LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Abandoned rooster?

Well, this takes the cake.

On Saturday, May 28, a person stopped his station wagon on Fifth Ave. near the cross street, walked around to passenger's side, took out something and threw it into the bushes.

My husband yelled, "This is not a dump. Pick up what you tossed."

The man yelled back, "I can't take it any more," then drove off.

We watched what came out of the bush. To our surprise was a lovely Bantie rooster. This was Memorial weekend and nothing was open. We called a friend; she called a neighbor. Within an hour he came with a helper, caught the little rooster and took it home.

Shame, shame on you, for just tossing him. No food. No water.

Karma always comes back.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Three Oracle residents honored for saving a life

Oracle Fighter Rocky Ortiz along with brother Zachary and RN Rebecca were off-duty from their career jobs and each were busy working out at a health and fitness gym last December, when George collapsed while exercising on a treadmill. After moving George to a clear area, Rocky quickly began performing CPR while Zach went to find an AED unit.

CPR along with defibrillation can provide one of the best chances of survival for victims of sudden cardiac arrest. Fortunately for George, a well trained group of total strangers knew exactly what to do and they quickly and efficiently put their training and skills to work. George was transported to a nearby hospital emergency room, and what could have been a very tragic event, ended up having a happy ending.

George and his lifesaving group are no longer strangers and a new friendship has been formed. Meeting George along with his wife, and seeing the tremendous gratitude they both have toward Rocky, Zachary and Rebecca was a very heartwarming experience.

The three lifesaving heroes were recognized in Phoenix on June 10 by Arizona Emergency Medical Services (AEMS). Each were presented with a Heart to Heart Award. Approximately 300 people attended the event.

PCSO Chaplain James Stephens awarded the '2016 Chaplain of the Year' by the National Sheriffs' Association

The National Sheriffs' Association (NSA) is one of the leading public safety organization in the country. The NSA represents almost 3,100 elected sheriffs and has a total membership of over 20,000 law enforcement professionals.

Recently, the NSA has named Pinal County Sheriff's Chaplain James "Jim" Stephens as its "2016 Chaplain of the Year." At a formal ceremony held at the Pinal County Sheriff's Office, Chaplain Stephens was presented with the award by Sheriff Paul Babeu.

Sheriff Babeu stated, "Chaplain Jim Stephens never expected recognition and certainly not this national award since he's always helped others out of love for his fellow man. Jim's always there to listen, offer encouragement and prayer when we need it most. Jim's been a gift from God to support our staff and help us care for those we meet on emergency calls who need spiritual support. We are all so proud of this national recognition for Jim."

Chaplain Stephens stated, "I am honored and humbled to receive this award. I want to thank Sheriff Paul for nominating me for this prestigious recognition. It is a privilege to serve PCSO and this county and I look forward to finding new and better ways to serve."

Chaplain Stephens became a volunteer member of the Pinal County Sheriff's Office, Victim's Services Unit in 2008.

The Pinal County Sheriff's Office Victim Services Unit is a civilian group of staff and volunteers created to assist victims of crime and support law enforcement. Victim's service chaplains are on call to provide aid, comfort, assistance and resources to victims, witnesses and survivors of crime. The unit consists of six volunteer chaplains from various religious backgrounds, who respond to calls when needed.

Chaplain Stephens has a 20-year background in law enforcement. Prior to volunteering for PCSO, he spent many years as a department chaplain for a small Arizona police agency. He draws on his extensive law enforcement background to connect with deputies that may be having trouble coping with stressful or traumatic incidents. He finds comfort is providing faith-based counseling to law enforcement officers and crime victims alike.

Chaplain Stephens keeps busy outside of his chaplain service to PCSO by volunteering for his church and works for the elderly as the County's Triad Coordinator. Triad is a nationwide concept supported by the NSA for organizing community resources to help provide a safer environment for older adults. The group is made up of community representatives who implement programs and activities to help the county's elderly. He is serving as coordinator for the Oracle

Pinal County Sheriff Paul Babeu, PCSO Chaplain Jim Stephens and his wife Karen, and PCSO Chief Deputy Steve Henry.

Triad.

His accomplishments as the Triad Coordinator include expanding the county's lock-box program and the use of first-responder medical alert cards. These programs provide a safer home environment for the handicapped and elderly to remain independent. He also coordinates a group of volunteers who do light handiwork for the elderly who are not physically able to perform simple home maintenance.

Carmen Casillas announces candidacy for the Arizona House of Representatives in LD-08

My name is Carmen Casillas. I am the proud daughter of the late Hortensia B. and Alfred S. Escobedo. I am a former City Councilmember and Vice Mayor of Globe. I was also the founder and CEO of the D.V.V.A. (Domestic Violence Victim's Advocate) Response Team, which helped victims of domestic violence when there were no laws in place to do so.

Today, I am announcing that I am running for the Arizona House of Representatives in Legislative District 8 to help create a better future for our State. I have fought for the interests of our rural communities throughout my career, and will continue to do the same as your Representative in the State Legislature.

My four priorities are:

- Ensuring that our children have access to high-quality education
- Helping our small businesses to grow and create jobs
- Providing our law enforcement agencies with the tools and resources they need to serve our rural communities
- Maintaining our agriculture industry

I have the courage to put the interests of my constituents ahead of those of special interests and lobbyists. By threatening KidsCare, taking money away from our public schools, and promoting the use of dark money, our current leaders have made it clear whose interests they serve. Our great state deserves better and we must work to move it forward by electing new leaders.

I am asking for your vote to create a better Arizona and a brighter future of our children.

Thank you,
/s/ Carmen Casillas

Avenue B Elementary School burns in early morning blaze

By Jennifer R. Carnes
San Manuel Miner

An early morning fire at Avenue B Elementary School Sunday may be the work of an arsonist. According to Pinal County Public Information Officer Tim Gaffney, investigators have found evidence that leads them to believe the fire was deliberately set.

The initial call was made Sunday morning at approximately 5:15 a.m. Smoke was visible and coming from the attic and air conditioning units on the north wing of classrooms, the wing nearest the multi-purpose room. San Manuel Fire Department reported that the school was all locked up.

About an hour into the fire, the main electrical power panel blew up. It was not supposed to have power there according to school officials.

In addition to San Manuel Fire, Mammoth, Oracle and Golder Ranch Fire Departments responded to help contain the blaze. Tri-City Meds were also on scene.

Due to the nature of the fire, San Manuel Fire requested that the investigation be handled by PCSO's arson detectives. It is unknown if the fire is related to other suspicious fires in the San Manuel area.

The case is under investigation, Gaffney said. Anyone with information is asked to call the Pinal County Sheriff's Office at 520-866-5111.

Mammoth Council election set for August 30

By Mila Besich-Lira
San Manuel Miner

Voters in Mammoth will have seven candidates to choose from in the upcoming council election; four seats will be open in the upcoming election.

Vice Mayor Frances Wickham along with council members Joseph Brewer and Bob Sloan will be seeking re-election. Current Mayor Don Jones will not seek re-election to the council and is running for District 1 - Pinal County Supervisor; he will face Pete Rios in the Democratic Primary on Aug. 30.

Local residents Joe Dietz, Francis Amparano, Bart Goss and Alvaro "Al" Anaya will also be running for the four council seats. Candidates will need to get 51 percent of the votes to win their seat. Should three candidates not earn the qualifying percentage on Aug. 30, a run-off for the seats will be held at the November election.

The Council will appoint a new Mayor in January once the new council terms begin.

San Pedro Valley Lions Club to host horseshoe tournament

Mammoth - To some, a horseshoe tournament is just good, clean fun: a way to wile away the otherwise idle hours with pleasant company, preferably surrounded by bountiful treats, with a cold beverage near to hand.

To others, it is exercise: a creative way to get the indolent interested in moving about their limbs, in hopes of attaining some prize, whether that prize be cash or mere public adulation. And, to still others, it is a serious sport, with exacting rules on how to pitch and deliver.

But, to those who love a good horseshoe tourney best, it is all those and more. It is sport. It is art. The setting of the stakes, the selecting and study of the shoes, the pitch, the delivery, the crowd, and more, come together to create a unique experience out of familiar materials. The correct posture, heft, swing of an "A" player is as important, as amazing, as delicately and instinctively timed as that of the movements of a professional football player or a prima ballerina. They can be just as awe-inspiring to the watcher.

If one were to Google up "The art of the horseshoe tournament", among other things, one would be likely to find, the National Horseshoe Pitchers Association website, which invites all to "Come Pitch with Us", and provides information on how to pitch, including finger positioning, pitching grips and different turns, footwork, follow through, and exceptions that prove the rule. (www.horseshoepitching.com/gameinfo/howtopitch.html/). Digging a little deeper, no pun intended, one might also find an online article by Jim Atwell, "Zen and the Art of Pitching Horseshoes", which offers valuable and affirmative insights such as, "Flow with the game and let your mind be free" and the somewhat Yoda'esque, "It is not necessary to try, just pitch horseshoes". (www.keskinen.org/horseshoes/zen_art_of_pitching_horseshoes.html).

Whatever your reason for enjoying the game, the

HLI - Class of 2016 pledges service to self, community

By Mila Besich-Lira
Copper Area News

The Hispanic Leadership Institute (HLI) Copper Corridor has graduated its second class in the corridor last week. HLI is a leadership program operated by Valle del Sol, who's mission is to grow strong leaders throughout the state of Arizona. The program was supported financially by Resolution Copper who was a premier sponsor and Salt River Project. Central Arizona College was the educational sponsor of the program and the Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition (CCEDC) was the agency partner to the program.

Several years ago the board of the CCEDC determined that economic diversification and success in the region would be contingent on growing strong leaders. The board decided to invest some time and funding to the development of a regional leadership program. After some research the board decided to work with Valle del Sol to offer their leadership program to residents of the Copper Corridor. Hayden High School Alum Carlos Galindo-Elvira who is the Chief Development Officer for Valle del Sol was instrumental in bringing the sought after leadership program to the Copper Corridor.

In 2016, the HLI graduates are: Edward Aguirre, Cassandra Baltierra, Jessica Castillo, Matthew Magallanez, Max Magallanez, Gila

County Supervisor Mike Pastor, Manuel Ramirez, Bryan Seppala and James Schenck. The cohort attended 10 weeks of classes which ranged on various topics of leadership including media relations, public safety, local government board service and the development of their personal leadership style. The course also included a Saturday retreat.

This year the HLI-Copper Corridor class set a new record for all of the HLI programs statewide. Superior High School Junior Cassandra Baltierra was the first high school student to enroll in the class and is the youngest graduate of any of the HLI programs. Cassandra was one of the participant speakers and she shared that the program helped her to realize her potential as a leader in her school and community.

During the graduation the graduates' pledges for service were read to their family, friends and invited guests. Castillo and Ramirez both plan to devote more time to their local organizations the Superior Optimist Club and Superior Rotary Club respectively. Castillo plans to use her leadership skills to continue growing the Optimist club and take on the role of president later this year. Ramirez plans to devote time to building the Rotary Club and developing a back to school supply drive for the students at Superior School District.

Seppala and Aguirre both plan to devote themselves to continuing their education and using their leadership skills to make an impact on their career fields. Seppala plans to train other leaders in his community of Globe to help to take on the leadership positions he holds in order to devote more time to his education. Aguirre plans to focus his leadership on making a difference in the healthcare field. Matthew Magallanez, plans to use his leadership skills in his career as a probation officer and in his community and family.

Max Magallanez pledged to focus his leadership abilities on supporting the Superintendent and staff at Superior schools to help students achieve their best and fully support finding high quality teachers.

Robert Perkins' Bucket List

Have you driven up Robles Road in Oracle lately? If not, you should, but if you have, I'm sure you noticed this incredible piece of art.

My father, who is now 84, started this project several years ago, but had not been able to finish it. He was my mother's caretaker until she passed away in 2014 and then became ill himself. In mid May, doctors told my father his cancer had spread and there was nothing else they could do for him.

My father has always been the rock in our family. He has taken care of many, even strangers. Wednesday evenings, he made dinner for the family and even friends.

Sometimes there would be as many as 40 or 50 people at his house for dinner.

When we were told we should call Hospice, my dad informed me he still had a couple things on his Bucket List, one being to see "His Windmill" up. I showed a few family members this pile of stuff on the ground, and they, with many other family members, went to work on it!

With the help of a couple family friends and their back-hoe, we had this amazing addition to his yard artwork up. Thank you to all who participated. My dad loves it. He watches it spin even when he is in bed.

Supervisor Mike Pastor pledged to devote time to helping the local homeless service agency in his community, he plans to do this by becoming an advocate for the homeless issues and becoming more involved in their organization. James Schenck pledged to devote time to the development of a cultural diversity program in the region that would focus on language development.

The ceremony concluded with recognition of a local leader from the region to receive the Pete Rios Leadership award sponsored by Valle del Sol. The 2016 recipient was Manuel Ruiz who was recognized for his service as Mayor of Superior, a basketball coach, teacher, church volunteer along with his many other roles in the community. Ruiz spoke briefly about his role as a leader and gave some advice: "Life is much better when you are giving and expect nothing in return," he said. He thanked his wife Aurora for her support over the years and encouraged the young leaders to stay involved in their community. "We need you," he said.

Registration for the 2017 HLI-Copper Corridor Class will begin in late 2016 and classes are expected to begin in late February or early March.

Correction

The San Manuel Miner would like to clarify that volunteers did not paint the San Manuel Pool. The maintenance department at Mammoth-San Manuel Schools, including Oscar Renteria, Frank Smith and Louie Madrid, painted the pool and other facilities at the pool. They also installed a new pump, repaired tile and lights. Volunteers helped with painting the facilities at the pool.

Sea Lions win swim meet in Florence

The Sea Lions Swim Team traveled to Florence to compete against the Florence Sharks at the Florence Aquatic Center. The Sea Lions won the meet with 1105 points while Florence finished with 55 points. Due to the size difference in the teams, the outcome of the meet was never in doubt.

The Sea Lions won 81 out of 88 events.

The Florence Aquatic Center is less than a year old, and the competition pool is designed to be fast. The deep water and wave reducing gutter system keeps the water smooth, while the high starting blocks maximize the effect of the start (which is the fastest part of the race). The Sea Lions made the most of their opportunity to swim in a fast pool. Nearly every swimmer achieved best times in multiple events at the meet. Coach Alex Gort remarked that the Sea Lions had a great week of practice as everyone settled into their summer routine. The hard work at practice probably had more to do with the best times than the 'fast' pool.

Twelve team records were broken at the meet. The 11-12 Girls Free Relay Team of Tabitha Kellam (12), Rianna Estrada (12), and Briana Castellanos (11) swam over 5 seconds faster than the previous team record (held by Sweeney, Ortiz, Parker, and Apuron) for a time of 2:11.18.

One of the strengths of the team is the 9-10 Boys age group. The relay team of Joey Castellanos, Mayo Stewart, Ethan Kellam, and Johnny Smallhouse broke records in both the Medley Relay (2:42.62 breaking the record held by Apuron, Stewart and Fister) and the Free Relay (2:26.90 breaking the record held by Newman, Miller, and Soto) confirming that this is the fastest group of 9-10 boys the team has ever had.

The 11-12 Boys may be the strongest part of the team. The relay team of Ben Fister (11), Riley Stewart (12), Evan Apuron (12), and AJ Lopez (12) broke team records in both the Medley Relay (2:16.75) and the Freestyle Relay (1:58.93). Breaking the 2-minute barrier in the Free Relay was a big achievement for the 11-12 Boys. In fact, they were the fastest relay at the meet, even beating the 15-18 boys.

Tabitha Kellam broke two team records previously held by Gianna Sweeney in the 50 Free (28.63) and 100 Free (1:01.50). Evan Apuron improved on the team records he held in 5 events – 100 IM (1:06.31), 50 Fly (28.17), 100 Free (57.40), 50 Breast (33.91) and 50 Free (25.87).
