APS Community Connectors host pastry bingo at the senior center

APS provides power for customers in the Globe/Miami, Top of the World, Superior, Kearny, Hayden and San Manuel. Anytime there is an issue or outage in these communities the APS Globe Service Center provides the crew who answers the call. But the employees also enjoy volunteering their time in the communities, not just when there is a problem. Last week, volunteers from APS, called 'Community Connectors', visited the Superior Senior Center and hosted a Pastry Bingo. 'We pride ourselves in giving back to the communities we serve, as well as providing reliable energy,' said Amy Byrd, a Connector with APS. EV Pentecostal Church church is led by Pastor William Luckenbaugh.

About a dozen residents of Superior call the East Valley Pentecostal Church their home church. The church does provide transportation from Superior to church services on Sundays and many provide their own transportation. Church services are held at the following times: Sunday School 3 p.m., Sunday Worship 4 p.m., Tuesday Bible Study 7 p.m. and Saturday Family Prayer 5:30 p.m.

The faith based foundation of the church comes from the second chapter of the Book of Acts from the Bible. The teachings are Biblically based. Congregation member Tiffany Rowell explained that the church is a "small down to earth church family, it is a great place for children and families." The church is a non-denominational church, their mission is being "Friendly, Up-Lifting, Life Changing".

East Valley Pentecostal Church also hosts a Summer Camp for kids and the church also gathers frequently with other Pentecostal Churches in the East Valley to allow for additional fellowship and friendships.

You can contact East Valley Pentecostal directly to learn more about attending their church, their activities or to arrange transportation: evpcinfo@gmail.com or 480-466-0497.
