LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Supervisor says no attempt was made to direct RICO funds

There have been some letters to the editor regarding the Board of Supervisors wanting to tell our Sheriff and County Attorney how to spend RICO funds.

In short – there was no attempt at directing the Sheriff or County Attorney in regards on how to spend RICO funds. By state law, the Board of Supervisors has no voice in the matter whatsoever. We cannot tell the Sheriff or County Attorney where to disburse any funding from RICO. The ultimate decision comes down to the County Attorney who receives a request from the Sheriff's Office and will either decide whether or not to give the funding.

For some unknown reason, many people were given the mistaken impression that the Board was trying to tell the Sheriff where to spend the money. The ultimate truth comes in the form of a question that Chairman Anthony Smith asked the Sheriff – if his department could direct RICO money to help fund some of their operational needs. That's all it was – a question, not a directive. Let me emphasize again, the Board of Supervisors has no say where the Sheriff or County Attorney spend their RICO funds.

When I was in the Arizona Legislature, the question was brought up whether or not elected governmental bodies like a Board of Supervisors or City Councils could have any say where RICO funds were spent. That effort was struck down immediately after pressure from law enforcement lobbyists.

I see the benefits of RICO funding across the district, from after-graduation programs to sponsoring little league teams. Yes, RICO funds do help, you will get no argument from me. My passion is for a strong community, where children are given opportunities to grow, learn and play. My Master's Degree from Arizona State University is in Social Service Administration. As a counselor I have worked closely with children from all walks of life. If there is any question about my desire for a good future of our children in Pinal County, let that be answered from my past work and efforts in the legislature.

What was meant as a simple question on using RICO funds for operational expenditures, has turned into a false impression by some that the Board was trying to tell the Sheriff and County Attorney where to spend that money. Whoever helped to propagate that idea should apologize to all the groups that receive RICO funds.

Sincerely,
/s/ Pete Rios

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

RICO funds important for youth activities

The Pinal County Juvenile Court Community Advisory Board (CAB) represent a group of volunteers who work with the courts to help evaluate and enhance services to young people.

The common interest is to ensure that Juvenile Court practices continue to reflect the best interests of youth, families, victims and the community. The group does this through a variety of volunteer based programming and special events.

The work of the CAB advocates for the best interests of youth, families, victims and our community. CAB builds character in our youth, holds them accountable, provides mentoring to make positive and healthy life choices.

We help youth in Pinal County understand restorative approach through positive consequences, promote important social skills, build their self-confidence and self-image, all of which is needed to take on the many challenges that life promises.

As a volunteer group, we rely on community donations. RICO funds from the Pinal County Sheriff's Office, County Attorney's Office and Casa Grande Police Department has helped with our many activities. There is NO better use of seized criminal money than for this purpose.

In fact, over the past several years, our group has received statewide recognition from the Arizona Chief Justice of Supreme Court and the Governor's Office of Volunteerism. It is without a doubt that we received such high honors because we had community support and financial funding from RICO grants.

We sincerely appreciate and support the use of RICO funds for youth activities in Pinal County because we see the good things it allows volunteers like us accomplish.

Defendants in Milo Candelaria case have court hearings

Juan Lopez and Anthony Sigala were both in court recently regarding their bonds. The two have been charged in the beating death of a Kearny man.

Sigala was indicted on March 10 by the Pinal County Grand Jury for second degree murder. He was held on a $100,000 secured bond. According to Jim Knupp, Public Information Officer for the Pinal County Attorney's Office, a motion was filed on May 22 by the Public Defender's Office to "reconsider conditions of release" and a hearing was set for Monday, June 2, 2014. On May 30, Knupp said, the Deputy Public Defender filed a motion to vacate the release hearing "for the reason that the defendant has posted bond in this matter."

Lopez was indicted on March 10 for aggravated assault, assault and threatening/intimidation. He was held on a $20,000 secured bond. Knupp said the Court denied his motion to modify release conditions on March 30, 2014, and ordered that the conditions remain as previously ordered. Lopez was scheduled to have a pretrial conference hearing on Monday, June 2, 2014, before the Honorable Judge Gilbert Figueroa.

Milo Candelaria was assaulted Friday, Feb. 21, in front of La Cantina in Kearny. He was transported by helicopter to University Medical Center in Tucson where he later succumbed to his injuries.

Both defendants are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

Remembering the fallen: Arriaga's name should be added

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

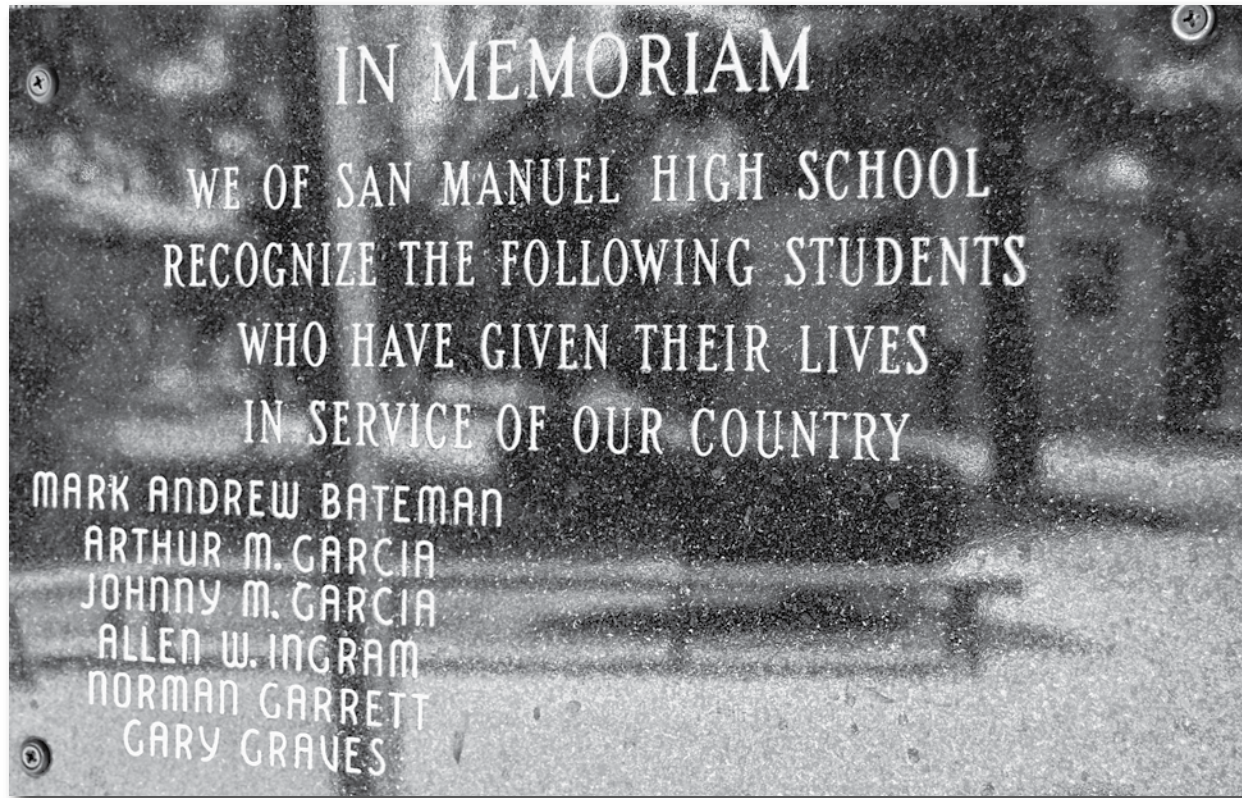

While stationed in Hawaii he met a young woman and fell in love. They were married and had three children.

When he was killed, his wife was expecting their fourth child. Tony was the first soldier from the Tri-

Community area to be killed in the Vietnam War.
Sgt. Arriaga was killed by small arms fire while on patrol in Hau Nghia Province, South Vietnam. He was 27 years old. Tony was buried in Hawaii where he had found a new life with his wife and children. His name is listed on the Vietnam Memorial Wall as being from Waipahu, Hawaii on the Island of Oahu. He had lived in Jerome, Tiger, San Manuel and Oracle. He had attended San Manuel High School but left early. Some of his family members still live in the Tri-Community.

Monday, May 26, was Memorial Day, a day to remember those brave men and women that went to war and never returned. One such man from the Tri-Community who made the ultimate sacrifice was Tony Arriaga. In the May 19, 1966 issue of the San Manuel Miner, the headline read "ORACLE MAN KILLED IN VIETNAM WAR". It went on to tell the story how Tony Arriaga when he turned 18 left school early to join the Army.

Honoring student who made the ultimate sacrifice for their country.

John Hernandez | Miner

I bring this story up as a reminder to honor those that have given their lives for this country but also to acknowledge that Arriaga's name is not listed on the memorial plaque at San Manuel High School which recognizes those "students who have given their lives in service of our country". It is time for his name to be placed on the memorial plaque. He may not have graduated from San Manuel High School but he attended school there and grew up in the area. Let him join his brothers in arms from our community that also made the ultimate sacrifice:

Mark Andrew Bateman – Oracle
Arthur M. Garcia – Mammoth
Johnny M. Garcia – Mammoth
Allen W. Ingram – San Manuel
Norman Garrett – San Manuel
Gary Graves – San Manuel
Another thought on Memorial Day

This Memorial Day should have also been a day to think about those that returned from war. Many of them came back wounded in body and spirit. They deserve to be treated with respect and earned the benefits of their government

Walk on down to Cricket Ave.

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

The Cricket Avenue store in Oracle was open in January 2014. The eclectic store is owned by Kristy Claire and Jayme Reida. Jayme and Kristy have been friends for over 20 years and are from Kansas originally. Their husband's jobs brought them to Arizona. They got started operating a business in an antique mall in Tucson. They were out "junking in Oracle" Jayme said, when they came across the antique store that was for sale that is now Cricket Avenue. They had been working antique fairs and selling items on consignment. They wanted to be their own boss and buy and sell their own items. They bought the store and named it Cricket Avenue after "Cricket Alley" a boutique in Wichita, Kansas where Jayme's grandmother used to work in the 1970s.

Cricket Avenue is a vintage, resale boutique store that has a large selection of items to choose from. They carry furniture, antiques, jewelry, vintage & upscale clothing, 50s, 60s and 70s retro, western wear including cowboy/cowgirl boots, western art & items, gift items. "junque" and more. "Something for everyone" said Kristy. They just got in a new line of UNWINED scented candles that are made of recycled wine bottles and natural soy wax. The "relaxing" scents come in a

Fourth grader collects diapers for parenting program

If you have ever thought, "I'm just one person; I can't make a difference," you need to meet Star Chavez, a student at MESS (Mammoth Elementary Stem School). When challenged to think of a community service project, Star thought about the Family First Pregnancy Care Center in Oracle where her aunt, Catherine Starks volunteers.

Knowing that mothers enroll in the Earn While You Learn Program provides valuable lessons in parenting, life skills, Toddler Program, Practical Fatherhood and child development with the incentive to earn material assistance like diapers. Star decided to try to help bring in diapers for the families. She began talking to people at the school, her classmates, friends, and family members telling them about the need.

During the following two weeks to her amazement she received dozens of diapers of all sizes. She and her aunt loaded all the packages into the car and brought them to Family First at 1575 W. American Ave. in Oracle.

Star, a fourth grader, on her own collected over 1400 diapers and wipes and donated them to the center. She made a difference in the lives of many families. We invite mothers, fathers and grandparents to participate in the programs. The Ten for Teens program is a great way to volunteer for a community service project for National Honor Society or add to your resume for high school and college applications. Come find out what it's all about by calling 520-896-9545 or stopping by the office any Monday, Wednesday or Friday. All the classes are free, practical and informative.

Star Chavez, a student at Mammoth Elementary STEM School, collected a huge stack of diapers for Family First Pregnancy Care Center.

San Manuel Wrestling to hold softball tournament

San Manuel Wrestling will hold the sixth annual Co-Ed Softball Tournament Fundraiser on June 28 at the San Manuel softball fields. The event has been successful in the past and they are looking forward to another exciting event. The San Manuel Wrestlers are participating in volunteer workouts over the summer. Coach Daniel Najera encourages everyone to practice, lift and work hard so that they can become champions this winter season.

The sport of wrestling is somewhat an individual sport but having teams helps contribute with moral support and encouragement which can help with enhanced performances. The volunteer coaches teach sportsmanship that includes behavior on and off the mat showing admiration for opponents. The wrestling coaches teach teammates to participate with each other, safety rules and healthy competitions.

The people in our community that volunteer to help make these programs triumphant are the backbone of our youth. They are pleased to provide instruction and dedication for a gratifying experience to everyone involved.

If interested in participating in the upcoming softball tournament please contact Daniel Najera at 520-603-9929 to enter a team. There will be well stocked concessions available and prizes for the first and second place teams. All proceeds will benefit San Manuel Wrestling. All San Manuel athletes please feel free to work out in the weight room every Monday through Thursday. The weight room opens at 8 a.m. this summer. Daniel Najera said, "If you want to be successful, get with the program."

medical care. The news about the scandal at the Veteran's Administration Hospital in Phoenix was alarming. There is also news about how the V.A. hospitals find it easier to prescribe opiates and psychotropic drugs for veterans at a high rate because it is cheaper and easier than providing counseling services for veterans suffering from Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. While this is going on, the Republican legislators are blocking funding for V.A. programs and facilities. Instead of taking action they are turning the problem into a political game instead of fixing it. They should be ashamed!

variety of fragrances. The girls said “People like to come in and just look”. “We are getting good feedback from everyone that comes in.” If there is something you are looking for and can’t find it in the store let Jayme or Kristy know and if they come across it they can contact you. If you are having an estate sale or know of one, let Jayme or Kristy know. Cricket Avenue gets in new items weekly and will post photos of some of the new stuff on their Facebook page.

People from Oracle come in to buy gift items for holidays and special occasions. The boutique can help you find that unusual or exceptional gift for your loved ones and will also wrap it for you. Jayme says they are “looking forward to introducing Chalk Paint to the Oracle area and classes to follow”. Chalk Paint is used for painting furniture. It has an advantage as no prep work needs to be done. The store will carry a Chalk Paint line and will teach classes on painting furniture.

Cricket Avenue is located at 1285 American Avenue in Oracle. You can contact them at (520)391-0151 or visit them at www.facebook.com/CricketAvenue. Come and take a walk down Cricket Avenue. It will be worth your time!
