Who said Pinal County has a water problem?

United Way of Pinal County made a special delivery of water and other snacks to the Superior Fire Department. Oracle Fire Department received a similar delivery as part of the Heat Relief Network.

Cat Brown | Copper Area News

As we prepared to say goodbye to the month of June, we would be remiss not to think that we have had it pretty easy. While the average temperature is 3 degrees higher than the average temperature in the past it feels cooler in Pinal County.

In 2013, Apache Junction City Councilwoman Robin Barker helped lay the foundation for something that would become life-changing for hundreds of people. Barker gave her water bottle to a woman in need during the summer months. Knowing how hot it was outside and knowing that by staying hydrated, you can remain alive, she mobilized and created the "water for a living" drive in Apache Junction. Over the years, the Water for a Living Drive has grown, morphed, and been adopted in new communities throughout Pinal County. Six years later, the water drive is organized and led each year by the United Way of Pinal County as part of the Pinal County Homeless initiative.

The drive has evolved. Still sticking to its roots of a water collection effort, in 2018, the UWPC along with Central Arizona Governments, the Pinal County Public Health Department, Community Action Human Resources agency and communities in Pinal County formed a coalition, the Pinal County Heat Relief Network (HRN). In collaboration with more than 70 government, business, social service, and faith-based agencies this network provides information on hydration stations, refuge locations and water donation sites throughout Pinal County to prevent heat-related deaths among people experiencing homelessness and other vulnerable populations.

In 2016, heat-related deaths took 233 Arizona residents from us. According to the Arizona Department of Health Services, 38 percent of all Pinal County heat-related hospital visits were due to occupational hazards/exposure. In 2017, the largest population of emergency department visits across the Grand Canyon State were from 20-44 years of age. Of the 2,957 heat-related illness visits, 2,634 were residents of the state.

For the 2019 summer season, the HRN organizing partners set an ambitious goal of 50 pallets of water (110,000 individual water bottles) across Pinal County. Launching the HRN on May 1, and running through Sept. 30, that gave five full months to collect and distribute that water.

It's been a unique summer. Generous community members, inspiring business leaders and a few unfortunate forest fires in Pinal County have led to tremendous response so we head into July with 47 pallets already in hand or distributed. The UWPC, in partnership with a local real estate office, Lost Dutchman Realty, and its accompanying community foundation, LDR Foundation, in Apache Junction, successfully held a water drive to distribute water to our local Pinal County first responders. It is important to note that the crews fighting the Woodbury fire in Pinal/Gila County are unable to accept donations as they are comprised of state and federal resources. However, what many do not realize is that their brothers in arms -- the local Pinal County crews -- saw their resources slipping from their grasps at a faster than average pace.

The local first responders also help in "disaster mitigation" on top of dealing with their daily calls and emergencies.

Roughly 25 pallets of water, three pallets of Gatorade/electrolyte-style drinks, and a pallet and a half of non-perishable snacks were raised and distributed. Local emergency services agencies like the Queen Valley Fire District, the Superior Fire Department, the Superior Police Department, the Oracle Fire Department, Rural Metro, and the Gila County Emergency Management office were among the beneficiaries. The Gila County Emergency Management office received supplies due to the evacuation of the Roosevelt Lake area. An evacuation shelter was set up in the Globe/Miami community for the several hundred residents affected by the evacuation.

We are grateful for this generosity, but we are not done yet. There are three full months of summer heat ahead of us and donations are still needed for our local social service agencies. Pinal County Sheriff's office alone requires 16 pallets of water just for their patrol vehicles and services provided. The UWPC, in partnership with Pinal County Emergency Management, is also looking to place at least eight pallets in various strategic locations in case of an emergency as part of the Emergency Disaster Response Team.

"While we are blown away by the generous nature of Pinal County, we know the work is not done," said Braden Biggs, community programs manager for the United Way of Pinal County. "We are asking all of Pinal County to #LiveUnited to ensure that we stay hydrated and help our most vulnerable community members in the months to come!"

We are still in need of heat relief stations, hydration stations, drop off stations and emergency refuge stations across Pinal County. If you would like to donate, you can contact the United Way of Pinal County at (520) 836-0736. To make a monetary donation or learn more, text

Belonging to God

In Psalm 24:1 we read these words, "the earth belongs to the LORD, and its fullness, the world and those who dwell in it." Since the world is our home, it is a valid point that 'we' belong to God.

The question then is -- do we live in a manner that recognizes such a relationship to God? Is God honored by our actions and words as His possession? Do we live up to His expectations?

Yes, God has rules for us to follow and live by. He has commandments that are not meant to be broken or ignored. Psalm 146:5, "Blessed is he whose hope is in the Lord." Psalm 147:11 states, "The LORD takes pleasure in those who fear Him, in those who hope in His mercy."

Our God is an awesome God, one who challenges us to live scripturally and in holiness. It is not hard, but we must be dedicated and obedient to His required life style. Psalm 141:10 says, "the unbeliever will trip himself up, while we walk in the Lord's blessings!"

Construction ahead! Road work continues in Superior

The Town of Superior Public Works Department has been busy filling potholes and working on significant road repairs throughout the town of Superior. The focus of the work over the past few weeks has included filling the potholes and crack sealing on Gorham St., Spray St., South St., Mitchell Dr., Medlock Dr., Pinal Ave. Santa Rita St., Copper St. and Belmont Ave.

This week, a seal coat will be applied to Copper St. and Pinal Ave. Residents can expect some traffic delays during the seal coating and those living in neighborhoods where the seal coat is applied may be asked to move vehicles from the street. Seal coating is a process that will seal the pavement to prevent further damage due to water, sun, oil and use.

Town Manger, Todd Pryor reports that 80 tons, or approximately four semi loads of asphalt have been delivered to the Town. That asphalt is being used throughout the Town to make these much needed road repairs.

"This is not the end of our 'Save our Streets' project. Work will continue until every street is at least stabilized to stop further degradation," he said.

The roads are repaired based on critical need which was addressed in the Town of Superior Pavement Improvement Plan. The pavement improvement plan was adopted by the Town Council in 2016 and is the guiding document to determine what is needed to preserve the roads in Superior.
