LETTER TO THE EDITOR

A Message to High School Graduates

Congratulations to the many students who are celebrating their high school graduation this month. As a father of two with my youngest graduating this year from a public district school, I've seen how hard students and parents work to reach this milestone.

This is a time to celebrate your achievements, and reflect on the future. Each decision you'll make from here will shape what path your life will take, whether that's a trade school, community college, university, or employment. Making thoughtful decisions with the help and input from your family, teachers, and other role models will help set you up for independence and success.

Whether you want to seek a profession in the education, utility, agriculture, or industrial and mining industries, you will need more education to achieve a successful career and support yourself and a family. My job at the capitol is to ensure each child and every student has educational and occupational opportunities, as well as to ensure our state has quality roads, healthcare, and water infrastructure to continue to make Arizona a great place to live and work.

I hope each one of you are successful in what you want to achieve and always remember parents want our children to be even more successful than us and the only thing we leave behind in this world is our lineage and our reputations. May God bless each and every one of you and keep those dreams alive by focusing on them and your goals every single day.

Carnivaleros Trio to perform at Oracle State Park Star Party June 8

The Carnivaleros Trio stirs up a giant melting pot of sonic chorizo gumbo that combines moody Eastern European motifs and strains of western movie themes along with quirky stories of the American experience, laced with rhythms of Zydeco, Tex-Mex, and swing.

Add in the gorgeous summer star lit night at the Oracle State Park and you have the fixings for a party.

The Oracle State Park will host the Carnivaleros Trio on Saturday, June 8, from 6-10 p.m.

The trio features Gary Mackender on accordion and vocal, along with Karl Hoffman on bass, and Billy Yates on guitar.

Bring your own picnic and enjoy cooler Oracle temps, live music and sunset views from the upper patio of the historic Kannally Ranch House. By 8 p.m. as the music ends and the stars and planets appear, the SaddleBrooke SkyGazers Club will offer telescopes and interpretation of night sky objects for visitors. Oracle State Park is designated an International Dark Sky Park.

Thanks to Friends of Oracle State Park for music sponsorship. The event is free with park admission.

May 1 marks the beginning of summer hours for the Oracle State Park. The main entrance gate will be open from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily through the summer months. The Kannally Ranch House gift shop is open 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily.

Self-guided tours of the historic Kannally Ranch House are ongoing. Visit the park office/gift-shop and take a self-guided tour through the multi-level Kannally family home. The Mediterranean-Revival Style ranch house built 1929-1933, is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Guided tours of the historic Kannally Ranch House begins at 11 a.m. every Saturday and Sunday for the drop-in public. The tour is 45-minutes in length. Alternate times and days may be added by reservation.

For reservations, please call (520) 896-2425.

Please check the Oracle State Park website for continuing updates: azstateparks.com/oracle/events.

The family of Tom Smith wants to thank everyone who came to his services and helped with flowers, money, food and cards.

Thanks to Mr. & Mrs. Frank Castro; Mr. & Mrs. Augustine Avechucu; Mr. & Mrs. Mauro Parra and Lisette; Destiny Granados; Mr. Ortega; Father Tigga; Joe Arbizio & his boys for the beautiful music at church and at the cemetery; my family for coming from out of town.

Thank you,
Artemisa Smith & Family
