SR 77 restrictions scheduled to continue until June

With blasting and daily closures finished along SR 77 between Globe and Winkelman, the roadway will be reduced to one lane each weekday through early June as crews complete a project to remove overhanging rock, according to the Arizona Department of Transportation.

A pilot vehicle will guide motorists through the work zone between mileposts 154 and 161, about 15 miles south of Globe, between 6 a.m. and 6 p.m. Mondays through Fridays until Friday, June 2. Drivers should plan for delays of up to 20 minutes.

Wrapping up a $3.6 million project to reduce the risk of rocks tumbling onto the highway, crews will be paving and installing guardrails and signage.

Drivers should proceed through the work zone with caution, slow down and watch for construction personnel and equipment. ADOT works to inform the public about planned highway restrictions and closures, but it's possible that unscheduled impacts might occur because of weather or other factors. For the most current information about highway conditions statewide, visit ADOT's Traveler Information Site at www.az511.gov, follow

ADOT on Twitter (@ArizonaDOT) or call 511, except while driving.

For more information, please call the ADOT Project Information Line at 855.712.8530 or email Projects@azdot.gov.

Fire destroys home in Rancho San Manuel

According to the Pinal County Sheriff's Office, their dispatch received a report of a fire in the Rancho San Manuel Mobile Home Park at 8:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 27, 2017. San Manuel Fire Department was also dispatched.

A trailer in the 400 block of S. Tierra Verde Pl. was found to be fully engulfed and a second nearby trailer was also on fire.

PCSO's Public Information Officer Navideh Forghani said that a family member told deputies that she was frying chicken, walked away and came back to find that a grease fire had caught the cabinets on fire.

Firefighters battle a two-trailer fire in Rancho San Manuel.

No injuries were reported, but the family's three pets perished in the fire.

"San Man Fire did an outstanding job preserving neighboring residence from catching fire," Forghani told the Miner in an email. "We were able to get others evacuated. Red Cross arrived to assist family."

San Manuel Fire Chief John Stanford reported that there was nothing suspicious about the origin of the fire.

Not much remains in the wake of a fire on S. Tierra Verde Pl. in San Manuel.

After serving as an Animal Ambassador for Animal Care and Control, Dolly is back home

FLORENCE, AZ -- After a rough start when she arrived at Pinal County Animal Care and Control, a pit bull named 'Dolly' soon became a favorite for the shelter.

"She was picked up by one of our officers as a stray and very pregnant," Animal Care and Control Director Audra Michael explained. "Through the stress of everything she was going through she ended up losing the puppies and became very depressed."

The staff became concerned and brought the tan pit bull to the administrative office to keep an eye on her. Before too long, Dolly had found a role as Pinal County's Animal Ambassador.

"She just loved everyone," Michael said. "She was easy to care for, kennel trained and house broken. She just really stood out from many of the other dogs that came through our door."

Before long, Dolly became the face of pit bulls and of the Animal Care and Control Shelter.

"We ended up taking her to most of our meetings with the public, stated Michael. "She walked with us in Casa Grande's Electric Light Parade. I took her to the Women's Correctional Center and to events at schools to teach kids about the breed. She just ate up the attention she was given."

Two weeks ago, a couple spotted a picture of Dolly on the Animal Care and Control Facebook page. It looked very similar to a dog they lost two years ago.

"When we first got the call, we were skeptical," Michael said. "It is rare, extremely rare that someone would say 'hey, that's my dog' after losing it two years ago."

The couple came into Animal Care and Control's shelter on Eleven Mile Corner Road. After comparing photos the couple had of the pit bull, there was no doubt Dolly was indeed their dog named 'Tilt.'

"All of us were stunned," Michael said. "The couple had tears in their eyes. There was a very long pause. We had to ask them what they wanted to do with the dog."

The couple decided to pick up Dolly/Tilt, but on a trial basis considering they had another dog at home. After one week, the couple said both of the dogs got along and things were working out.

"She had become a huge part of the Pinal County family, there wasn't a dry eye in the place when she left," Michael said. "We have lost our ambassador and a great education dog, but we are happy she has her family back."

ADOT crews now can clear travel lanes of minor wrecks; helping with quick clearance promotes safety, reduces congestion

PHOENIX – With a goal of keeping drivers and first responders safe and traffic flowing, Arizona Department of Transportation personnel are now authorized to clear or order removal of vehicles that are involved in minor crashes.

When incidents occur, ADOT coordinates with Arizona State Troopers to set up traffic control, close highways and, when necessary, arrange hazardous materials cleanup. When ADOT personnel arrive before State Troopers at the scene of a minor crash or when State Troopers ask them to do so, a new agency policy empowers them to take action to clear travel lanes.

“Quickly clearing hazards is a proven way to make everyone safer, including State Troopers, ADOT personnel and others responding,” said Brent Cain, ADOT’s director of Transportation Systems

Management & Operations. “Having ADOT’s highly trained crews take action when appropriate to keep traffic moving promotes safety and reduces congestion.”

The change stems from best practices in Traffic Incident Management (TIM) strategies, including the principle of Quick Clearance.

Getting vehicles that are involved in minor crashes out of travel lanes quickly makes the roadway safer for other vehicles and emergency responders, reduces the chance of secondary crashes when traffic approaches the incident and minimizes overall traffic congestion.

State law requires drivers involved in minor crashes that don’t involve injuries to get their vehicles out of travel lanes as soon as it’s safe to do so.

State Troopers must authorize removal of vehicles involved in crashes that result in serious injuries or deaths.

San Manuel Jr. High win CJHL softball championship

By Andrew Luberda
San Manuel Miner

The San Manuel Jr. High softball team avenged a loss earlier this season against Oracle by defeating the Cougars 14 – 2 in the championship game to win the Central Junior High League Softball

Championship on Apr. 22 in Miami. “Every girl worked hard and together to win the championship,” San Manuel head coach Evette Romero told the Miner. “The girls became leaders and hopefully younger girls will emulate our girls. When you set high standards, players will rise to them and surpass them.”

And that’s exactly what the Jr. Lady Miners did this season.

Congratulations to Head Coach Romero and assistant coaches Kevin Waddell, Ernie Ivy, Serapio Rodriguez, Ray Barney, team mom Greta Zazueta, and all the players, which include Alyssa Aldrete, Star Chavez, Yazzie Clayton, Daniella Contreras, Aime Diaz, Aubrey Encinas, Alicia Galarza, Myleaha Gallego, Hannah Holley, Adriana and Priscilla Ivy, Nicolette Porras, Kirsten Renteria, Paris Renteria-Pro, Julia Rodriguez, Thalia Tamayo, Alysea Valdez, Larissa Valenzuela, Jazmyne Waddell, and Victoria Zazueta.

Two young ladies who grew up in Mammoth and graduated from San Manuel High School have recently had an experience of a lifetime. The two sisters, Debbie Limon Martinez and Marcela (Limon) Salinas got to travel to Atlanta, Georgia and appear on the television game show, Family Feud, hosted by Steve Harvey. Their other family members were Marcela's husband Rogelio Salinas and cousins Victor and Julian "Junior" Olivares. They were Team Olivares on the show.

It all started on Christmas Eve 2015, when Marcela said she stumbled across a Family Feud audition, shared post on her Facebook news feed.

"Without hesitating I knew our family had to be the ones to try out!" Marcela said she had a vision and began "envisioning which family members would be part of this exciting journey."

On Christmas day, Marcela presented the idea to her family members. She was "in complete awe" when they supported the idea and said they were willing to take on the adventure.

"I felt extremely grateful that my family members trusted me and supported the idea regardless of the challenge ahead," said Marcela.

Team Olivares made an impromptu video that day and sent it off to Family Feud. Marcela was contacted later with a date and time for their audition in Phoenix. When told the news, her family members became even more excited.

On audition day with a room full of contestants, they played a quick game of Family Feud while being recorded. This was done to see how the family would react to being on camera without any preparation or knowing what to expect. When the audition was over, they were "discretely" invited to another room where they were interviewed on camera by Family Feud's executive producer.

Marcela said of the audition: "Talk about a rush, but our adventure did not end there...little did we know that this day was just the start to our unforgettable experience!"

The audition it turned out, was only an attempt to be considered for the Family Feud "filing system". The family was told that they would be notified by postcard in approximately three weeks, if they were placed in the filing system. Exactly two weeks and six days later, Marcela as the family spokesperson, received a card notifying them, that they made the filing list. Months later, Marcela was contacted and provided with a list of 50 air dates in 2016 for the show. "Our family knew this experience was about to get real!" The family all quickly checked their calendars and sent back a list of 20 dates that they would all be available.

They received confirmation that they would be filming one of the last episodes in August. The family "packed their bags" and flew to Atlanta courtesy of the Family Feud. Family feud paid for the flight, transportation in town and put them up in a hotel for three days. Their challenge was not over. They still had to try out along with other contestants that had been flown in potentially to be on the show. They found out that some families had been there for a few days and had not been selected to film. The Olivares Family remained confident, after all Marcela had a vision about this.

Toward the end of their first day after most of the families had left, they were told that they would be the last family to film the show for the day. "Feeling lucky and fortunate, we filmed our first game the very first day we arrived," said Marcela. Unfortunately, for the rest of the story you will have to watch Family Feud on Thursday, May 18, at 7 p.m. on KAZT Phoenix, Channel 7. The Olivares Family will be on that evening.

"if you know our family, you know you will be in for a great laugh," Marcela said. "Steve Harvey is a funny and respected man. You can tell he makes the show. He tries really hard to relate to you. He's really funny! We shared a little with him about our culture and he was amazed. You will have to watch!"

Debbie Limon Martinez said of her participation: "Family Feud was such an amazing experience! We were able to go as a family and be flown to Atlanta, Georgia, together. We had the opportunity to meet Steve Harvey and have fun as a family. It was a trip of a lifetime. It's a story of fun to pass on to our children."

Marcela wanted to add that "Overall. This experience was a prime example of how anything you put your mind to is achievable. If I can demonstrate to anyone, it would be to always believe in themselves and your family!"

Congratulations to the Olivares Family! We will be watching and rooting for you.
