has devoted her career to education, starting her career with Superior Unified School District as a teacher and advancing her career to serve as an elementary school principal. She also served on the Superior Unified Governing Board following her career with SUSD. Following her career in Superior she taught and was an administrator for the Coolidge Unified School District and continued her education to earn a masters degree in School Psychology. She will finish her contract as a School Psychology Intern with the J.O. Combs Unified School District before fully taking on the position as Executive Director of the Superior Chamber of Commerce.

She has already begun working in the role. One of her first projects included supporting the board and members with the execution of the Apache Leap Mining Festival in March.

"I am excited about this new opportunity to explore the community from a different perspective, to learn and help others learn about the intricacies of business, community and collaboration," she explained.

Chamber President Rick Cartier said that the Chamber is excited to have a full time Executive Director to serve the organization.

"Our organization has grown over the years, and we need a staff to help carry the mission forward," he said.

Jesse Arroyos is a lifelong member of the community, graduating from Superior High School in 1987. She and her husband Eddie have a son Jacob who is married to Kristin, and they have two grandchildren. She and her extended family are actively involved with the community. She is excited to work in town and not have to commute when she finishes her contract in June.

New church to begin services Sunday, April 16

Copper Country Church is pleased to announce that its inaugural Sunday service will be held at the Superior Town Hall library room, 199 N Lobb Ave, April 16, 2023. Services will be conducted Sunday evenings only and will start at 6 p.m. This ministry is an outreach of The Church at Queen Valley which has long desired to begin a ministry in the Town of Superior for the people of the Copper Corridor.

Pastor Rick Luster will be serving as the Senior Pastor. Pastor Rick is a long time pastor and teacher of 50 years and for the past seven years has served as Pastor at The Queen Valley Church in Queen Valley Arizona. He has pastored churches in Arizona, Oregon and Colorado and has led Bible conferences in over 20 states in various denominations for over 40 years. His energetic and straight forward style will have you flipping through your Bible's pages with enthusiasm as he leads his listeners through the spiritual truths of the written Word.

Worship and praise will be a key component of Copper Country Church.

We will always seek to honor our heavenly Father through the Lord Jesus Christ and pursue the presence of His Holy Spirit. Personal prayer for the sick and needy will always be available.

Galatians 5:14 – for the whole Law is fulfilled in one word, in the statement, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

Town of Superior Youth Council visits Washington, DC

The Town of Superior Youth Council recently returned from a five-day trip to Washington, D.C. to attend the National League of Cities Youth Conference.

NLC recognizes Mayor Mila Besich

During the recent NLC Conference, Mayor Mila Besich was presented with a certificate recognizing her for completing 16 NLC University hours. These courses are advanced courses on communication, leadership skills and economic development. Mayor Besich also serves on Energy, Environment & Natural Resources Policy Committee and is a board member on the Hispanic Elected Officials (HELO) advocacy group within NLC.

The youth conference was held in conjunction with the National League Conference, a convening of over 3,000 municipal leaders from across America.

During the conference these young leaders attended leadership training sessions and key note speaker sessions. The Youth Council also were able to attend the Arizona Senators Breakfast and meet both Senator Mark Kelly and Senator Kristyn Sinema. They also had time to visit museums, monuments, Arlington Cemetery along with guided tours of the White House and U.S. Capitol Building. The Youth Council has been serving the Town of Superior since 2016 and this is the first group of leaders who have served for four or more consecutive years to earn the trip.

Attending from the Town of Superior Youth Council were: Nathan Taylor, Mira Estatico, Natalie Price, Jasmin Ortega, and Leia Jimenez along with sponsor Valerie Garcia Denogean and chaperone Louie Rabago.
