LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Random acts of kindness

Thanks to the generosity of Jenny and Bill Holmquist, who now own Porter's Cafe, four local non-profits now have several hundred dollars more in their bank accounts.

After purchasing the very popular restaurant they decided to do some remodeling which included removing the dollar bills that adorned the walls. They could have kept the money that was rightfully theirs but decided to divvy it up among Superior non profits that they put into a random drawing.

Their kindness and unselfishness will go a long way to support the Superior Head Start, Superior Optimist Club, Little League and the Chamber of Commerce. Many thanks to both of you.

Putting a superhero look on Superior Superhero Stuff

By Cat Brown
Superior Sun

The store front window of Superior Superhero stuff got a makeover last week when Superior Resident and Artist Dora Lopez decorated the window with super hero symbols. The store is getting ready for May 6, Free Comic Book Day. The comic book store is one of thousands across the country that is participating in the event, and during the event, over six million comic books will be given away to fans.

Laura Rivas, Manager of Superior Superhero Stuff says, "Free Comic Book Day is a great event for the whole community. Bringing everyone together. Comics are a fun and enduring form of entertainment for readers of all ages to dive into as imagination comes to life. Whether it be popular comics, film, television shows, or video games, there's something for everyone to enjoy."

Laura feels passionate about comics and super heroes.

"Sharing our passion for comics is incredible," she said. "This is the first-year Superior Superhero Stuff celebrates FCBD."

The Store has titles ranging from Doctor Who to Wonder Woman and Laura wants to encourage everyone to stop by the store May 6 to collect your free comic book.

Free Comic Book Day kicks off at 11 a.m. and runs until 7 p.m. or until they are out of the free comics at Superior Superhero Stuff. The store is located at 161 W. Main Street. Call (520) 827-9190, visit or follow Superior Superhero Stuff on Facebook for more information.

SHS students earn scholarships and academic awards

The 2016-17 school year once again zipped by for parents, students and faculty at Superior High School. As the month of April came to a close, the school hosted the annual Honors Assembly where almost $65,000 in scholarships were awarded to the class of 2017 along with many other academic and classroom awards. In recent years, the scholarship award totals were much higher however, due to recent changes, the Central Arizona College Promise for the Future tuition program is no longer counted as a scholarship and several other larger scholarship funds such as the Resolution Copper Scholarships and a few others have announced that they will award their scholarships outside of the ceremony due to various scheduling factors this year.

Kassandra Baltierra was awarded the Family Career Community Leaders of America scholarship. She competed amongst 1000s of applicants for the statewide scholarship. The Social Club de Damas awarded two scholarships one in memory of Richard Castaneda, recipients were Danielle Lopez and Jesse Lopez.

The Superior Rotary Club awarded $500 scholarships to Danielle Lopez and Alexandria Hernandez. The Superior Optimist Club awarded two $500 scholarships in memory of three members who have passed, Cindy Benson, Billy Preciado and Richard Castaneda. The scholarships were awarded to Steven Denogean and Alexandria Hernandez.

The Lopez-Gomez Scholarship was awarded to Steven Denogean, Alexandria Hernandez, Austin Navarrette and Jalon Murray.

Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center Auxiliary awarded two scholarships to students pursuing a career in healthcare to Maribel Castro and Kassandra Baltierra. Pinal County Federal Credit Union awarded a scholarship to Steven Denogean. Denogean was also presented with the Patsy Madaleno Award.

Central Arizona College awarded academic scholarships to Allison Martinez and Dominic Perea. Martinez and Perea are the Valedictorian and Salutatorian for the Class of 2017.

Many local students will qualify for the Promise of the Future program but it is no longer considered a scholarship. The very popular program was in jeopardy of being cancelled if different financial controls were not put into place. Starting this year the Promise for the Future award will be given to the qualifying student only after all Pell Grant funds are used.

Cesar Chavez Awards were given to Kassandra Baltierra, Maribel Castro, Alexandria Hernandez, Danielle Lopez, Allison Martinez, Jalon Murray and Edgar Pacheco. The Woodman Life program awarded scholarships to Eleanna Ybarra, Austin Navarrette, Joseph Diaz-Gonzalez and Steven Denogean.

Manuel and Sandra Silvas gave their "Needs Award" to Yasmine Rangel-Velasquez. Their award program is different than a scholarship as they ask the students to write them a letter explaining why they have a financial need for their post high school career. The funds can be used for trade schools, university, community college or maybe start up career costs. The family of David Montano gave scholarships to Maribel Castro, Alexandria Hernandez and Yasmin Rangel Velasquez in his memory. David was a 2006 graduate of Superior High School and passed away in a car accident. His family and friends keeps his memory alive through the scholarships.

Ashley Lira was awarded the Woodman of the World History Award. Maribel Castro and Nicolaus Cruz were awarded the Babe Ruth Sportsmanship Award.

The school also recognized all of the Student Council Officers, Class Presidents, National Honor Society recipients and other classroom awards during the ceremony. Those earning honor roll were also given certificates.

The Woodman Life program awarded scholarships to Eleanna Ybarra, Austin Navarrette, Joseph Diaz-Gonzalez and Steven Denogean.

U.S. Forest Service meets with Superior Community Working Group on May 10

Superior - The next meeting of the Town of Superior Community Working Group (CWG) will be held Wednesday, May 10 at 6 p.m. in the Superior Chamber of Commerce meeting room. The group will hear a presentation by Tonto National Forest staff about the range of issues and concerns expressed by the public during the 'scoping' process for the Resolution Copper Project Environmental Impact Statement. The Forest Service will discuss how these results will be used to help guide the environmental studies.

The CWG includes residents and stakeholders from the Town of Superior, Queen Valley, Hewitt Station, Globe, the San Carlos Community and around the area. The group deals with the social and environmental issues, science and policy, and the pros and cons of the proposed Resolution Copper Project.

Topics include environmental impacts, health, safety, natural resource issues, engineering, water quantity and quality, geology, economics, air quality, community investments, recreational changes and other related subjects.

Meetings are held at the Superior Chamber of Commerce, 165 West Main in Superior from 6: p.m. to 8 p.m., most often on the second Wednesday of each month. The public is welcome to attend and time is reserved on the agenda for everyone's comments, questions, and discussion.

More information about the CWG as well as agendas, meeting summaries, and past presentations are available for public review at the Superior Chamber of Commerce offices and at the Superior Public Library at 99 North Kellner Avenue, as well as online at SuperiorAZCWG.org/.
