Municipal Elections for 2022 across the Copper Corridor: open seats in Hayden, Winkelman and Kearny

Arizona voters, televisions, radios, and mailboxes are all starting to be consumed by information from candidates in the upcoming primary elections for Governor, Secretary of State, State School Superintendent, State Legislature and federal seats for Congress and a Senate seat. What many may not realize is that our local elections for Mayor and Town Council seats are also on the ballot at the Aug. 2 election.

Copper Area News is providing an update on which seats are up for re-election, who is seeking re-election and which races have opposition. Registered Independent voters may need to reach out to the Pinal County Elections office to request a ballot. With the 2020 Census complete, voters also should be aware that legislative and congressional districts have changed. The majority of the Copper Corridor is now in Congressional District Two and Arizona State Legislative District 7.

Pinal County residents are urged to check their mail in ballots to ensure that local municipal elections are on the ballot. It was determined this week that many Cities and Towns had their elections left off ballots to almost 70 precincts. At press time it is determined that it has affected voters in Superior, Apache Junction, Casa Grande, Eloy, Maricopa, Mammoth and Queen Creek. (Copper Area will provide information for voters in Superior and Mammoth on how the county is rectifying the situation, information we did not have at press time.)

Kearny: Voters in Kearny Town limits will need to vote for a new mayor and three council seats. Current Mayor Jamie Ramsey did not seek re-election due to policies at her place of employment that restrict employees from seeking elected office. Councilmember Thomas O'Conner and recently appointed Councilmember Curtis Stacy are both running for the Mayor's seat. Councilmember Rudy Flores and Daniel Radcliff will not be seeking re-election leaving three council seats up for election. Jackie Jackles and Aleynia Boatman will both be on the ballot. The Council will need to appoint someone to the third vacant council seat in January. Kearny voters were not affected by the Pinal County municipal election errors.

Hayden: The Hayden Town Council recently moved to a five-member Town Council from the a seven-member Town Council. Mayor Dean Hetrick will seek re-election to his seat, he is running unopposed. Vice Mayor Bobby Smith is also seeking re-election for one of two vacant council seats. Both are running unopposed and vacancies after the election will be filled by appointment by the Town Council in January.

Mammoth: The Town of Mammoth has three Councilmembers up for re-election plus a vacant council seat that voter will be able to vote for the candidate. There are six candidates running for the four seats. Incumbent candidates Annie Martinez and Ernie Bustamante will be seeking re-election and the following residents are also running against the incumbents for the four seats: Irene Germain, Tracy Haun, Joe Dietz, Don Jones and Alvaro Barcelo. Recently former mayor Joe Dietz was appointed to fill a vacancy on the council due to the resignation of Juan Ponce. All voters in Mammoth Town boundaries will be receiving a mail in ballot with the municipal elections on it. Voters will need to mail those ballots back, if you are a voter who votes day of elections, you will still need to go to the local polling place to vote on your State, County and Federal elections.

Superior: Residents of Superior will be voting for Mayor and three council seats. Current Mayor Mila Besich is seeking re-election and is running un-opposed. Her name will be on the ballot. Incumbent candidates Vice Mayor Michael Alonzo and Councilmember Aguilar will be seeking re-election for two of the three open seats, their names will be on the ballot. Amy Byrd and Elizabeth Magallanez are also candidates for the open seats, their names will not be on the ballot as they returned paperwork for candidacy after the ballot deadline. Voters can choose to write in their names on the ballot; both met the official qualifications for write-in candidates. The third seat will be vacated by retiring Councilmember Stephen Estatico. Councilmember Estatico served on the Superior Town Council will complete nine years of service to the Town of Superior in November 2022. Superior was also affected by the Pinal County ballot printing errors. Pinal County will be mailing all voters in the Superior Municipal Town limits a supplemental ballot with the Mayor and Council elections to be mailed back. Voters who are day of voters will need to return the supplemental ballot via mail or drop off at one of the County Recorders offices.

Winkelman: The Town Winkelman has three council member seats for voters to fill. Incumbent candidates seeking re-election for these seats are: Emilia Rutledge and Angela Skillings. The third seat was filled by Joe Martin; Martin recently resigned from the Winkelman Town Council due to health issues. A local resident has submitted an application to be appointed by the Council. The Winkelman Town Council will consider the appointment at their July 25 meeting. Winkelman is a five-member town council and the Mayor is appointed from within the Council.

Support Local: Kearny Elks #2478

In April 2020, COVID-19 brought much of Arizona's economy to a screeching halt. All businesses not deemed "essential" were ordered closed by Arizona's governor Doug Ducey.

The lockdown continued for nearly two months. When Gov. Ducey finally gave the go ahead to reopen, businesses slowly began the road to recovery. Even those listed as "essential" had a challenge with this economic recovery.

Many small businesses and non-profits in Arizona didn't survive the lockdown. The businesses that did survive are hanging on as best they can. Copper Area News wanted to give something back to the local business community as a thank you for supporting us through these troubled times. Our newspapers (Copper Basin News, Superior Sun and San Manuel Miner) have been featuring local businesses and non-profits since the beginning of 2021, encouraging our readers to Shop at Home, stay local and support our local businesses and non-profits. To date, Copper Area News has featured 141 businesses and organizations in the Copper Corridor.

As the COVID-19 Pandemic took its toll, businesses, families and even local non-profits had to adjust their strategies to keep their missions moving forward while working through the pandemic. Meetings were moved to Zoom and fundraisers had to become creative as in-person events were not allowed.

The Benevolent Protective Order of Elks is a nonprofit fraternal organization which promotes leadership, charity and friendship. Each of the 44 individual lodges in Arizona selects its own charities to donate funds to through grants and fundraisers. Kearny #2478 (the Elks) donates to the Arizona Elks Major Projects which has a research facility in Tucson and also takes children from all ages with life threatening diseases without any cost to the parents.

The Elks also donate to a Youth Camp by Young, which allows all types of youth organizations to spend time up there for only the cost of their food, insurance, and the propane used in a fully equipped kitchen.

Our local Elks have donated more than $1 million to various organizations in the Copper Basin area, including Meals on Wheels, high school athletics, PTO and Student of the Month in Kearny. Food banks in Kearny, Hayden and Superior have also benefited.

They also contribute to the Youth Banquet during National Youth Week, honoring winners of all youth activities sponsored by Grand Lodge and the AZ Elks Association, Hoop Shoot free throw competition, and Red Ribbon Week, including Drug Awareness Red Ribbons for all primary and elementary schools in the three towns along with a poster contest for fourth through seventh grade levels.

At Christmas time food baskets are delivered by the Elks to the needy in the Copper Basin area and a Children's Shopping Spree is available for low-income families.

Finally, there are the more patriotic elements that the Elks contribute to the Copper Basin area, such as an Americanism Essay Contest that is held for third through sixth grades and the Flag Day celebration, most recently held by Kearny Elks #2478 on Tuesday, June 14.

The Elks Flag Day Program featured Joanne Lerma, Angela Buso and Frank Buso along with the Kearny Little League players presenting the flags in chronological order of the history of the United States of America. Flag bearers included Xavier Granillo, Jessie James, Gabriel Boyd, Isaiah Herring, Jacob Bracamonte, Isaiah Perez, Juanico Lopez, Gage Boyd (POW/MIA FLAG) and Logan Rice. Other Elks helping were Rod Chase, Julian Acevedo and Sheila Stephenson. Refreshments were then served as a big thank you to the participants and their parents.

If you are interested in joining and volunteering your time with the Elks Lodge # 2478, look online at Elks.org for more information or contact a member of the Elks. The lodge is open Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 5 p.m. Or, call the secretary at 520-827-9409.
