Defendants in Milo Candelaria case have court hearings

Juan Lopez and Anthony Sigala were both in court recently regarding their bonds. The two have been charged in the beating death of a Kearny man.

Sigala was indicted on March 10 by the Pinal County Grand Jury for second degree murder. He was held on a $100,000 secured bond. According to Jim Knupp, Public Information Officer for the Pinal County Attorney's Office, a motion was filed on May 22 by the Public Defender's Office to "reconsider conditions of release" and a hearing was set for Monday, June 2, 2014. On May 30, Knupp said, the Deputy Public Defender filed a motion to vacate the release hearing "for the reason that the defendant has posted bond in this matter."

Lopez was indicted on March 10 for aggravated assault, assault and threatening/intimidation. He was held on a $20,000 secured bond. Knupp said the Court denied his motion to modify release conditions on March 30, 2014, and ordered that the conditions remain as previously ordered. Lopez was scheduled to have a pretrial conference hearing on Monday, June 2, 2014, before the Honorable Judge Gilbert Figueroa.

Milo Candelaria was assaulted Friday, Feb. 21, in front of La Cantina in Kearny. He was transported by helicopter to University Medical Center in Tucson where he later succumbed to his injuries.

Both defendants are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Supervisor says no attempt was made to direct RICO funds

There have been some letters to the editor regarding the Board of Supervisors wanting to tell our Sheriff and County Attorney how to spend RICO funds.

In short – there was no attempt at directing the Sheriff or County Attorney in regards on how to spend RICO funds. By state law, the Board of Supervisors has no voice in the matter whatsoever. We cannot tell the Sheriff or County Attorney where to disburse any funding from RICO. The ultimate decision comes down to the County Attorney who receives a request from the Sheriff's Office and will either decide whether or not to give the funding.

For some unknown reason, many people were given the mistaken impression that the Board was trying to tell the Sheriff where to spend the money. The ultimate truth comes in the form of a question that Chairman Anthony Smith asked the Sheriff – if his department could direct RICO money to help fund some of their operational needs. That's all it was – a question, not a directive. Let me emphasize again, the Board of Supervisors has no say where the Sheriff or County Attorney spend their RICO funds.

When I was in the Arizona Legislature, the question was brought up whether or not elected governmental bodies like a Board of Supervisors or City Councils could have any say where RICO funds were spent. That effort was struck down immediately after pressure from law enforcement lobbyists.

I see the benefits of RICO funding across the district, from after-graduation programs to sponsoring little league teams. Yes, RICO funds do help, you will get no argument from me. My passion is for a strong community, where children are given opportunities to grow, learn and play. My Master's Degree from Arizona State University is in Social Service Administration. As a counselor I have worked closely with children from all walks of life. If there is any question about my desire for a good future of our children in Pinal County, let that be answered from my past work and efforts in the legislature.

What was meant as a simple question on using RICO funds for operational expenditures, has turned into a false impression by some that the Board was trying to tell the Sheriff and County Attorney where to spend that money. Whoever helped to propagate that idea should apologize to all the groups that receive RICO funds.

Sincerely,
/s/ Pete Rios

RICO funds important for youth activities

The Pinal County Juvenile Court Community Advisory Board (CAB) represent a group of volunteers who work with the courts to help evaluate and enhance services to young people. The common interest is to ensure that Juvenile Court practices continue to reflect the best interests of youth, families, victims and the community. The group does this through a variety of volunteer based programming and special events.

The work of the CAB advocates for the best interests of youth, families, victims and our community. CAB builds character in our youth, holds them accountable, provides mentoring to make positive and healthy life choices.

We help youth in Pinal County understand restorative approach through positive consequences, promote important social skills, build their self-confidence and self-image, all of which is needed to take on the many challenges that life promises.

As a volunteer group, we rely on community donations. RICO funds from the Pinal County Sheriff's Office, County Attorney's Office and Casa Grande Police Department has helped with our many activities. There is NO better use of seized criminal money than for this purpose.

In fact, over the past several years, our group has received statewide recognition from the Arizona Chief Justice of Supreme Court and the Governor's Office of Volunteerism. It is without a doubt that we received such high honors because we had community support and financial funding from RICO grants.

We sincerely appreciate and support the use of RICO funds for youth activities in Pinal County because we see the good things it allows volunteers like us accomplish.

Chale Vega pleads guilty to felony

Pinal County Attorney Lando Voyles last week announced Charles "Chale" Vega, 38 of Hayden, entered a plea of guilty to one count of Attempted Fraudulent Schemes and Practices, a Class 6 Designated Felony, on May 19, 2014.

In late 2012, the Town of Hayden requested assistance from the Gila County Sheriff's Office investigating a potential theft of $850 dollars, which was raised during a dance fundraiser and intended to benefit the Town of Hayden Fire Department.

According to the Probable Cause Statement, GCSO suspected Vega, the then Fire Chief and now Mayor of Hayden, of stealing the money and indicated he offered a chainsaw as proof he had used the public money properly.

Deputies later discovered, however, the chainsaw was stolen and indicate in the Probable Cause Statement that Vega admitted to stealing it from ASARCO Ray Mine, a former employer. According to the Form IV, he stated that when he was being investigated by Gila County for the theft of public funds he figured he would turn in the chainsaw to cover the amount of money he had stolen from the town.

Vega was arrested in late-February 2013 and subsequently charged for theft and trafficking of stolen goods.

During what was set to be a final pretrial conference, prior to his jury trial set for June 3, 2014, Charles Vega accepted the plea agreement for one count of Attempted Fraudulent Schemes and Practices.

Sentencing for Vega is set for Monday, June 16, 2014 at 1:30 p.m. before Honorable Henry Gooday Jr and while parties stipulated to a sentence of supervised probation, according to the plea agreement, Vega faces up to a maximum of two years in prison, if he violates the terms set for his probation.

Pinal and Gila counties may go separate ways on tailoring

Since 2000 Pinal has grown more urban while Gila remained rural, creating different job program needs

By James J. Hodl

Copper Area News Publishers

After nearly 15 years, the Pinal County Board of Supervisors appears poised to end its partnership with Gila County in conducting jobs programs under the US Workforce Investment Act (WIA).

Executives in both counties are resigned to the decoupling as the two counties have grown apart since the partnership was established in July 2000, with Pinal growing increasing suburban with population densities in its northern and western regions increasing while Gila has remained rural. As a result both now have different needs when it comes to tailoring programs to find employment for their residents and training citizens in skills required for available or future jobs.

At 88,000 San Tan Valley itself has more residents than all of Gila County, while Casa Grande with about 50,000 residents is almost equal with Gila.

which the two counties partnered on WIA programs, is not known. A CAAG spokesman said it is likely that the two counties will continue to work through CAAG on economic development, transportation and environmental (mostly related to water and sewage) issues but not workforce issues.

“The reason we decided to end our WIA partnership with Gila County is simply that we are no longer a match,” said Anthony Smith, chairman of the Pinal County Board of Supervisors. “When we first entered the partnership, we were both rural counties. But that was before the fantastic development and growth in population around San Tan Valley and Maricopa. Now the north and west sides of Pinal County are more like Maricopa County than Gila County.”

Tim Kanavel, manager of the Pinal County Economic

The current WIA partnership agreement runs until July 1, 2015. During the interim, Pinal County is looking to realign with the primarily urban Maricopa County while Gila may seek to partner with another county closer to its rural makeup.

How the breakup will affect the Central Arizona Association of Governments (CAAG), under Development Program, was more succinct, noting, “Remember the people you knew in elementary school and met years later and found you no longer had much in common? That’s what happened to Pinal and Gila.”

In decoupling its WIA partnership with Gila County, Smith said the Pinal Board of Supervisors considered several options. These included going it alone on its WIA programs, re-partnering with Gila under a different management structure, or coupling with either Pima or Maricopa County. Maricopa seemed the best alternative considering Pinal’s high growth areas border it.

The areas around San Tan Valley and Maricopa are already aligned with the Maricopa County through federally-funded transportation programs administered by the Maricopa Association of Governments while the rest of Pinal County has these programs administered through CAAG.

WIA programs in Maricopa County are administered by the Maricopa Workforce Connection, a unit of the Maricopa County Human Services Agency. Representatives of Pinal County government have already visited Connection offices to discuss a partnership but no formal agreements have been reached as yet, said Patricia Wallace, Connection assistant director.

The Gila County Board of Supervisors is resigned to the WIA partnership breaking up next year.

“We’d like to continue to work with Pinal County on employment programs but we are not positive the partnership will run past July 2015,” said Melissa Buzan, director of Gila County Community Services.

“Since 2000, the partnership has resulted in much progress being made in attracting jobs and training local residents to perform them. Hopefully Gila County can carry on serving the employment and training needs for our rural citizens,” Buzan said.

By decoupling with Gila County and perhaps couple with Maricopa County, Pinal County can do a better job of attracting the type of jobs the county’s growing population need, Kanavel said.

“In 2000 Pinal and Gila had equal populations, but now Pinal has over 400,000 residents while Gila County has only 52,000 residents and shrinking,” he noted. At 88,000 San Tan Valley itself has more residents than all of Gila County, while Casa Grande with about 50,000 residents is almost equal with Gila.

“Most of jobs being created in Gila are in tourism and mining, but Pinal is pursuing job-creating companies involved in high-tech, manufacturing and distribution. We have radically different workforce needs,” Kanavel added.

As an example of the businesses being attracted to

Anthony Smith

Tim Kanavel

Pinal County, he cited the distribution warehouse of The Tractor Supply Co. near Coolidge. The company has nearly a page of job openings at that warehouse ranging from dock workers to inventory managers on its website.

The county also is making a bid to attract the Tesla Motors lithium battery factory to a site in the center of the county, he said. To further boost employment opportunities, Pinal is looking into creating a free trade zone to attract foreign businesses.

“That is something we wouldn’t have attempted a few years ago, but it feels good to be able to compete with larger counties around the country for these jobs,” Kanavel said.

Kanavel sees the switch in emphasis on the WIA program to benefit all sectors of the county, including those in the southeastern corner of the county hit hard by the closing of local mines.

Communities like Oracle and San Manuel still have populations that include residents who are of working age but have to drive toward Tucson to find gainful employment. By attracting new employers into Pinal County and having the ability to train them to meet the needs of these employers, these residents can work closer to home and have shorter commutes. And the availability of those new jobs also will attract new residents to these communities, reversing population declines and boosting their local economies, creating still more jobs, he noted.

“Sounds like something we can really use around here,” said Linda Lee, an employee at the San Manuel Library on hearing of the county’s plans.

During its years of operations, the Pinal/Gila partnership on WIA programs has faithfully fulfilled its mission, said Smith. Many displaced workers and new workforce programs for their residents

What the Workforce Investment Act does to reduce unemployment Enacted by the US Congress in 1998, the Workforce Investment Act (WIA) is targeted toward reducing unemployment by helping all type of workers find jobs befitting their skills or get them training to qualify for jobs available in their community. Although funded on the national level, WIA programs are administered by the states through local agencies such as Central Arizona Governments, the agency created through the partnership of Pinal and Gila Counties.

Nationwide the WIA program provides job training to economically disadvantaged adults and youth, while providing employers with a workforce trained through community colleges, vocational schools, on-the-job training (OJT), and work experience. Key elements to the WIA program are community linkages, individualized training, and service placement. Eligible participants have the opportunity to enhance their employability to compete for the jobs and meet the current needs of the local labor market. These include:

- Individualized case management/career planning to provide job development and job placement.
- One-Stop Centers provide fully equipped resource room for job search activities (telephone for making appointments, computers for completing resumes and employment applications, access to local, state and county job banks, etc.).

- Assessment testing – vocational aptitude and ability testing to assist in career decision making and for training/employment matches.
- Job search and self-sufficiency workshops to produce skills and job search and job retention.
- Basic education and GED preparation – computerized academic training through open entry/open exit classes based on individual need.
- Applicable support services (work clothing, child care, transportation needs, medical/dental/vision needs, etc.).

A key feature of WIA is the One-Stop Delivery System for workforce investment activities. This is a system where entities responsible for administering separate workforce investment, educational and other human resource programs and funding streams collaborate to create a seamless system of service delivery designed to enhance access to the programs' services and improve long-term employment outcomes for individuals receiving assistance. Besides adults, youths and dislocated workers, this system also serves the special needs of veterans, senior citizens and Native Americans; and oversee employment and training arrivals have found employment through the One-Stop Centers in each county (Casa Grande in Pinal and Globe in Gila). Thousands of workers also have been retrained for new jobs in both counties through a partnership with Central Arizona College.

The dissolution on the WIA partnership under CAAG would not be the first program loss for that governmental body. In 2010 the Sun Corridor Metropolitan Planning Organization was carved out of a section of Pinal County around Casa Grande, Coolidge and Eloy and took over local transportation planning services. Since then the organization of drafted plans for highway improvements through the area, including I-8 and I-10 and the future I-11. The organization also is working on improvements in railroad logistics to better serve the growth in industry planned by Pinal County in that region.

But CAAG has many accomplishments in other areas. These include creation of a revolving loan fund to help businesses relocate into Pinal and Gila. In a partnership with Digital Arizona, rural Internet broadband has been improved to provide faster speeds with greater reliability. CAAG also oversaw planning and improvements of the wastewater management systems in Gold Canyon and Marana. The latter is a joint project with Pima County, near whose border Marana sits.

Apodaca was born in Phoenix and raised in Winkelman. He graduated from Hayden High School in 1960 and attended Northern Arizona University. He loved playing catcher on baseball teams. Apodaca loved all sports and spend years as president of the Little League. He donated his time to coach Little League and the Senior League. His daughter Monica Badillo said, "I remember one year him and my uncle created a team which consisted of kids that other coaches didn't want, their team name was the Rejects and they were winners of many games."

Apodaca married the love of his life Angie and had four beautiful children Monica Badillo, Berdine Apodaca, Patrick Apodaca and Bobby Apodaca.

Monica Badillo said, "My dad was a loving, caring, passionate father, husband, brother, uncle, and grandfather. He taught us by his strong example and community involvement. He was a loving and devout husband. He loved my mom so very much and appreciated everything she did for him and stood by his side and supported his every passion and he loved her all the more. The feelings were mutual." Roger Apodaca was one month shy of being married to Angie Apodaca for 50 years.

Apodaca was an active member of the church and served as a Eucharistic Minister. He was quite involved as a cursillista and in the movement. The local union also benefited from his efforts and his passion to give back as he was a loyal activist. He was very spiritual and enjoyed performing talks and lectures and helping facilitate events.

Growing up the family would travel to fire conventions. There weren't many females and Monica and her sister would wonder if this was something they could do or become. When this was brought to her father's attention he would say no, fire fighting is not for girls. When a female joined the fire department in the early 1990s, Monica and her sister Berdine decided they would give it a try. When they became fire fighters Chief Apodaca really took care of them. There was a time when Chief Apodaca had all four of his children participating in the volunteer fire department. His son Bobby is really following in his shoes as he is the current fire chief for the Winkelman Fire Department. Bobby has been involved with fire fighting for 21 years now and Monica Badillo has been involved for 17 years now.

Badillo said, "I fondly remembers our long summer trips to California. And let me tell you just how much fun it was to make that long drive without air conditioning and with it taking 10 hours because my dad refused to drive over the speed limit! I also remember every summer attending fire conventions. We visited many cities and towns such as Bullhead City, Kingman, Yuma, Williams, Holbrook and many others."

The funeral was certainly special and several of the events were due to the respect and honor the statewide fire departments had for former Chief Apodaca. St. Joseph's Catholic Church performed a heartwarming mass, many fire department agencies attended including Winkelman Fire; Hayden Fire; Hayden Police Department; Kearny Fire; Kearny Police Department; Dudleyville Fire; Superior Fire; Globe Fire; Golder Ranch Fire; Mesa Fire; Glendale Fire and Regional Fire. The Arizona Last Alarm and Last Alarm Foundation attended and this was the first time these two agencies came together for such an event.

In honor and admiration to former Chief Roger Apodaca and his truly special family we celebrate his life, the life he lived and hold the memories close to our hearts. It was no coincidence that the family felt as strong as he did to the commitment of firefighting and being involved in the ministries of the church. Chief Apodaca taught his family the meaning of "UN Dia a la vez" (one day at a time). He lived it. The love he has left leaves an indelible imprint in our memories and comfort can be found knowing our lives have been enriched by sharing this love.

AIA Division IV, Section VI Player of the Year Shane Kelly was named to the AzBCA All-State first team. Kelly, a junior from San Manuel, was joined on the first team by Ray Bearcats' senior shortstop Dominic Bravo.

The Miners' Anthony Garcia and Richard Romo were named to the AzBCA All-State second team. Garcia and Romo, both seniors, were the top pitchers on the San Manuel staff.

The Arizona Baseball Coaches Association Division IV All-Star game was played last Saturday night at Surprise Stadium. The South team, with four players from copper corridor schools, defeated the North team, 14 - 6. Anthony Garcia and Richard Romo from San Manuel, Dominic Bravo from Ray, and Cesar Villalobos from Superior were all selected to the South All-Star roster.

The Miners' Anthony Garcia pitched three scoreless innings, allowing only one hit.

The AzBCA All-Star game is played each year. Players selected to play in the game are all seniors.

More postseason awards for Copper Corridor trio

By Andrew Luberda
Copper Basin News

Two softball players and a baseball player from Cooper Corridor high schools have been named Section Players of the Year by the AIA. San Manuel's Lyana Waddell and Ray's Stormee Galka were named Section VI Softball Co-Players of the Year. The Miners' Shane Kelly earned Section VI Player of the Year honors in baseball. The trio previously earned All-Section recognition.

Waddell, a sophomore, is the ace pitcher of the Miners' back-to-back State Championship team. She finished the season with a record of 27-2, including a win in the championship game. She made 31 appearances this year, recorded 13 complete game shutouts, pitched 167-1/3 innings, and posted a 1.51 ERA. Lyana was an offensive threat as well, hitting .317 with 21 RBI. She had eight extra-base hits, including five doubles, two triples, and a homerun.

Galka, also a sophomore, did it all for the Bearcats' softball team. She was the ace of the pitching staff, going 18 - 7 with a 1.01 ERA. She made 26 appearances, recorded two complete game shutouts, and pitched 145-1/3 innings. As good as Stormee was on the mound, she was even better at the plate. She hit .538 with a 1.518 OPS, .583 OBP, and .935 SLG. She had 50 hits, 35 RBI, and 20 extra-base hits, including 10 doubles, three triples, and seven homeruns. The Bearcats reached the semi-finals of the state tournament this year.

Kelly, a junior, is one of the top offensive players in the state, not just in his Division. He batted an astounding .645 with a 1.590 OPS, .708 OBP, and .881 SLG. Shane recorded 49 hits, 30 RBI, and 14 extra-base hits, including 11 doubles, 2 triples, and a homerun. Kelly was a perfect 26 for 26 in stolen bases on the season. He made four pitching appearances and recorded one win in nine innings pitched. He finished with a 0.78 ERA and nine strikeouts, averaging one strikeout for every inning pitched. This year, the Miners reached the semi-finals of the state tournament for the third straight season.

Local young ladies compete in state open Cinderella competition

Young beauties compete in Cinderella Scholarship Pageant.

By Gloria Beltran
Special to the CBN

On Sunday, April 13, a total of 66 young ladies took the stage to compete in the Cinderella Scholarship Program and Pageant State Open. Among them were four young ladies from the Copper Basin area, and two from San Tan Valley.

Veronica Baez competed in the Cinderella Tot category and placed as second alternate in the Cinderella Tot Personality, while Marissa Baez placed third alternate in the Cinderella Beauty category. Since Veronica and Marissa are the daughters of a co-director they are unable to compete in the local pageant and must compete at the State Open or at the State Finals. They are the daughters of Dolores and Paul Baez. Maria Avenetti, daughter of Lorna and Gabriel Avenetti, won the State Open Overall Cinderella Woman title.

Kayline Pacheco, Pinal County Overall Miss, a score sheet participant, was unable to attend.

Participating from San Tan Valley were Emily and Samantha Meeks, daughters of Tanya Ruth and Brian Meeks. Emily placed third alternate in the talent in the Miniature Miss division, while Samantha won the photogenic title in the teen division.

All five girls will attend the Cinderella State Finals at the Hilton El Conquistador in Tucson, in June, with the Pinal County Cinderella Delegation.

activities connected to the US Department of Urban Development and community services block grants.

Administration of WIA in Arizona is provided by the state Department of Economic Security (DES). Oversight functions include fiscal tracking, participant data tracking, reporting to the US Department of Labor, monitoring the Local Workforce Investment Areas and local service providers for compliance and quality issues, providing training and technical assistance to the system and policy interpretation and development.

Pursuant to federal law, 95 percent of WIA funds are allocated to Local Workforce Investment Areas, with the remaining 5 percent available for discretionary purposes such as administration, statewide initiatives, and competitive grants for employment and training programs.

Core WIA services overseen at the local level include:

- Determining eligibility to receive assistance under WIA Title I
- Outreach, intake and orientation to the information and other services available through the One-Stop delivery system
- Initial assessment of skill levels, aptitudes, abilities, and supportive service needs (child care and transportation and referral to other services as appropriate)
- Job search and placement assistance and where appropriate career counseling
- Provision of employment statistical information relating to the local, regional and national labor market areas and provision of performance information and cost information on eligible providers of training services, youth activities, adult education, post-secondary vocational education, vocational education activities available to school dropouts, and vocational rehabilitation, and

- Information regarding filing claims for unemployment compensation.

One-Stop Centers under the Pinal/Gila partnership are located in Casa Grande and Globe.

On May 21, bipartisan legislation was introduced in the US Senate to overhaul the WIA law. The Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) of 2014 would both streamline and update the program. New standards for performance after training will be required. For instance, a person taking an adult literacy program under WIA will not be considered trained if he just learns to read. He must prove retention of information required to hold a job. More emphasis will be placed on securing employment for high school dropouts and disabled people.

States, which receive funding based largely on levels of unemployment, will also have to submit a strategic plan showing how they will coordinate training, education, and vocational rehabilitation (services for people with disabilities). The system will become more tailored to individuals, instead requiring that everyone follow a rigid "sequence of services" before they are trained. Bureaucratic rules for managing the program will be simplified.

Winkelman Resident:

The Town of Winkelman is conducting a survey to gather essential information to support an application for grant funding from the Arizona Department of Housing. The grant funds would be used to improve a public infrastructure and public facilities within the Town. This survey will also provide critical data to the Town for future CDBG funding and other Federal Grant applications.

Please help! In order for the information from this survey to be valid, we must have everyone respond. All information will be kept strictly confidential, as the actual survey information regarding size of family, income and demographics will be separated from the bottom portion of the survey page. There will be no way for anyone to connect the information you supply regarding your income and ethnic status with your name and address.

Central Arizona Council of Governments (CAG) will collect and tabulate the information. CAG is bonded and conducts surveys of this nature regularly. The community will only be given grouped information, such as, "20% of the respondents are persons with disabilities". Please answer the survey form, sign it, and return it in the enclosed (stamped) self-addressed envelope, by June 23, 2014.

If you have any questions about this survey or have accessibility needs, please contact Sylvia Kerlock - Town of Clerk at the Town of Winkelman at 520-356-7854 or Alan Urban - Community Development Coordinator at Central Arizona Governments, at 480-474-9300.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
/s/ Louis C. Bracamonte
Mayor

Estimado Vecino:

El Pueblo de Winkelman está conduciendo una encuesta para reunir información indispensable para apoyar una solicitud de donaciones de fondos desde el Departamento de Vivienda del Arizona. Los fondos de la donación se utilizará para mejorar la infraestructura y los públicos servicios públicos de la ciudad. Esta encuesta también proporcionará datos críticos a la ciudad para futuros CDBG y otras aplicaciones de Subsidio Federal.

Por favor, ayuda! En orden para obtener la información de esta encuesta para que sea válido, todos debemos responder. Toda la información se mantendrá estrictamente confidencial, como la actual encuesta información con respecto tamaño de familia, ingresos y demográficas será separado de la parte inferior de la parte inferior de la página de la encuesta. No hay manera de que alguien conecte la información que usted proporcione en relación con su ingreso y condición étnica con su nombre y dirección.

Arizona Central de Gobiernos (CAG) recogerá y tabular la información. CAG está pegado y realiza encuestas de este tipo con regularidad. La comunidad sólo se dará información agrupada, por ejemplo, "20% de los encuestados son las personas con discapacidad".

Por favor responder el formulario de encuesta, firmarlo y devolverlo en el estampado sobre por el 23 de junio de 2014.

Si usted tiene alguna pregunta sobre esta encuesta o tiene necesidades de accesibilidad, por favor póngase en contacto con Sylvia Kerlock, Secretaria Municipal, en la ciudad de Winkelman 520-356-7854 o Alan Urban, Coordinador de Desarrollo Comunitario en los Gobiernos del Centro de Arizona, enl 480-474-9300.

Gracias por su cooperación.

Sinceramente,
/s/ Luis C. Bracamonte
Alcalde

Outdoor fire restrictions in Gila County begin

Globe - With the current dry, windy, and hot weather conditions there is an increased danger of fire. Restrictions on open outdoor fires begin on Friday, May 23 for both the unincorporated areas of Gila County and the Tonto National Forest.

Gila County remains committed to helping residents protect their property from wildfires, as well as providing resources to the Tonto National Forest and local Fire Departments for quick response to fire starts. Gila County has facilitated the establishment of a total of 45 locations that have adequate water resources available for rapid response to fires, including 26 that have been established with water dip tanks and military surplus water holding bladders. In the heavily forested areas, this allows for no more than a five minute response time from any fire start to an available water source. In Gila County there are at least 100 fire starts in a typical season. Since 2006, this system of water sources has held all but two of the fire starts to 15 acres or less. The exceptions were the Water Wheel Fire and the Poco Fire.

Gila County Ordinance 11-02 stipulates that each time the Tonto National Forest issues fire restrictions, similar restrictions will apply to all unincorporated areas within Gila County. This excludes all cities, towns and Indian Reservation lands. The ordinance prohibits residents from building, maintaining, attending or igniting open outdoor fires, bonfires, campfires, or fireworks. Each violation pursuant to this Ordinance shall result in a civil penalty not to exceed $500.00 for each violation. The complete ordinance can be found at: <http://bit.ly/1rerGBI> under "Open Outdoor Fires."

According to Sheriff Adam Shepherd, "The Gila County Sheriff's Office has a zero tolerance policy on violations of the County's Fire Ordinance and the public should expect our officers to be on full alert during this year's fire season."

The Tonto National Forest Restrictions prohibit most types of fire or fire-causing activities including smoking outside of a cleared area or operating internal combustion power tools, welding equipment and torches throughout the Forest. However, some developed campgrounds are exempted from the restrictions.

Please note, all fireworks are prohibited on the forest at all times. Violation of the Tonto National Forest restrictions is punishable by a fine of up to $5,000 and imprisonment for up to six months.

More information on the Tonto National Forest Fire Restrictions can be found at www.fs.usda.gov/tonto.
