LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Supervisor maintains 'open door policy'

Throughout my career in the State Senate, House of Representatives and now the Pinal County Board of Supervisors, I have always had an open door policy. I am willing to listen to the concerns of people, whether they are my constituents, or not; whether they donate to my campaign or not.

The ramblings from Oracle resident Ron Thompson insinuated, quite poorly I might add, that I might be in the pocket of a lobbyist who sometimes represents clients before the Board of Supervisors. The person, he alluded to, has donated to my campaign, as have scores of other people from all walks of life. But what he didn't tell you is that I have voted against this lobbyist on the past three major issues which have appeared before the board.

It was nothing personal against the lobbyist, it was just that I didn't agree her client's proposals fit what was in the best interest of Pinal County. I listened to the testimony from the applicants in each hearing and with that information, I cast my vote. I do that for all items before the board.

Again, I would urge any of you that may have a question on my no votes on the marijuana grow facility near Casa Grande or any other issue to watch the video of the hearing. Mr. Thompson's incessant need to try to rewrite history on what actually happened is incredulous.

In some additional emails that Thompson has publicized, he alleges that the board has conspired and colluded in violation of this State's open meeting law to take care of each other in their respective districts. I find this amusing and question why four Republicans would want to protect the lone Democrat and his vote. If Thompson has any evidence of wrong-doing, he should turn it over to the proper authorities.

The facts are the facts. Ron Thompson is entitled to his own opinion, but he is NOT entitled to his own contrived and conjured up set of facts.

Sincerely,
/s/ Pete Rios
Pinal County Supervisor Dist. 1

Knights to sponsor golf tourney this weekend

The local Knights of Columbus Charity golf tournament is this Saturday at SaddleBrooke Ranch near milepost 93 on Highway 77 with sign in at 7 a.m. and play starting at 8 a.m.

“The money raised from this tournament goes to local seniors for scholarships, as well as other education projects and charities,” tournament director John Wahlmeier said.

The cost is $85 which includes a cart and lunch with many prizes and contests.

“We have prizes for the top three finishers, but we also give a prize that everybody has a chance of winning, no matter where they finish,” Wahlmeier said.

It could be the team with the oldest player, or the team with the youngest, or a score that is the exact middle of the tournament or dead last according to Wahlmeier.

“We keep it a secret until the day of the tournament,” he added.

There will be two hole in one contests, one sponsored by Catalina’s Golf Cars of Arizona and another sponsored by Apache Gold Casino and resort.

Council 5542, which serves Mammoth, Oracle and San Manuel, also supports the community food bank and Special Olympics as well as a Cub Scout and Boy Scout troop, which has a new Eagle Scout.

Leadership luncheon recognizes exemplary women

By John Hernandez
Copper Area News

Each year student leadership at Central Arizona College recognizes the Exemplary Women at CAC and Pinal County. The tribute is recognition of Women's Herstory Month. Women's History (Herstory) Month is a time to reflect and honor women's successes and contributions to society.

On March 25, 2015 CAC Aravaipa Campus honored Maria Munoz (Hayden), Ellie Brown (Oracle), Marie Roybal (San Manuel), Lisa Armenta (San Manuel) and Maren Wilson (Oracle) for their successes and contributions in Pinal County.

Josette Kimmel of the Student Leadership Organization at CAC Aravaipa acted as MC and presented welcome and introductions. Dean Foster spoke and invited everyone to enjoy a lunch provided by the CAC cafeteria. Benny Desantiago presented Certificates of Award to the Women. Ellie Brown was the guest speaker and spoke about women leaders and the importance of diversity and unity in the workplace. Congratulations ladies and thank you for the work you have done and continue to do to make our communities a better place to live.

SM slips to third after defeat by Ray Lady 'Cats

By Andrew Luberta
Copper Area News

Before last Friday's game versus top-ranked San Manuel, the Ray softball team was sixth in the most recent AIA rankings. But after an intense 9 – 8 victory against the defending back-to-back state champions, the Lady Cats are the new No. 1 team in the state.

"A win like this give us a boost and hopefully gives us some drive," Lady Cats' head coach Rikki Galka said after the game. "I just hope our younger players can see what they're capable of."

Ray's Savannah Willis provided the late-game heroics to lead the Lady Cats to the win. After Naomi Hing and Janae Ruiz reached on a walk and an error, respectively, the senior catcher ripped a three-run homerun in the top of the sixth inning, breaking a 6 – 6 tie.

"No," Willis answered when asked if she knew the ball was gone when she hit it. "Not until I almost reached second and then I saw (the outfielder) walking back. I was just happy."

Left-hander Stormee Galka started the game for the Lady Cats, pitching three scoreless innings as her team built a five-run lead. But the Lady Miners battled back, coming up with four hits, including RBI singles by Mariah McBride and Dionne Ruiz. San Manuel also took advantage of three errors in the inning to tie the game 5 – 5 heading into the fifth.

"To be able to say we beat the No. 1 team and we had that many errors," Stormee Galka would say afterwards. "It feels good to know we're capable of taking state."

Each team scored a run in the fifth inning. In the top half, Ray's Elisa Rodriguez hit an RBI single to reclaim the lead for the Lady Cats. But again the Lady Miners responded, this time on an RBI double by senior captain Felicia Medina.

After Willis' three-run homer, the Lady Miners stormed back a third time, coming up with three hits, including an RBI single by Alyssa Cuellar. Another error by Ray, which had nine in the game, led to another run. At the end of the sixth, the Lady Miners trailed by only one run, 9 – 8.

Lady Miners' Alyssa Cuellar connects against the Lady Cats.

Luberta | Miner

San Manuel had one last chance in the bottom of seventh after two more errors by Ray put runners on first and second with one out, but the Lady Cats were able to secure the last two outs to close out the victory.

"We've been hitting really well this season," Rikki Galka said. "And that has allowed us to keep winning because, obviously, our defense is (a work in progress)."

The loss was only the Lady Miners' second in their last 12 games. Head coach Deanne Brewer was pleased with the way her team continued to battle from behind. She is certain to have her players' attention when practice rolls around. For a team with as much success as San Manuel, which is now ranked third, there are few and far between coaching opportunities.

"(Coming from behind) is important to us and it shows our character," Brewer told Copper Area News. "And the loss gives us an opportunity to see the areas we still need to work on because the few minor mistakes we made were costly."

Ray upcoming schedule: Apr. 9 at Duncan, Apr. 10 at San Carlos (6 p.m.), Apr. 13 at Gilbert Classical Academy, and Apr. 14 at Desert Christian. All games are scheduled for 4 p.m. unless noted otherwise.

San Manuel upcoming schedule: Apr. 10 at Pima and Apr. 13 at Desert Christian. Both games are scheduled for 4 p.m.

Community welcomes Warrior Hikers

Warrior Hiker Shawn Murphy, VFW Reynoso Post 2767 Commander Leandro Guillen, Vice-Commander Margarito Bejarano and hiker Joshua Brewer.

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

Members of the Tri-Community welcomed two veterans who are “walking off the war” by hiking the Arizona Trail from Mexico to Utah. The Warrior Hike “Walk Off the War” Program is designed to support combat veterans transitioning from their military service by thru-hiking America’s National Scenic Trails.

On Saturday, April 4, Joshua Brewer and Shawn Murphy were greeted at the trail head next to the American Flag Ranch southeast of Oracle by the Commander and Vice Commander of VFW Reynoso Post 2767 in Mammoth. Commander Leandro Guillen and Vice Commander Margarito Bejarano welcomed the two hiking veterans home. They drove them to Wal Mart in Oro Valley so the hikers could resupply. They were then driven to the San Manuel Lodge where the Lodge had donated a room for the night for their use.

The San Manuel Elks Lodge was the scene of a pot luck dinner attended by some local veterans and family members who greeted the hikers and wished them well. The VFW District 5 Commander David Johnson and his wife Joanie from Tucson also attended. Shawn and Joshua spoke briefly about the Warrior Hike Program. They were leaving in the morning and their next stop in a Gateway Community will be in Superior where they are scheduled to arrive on April 11. They have been averaging close to 20 miles a day hiking the trail. When they reach Utah, they will have hiked over 800 miles.

The VFW would like to thank everyone that helped support the Warrior Hikers, the San Manuel Lodge for housing them, La Casita for their offer to feed them lunch, the San Manuel Elks Lodge who provided the venue for the pot luck and the Sweet Spot who donated a cake. Thank you Tri-Community for supporting our veterans and best of luck to Joshua and Shawn on the trail and in their lives. To find out more about the Warrior Hike and track the progress of the hikers visit their website: <http://warriorhike.org>.

Beautiful weather helps Easter Blast attract crowd

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

A good crowd turned out for this year's Easter Blast at the San Manuel softball field.

The Easter Blast was sponsored by the San Manuel Rotary.

The kids got to hunt for over 1,000 eggs. There were free games, popcorn, cotton candy, roasted corn, face painting, and snow cones. Food vendors served up plenty of food. Families were treated to a day of music, games, raffles and fun. Plenty of kids went home with Easter baskets.
