Correction: Bateman Building still in use

The June 22 edition of the San Manuel Miner stated that the Bateman Building had been demolished to make way for the new classroom building and library expansion at Mountain Vista School in Oracle.

This is not correct. The Bateman Building is still standing, in operation, and will welcome students on their first day of school, on Thursday, Aug. 4. The new classroom building was built on the location of the basketball court and the library expansion is being built on the vacant space behind the current library.

“When we asked voters to approve our capital bond in November 2019,” Superintendent Crystle Nehrmeyer said, “we shared that the Bateman Building was in need of great repair and we were in need of much additional space for our growing school. After much consideration, and with approval from our community, we decided the Bateman Building would be removed from our campus as soon as the new classroom building was complete and our students and teachers moved out of the Bateman Building. We anticipate the Bateman Building will be removed from campus either at the end of 2022 or early 2023.”

CORRECTION

The superintendent added, "Even though we have outgrown the Bateman Building and it would cost more to rebuild and repair the building than to replace the building, we still recognize the special memories made in the building by generations of Mountain Vista students, dating back to the early 1960s. When the capital bond was passed, school leadership reached out to Mrs. Bateman's daughters and explained our plans for the new classroom building. We added that Mrs. Bateman's contributions to our school would not be forgotten and a tree would be planted and dedicated in her honor near the former location of the Bateman Building."

The Miner regrets the error.

The Dudes on the

By John Hernandez
Special to the Miner

Captain Edward M. Joyce served with distinction in France during World War I. Joyce was one of the youngest Captains serving in France. He returned to his wife and daughter in 1919. They would have another daughter in 1920. He soon found himself working at his old job with the Southern Pacific Railroad in Willcox, Arizona. He helped organize the first American Legion Post in Willcox. In 1922, he was elected to the Willcox city council as a committeeman.

Later in June 1922, it was announced that Joyce and an eastern investor were preparing to open what they called Arizona's first "Dude" ranch. Joyce and his partner took a long-term lease of the Seven Dash Ranch and the VF Ranch encompassing around 300 square miles of cattle ranch land located at Johnson, Arizona (now a ghost town) about 25 miles from Willcox. The Seven Dash Ranch was owned by Joyce's father-in-law, H.L. Johnson. The VF Ranch was owned by the Mule Shoe Cattle Company. They also obtained bathing concessions at Hot Springs for use of their guests. The ranch had accommodations for 20 guests but by September construction plans would allow for many more, newspapers reported.

The Tucson and Phoenix chambers of commerce as well as the Arizona Republic began promoting Joyce's dude ranch and calling for more ranches to embrace the idea of dude ranches. Newspapers back east also picked up on the story of the Seven Dash Ranch and soon Joyce said his dude ranch was becoming successful and more construction was planned to accommodate winter visitors.

In October, Joyce announced that the dude ranch was doing well and that he had purchased the Carlink Ranch near Redington and was making renovations to make it another dude ranch. Newspapers reported that two easterners, Katharine and Alexandrine McEwen and the famous hunting guide W.W. "Bill" Huggett had formed a corporation, the McEwen Ranch Company, for the purpose of conducting a dude ranch. The McEwen sisters were English ladies that had been living in Detroit, Michigan. Bill Huggett was a well-known guide who had worked at Yellowstone National Park, the Grand Canyon and the San Carlos Hotel in Chandler, Arizona.

Huggett soon became manager of the Seven Dash Ranch. Later on, he would move to the Oracle area where he and his wife Muriel would purchase part of the 3C Ranch. Joyce would concentrate on operating the Carlink Dude Ranch. The McEwen sisters would own the Seven Dash Ranch until the 1940s. In December 1923, it was reported that Joyce was making many improvements on the Carlink Dude Ranch and that the Seven Dash Ranch was becoming well known. Things appeared to be going well in Captain Joyce's life.

On Nov. 25, 1924, newspapers reported that Captain Joyce had shot and killed a "cowpuncher" at the Carlink Ranch on Saturday afternoon, Nov.

Captain Edward M. Joyce

23. The cowboy victim of the shooting was Jesse Whitley, an employee of the Johnson Ranch and formerly an employee of Joyce. Following the shooting, Joyce took his family and a man who had been photographing the ranch and ranch hands for advertising purposes, and motored to Willcox where he turned himself over to Cochise County authorities. The Arizona Daily Star called Joyce the "Dean of dude ranches" in Arizona having started up the Seven Dash Ranch two years earlier and now operating the Carlink Dude Ranch.

On Nov. 24, Joyce was returned to the Carlink Ranch and turned over to Pima County Sheriff Walter Bailey and his deputies. Redington was in Pima County so they had jurisdiction in the case. The Sheriff had brought the county coroner, deputy county attorney and other Tucson citizens to serve as a jury for the coroner's hearing. The coroner's jury ruled that the death of Whitley was caused by three bullet wounds from the gun fired by Joyce. The wounds were to an arm, chest and head of Whitley. The head and chest wounds would both have been fatal. When Joyce was turned over to the Pima County deputies, he said, "I shot him to save my wife, my home and myself."

Joyce was brought to Tucson for trial. The preliminary hearing was held on Dec. 1. A San Pedro Valley farmer, Ernest Thompson testified that he had seen Joyce call Whitley into his office about some pictures. Shortly after Whitley entered the office a shot was heard and Whitley ran out of the office with Joyce chasing him. Another shot was fired and Whitley fell to the ground. Joyce stood over him, hesitated then fired a shot into Whitley's head. Thompson testified also to what Joyce had said following the shooting.

Joyce said, "I'm sorry that all of this happened. Things will happen this way. He had insulted my wife twice before and this makes a third time. No man can insult my wife and live. It's the first time I have killed a man like this." Thompson said Joyce then referred to killing Germans in France and said something about his wife asking him to run Whitley away several days before but he had not done so. William Rhodes and other cowboys also testified. Joyce was charged with first degree murder and denied bail.

The trial began on Jan. 19, 1925. The courtroom was full of spectators including friends of Captain Joyce and family and friends of Jesse Whitley. Whitley's three brothers attended, traveling from Ballinger, Texas. Much of the testimony of witnesses was the same evidence brought up during the preliminary hearing. There was no question that Joyce had killed Whitley.

What needed to be known was why Joyce had shot Whitley which the defense attorneys hoped would mitigate the offense or justify the shooting.

On the second day of the trial, it was learned that Whitley had been unarmed and in fact had left his gun in his room at the ranch. Captain Joyce was called to testify and told the story of what had happened the day of the shooting. Joyce told the jury that prior to the shooting he had overheard Whitley and his wife Lillian having a conversation in the kitchen. He had been in a room next door and had eavesdropped by a doorway where he could hear them clearly. He heard Whitley pleading with his wife to run away with him and that he had to see her again.

According to the testimony, Mrs. Joyce had said that "she was losing her self-respect and was not playing square with her husband." She then threatened to go to her husband and tell him about the alleged affair. When she did this, Joyce said that Whitley threatened to kill her and Joyce. Captain Joyce left and went to another building to collect his thoughts. He saw his wife pass by and called to her. She went to the room where he was at and told him about the affair. She said that Whitley had called upon her whenever Joyce was away from the ranch. How she had finally given in to his overtures and then he had told other people at the ranch about their relationship. It was shortly after talking with his wife that Joyce went to confront Jesse Whitley and the shooting happened.

The final day of the trial had Mrs. Joyce, dressed in black, tearfully provide testimony about her indiscretions with Jesse Whitley. The Tucson Citizen reported Captain Joyce's reaction to her testimony saying, "His face was bleached with the disasters that had befallen, and his shaking hands and body quaked noticeably when the woman he had married took the stand and told of her clandestine love and relations with a second man." Following the day's testimony and concluding arguments, the jury was sequestered and began deliberations.

On Jan. 25, the jury found Captain Edward M. Joyce guilty of the lesser charge of manslaughter. Judge Gerald Jones sentenced him to 6 to 8 years in the state prison at Florence. Shortly after he entered prison, his wife Lillian moved to California with the children and divorced the Captain. Joyce soon became a trustee and secretary for the Warden. Attempts were made to have him pardoned but were unsuccessful. After serving 3 years and 8 months of his sentence, he was released from prison in October 1928. This early release was due to his trustee status which allowed him to be given credit of two days for every one day served.

Joyce soon became the manager of the Spur Cross dude ranch near Carefree, Arizona. He also began raising polo ponies. In April 1930, Joyce found himself in trouble when he was arrested for a statutory violation when R.B. Baker the father of a 17-year-old girl claimed Joyce had relations with his daughter. Joyce was 38 years old. In May 1930, Joyce married Miss Robye Marzell "Barbara" Baker, the complainant's daughter and charges were dropped. They would have two sons and stay married until Captain Joyce's death in 1956. He was buried with full military honors in Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia.

Ninth Circuit Court rules in favor of the Resolution Copper Land Exchange

On Friday, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco ruled that Resolution Copper Southeast Arizona Land Exchange and Compensation Act must be upheld.

The Apache Stronghold group appealed a lower court's decision, saying that if the mine is allowed to open and the land is exchanged it will prohibit their right to worship and limit their freedom of religion. It is reported that the Apache Stronghold group will appeal the Ninth Circuit Courts decision to the Supreme Court. They have 45 days to file a case.

The 2-1 ruling was based on whether the United States Government can do what it wants with its land. The court ruling explained that the mine would not prohibit tribal members from worshipping.

The Save Oak Flats bill proposed by Rep. Raul Grijalva has not made much progress through this Congress. The Save Oak Flats bill would repeal the land exchange legislation and would prohibit mining in the area. The land exchange bill was passed in December 2014 under the National Defense Authorization Act.

DCS'S NOTICE OF HEARING ON MOTION FOR TERMINATION OF PARENT-CHILD RELATIONSHIP

No. JD202100107

(Honorable Delia R. Neal)
IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF PINAL
In the Matter of:
MELODY SUSIE MARIA MENDOZA CRUZ
d.o.b. 05/15/2021
Person under 18 years of age.

TO: GRISELDA CRUZ JARAMILLO, PAULINO MENDOZA LOPEZ, parents and/or guardians of the above-named child.

1. The Department of Child Safety has filed a Motion for Termination of Parent-Child Relationship pursuant to Title 8, of the Arizona Revised Statutes, and Rule 64 of the Arizona Rules of Procedure for the Juvenile Court.

2. The Court has set an Initial hearing on the 21st day of June, 2022 at 9:00 a.m. and a Publication hearing on the 16th day of August, 2022 at 9:00 a.m., at the Pinal County Superior Court, 971 North Jason Lopez Circle, Florence, Arizona 85132, before the Honorable Delia R. Neal for the purpose of determining whether any parent or guardian named herein is contesting the allegations in the Petition.

3. You and your child are entitled to have an attorney present at the hearing. You may hire your own attorney or, if you cannot afford an attorney and want to be represented by an attorney, one may be appointed by the Court.

4. You have a right to appear as a party in this proceeding. You are advised that your failure to personally appear in court at the initial hearing, pretrial conference, status conference or dependency adjudication, without good cause shown, may result in a finding that you have waived your legal rights and have admitted the allegations in the Petition. In addition, if you fail to appear, without good cause, the hearing may go forward in your absence and may result in an adjudication of dependency, termination of your parental rights or the establishment of a permanent guardianship based upon the record and the evidence presented to the court, as well as an order of paternity, custody, or change of custody in a consolidated family law matter and an order for child support if paternity has been established.

5. Notice is given that DCS is proposing to substantiate any allegations of abuse and/or neglect contained in the dependency petition for placement in the DCS Central Registry. The DCS Central Registry is a confidential list of DCS findings that tracks abuse and neglect. If the court finds your child dependent based upon allegations of abuse and/or neglect contained in the dependency petition, you will be placed in the DCS Central Registry. See A.R.S. § 8-804.

6. If you are receiving this Notice by publication, you may obtain a copy of the Dependency Petition, Notice of Hearing, and Temporary Orders by submitting a written request to: JILYANE A. HENRY, Office of the Attorney General, CFP/ PSS, 120 W. 1st Avenue, 2nd Floor, Mesa, Arizona 85210. The assigned case manager is Mindy Ritter and may be reached by telephone at (520) 610-2132.

7. Requests for reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities must be made to the court by parties at least three working days in advance of a scheduled court proceeding and can be made by calling (520) 866-5400.

8. You have the right to make a request or motion prior to any hearing that the hearing be closed to the public. DATED this 7th day of June, 2022.

Ellie Brown announces bid for Copper Corridor Justice of the Peace

Ellie Brown

Ellie Brown is announcing that she will be on the Aug. 2, 2022, Primary Ballot as a candidate for Justice of the Peace, Copper Corridor, Precinct 5. Precinct 5 serves the communities of Eagle Crest Ranch, SaddleBrooke, SaddleBrooke Ranch, Oracle Junction, Oracle, San Manuel, Mammoth, Dudleyville, Kearny, Superior, Riverside, Top of the World and Superior. She seeks your support and vote.

With 31 years of experience serving Pinal County and the Copper Corridor communities in various capacities, Brown pledges to provide the residents of the Copper Corridor a justice of the peace that puts the needs of the people first, with fairness, accountability and efficiency. She adds a commitment to give everyone an opportunity to be heard in court before an ethical, impartial, independent and calm-demeanor judge.

“Good judges understand that their demeanor in the courtroom helps lay the foundation in allowing participants in the legal process to feel that their position is being heard; defendants, legal counsel, law enforcement and victims,” she said.

Employed for 26 years full time with Pinal County as a Justice of the Peace, Justice Court Supervisor, Judicial Liaison, Justice Court Computer Field Trainer, Administrative Manager and Director, Ellie is prepared, experienced and qualified in running both court locations of the Copper Corridor (Oracle and Superior) both judicially and administratively.

“Running a court is not just putting on the black robe and ruling on cases. It is the duty of the court to be fiscally responsible, that administrative staff is properly trained and educated, respectful and helpful to the public. It is my responsibility to have the justice scales balanced and to listen to both sides before rendering a judgement. It is my judicial duty to adhere to the Criminal and Civil Rules of Procedure, Arizona Revised Statutes, Reports and to hold my moral compass according to the Arizona Judicial and Ethic Canons,” she explained.

Ellie has been serving the Copper Corridor as a Judicial Pro Tempore for the past five years. She has served several of the Justice of the Peace locations throughout Pinal County. Her appointment(s) was through both the Superior Court Presiding Judge and the Pinal County Board of Supervisors. Ellie was just recently hired part-time as the Presiding Magistrate Judge for the Town of Superior. Her duties begin in July 2022.

The county’s Justice Courts mostly handle criminal misdemeanors, traffic violations, civil filings, protective orders, eviction actions, search warrants and small-claims cases. Court proceedings mostly pertain to warrants, pretrials, trials, in custody/jail and other proceedings due to motions filed before the court.

Ellie’s community service includes being on several Board of Directors serving as Chair, Secretary or member – this includes Oracle Community Center, Sun Life Health, Oracle Fire District, OWN Oracle network and St. Helen Catholic Parish. This doesn’t include her 40 years + of volunteer service and dedication to the community.

Ellie is married to Steve Brown and they have a blended family of three grown children, three granddaughters and pets. She holds a master’s degree in educational leadership, a bachelor of science degree in administration and management, a Certification of Public Management, completion of the Arizona Supreme Court Orientation and countless hours of court operating judicial educational training. Ellie was born and raised within the Copper Corridor, Precinct 5.

“As a Justice of the Peace, I make decisions that impact everyday life and it is important that people know that I have the diverse life and work skills, empathy, years of experience in the judicial process and higher education that qualifies me to represent and be their elected Justice of the Peace. My reputation as a judge precedes me in being fair, honest, patient, understanding and a good listener. I issue timely and impartial judgments based on the evidence/testimony presented to me,” she said.

Brown, a Republican, is seeking election to preside over the Copper Corridor Precinct 5, of which she played a role in forming nearly eight years ago. She will need to defeat one other Republican primary challenger before moving forward to the general election ballot in November. There are no other candidates running for the position in either election. The successful candidate will become the elected official in a now appointed position.
