Arizona Independent Redistricting Commission seeking public input on new Legislative and Congressional District boundaries; Pinal County event set for July 23

The Arizona Independent Redistricting Commission (IRC) invites residents to participate in its first round of statewide public hearings beginning July 23 and continuing through Aug. 9, 2021. Information will be presented both in person and virtually about the redrawing of Arizona's congressional and legislative districts. Public comment received during these meetings will be used by the IRC to help inform the drawing of new district boundaries. Commission Chair Erika Neuberger urges all Arizonans to attend one of these important hearings to ensure their voices will be heard.

Over the next few months the Commission will be making decisions about Arizonans' future voting districts. Voting districts determine what district a resident will vote in for representation in the United States Congress and the Arizona State Legislature. Redistricting is necessary as it takes into account any population changes from the last ten years and creates districts of equal population.

Arizona voters passed Proposition 106 in the 2000 General Election, amending the Arizona Constitution to create a five-member commission to redraw congressional and legislative district boundaries based upon census data. The IRC is made up of two Democrats, two Republicans and an independent Chair elected by the other commissioners. The chair must not be a member of either party already represented on the Commission. Proposition 106 replaced the old process in which the State Legislature established the districts.

One of the goals of the IRC public hearings is to solicit public input about communities of interest. There are forms available at the public hearings, and or on the IRC website that can be used to define an area that you feel should be considered a community of interest.

Times and locations of the hearings for Pinal County includes:

Friday, July 23, 2021 - 5 p.m. (Pinal County)

Main Location

Pinal County Historic Courthouse

135 N. Pinal St.

Florence, AZ 85132

Satellite Location

Superior Town Hall

199 N. Lobb Ave.

Superior, AZ 85173

Satellite locations are intended to offer individuals in different parts of a region a more convenient location to participate in these public hearings.

Persons with a disability may request reasonable accommodation, such as a sign language interpreter, by contacting Valerie Neumann at ircadmin@azdoa.gov. Requests should be made as early as possible to allow time to arrange the accommodation.

For more information about the Independent Redistricting Commission or to submit electronic comments, please visit www.irc.az.gov

IRC Mission: The Independent Redistricting Commission's mission is to redraw Arizona's congressional and legislative districts to reflect the results of the most recent census.

The concept of one-person, one-vote dictates that districts should be roughly equal in population. Other factors to be considered are the federal Voting Rights Act, district shape, geographical features, respect for communities of interest and potential competitiveness. The state Constitution requires the commissioners – two Republicans, two Democrats and an independent chairperson – to start from scratch rather than redraw existing districts.

A new Arizona Independent Redistricting Commission was appointed in January 2021 to adopt new congressional and legislative districts for Arizona.

After wildfires, drivers should be wary of potential for storm runoff; ADOT says expect the unexpected, possible highway closures

PHOENIX – This monsoon season could prove to be especially disruptive to travel plans after a series of major wildfires has made burn areas susceptible to flooding. That can leave highways covered with mud and other hazardous debris.

Anytime drivers are traveling this summer, the Arizona Department of Transportation is urging drivers to expect the unexpected, including unscheduled closures, near recent burn areas and to take extra precautions.

ADOT crews are prepared to respond to storms and are already working to minimize flood damage. To promote faster response times, crews are moving heavy equipment from storage yards closer to areas susceptible to damage. Also, trucks are being fitted with plows to patrol areas for mud, rocks and boulders or other debris. State highway maintenance crews have been clearing debris to prevent heavy rains from clogging washes or other drainage systems that flow near or under highways.

ADOT's preparation and future responses are being coordinated with other government agencies, including the Arizona Department of Public Safety, emergency management agencies, the National Weather Service, the U.S. Forest Service, fire responders and local governments. The planning includes sharing information about which areas are most vulnerable to erosion and flooding, along with developing response plans to reopen roadways after storm damage.

While the risk of flooding or sudden closures can occur anywhere wildfires have occurred in recent years, some areas are especially vulnerable this summer. Those highways include US 60, SR 77 and SR 177, where the Telegraph Fire has caused widespread damage on roadways forming a triangle between Superior, Globe-Miami and Winkelman.

Storm damage is also possible because of fires in 2021 or recent years on highways that include SR 88, SR 188, US 191 south of Alpine, SR 87 south of Payson and SR 260 between Camp Verde and SR 87.

"We've been clearing debris along highways and drainage systems even before some wildfires are out to minimize flood damage, but the work is ongoing," said

Travis Robinette retires from Sun Life

CASA GRANDE — After more than two decades with Sun Life Family Health Centers, including 15 years as the CEO, Travis Robinette is retiring.

His last day with the health care organization is Aug. 1, almost 23 years exactly from his start date with Sun Life, Aug. 10, 1998.

“I have seen lots of changes,” he said. “When I started, Sun Life had six sites. Now there are 14 and a 15th will soon be announced.”

Replacing Robinette will be Dr. Eddie Estrada, who will move up from his role as chief medical officer to CEO.

“I hired Dr. Estrada 13 years ago,” Robinette said. “He had his own practice and came down here to join Sun Life because he wanted to be a leader as well as a practitioner. He’s very talented.”

Sun Life Family Health Center is the biggest primary health care provider in Pinal County.

Robinette started with the organization as the chief financial officer when he was 43 years old. At the time, he was looking for a position that offered challenging work and growth potential. He also liked Sun Life’s long history in the community and its mission to ensure everyone has access to high quality health care.

“Sun Life has a great 45-year history in Pinal County. It started small but has always done a great job,” he said.

The organization started as West Pinal Health Center but later changed its name to Sun Life Family Health Center. It receives federal grant funds to provide quality primary care services in underserved areas. Some of the requirements for receiving the grants are to provide a sliding fee scale based on ability to pay and have a governing board that includes patients.

Robinette said his goal has always been to make Sun Life Family Health Centers the first choice for primary care among area residents.

“I want people coming to us as their first choice, even when they have insurance and can go to other providers,” he said. “We want people to come to us because of the quality of care.”

Robinette became the CEO in 2006 and within 10 years, Sun Life’s revenue jumped from less than $15 million a year to more than $44 million, according to a 2017 PinalCentral article. The number of employees increased from 146 to 420, and patient visits grew from about 77,000 to about more than 100,000 a year. The numbers are still growing. Sun Life now employs 440 people and revenues for last year were about $44.5 million. The organization now serves about 128,000 patients every year.

But Robinette said his biggest accomplishments over the past 23 years has been working together with a great team to move the health centers forward.

“I have had the great luxury of working with a great team,” he said. “I’ve had the opportunity to refine myself into the kind of leader who could move the ball forward with a good team.”

Robinette attended schools in Stanfield and later Central Arizona College.

After a year at CAC, he dropped out to work full-time for his father who ran a general store in Stanfield. When he was in his 20s, he purchased one of his father’s stores in Pisinemo and ran it with his wife.

After a few years he returned to CAC and later completed his bachelor’s degree at Arizona State University. His first job after graduation was working for a CPA firm. He was later the business manager for the Picacho Elementary School District before joining Sun Life in 1998.

In retirement, he said he will miss the day-to-day challenges of leading a team.

“In a funny way, I’ll miss the stress of

On June 28, the Arizona Youth Partnership (AZYP) came to the San Manuel Community Center with their Summer Youth Leadership Conference. This conference provided fun activities to bring awareness about making healthy (and not illegal) decisions. It was held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

“These programs are to serve as an opportunity for youth between the ages of 12 and 18 to learn about making healthy decisions and the harms of underage drinking, drug use, and tobacco use by participating in fun activities, learning about setting goals for their future from community leaders speaking to them about their experiences in reaching their goals, and networking with other youth in their areas,” wrote organizer Darien Mathews in the conference mission statement.

Their guests for the day were Lori Malangone, CEO of AZYP, Chris Casillas from Regenerating Sonora, and Sheriff Mark Lamb from the Pinal County Sheriff’s Office. Between each guest speaker there were three activities going on simultaneously, with the attendees in groups of three. San Manuel Fire volunteered their truck as educational tool.

All attendees participated in an RC Car Race for Health Decisions, Escape Room on Drug Facts and Teen Maze-House Party. With lunch, snacks and door prizes thrown in, fun was had by all.

Sea Lions host Whiskers vs Thunder Swim Meet

The Sea Lions season continued with a home meet on Saturday, July 10. The Sea Lions Team was split into two squads, Team Whiskers and Team Thunder (both named after team mascots), to compete against each other. In addition to the normal individual events, several fun relays were added that include all age groups on each relay team. Team Thunder won the meet by a score of 390–352. Each team won the same number of races at the meet (25), it was the battle for every point in the top six places that gave the edge to Team Thunder.

For the Sea Lions as a whole, the meet was a success. Swimmers achieved 78 best times in a fun event and got another opportunity to compete. Older swimmers served as team captains and used strategy to set the relay line ups and get swimmers at the correct end of the pool for each of the relays.

This was the first swim meet for six Sea Lions Swimmers. Aubrey Brown (5), Jayden Lutz (5), Jordan Doucette (7), Brielle Ellis (8), Joshua Doucette (11), and Lindsey Vowell (12) swam well in their first meet and all earned ribbons.

The only swimmer on the team to swim the maximum number of individual events and win all of them was Maryann Jacobson (10).

The following swimmers achieved best times in every event they swam at the meet: Jayden Lutz, Teddy Olson, Jordan Doucette, Lucy Olson, Maryann Jacobson, Joshua Doucette and Lindsey Vowell.

He swam in the 8 and under 50 Free as a 6 year old and won it. Late in the meet after swimming 11 events, he had what it took to get his relay team off to the great start they needed to win the final event of the meet.

The Sea Lions still need a few more swimmers. There is still time to join the team - contact Alex or Wendy Gort at 896-2190 or stop by the Mammoth Pool between 4 and 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, for more information.

ROADWORK

Kurt Harris, assistant district engineer for ADOT's Southeast District, who has overseen multiple responses to flood-damaged highways. "We want drivers to be ready for potential rock falls or flood closures, and most importantly to plan ahead this summer to avoid frustrating delays or detours."

While seasonal advice applies to traveling during the monsoon, ADOT asks drivers to pay extra attention this year while traveling near burn areas:

- Check ADOT for road conditions and closures.

Updated information is available at AZ511.gov, through our Twitter or Facebook pages as well on the ADOT Alerts app.

- Know the weather. Check National Weather Service forecasts before traveling and during breaks, keeping in mind summer storms often pop up in the afternoon and evenings.
- Consider delaying travel. If it's raining near a recent fire scar, it's best to stay put because even light rains can lead to flooding on recent burn scars. Storm runoff into drainage systems or washes can leave some low spots along highways subject to flooding and debris deposits.
- Take nighttime precautions. Darkness can obscure boulders, standing water or other hazards. Don't travel faster than what you can safely brake or see with your headlights.

- Sudden highway closures are possible. Because the problem could range from an isolated rockfall to widespread damage, extended closures are possible.
- Expect summertime highway restrictions. Crews will be working along highways to replace guardrail, clear debris along roadways or repair other damage resulting from fires or storms.

Motorists can find more information about emergency updates at www.azein.gov and details about wildfires at www.wildlandfire.az.gov.

By law, no extension of time for the filing of a claim may be granted. The Complaint, when filed by the State, may be pursuant A.R.S. § 13-4311, or it may seek relief under all of A.R.S. § 13-2314, particularly (C), (D), (E), and (F), as well as under A.R.S. §§ 13-4312, 13-4313, and 13-4314. The property was seized for forfeiture by peace officers of the Pinal County Attorney's Office and/or other Arizona law enforcement agencies. If you have not previously received notice of its seizure for forfeiture, this is also notice pursuant to A.R.S. § 13-4306(C). Owners, interest holders and/or claimants who have filed a claim may have remedies available pursuant to A.R.S. §§ 13-4301 et seq. In some circumstances, a person claiming a lawful interest may file, within fifteen (15) days of notice of seizure for forfeiture, an application under A.R.S. § 13-4310(B) to obtain a hearing on the provisional return of the property pending the outcome of a judicial proceeding on its forfeiture. Notice of the order to show cause hearing must be served upon the Attorney for the State at least five (5) working days before the hearing is held. The State may refuse to release the property if: 1) the bond or cash tendered is not in an amount equal to the full fair market value of the property; or 2) the property is retained as contraband or as evidence; or 3) the property is particularly altered or designed for use in conduct giving rise to forfeiture. If you post bond or cash in lieu of the property, the bond or cash and not the property will be subject to forfeiture. If you wish to post a bond or cash in lieu of the property, you may contact the Attorney for the State. If no Notice of Pending Forfeiture is made within sixty (60) days after the seizure of the property for forfeiture, any owner or interest holder may request release of the property, pending further proceedings pursuant to the forfeiture statutes, to be commenced within seven (7) years after actual discovery by the State of the last act giving rise to forfeiture. The request should be addressed to the Attorney for the State and should show that the requestor is an owner or interest holder. If the Attorney for the State declines to authorize release of the property by the seizing agency, the request may be addressed to the Superior Court for the County of Pinal. Any attempt to hide, transfer, convey, or sell any interest in any property seized for forfeiture, or to deposit it with a third party, place it beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, diminish its value or commingle it with other property may result in forfeiture of other property of equal value. If the property is conveyed, alienated, encumbered, disposed of, received, removed from the jurisdiction of the Court, concealed, or otherwise rendered unavailable for forfeiture, these acts may constitute facilitation of money laundering and money laundering, for which you may be criminally liable. # Support Local: Farmers Insurance – Michelle Gonzales-Castro

In April 2020, COVID-19 brought much of Arizona's economy to a screeching halt. All businesses not deemed "essential" were ordered closed by Arizona's governor Doug Ducey.

The lockdown continued for nearly two months. When Gov. Ducey finally gave the go ahead to reopen, businesses slowly began the road to recovery. Even those listed as "essential" had a challenge with this economic recovery.

Many small businesses and non-profits in Arizona didn't survive the lockdown. The businesses that did survive are hanging on as best they can. Copper Area News wanted to give something back to the local business community as a thank you for supporting us through these troubled times. Our newspapers (Copper Basin News, Superior Sun and San Manuel Miner) will be featuring local businesses and non-profits, encouraging our readers to Shop at Home, stay local and support our local businesses. To date, Copper Area

News has featured 81 businesses in the Copper Corridor.

Farmers Insurance is a staple of San Manuel. The agency was established during the days of Magma Copper, 50 plus years ago. The building it was housed in has changed, but services offered have done nothing but grown.

Farmers Insurance offers coverage for your home, vehicles, and business. They also offer other variable insurance, such as life insurance. The insurance agency has changed hands over the last few decades. Currently, it is owned by Michelle Gonzales-Castro. She has worked for Farmers Insurance for 32 years but has been the owner of the agency for 24 of those years.

The office is located at 101 S. McNab Parkway in San Manuel. Farmers Insurance is open 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. You can contact them by phone at (520) 385-2231.

Insurance is most assuredly an essential business. Michelle's office remained open and she was reachable by phone throughout the pandemic. It's good to know our local agent is ready to help.

"We have been an established business in San Manuel for the last 50 years," Michelle said, "thanks to the support of the local and surrounding communities."

Tom Cochran at Farmers Insurance in San Manuel.
