LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Mayor, two others no show for council meeting again

Thursday night, the Superior Town Council held an important meeting to set the Home Rule election so that the town could continue its funding. The Home Rule is a confusing circumstance but the gist of it is, if a special election is not held confirming Home Rule, then the State steps in and says only a percentage of the money the town has brought in for that year can be used to pay the bills. If Home Rule is not passed (there is no tax involved for the Townspeople), then the Town doesn't have the capability to pay for Police or Fire Services or even the sewer plant that is important to every single citizen of Superior! So a quorum of at least four members was needed at Thursday night's meeting to get the Home Rule Election scheduled, and once again Mayor Valenzuela, Councilman Tameron and Councilman Aguilar were absent. Fortunately, the other three council members and Vice Mayor Lopez showed up and got the election scheduled.

Mayor Valenzuela, Councilmen Tameron and Aguilar also did not show up to the regular Town Council meeting two weeks ago, April 14. It might have been because the Recall Petitions for the Mayor had just been presented to the Town on the 11th. I can understand being upset that things are not going your way. But deciding to stay away from vital town business when the whole town economy could implode says that these three men don't care about our town at all! There are smarter ways to let the public know you are displeased with the way things are going than putting the town in jeopardy.

If they have a better reason for their absence from Town Government, I, for one, would be really glad to hear what it is!

Roadside memorial crosses removed by ADOT

Governor Doug Ducey's Administration and the Arizona Department of Transportation have commenced removing memorial crosses and religious markers from the side of State Highways. This removal started two weeks ago along State Route 177 and East of Superior on US 60. No notification either personally or via local newspaper was provided to families of the loved ones who were killed at those sites.

Most families of the deceased consider these memorial sites sacred and holy. When folks questioned ADOT they were notified that they could pick up the crosses and other religious items at the maintenance yard in Globe. When family members went to claim religious items, many of the figurines were found broken and many crosses were missing.

ADOT and Governor Ducey ARE within their legal rights to remove all un-permitted objects from State Right of Way. The issue is that highway deaths have been marked by memorial crosses for almost a hundred years. These crosses also serve as a notice to other drivers to be more cautious while driving. Why is the Ducey administration having them removed now?

The Governor's executive staff has indicated that they will be removing memorial crosses from all rural state highways. Most of our rural highways are in extremely bad condition, seems to me that highway crew's time could be better utilized repairing our roadways versus desecrating sacred ground.

If you desire to express your opinion to Governor Ducey, he can be reached at 602-542-4331 or write to Gov. Ducey at 1700 W. Washington, Phoenix, AZ 85007.

Superior softball's Fab Five honored on Senior Day

By Andrew Luberd
Superior Sun

The Superior softball team's own version of the "Fab Five" was honored last Wednesday before playing the final home game of their high school careers. Gabby Salcido, Pinky Thomas, Keanna Torres, Ivie Lopez, and Ariana San Miguel helped take the Lady Panthers' softball program from worst-to-first since their arrival on campus four years ago.

"These seniors that we have, they've been big since they were freshmen," Superior head coach Martin Navarrette said. "They came up playing club ball and brought it over to the high-school level."

"They've been outstanding," he added. "It's going to be a big loss to have these girls graduate and move on to college."

The "Fab Five" originated as the nickname for the 1991 University of Michigan men's basketball team recruiting class that is considered by many to be "the greatest class ever recruited."

But the Wolverines never won a National Championship with their "Fab Five." The Lady Panthers own one state title and are the odds-on favorite to win their second-straight Division V State Championship.

"I didn't even know how we were even going to go to the championship game because we started from the bottom," Salcido said after last Wednesday game versus Ray. "But we (did). I love my team, I love my girls, and I wish I (wasn't) going to leave, but I'm excited for the future."

Salcido's future includes continuing her softball career after accepting a scholarship offer from Paradise Valley CC. The Lady Panthers' future figures to benefit from the legacy left behind by their version of the "Fab Five."

"I think they set the bar high," Navarrette said about the five graduating seniors. "I think all the younger girls – little league and junior high – see the expectation and it should drive them to improve and get better."

Lady Cats hold off defending champs; win section title

By Andrew Luberd
Copper Area News

The then third-ranked Ray softball team entered last Wednesday's regular season finale against then top-ranked and defending State Champion Superior with a chance to win the Section V Championship.

In similar big games during previous seasons, the Lady Cats have been on the short-end of these types of games, but this year has been different as evidenced by their 7 – 5 victory that made them the Section V Champions and the eventual No. 1-seed in the Division V State Playoffs.

"We played as a team and that's how we won," Ray head coach Rikki Galka said after the game. "We needed this win. We needed this win against this team. It's been a head-game for us since last year."

Player of the Year candidate Stormee Galka pitched six-and-a-third innings, allowing only one run during the first six. But in the seventh inning, the Lady Panthers touched up the Maryville University commit for four runs, leaving a feeling that another heartbreaking loss in a big game was forthcoming.

Rikki new her star player, and daughter, was tiring so she made the pitching change, calling for freshman phenom

Daniella Hinojos to close out the win.

"We needed this win," Stormee answered when asked what it was like to finally break through after several disappointing losses in similar situations. "I know it helps build confidence in our team whenever we beat a team like this because whenever we lose and go into games like this our confidence is low."

Ray jumped out to an early lead by scoring four runs in the third inning off Superior ace Ivie Lopez. The Lady Cats extended their lead in the fifth after Ema Alverado's squeeze bunt scored Janae Ruiz.

Superior answered with a run on an RBI-single by Salcido in its half of the fifth, before Ray scored two more runs to make 7 – 1 in the sixth.

Ray held a 7 – 5 lead in the Superior seventh with the bases full of Lady Panthers' runners and only one out. Superior's next hitter flied out right and the runner at third tried to tag up but was thrown out at the plate to complete the game-ending double play.

The loss ended Superior's 15-section game winning streak that dated back to last season.

"This was a good test for us, being down like that," Superior head coach Martin Navarrette said. "It showed what kind of heart our girls (have). I think that's going to be very important going into the playoffs this year."

These two teams are the class of the division and are favorites to meet for the Division V Championship later this month.

Ray won this battle, but the war is not

"Last year we went in as the No.5 seed," Navarrette said. "We went through the best teams and we had the toughest road (to the championship). So we've done it once (and) I don't see any reason why we can't do it again."

Copper Area Baseball & Softball Playoffs Results

By Andrew Luberd
Copper Area News

As the regular season comes to a close, many of our local teams have achieved playoff berths. Below are the results of the first few rounds of playoffs.

RAY

Softball – The top-seeded Lady Cats made quick work of No. 17-seed San Tan Foothills in a second-round playoff game last Saturday, defeating the Sabercats 17 – 0 to advance to the quarterfinals. Ray scored 12 runs in the second to remove any doubt early. Savannah Willis hit one of the Lady Cats' five doubles in the game and drove in four runs. Stormee Galka went 4-for-4 with three RBI and combined with Daniella Hinojos to pitch four scoreless innings of two-hit softball versus the Sabercats. Ray will face No. 8 Pima at the Rose Mofford Softball Complex on Friday, May 6 at 5 p.m.

Baseball – Senior John Wernett went 3-for-4 with three RBI in the No. 9-seeded Bearcats' 11 – 7 victory against No. 24 Tombstone in the first-round of the Division V playoffs. Noah Warren hit a seventh-inning three-run triple to lead the Cats to a come-from-behind 8 – 6 win in the second round against No. 8 Williams. Next up is No. 1-seed Bagdad at Tempe Diablo on Friday, May 6 at 6 p.m.

SUPERIOR

Baseball – Edgar Galindo hit two triple and drove in five runs to lead the No. 7-seeded Panthers to an 11 – 8 win against No. 10 Valley Union in the first round of the Division V playoffs. Jesse Lopez had a hit and three RBI in the victory. The Panthers will take on No. 2 Pima at Tempe Diablo on Friday, May 6 at 6 p.m.

Softball – The defending champions started their quest for back-to-back titles with a 13 – 3 second round win against No. 19 Ganado last Saturday at the Rose Mofford Softball Complex. The No. 3 Lady Panthers will take on No. 6 Joseph City in the quarterfinals at Rose Mofford on Friday, May 6 at 7 p.m.

SAN MANUEL

Softball – The No. 3-seeded Lady Miners blew a three-run lead in last Saturday's Division IV second-round playoff game when No. 19 Pusch Ridge scored three seventh-inning runs to tie the game, 8 – 8. But San Manuel had a final at bat and took advantage of it. With two outs, Angela Navarro reached base on an error. Lyana Waddell, who had already hit two homeruns in the game, followed and was intentionally walked ahead of Dionne Ruiz. Ruiz hit a fly ball to right field, but the Pusch Ridge fielder misjudged it, allowing the ball to drop safely and Navarro to score the game-winning run. San Manuel will play No. 11 Morenci in the quarterfinal at the Rose Mofford Softball Complex on Friday, May 6 at 5 p.m.

HAYDEN

Softball – The No. 5-seeded Lady Lobos advanced to the quarterfinals of the Division V playoffs after a 17 – 8 win against No. 12 Mayer. The Lady Lobos will next play No. 4 Valley Union at the Rose Mofford Softball Complex on Friday, May 6 at 5 p.m.

Jr. Panthers win CJHL baseball championship

By Andrew Luberda
Superior Sun

The Superior Jr. Panthers' baseball team held off a last-inning rally by previously undefeated Ray to win the Central Junior High League Championship on Apr. 23 in Miami, 6 - 5. The Jr. Panthers entered the last inning with a 6 - 3 lead before Ray answered with two runs and a chance for more, but Superior ended the game on a fly ball to right field. "I enjoyed seeing this team grow from the beginning of the season," Superior head coach Joseph Navarro said. "It was a good group of kids and they stuck to it."

Ironically, it was after a loss to Ray in the regular season that was the turning point, according to Navarro.

The Jr. Panthers run-ruled their next opponent in game Navarro thought could make-or-break his team's season.

"They just kept it going," Navarro said about his team after it bounced back from the loss to Ray. "They steamrolled into the playoffs."

Indeed they did and beyond.

All the way to the CJHL Championship. Congratulations, Jr. Panthers' players and coaches.

Day Star Studio

Art is in the eye of the beholder; it shapes our lives and we don't even know it. Maybe it is a color that inspires creativity, a song or a life experience. Somehow, somehow everyone is affected by art or their surroundings. That is the story of Marilee Lasch, owner of Day Star Studio located at 200 N. Magma Ave. Her three story castle is chock full of art created by her and other artists, a chance to tour the home can be a real treat.

What brought you to Superior: Marilee Lasch found Superior after visiting the Boyce Thompson Arboretum. Her brother Sam Lowe had written a story about the Arboretum and she came with a friend to visit. She had been finding much enjoyment by visiting Sedona and Jerome and had been looking for an artist community to retire in. When she saw Superior sitting in a "bowl" between Apache Leap and Picket Post mountains, "my heart (leaped) up," she explained. That was when she decided she found the place she wanted to live. She came into town and visited with then resident Dr. Webber and asked if he knew about any houses for sale. Bill Still, a friend of Dr. Webber, said he had a house for sale, so she walked up Magma and saw this castle like house and decided to give Mr. Still an earnest deposit to buy the home and the rest is history. "I live in Superior, because it is superior," she says.

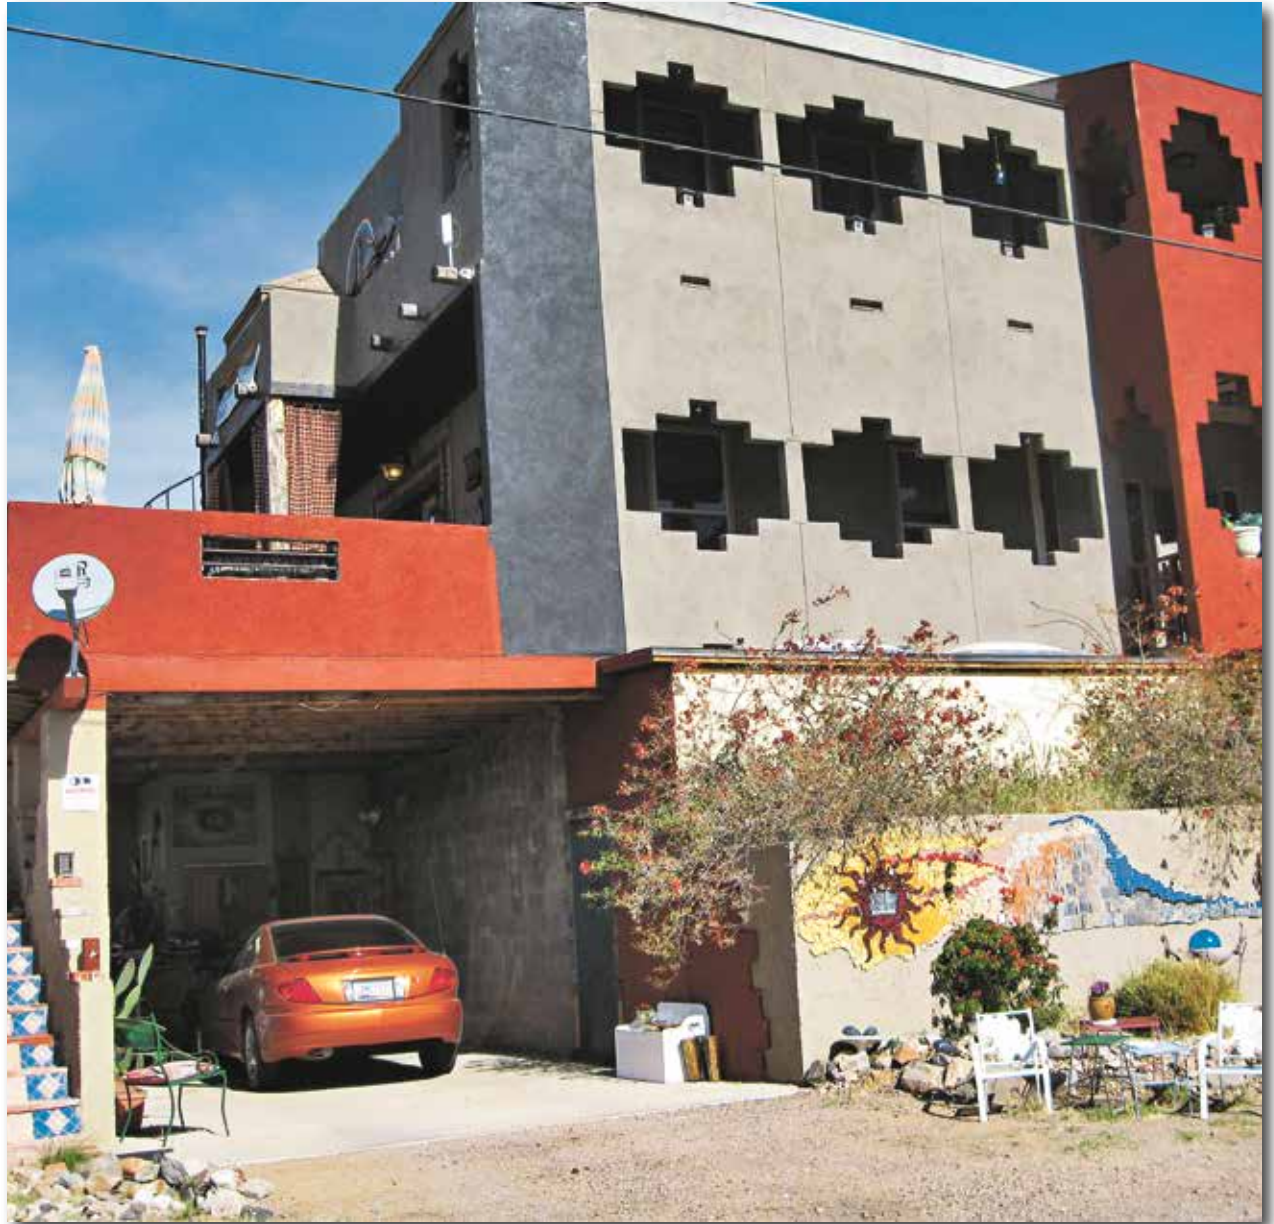

What is Day Star Studio: Marilee set out to make her home a reflection of her art, a labyrinth is part of her outdoor landscaping it is a place to reflect and let go of your burdens. Sitting areas throughout her home and yard provide spots to visit with friends and enjoy the scenery of Superior. Most of the art work and interior design have been designed by her and local craftsmen have helped with completing many of the projects at her home.

At first Marilee was hoping to have her first floor of her home be a gallery and store but town zoning requirements would not allow her to have that kind of enterprise in her home. New zoning came into affect two years ago which allows her to host private events in her home, teach art lessons and host boutique sales. Her annual holiday boutique is hosted the first weekend in December each year and features her art work along with other artisans from Superior and the surrounding areas.

Marilee teaches beginning art classes using the "Artist's Way" curriculum which is a great way for everyone to discover their individual artistic talents. She also teaches mosaic tile classes and will also have beginning beading classes in her schedule soon.

Marilee's home was featured on the "Arizona Highways" television show several years ago, she often has visitors come to tour her home. Her home is often on the Superior Chamber of Commerce Home Tour and private tours can be arranged in advance.

Marilee's art is available for purchase at local stores including the SunFlour Market, Wild Cow Gallery, Sole to Soul Awakenings and also at the Cobre Valley Center for the Arts in Globe.

Advice for future and fellow entrepreneurs and artists: "Dream but stay in the moment, take it one step at a time," she explained. Marilee shared how when she first moved to Superior she thought changes would come so fast, but she found that doing what you can in the moment in being patient will bring the changes you need to move forward.
