Francisco 'Chico' Ernesto Miranda

Francisco "Chico" Ernesto Miranda, 56, passed away at home on May 16, 2017, in San Manuel with his sister Grace and niece Rosanna by his side.

Chico was born in San Manuel on June 12, 1960. He was raised in Mammoth.

He is survived by his brothers, Ralph Garcia and Rudy Miranda; sister, Grace Escudero, and many nieces and nephews and cousins. He goes to be in Heaven with his father, Francisco R Miranda, who he missed very very much; and with his mother Carmen M Miranda, who passed away in 1969.

Chico went to second grade in Mammoth, Arizona. He became ill and had to be withdrawn from school. He later attended the deaf and blind school in Tucson, Arizona.

He loved to tell stories. He is famous for his tall tales and many hats he liked to wear around Mammoth. He spoke fondly of many people in Mammoth who befriended him and gave him a place to hang out while his father was at work. Chico's mother passed away when he was nine and his father was left to raise him alone. Chico was proud to be part Yaqui and often spoke the language. (smiley face).

Services will be held on Saturday, June 3, 10 a.m. at Church of God, 301 E. Webb St. in San Manuel. After the ceremony there will be a get together and a potluck at the Church hall. Everyone is invited to bring a dish and stay afterwards to tell "Chico Stories". Chico will be buried at Valley View Cemetery in Mammoth on a different day.

Gale Henritz Pennington, 83, passed away from this world, of natural causes, on April 27, 2017 in Bluefield, WV.

Gale was preceded in death by his wife Margery; siblings, Carl, Ed, Walt, Garnet, and Elaine; and his grandson, Thadius. He is survived by his sons, Derek and Brian; grandchildren, Jocelyn, Bailee, Kevin and Jarakah; great-grandchildren, Joy, Jaxx, Holden, and Paislee Ray; brothers, James,

An American Hero – Patrick Gorham Jr.

By John Hernandez
Copper Area News

This past Monday, May 29, the United States celebrated Memorial Day. Traditionally, members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) and American Legion, along with their auxiliary members, use this day to clean the gravesites of our fallen military men and women. Often they will place small American Flags on the graves.

We at Copper Area News want to tell the story of one of our local boys who fell in battle and honor his memory. Lest we forget.

On October 3, 1944, the Arizona Republic reported that a “Superior Man Dies in Action”. The article said, “Staff Sergeant Patrick Gorham, Jr., 24-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Gorham, Superior, was killed in action in France August 10, according to word received from the war department by his parents.

“Sergeant Gorham, a graduate of the Superior High School with the class of 1938, was with an infantry company.

“Besides his parents, the sergeant leaves four sisters and five brothers, one of whom is with the Army Air Corps at Amarillo, Texas.

“Mr. Gorham, Sr. has been chief deputy sheriff of Pinal County 26 years.”

In August 1945 at a simple ceremony in Superior, Patrick Gorham Jr. was awarded posthumously the Silver Star which was presented to his parents. The action for which he received the Silver Star took place after Gorham, a squad leader, volunteered to lead a patrol into enemy territory, to gather information on German strength and disposition. The official citation for the medal said, “He led the patrol skillfully through the enemy lines and secured the desired information, then proceeded to return to his organization.

“The patrol was intercepted by an enemy force on the return trip, whereupon Sergeant Gorham, with utter disregard for personal safety, stood fast and fearlessly engaged the enemy force, enabling other members of the patrol to return to their lines with the vital information.

“His gallantry, zealous devotion to duty, and determination that the mission at hand be accomplished without thought of personal safety or welfare, reflect the highest credit upon Sergeant Gorham’s character as a fighting infantryman.”

Gorham earned the Silver Star only one week after being awarded a Bronze Star for rescuing a wounded scout from an exposed forward position under enemy fire. He was serving with the 320th Infantry 35th Division when he was killed near Mortain, France. The Battle of Mortain was the first counteroffensive launched by the Germans after the D-Day landings. Although surprised and outnumbered, the Americans held, although suffering severe casualties.

Patrick was buried in France. In 1948, his body was exhumed and returned to the United States, where it was shipped by train to Coolidge, Arizona from the East Coast. On Saturday July 17, 1948, a Requiem Mass was held for Sgt. Gorham at St. Francis Church in Superior. The Reverend F.M. Marine officiated. Funeral services were held on Sunday with Miami Elks Lodge Number 1410 in charge. He was buried with full military honors in the family plot in Superior on Sunday July 18, 1948.

Local high school making more technical classes available to students

San Manuel Jr./Sr. High School is excited to offer additional courses for the 2017-2018 school year as a member of the Pima Joint Technical Education District (Pima JTED). These courses are going to give students opportunities to further their employability skills with the industry certifications they achieve upon completion. By taking advantage of the Pima JTED courses, students and their families save approximately $17,000 to $20,000 (which is the approximate cost of the programs at technical schools).

Principal, Julie Dale-Scott, and Career and Technical Education (CTE) Director, Terri Simon, have worked diligently with Pima JTED to add courses to what is offered at San Manuel High School. In addition to the current CTE classes: welding, automotive technology, cabinetmaking, carpentry, and digital photography, next year they will add:

Information Technology – where students will learn the essential elements of computer systems and network design. They will gain the skills necessary to install, maintain, and repair computer systems. Students will also have the opportunity to earn CompTIA A+ Certification, a globally recognized certificate that can open doors to employment. Taking this class will help jumpstart their career in network systems administration, security, maintenance, and repair.

This is a two-year program, and although the program will be offered online, students will report to the computer lab for class. This program is open to students in grades 10, 11, 12

First Year: IT Fundamentals and Pima Community College dual credit may be available. The second year of the program students study IT Network & Security and IT Programming.

Healthcare Foundations – students in 11th grade will explore a wide range of healthcare careers, the roles and responsibilities of a healthcare team, and the importance and function of community healthcare. They will develop the professional skills and terminology required by healthcare experts through practical lab experiences including taking and charting patient vital signs, learning body mechanics, sterilization and disease prevention. Additionally students will examine how ethics, morals, cultural and personal values are upheld in medical professions. Completing this prerequisite will allow students in the 12th grade to enter Medical Assisting, Caregiver, Certified Nursing Assistant or Emergency Medical Technician programs.

Healthcare Information Technology is a two-year program. In the first year, 11th grade students will develop the technical and professional skills necessary to work with medical records, disease registries, and telehealth in a variety of healthcare settings. They will also learn to work behind the scenes in a medical environment to code, categorize and manage patient information. Students can specialize in medical front office support or medical transcription. In the second year, 12th grade students will be required to get fingerprint clearance, drug testing and a background check. In order to obtain certification, students must pass a written skills exam.

These three courses will be held in a computer lab with the work being done online, and an instructor will come to the San Manuel campus 2 to 3 times per month for labs lasting about three hours. Parents will be required to sign a commitment form stating that the student will stay after school for the three-hour lab requirement as needed. The certificates achieved from completion of these courses will further the student's ability to go directly to work after completing high school.

Scott and Simon also collaborated with Central Arizona College to bring Early Childhood Education back to the San Manuel High School campus. These courses will prepare students to work with small children, while earning college credit. These classes will be hybrid combining book work, online activities and students going to the elementary school to work with the preschool children. These classes can lead to a degree in Early Childhood Education.

SaddleBrooke Community Outreach continues to support our students, and through their generosity, next year the school will also be able to transport some students to

Former San Manuel student, teacher awarded for inspiring others to shine

Desiree Romo, a sixth grade Language Arts teacher at L.W. Cross Middle School in northwest Tucson and a former San Manuel student and teacher, received a top honor this month. She became one of 10 teachers in the U.S. to be honored for inspiring others to shine. The honor came when, after receiving multiple, heartfelt and convincing nominations from her students, Mister Car Wash selected Romo for the recognition as part of its Inspiring Futures – Teacher Appreciation program.

Selecting only 10 grand prize recipients was no easy task, according to Ciera Lopez, community relations specialist for Mister Car Wash. Lopez said the Tucson-based company received more than 1,000 nominations nationwide during a one-month nominating period. The company awarded prizes valued at $32,000 as a token of appreciation for teachers like Mrs. Romo who are making a real and lasting impact in their communities. Grand prize winners were awarded a $500 grant for their classroom plus a complimentary annual Unlimited Wash Club® pass. Mrs. Romo plans to utilize her grant to expand her classroom book collection.

An Arizona native and mother of three, Romo dreamed of being a teacher as a child. She always pretended to be the teacher when she played school with her sister. She went on to earn her Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education from Northern Arizona University and spent seven years working as a seventh and eighth grade Language Arts teacher in San Manuel, Arizona before coming to Cross Middle School in the Amphitheatre

School District of Tucson in 2015. “Ms. Romo inspires me to shine every day,” wrote one of her nominators. “When I am in her class, my imagination is like a rocket ship: it just takes off! She is kind and supportive too.” Another student fan wrote, “She isn’t an ordinary teacher even outside school and in school she teaches me about life and she is a great role model.”

“Funny, nice and amazing,” are the words chosen by another of her inspired students to describe Romo. Yet another wrote, “This teacher is always by my side when I have something up with me. I’m not afraid to tell her anything because no matter what I tell her, she will always have something encouraging to say back. She always makes me happy and knows how to put me to work when she wants me to.”

Romo sums up her personal philosophy when she writes, “As an educator, I know all children are capable of learning. Students should be treated equally yet individually. Praise, recognition, and connection are necessary to ensure students feel safe and comfortable in the classroom and school environment.”

Teachers encounter all kinds of students and not all of them are gifted at learning or language. Still, from the words of her own nominators, it is clear that Mrs. Romo’s approach works.

“Ms. Romo is one of the best teachers at my school. She is nice but stern. She lets us embrace our creativity and lets us shine,” wrote one of her students.

“I’m not very good at language arts but Ms. Romo has always helped me whenever I need it. She’s very kind and respectful. She is very fun and makes the hard parts into games so we remember them for the upcoming tests.”

“She’s there when I am down and kind

Mister Car Wash representatives present Desiree Romo her Inspiring Futures – Teacher Appreciation award at L.W. Cross Middle School on May 23, 2017. to me.”

Clearly, this Tucson language arts teacher is doing exactly the kind of exemplary job Mister Car Wash wanted to highlight through its Inspiring Futures – Teacher Appreciation campaign.

“Recognizing and celebrating exemplary teachers is by far one of the most gratifying things a CEO gets to do,” said CEO John Lai. “Hopefully every adult can look back on their childhood and point to a teacher who really made a difference in their life. That’s why it’s truly a privilege to help our customers recognize these community leaders who are playing such significant roles in young people’s lives. Not only are they educating our future leaders, they are role models for us all to draw inspiration.”

No doubt, a great many Cross Middle School students will be thanking Mrs. Romo for the rest of their lives for helping them to shine. Bravo, Mrs. Romo. Stand up and take a bow.

This is the second consecutive year that Mister Car Wash has recognized outstanding teachers in their communities. The next opportunity to nominate a teacher for this award will come around next April.

Central Arizona College recognizes graduates

After a welcome and introductions conducted by Dr. Mary Kay Gilliland, Vice President of Academic Affairs, the graduates were addressed by Judge Delia Neal.

Following Judge Neal's speech, the student speakers nominated and selected by the college community addressed their peers.

Thao Nguyen moved to Arizona from Vietnam just a few years ago and attended CAC's San Tan Campus. She began her education with English as a Second Language courses to get to know the language better and to help her adapt to her new society. During her time at CAC, Nguyen was involved with student leadership, Phi Theta Kappa, and the Honors Program. She is transferring to Arizona State University to pursue a bachelor's degree in actuarial science.

She encouraged her peers to face difficulties head on and to not give up. "If a woman like me, who doesn't speak English as my mother language, who knew nothing at the beginning, who didn't have a job, a car, and didn't even know how to drive can end up graduating from college and keep pursuing my education goals, then anyone can achieve this, if they really want to." She continued, "Today is the beginning of another journey. It will take a lot of time and effort, it will not be easy, and you may be faced with a hundred reasons to quit, but I hope you always find a reason to stay the course and complete the journey you've started. You've already proven you can."

Mekaela Walters from the Superstition Mountain Campus received multiple nominations to be one of this year's student speakers. She recently turned 17 and during the ceremony received an associate of arts and associate of science degree from CAC just weeks before obtaining her high school diploma from Apache Junction High School. During her time at CAC she was very active in campus events and throughout the community.

She was a student employee with student engagement and worked as a tutor in the learning center.

The College recognized those faculty who were nominated and chosen by students for their representation of the very best in academic stewardship and commitment to academic excellence. Faculty of the Year awards were presented to: Titia Louise King – Aravaipa Campus; Christine Cook – Maricopa Campus; Nancy Leeder – San Tan Campus; Diane Beecroft – Signal Peak Campus; and Barbara Bushelle – Superstition Mountain Campus. Additionally, Barbara Bushelle – Superstition Mountain Campus; Stacie Kyhn – Superstition Mountain Campus; Crystal McKenna – Maricopa Campus; and Tracey Powers – Signal Peak Campus were recognized with the George Fridell Excellence in Teaching Awards.

Francisco Uriarte represented the Central Arizona College Alumni and Retiree Association. He explained to graduates, "Tonight, you will receive your diploma and graduate from CAC. That does not mean that you must leave Central Arizona College behind." He concluded his congratulatory remarks by encouraging graduates to participate in the CAC Alumni Association.

Faculty senate president Ruth Butler presented the candidates to the CAC Governing Board, which conferred the degrees and certificates. The graduating students were congratulated as they crossed the stage by the CAC Governing Board as well as President Dr. Jackie Elliott.

An official list of CAC graduates will be released and published once the degrees and certificates have been confirmed. Preliminary statistics show there are 758 graduates for the 2016-2017 academic year with a total of 1,129 degrees and certificates being awarded. The oldest person to be awarded a degree or certificate this year is 71 and the youngest is 17. The number of male graduates is 292 while the number of female graduates is 462. The total number of degrees and certificates awarded by Central Arizona College in its 46 years is 23,923 given to 16,924 individuals.

Florence, Arizona Feb. 16, 1920 but spent most of his life in Superior. Following high school, Patrick went to work as a mechanic at the Magma smelter. He was also a cowboy and worked on some of the local ranches. His brother, Jack

Gorham, said that Patrick used to carry a photograph of his horse in his wallet. He joined the Army on Feb. 2, 1942, two months after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. One of the ranchers who Patrick worked for, Manuel Ruiz Sr. had a premonition and told some of his family members that he knew Patrick was never going to come back. He said, "That boy isn't afraid of anything."

On this Memorial Day, we honor those men and women who gave their lives to protect our country. Let us give thanks and pay tribute to these brave souls.

"It is foolish and wrong to mourn the men who died. Rather we should thank God that such men lived." – General George S. Patton

Your drinking water complies with the United States Environmental Protection Agency's ("USEPA") safe drinking water standard for arsenic, though it contains low levels of arsenic. USEPA's safe drinking water standard balances the current understanding of arsenic's possible health effects against the costs of removing arsenic from drinking water. USEPA continues to research the health effects of low levels of arsenic, which is a mineral known to cause cancer in humans at high concentrations and is linked to other health effects such as skin damage and circulatory problems.

Public Notice

Note: In addition to the constituents listed in this report, Arizona Water Company and ADEQ conducted monitoring for over 90 additional constituents and the results show none of those constituents were detected in the water. Data presented are from the most recent testing done in accordance with applicable regulations. Some constituents are monitored less frequently than once a year because either their concentrations do not change frequently or they are not likely to be detected. Therefore, some of the water quality testing data contained herein, although representative, may be more than one year old. If you have questions about this water quality report, please contact Regina Lynde, Environmental Compliance Manager, Arizona Water Company, P. O. Box 29006, Phoenix, Arizona 85038-9006; telephone (602) 240-6860 or email mail@azwater.com.

In 2003, ADEQ completed a Source Water Assessment of the water sources used by Arizona Water Company's Oracle water system. ADEQ reviewed the adjacent land uses that may pose a potential risk to the water sources. The result of the Assessment was a low risk to the water sources.

The complete Assessment is available for inspection at ADEQ, 1110 West Washington Street, Phoenix, Arizona 85007, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Electronic copies are available from ADEQ at dml@azdeq.gov. For more information, visit ADEQ's Source Water Assessment and Protection Unit website at: www.azdeq.gov/enviro/water/dw/swap.html.

The USEPA and ADEQ require Arizona Water Company to provide the following information:

Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some constituents. The presence of constituents does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about constituents and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the USEPA's Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

Some people may be more vulnerable to constituents in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. USEPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbial constituents are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

The sources of drinking water (both tap water and bottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally-occurring minerals and, in some cases, radiological material, and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity.

Constituents that may be present in source water include:

- Microbials, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage treatment plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock operations, and wildlife.
- Inorganics, such as salts and metals, which can be naturally-occurring or result from urban stormwater runoff, industrial or domestic wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining, or farming.
- Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture, urban stormwater runoff, and residential uses.
- Organics, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, which are byproducts of industrial processes and petroleum production. They can also come from gas stations, urban stormwater runoff, and septic systems.
- Radiological material, which can be naturally-occurring or be the result of oil and gas production and mining activities.

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, USEPA prescribes regulations which limit the amount of certain constituents in water provided by public water systems. FDA regulations establish limits for constituents in bottled water which must provide the same protection for public health.

If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing. Arizona Water Company is responsible for providing high quality drinking water, but cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods, and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the USEPA's Safe Drinking Water Hotline or at <http://www.epa.gov/lead>.

- MCLG = Maximum Contaminant Level Goal, the level of a constituent in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.
- MRDL = Maximum Residual Disinfection Level, the highest level of a drinking water disinfectant that is allowed in drinking water
- MRDLG = Maximum Residual Disinfection Level Goal, the level of a drinking water disinfectant below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLGs do not reflect the benefits of the use of disinfectants to control microbial constituents.
