LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Concerned citizen encourages attendance at School Board meetings

This letter is about reaching out to all the parents, grandparents, citizens of Superior and all taxpayers. Do you care about the children in the Superior school system? Ever worry about if the children are safe? Do you attend the School Board meetings?

The next one is May 15. All of you should try attending two or three meetings and see for yourselves the chaos our kids are going through daily. Even many of the staff work under stress and harassments. It's a hostile work environment for a good many of our school employees. This hostile and fearful environment is also alive and well with our children. There have been at least seven reported cases of sexual assault in the primary grades. Bullying and assaults are common place. These are criminal acts! There was a poisoning incident as well. What did the administrators do? As usual, nothing. They didn't even call the First Responders to check the child out. They didn't even call the parents of the child who was poisoned.

There has to be changes in our School Board. They have a sign out front of the school stating "Kids First." Do they care for our children - boasting catch phrases for the public to see, but, withholding the real information that the public should know. Their sign should say "Beware all who enter here."

I'm speaking on behalf of our parents who have been hurt, angered beyond the limits. Their children have been and still are being assaulted, threatened and don't even want to go to school because they are afraid. A school should be a safe place for our children who are taught varied topics and teachings they will need in adult life. How can they focus on learning when they are terrorized by classmates? Ignoring parents and children in need of help, and sweeping the chaos under the rug is no acceptable response.

Our School Board denies much of the reported complaints, ignores the seriousness of the situation. The Head Administrator chooses to remain in denial about the incidents, but, it is also noticed that several School Board members have been infected with a serious case of selective memory loss, or pretend ignorance of situations.

We need immediate change and actions in our schools! Let's all work together to effect the changes we need. Children are products of their environments; not just in the home, but, the schools as well.

Theresa 'Tessie' Rivera Haro

Theresa "Tessie" Rivera Haro was received into God's loving arms on May 10, 2014. Tessie, as she was known to all, who loved her, was born on August 4, 1931 in Los Angeles, California to Vidal and Estella Rivera.

She is survived by her husband of 60 years, Umberto Haro, and their five children: Mark, Patricia Fernandez, Maria Angelina, Paul (Cindy), and Joanna (Francisco) Villalobos. She is greatly loved by her sisters Shirley Castillo and Janet Navarro, her 10 grandchildren, her five great-grandchildren, and her extended family of sisters and brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews and friends.

She was welcomed home by her parents, her brother Vidal "Vic" Rivera, Jr. and her great-grandson Elias.

Tessie attended St. Mary's High School and worked for the state of Arizona. She and her husband were longtime residents of Superior, AZ where she served on the town council and worked for the Pinal County Justice of the Peace. She was also instrumental in organizing the Girl Scouts of America in Superior and has been a member of the VFW Women's Auxiliary for many years.

Her family appreciates Companion Hospice, especially Pat, Shannon, Bev and Wendy, for the loving care and attention they gave to Tessie.

Services were held Thursday, May 15, 2014, at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Superior. Interment followed at Fairview Cemetery in Superior.

Free workshops for entrepreneurs and small business owners

Superior - Superior Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the Copper Corridor EDC, will host four powerful, interactive workshops which are geared toward pointing current small business owners, and those interested in starting their own business, in the right direction on the road to success.

These workshops will allow you to learn from experts and network with other business owners in Superior and the surrounding area. Each session provides tools you can use immediately to start or expand your business. Bring your lunch and learn on Mondays, from 11 a.m. - 1 p.m., throughout June.

All sessions will be held at the purple Superior Chamber of Commerce, 165 W. Main St. In Superior. Each session provides tools you can use, immediately, to start or expand your business. Registration is free but limited to 15 participants. Call 602-625-3151 to reserve your seat.

On June 2, ‘Starting Your Own Business’ offers everything you need to know, including legal structure, financing and organizing to take your product or service to market.

June 9 will bring ‘Developing a Practical Business Plan’, explaining how to describe your business to customers, stakeholders and lenders.

Learn ‘How to Market Your Service or Product’ on June 16, including how to differentiate your business from the competition, find potential customers and develop a marketing action plan.

The last workshop on June 23, ‘Developing Your Brand’ shows you how to create a brand that attracts customers. Everyone needs a brand.

Superior class named ‘Best Creative’ for poster contest

Best creative classroom poster project for the Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center’s 2014 Health Fair Poster Contest went to Ms. Hernandez’s 1st grade class at John F. Kennedy. Each student received goodie bags, certificates, and classroom art supplies.

Business as usual by the Superior School District

The Superior School Board had many items to discuss. The 27 seniors were approved for graduation and the preparations for graduation are underway. Many students are securing scholarships which make the school district proud.

Student will be traveling out of state to San Antonio, TX for the National Family, Career and Community Leaders of America competition on July 4-11, 2014. This item was discussed and approved. Five students and their parents have committed to their attendance and participation in the conference. This is a fantastic leadership conference for these young adults to attend.

There was a presentation regarding the district-wide Security Equipment Grant from Logicalis of Tempe, Ariz. and the photo-voltaic array for the JF Kennedy campus from Sun Renu of Scottsdale, Ariz. These two projects can improve security and reduce energy costs. The cost of both programs requires no expenditure of the district funds except those provided specifically for this use. The plan is to install digital cameras and inter-lock doors at the jr./sr. high campus as well as video monitoring equipment.

Cameras and video monitoring equipment will be installed at the JF Kennedy campus as well. The photo-voltaic array will provide 80 percent or more of the necessary electricity for the entire campus. This will allow the district to use electric utility payment money for other uses.

The Superior School District has help programs for kindergarten through sixth grade students based on appropriate behaviors with others, including a thorough discussion of what is and what is not bullying. Janina Watkins, Pinal County Attorney’s Juvenile Office presented information and answered student questions and parents were invited. There is an all day training scheduled for July 24, 2014, this is designed for all students K-12 and an evening for parents. Mr. O’Donnell recently held 43 parent conferences regarding student behavior.

There have been a few students who are utilizing the district counselor for discussions. The JFK conference room is set aside for counseling services when needed. O’Donnell said, “We have created and

Panthers sports banquet

By Andrew Luberd
Superior Sun

Hunter Flanagan, Cierra Navarrette, and Matthew Zavala took home the top awards at last Tuesday's Sports Banquet at Superior High School. All three are multi-sport student athletes.

Hunter Flanagan was the winner of the Manny Ruiz Award, given each year to the student-athlete who displays good citizenship, excels academically, and performs well on the field.

"It's really great to be selected as the Manny Ruiz Award winner," Flanagan answered when asked what the award means to her. "It's a great honor, and represents citizenship, academics and sports. It's really a great accomplishment."

Flanagan also received the Co-Offensive Player of the Year Award as a member of the Panthers' state playoff softball team.

Cierra Navarrette was named the Female Athlete of the Year. She also took home awards in volleyball, basketball and softball.

"I think it's an honor to be considered," Cierra Navarrette said about winning Athlete of the Year Award. "I think it's awesome that all three of us (won the awards) because we're all friends and we're all juniors."

Navarrette's other awards included Outstanding All-Around Player (volleyball), Defensive Player of the Year (basketball), and Co-MVP (softball).

Matthew Zavala was named the Male Athlete of the Year. He played football, basketball and baseball this year and won the Big Man Award for his efforts on the Panthers' basketball team.

"It's a great honor. I'm not sure if I really earned it," a humble Matthew Zavala said.

"I'm going to work my butt off next year to make sure I do earn it."

Most of the student-athletes at Superior are compete in multiple sports and several athletes won multiple awards last Tuesday.

Freshman Nicolaus Cruz took home four awards in football, basketball, and baseball. Elizabeth Ochoa took home three awards in JV Volleyball, varsity basketball and softball.

In an interview before the banquet, Superior Principal and Athletic Director spoke about the success of the student-athletes and the Panthers' athletic program this year.

"Education and athletics go together, obviously," Duarte said. "It's always good when we have student-athletes who can take on both and be successful."

"If they continue to work and grow as people, and players, we're going to see that translate in the next year," he continued. "It's all about the work and the most important work is in the classroom."

Duarte acknowledged that success can mean different things for some of the Panthers' teams. He said he doesn't considering wins as they only to measure success. Making progress, as many of the Panthers' teams did this season, equates to progress.

The softball, baseball and tennis teams, to name a few, had great success on the field and on the courts this year. With a number of returning players on all the teams, Duarte said Panthers' fans can expect the teams to improve going forward.

"Most of the underclassmen (boys and girls teams) will be back to do it again," Duarte predicted. "With one more year of experience, I think it's going to translate well for them."

Panthers' team success results in several All-Section selections

By Andrew Luberd
Superior Sun

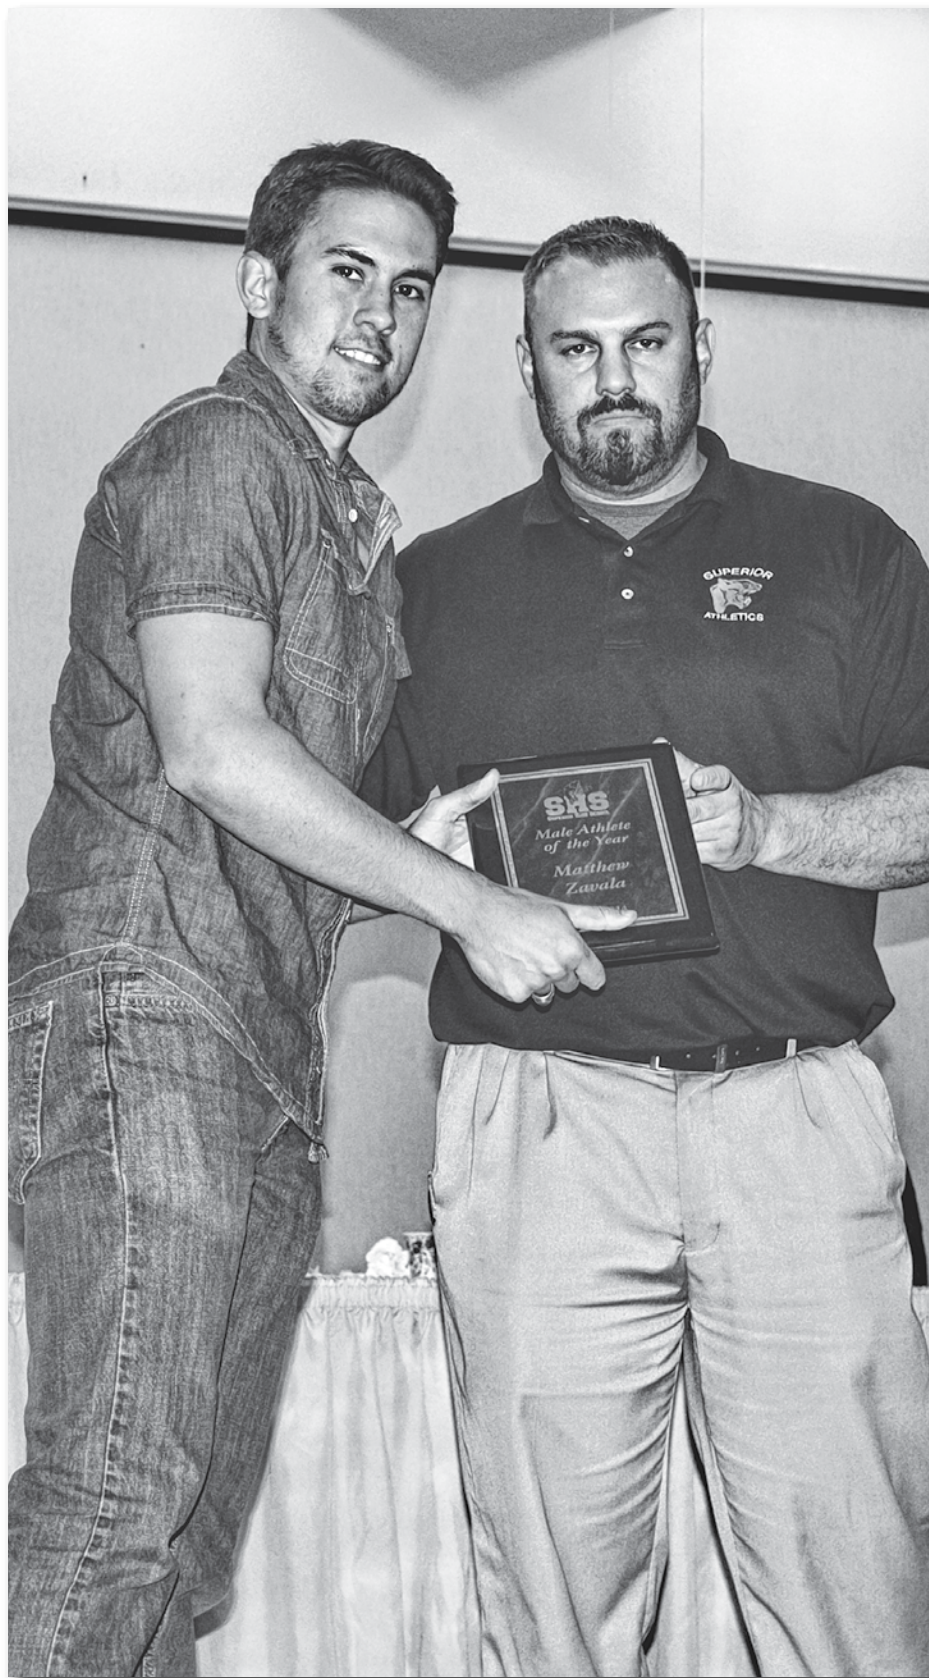

The Panthers' baseball and softball teams each reached the State Championship tournament this past season. The success of both teams resulted in three baseball and five softball players being named to the AIA All-Section Teams. Additionally, Panthers' softball head coach Martin Navarrette was selected as Section Coach of the Year.

Nicholaus Cruz, Austin Navarrette, and

Rickey Longoria represented the Panthers' baseball team in earning All-Section honors.

Ivie Lopez, Gabby Salcido, Hunter Flanagan, Cierra Navarrette, and Phalicitee Thomas were the softball players who earned All-Section honors.

In his first season leading the Panthers' softball program, head coach Martin Navarrette led the Panthers to a number five final ranking. The Panthers were ranked at the top of the Division IV weekly ranking several times during the season.

Matthew Zavala was named Male Athlete of the Year.

Superior Fire Department receives donation from Pinto Valley Mining

Hard work and perseverance pays off for Superior Fire Department. The Superior Fire Department applies for grants and donations to help with the fees associated with having a fire department. Due diligence and dedication pays off! On Thursday, May 8, 2014 General Manager, Steve Winkelman and Community Specialist Anna Petty of Pinto Valley Mining (Capstone Mining) presented a check to the Superior Fire Department in the amount of $3,000.

Pinto Valley Mining received a request for a donation to assist the Fire Department in obtaining personal protective equipment. "We commend all the efforts that the volunteers provide to the Town of Superior and their protective fire events," said Anna Petty, community specialist for Pinto Valley Mining.

The check presented to the Superior Fire Department is to be utilized towards firefighter turnout gear (personal protective equipment) specifically for their reserve/volunteer participants. Present to accept the check was Reserve/Volunteer Firefighter Mel A. Martinez and Superior Town Councilman Michael Alonzo.

Prior to the presentation of the funding, the visit began with introductions and a tour of the station. Members present were Firefighter/Paramedics John Allison, Tim Gatto, Jerry Campos, Bonnie Mariscal and Firefighter/EMT Jason Barragon. The tour was facilitated by Mel Martinez and Councilman Alonzo. Steve Winkelman had a number of questions ranging from department history, area of coverage, equipment, training to make and models of the apparatus's. The tour was detailed and greatly appreciated by the Pinto Valley (Capstone) representatives.

Councilman Alonzo stated, "We constantly encourage our departments to research funding avenues, such as grants, donations, etc. Mel has solely embraced this challenge and as a result of his efforts we've inherited $3,000 and a positive relationship with Pinto Valley (Capstone) Mining." Mel began researching funding options in an effort to replace out of service and deteriorating protective gear for the new and existing Reserve/Volunteers. After months of research and communication, Pinto Valley (Capstone) was honored to donate the funding towards the Superior Fire Department Reserve/Volunteer program.

It was with great pleasure the Superior Fire Department and the Town of Superior accepted this generous donation. Steve Winkelman thanked the town and the department for their service and expressed interest in future joint training opportunities. Mel Martinez is a third generation Superiorite whom like all our fire and emergency service personnel are dedicated to preserving life, property and an overall feeling of comfort towards the people who reside and visit Superior. Congratulations to the Superior Fire Department!

distributed information flyers for students and their families which outline information of available counseling services.”

There is a new procedure of calling parents when students are involved in situations which require the calling of law enforcement officers. This has been used three times since the incident on April 7. O'Donnell also said, “We are working with the attorney and the Superior Chief of Police to draft a protocol for use by staff when dealing with situations of these types.”

Summer school was approved to be held during the month of June. The funds to pay for the summer school will come from Rural Education Achievement Program (REAP) federal funds. At JFK the scheduled days will be June 27 through July 26, Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m. to noon. At the jr./sr. high the activities will be a credit-recovery format with students working on the PLATO software from noon to 4 p.m., Monday through Thursday.

There will be an ASBA Board Member Training on Wednesday, May 14, 2014 at 5:30 p.m. The next regularly scheduled school board meeting is scheduled for June 4, 2014 at 7 p.m. everyone is encouraged to attend.

Head Start teams up with U of A Extension program

Recently, two Superior Head Start staff members, Teacher-PIC Teresita Martinez-Olmos and Site Manager Hilda Cardenas completed the University of Arizona (U. of A.) Extension Food Nutrition Education Program. Joining them were relatives of some of the students, Minnie Apodoca, a parent, and Rosie Martinez and Mabel Cox, grandparents.

Each month, Esmeralda Castillo, Home Living Assistant and Candy Rodriguez presented information and activities, and provided free samples of nutritious snacks, such as vanilla yogurt with fruit and granola or hot air popped popcorn with ranch seasoning, during the training session at Superior Head Start LPC meetings.

The participants were asked to complete a pre and post survey. Participants answered questions about food and nutrition during the program. One activity included the Head Start students, along with grandparents and parents exercising with a ball inside the Head Start classroom. It provided exercise, fun and laughter throughout the activity.

Each month participants were given information concerning nutrition, smart food shopping & exercise ideas for healthy living. The participants who completed the course were each presented a certificate along with a "sandwich" box food container gift. Head Start is a grant funded program under the Department of Health and Human Services.

Cards of Thanks

To everyone who came from near and far to support us at Bobby's horseshoe tournament, THANK YOU. We are so Blessed to be a part of Superior's family, a loving community who is first to reach out and give its all to one of its own. Special thanks to Angela Villaverde Ortega, Mario Lopez, and everyone who worked so hard to make this event such a success. We are overwhelmed at everyone's concern and generosity. There are three sincere phrases in our lives, I love you, God Bless, and Thank you, especially when they come from the heart .... Bobby and Margie Real and family
