OBITUARIES

Peter M. Guzman

Peter M. Guzman, 69, passed away Wednesday, July 1, 2020, in San Tan Valley following a hard fought battle with colon cancer.

Peter was preceded in death by his beloved parents, Pedro and Anita Guzman, and son, Paul Robert Guzman. He is survived by his wife of 48 years, Roberta. He is also survived by daughters, Jennifer (David) Elvira and Lisa Guzman; son, Preston Guzman; grandchildren, Paul Robert, Preston Daniel, Alexandria Renee, Julianna Sariah, and Alicia Marie; and great-granddaughter, Audrina Selene. Peter is also survived by his brothers, Ysidro, Jesse (Margie), and Aaron (Celestina).

Peter grew up in the Hayden-Winkelman area and graduated from Hayden High School in 1969. He went on to earn his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Northern Arizona University (NAU). Peter later earned his Administrator's Certificate and Principalship/Superintendency also from NAU.

To say Peter's passion for helping to facilitate proper education and motivation to the youth is an understatement. He knew children are the future. Peter was a man who wore many hats. Throughout his career that began at Hayden-Winkelman Schools in 1973, he was a teacher, coach, athletic director, curriculum director, and principal until 2001. During his time at Hayden, Peter was a long-time football and basketball coach. He loved motivating kids to always do better. To this day, he had friendships with many of his former players and students. In 2002, Peter was excited for the challenge of becoming the inaugural Cobre Valley Institute of Technology Superintendent. He remained in this position until his passing. Always ready to take on more, Peter was hired by the Superior Unified School District in 2002. Peter was the elementary, junior high, and high school Principal and Superintendent during his tenure in Superior that ended in 2013.

He and Roberta raised their children in Winkelman and Kearny, Arizona. Peter was one-of-a-kind. He was one of the good guys. He loved his family to the fullest, and he let everyone know they were his priority. Beginning when his children were young, he involved them in sports and coached their teams. For many years, Peter and Roberta moved their family to Flagstaff for the summer months for Peter to pursue his higher education. He remained very involved in his children's education and was able to keep up with their activities since he was employed at the school. Once he became a Tata, he loved following his grandchildren's sporting events and made sure to drive in the importance of their education. He loved sitting on his bed having many conversations about history and politics. Peter's television was sure to be locked in on CNN or the Discovery Channel. He was an avid reader, runner, and even after his diagnosis, Peter still managed to take his miles-long walks.

Peter was a humble and selfless man. Those who knew and loved him, will miss him dearly. A few of his earned accolades are: Arizona School Boards Association Superintendent of the Year, All-Arizona Superintendent Award, All-Arizona Hispanic Coach of the Year, Arizona Coaches Association All-Star Coach for Basketball and Football (Head Football Coach, 1992), Arizona Coaches Association Coach of the Year, and a member of the Hispanic National Task Force selected by then-U.S. Senator Dennis DeConcini to represent Arizona.

A viewing/rosary will be held on July 16, 2020 from 4-7 p.m. at the Queen of Heaven Catholic Cemetery and Funeral Home, 1562 E. Baseline Rd., Mesa, AZ 85204. The rosary and eulogy will begin at 6 p.m. The funeral services will be live-streamed online at Queen of Heaven's website: <https://www.qohcfh.org/obituaries/obituary-listings>. Frank Mendoza Florez

Frank Mendoza Florez, age 92, entered eternal peace on July 8, 2020 with his family by his side and is now reunited with his beloved wife, Mary Martinez Florez, his parents Juan and Paz, his brothers Carlos, Ramiro, Juan Bautista, and his sister Leonor Martan. He is survived by his two sisters, Delia Buczek (Carl) and Olga Erickson; his six children, Jacque Florez-Ball (Todd), Frank (Cindy), Gene (Christine), David (Betty), Gail Ybarra (Albert) and Diane Dona (Jack); 15 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren.

A native Arizonan, Frank was born and raised in Hayden, AZ. His athletic skills, intelligence and determination served him well. He served in the U.S. Navy from 1946 to 1948. While on active duty, he earned his Golden Gloves by winning the heavyweight boxing title in 1948. He admired and respected all servicemen and took pride in being a veteran. After the Navy, he attended the University of Arizona College of Mines and graduated in 1954 with a B.S. degree in mining engineering. He was hired by Magma Copper Co. in Superior, AZ where he and his wife, Mary, raised their family. He earned the respect of his peers and worked his way up the ranks to General Manager. His imposing size and strong voice earned him the nickname "El Oso" (the bear). He retired after 40 years in the mining industry. He was well respected in the industry and the community of Superior.

Frank was also known for his quick wit and dry sense of humor that would make anyone chuckle. He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends and instilling family traditions. He had a specialty of preparing barbacoa and cooking it underground with mesquite coals and provided his culinary skills for the Los Reyes Social Club and the annual Little League BBQ. He would also make his mother's "cocido" soup recipe every Sunday for all of us to eat, even during the summer. He especially enjoyed the annual multi-family camping trip in the Apache White Mountains North Fork area. He was proud of all his children and grandchildren and always encouraged us to do our best, continue our education and to pass on family traditions.

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, a celebration of his life will be held when we are free to share our hugs and stories. The family appreciates all the phone calls, text messages, cards and Facebook comments.

AIA announces delayed start to fall sports season

By Andrew Luberdia
Copper Area News

As the increasing number of COVID-19 cases makes Arizona one of the worst hot spots in the nation, the Arizona Interscholastic Association announced last Friday that the high school fall sports season will be delayed up to three weeks.

The AIA's preliminary plans to make modifications are in accordance with Governor Ducey's executive action to delay the start of in-person schooling until Aug. 17, which will serve as the start of the AIA fall season, at least for now.

In an email to media members, AIA Sports Information Coordinator Seth Polansky wrote, "plans are in place to finish all fall sports seasons on time and in full with modifications. Some of these ideas, among others, will be taken to the leadership of each conference," before adding "nothing is finalized yet."

According to the email, football in the 2A-6A conferences would play an 8-10 game schedule, commencing on Sept. 7, three weeks later than the original Aug. 21 start of the season. 1A football, which includes Copper Area schools Superior, Hayden, Ray, and San Manuel, "is currently looking at modifications, if necessary."

Golf and badminton would start Aug. 24 and Aug. 31, respectively. All other fall sports would begin the week of Sept. 7.

One idea being floated around social media to prevent a complete cancellation of the fall season, if necessary, is moving some fall sports, including football, to the spring.

That is not an option, according to AIA Executive Director David Hines.

"It doesn't make sense for us to look at that because there's a lot of other things going on that kids are involved in activities," Hines said in a Q&A video posted on YouTube. "Another piece of that is coaches; not all of our coaches are teaching at the schools. When they are hired to coach a sport, they're hired to coach a particular season. They [may not] be available at a different time during the season."

Hines estimated that he has been a part of 100 meetings since schools closed in mid-March, as plans have changed and changed again.

"This thing is moving at such a pace that every time you think you might have a plan a new day comes about, and we have to rethink the plans that we have," he said.

Superior Principal Billy Duarte is an AIA Committee member who has been involved in those meetings and can attest to the ever changing discussions taking place about moving forward amid the pandemic.

"Nothing is set in stone because of all the variables," Duarte told Copper Area News, echoing Polansky's words in the email.

San Manuel Athletic Director Damon Lovato acknowledged the anxiety of the unknown among student-athletes, parents, coaches, and administrators, but believes the AIA has been as transparent as it can during these unprecedented times.

"The AIA has been very good at communicating with the schools throughout this whole process," he said. "They've been very clear about where we stand."

Some schools, mostly on the reservations, have already cancelled their entire fall sports seasons, causing other schools to scramble and find replacement games. The AIA will assist those schools in finding alternate games if the decision is to reschedule other opponents. Teams whose schedules are affected may simply play a reduced number of games. Nothing is off the table regarding scheduling as a result of the delay.

O'Halleran hosts town hall – K-12 education and COVID-19

By Jennifer Carnes
Copper Area News

On Monday night, Representative Tom O'Halleran and Joe Thomas, president of the Arizona Education Association, hosted a telephonic town hall to discuss COVID-19 and what it means for K-12 education.

He opened the Town Hall with comments about current legislation, CARES Act funding and the new HEROES Act that members of the House have approved and now awaits Senate approval.

Thomas also spoke about his background, growing up in rural Oklahoma in towns much like those in the Copper Corridor.

Both men spoke on the loss of Hayden-Winkelman teacher Kim Byrd, expressing their condolences to the family and to her students.

Mrs. Byrd's death from complications of COVID-19 and the revelation that she shared a classroom this summer with two other teachers, who also contracted COVID-19, while teaching online summer school has garnered national attention. On Monday, according to the Arizona Republic, President Donald Trump was asked during a news conference about Mrs. Byrd's death and how he would respond to parents who are worried about sending children back to school. His response was to say that the schools need to be opened. He did not speak about Mrs. Byrd. Currently, Arizona schools will be going back on Aug. 17, per Arizona Governor Doug Ducey's Executive Order.

Following the opening remarks by O'Halleran and Thomas, the phone lines were opened up for questions from those attending the teleconference.

David, a school board member from an elementary school district was concerned about obtaining proper PPE for teachers and funding for school districts.

Kathleen, a parent from Winkelman, expressed her concern about the lack of technology for rural schools. Students are being left behind, she said.

Beatrice, who is the mother of a third grader, was concerned about sending her son back to school. What measures are the schools taking, she asked. There is only one teacher for a whole bunch of kids but no teacher's aides.

"They need more workers in the schools," she said.

Thomas agreed.

"We absolutely need more teachers," he said. Arizona, he added, has the highest student to teacher ratio in the country.

Parents demand better and kids should have a quality educational experience, he said.

Rep. O'Halleran said that looking at business and industry response to COVID-19 shows that they had to hire more people to allow for social distancing, checking temperatures, etc.

Schools, he said, had to set the same protocols as businesses and industry.

"We will overcome this," he added, "through the strength of the American people."

Superior Mayor Mila Besich also attended the town hall meeting. She expressed her concern that in the ongoing rush to open schools, rural school districts were being left behind.

Rep. O'Halleran thanked Mila for being on the frontline of rural communities. He spoke about the HEROES Act, which he was urging the Senate to approve. Provisions in the bill would provide more funding to rural communities in this time of COVID-19, especially for broadband services to aid districts with distance learning.

"It can't be done on the cheap," he said.

Thomas said that the government needs to make sure that all the schools are included.

The final question for the meeting came from a teacher, Suzanne, who wanted to know what happens if a teacher tests positive for COVID-19.

Her fellow teachers, she explained, are "very nervous about returning to the classroom."

Social distancing is hard. Masks aren't required. Temperatures won't be taken and even if they are, she said, a lot of parents have no qualms about giving the child a Tylenol and sending them to school.

"Will teachers have protection (for their income) if they become sick?" she asked.

Unequivocally, O'Halleran stated, "Teachers are essential workers." Congress is working on a bill to officially give that status to teachers and childcare workers. As such, they will have protections in the form of unemployment payments in the likelihood that they become ill.

Thomas said that the Arizona Education Association has several advisories on their website (ArizonaEA.org/coronavirus) that addresses these concerns for teachers, including extra time off for being sick, and information about the CARES and HEROES Acts.

To contact Rep. O'Halleran, visit his website at OHalleran.House.gov. From there you can email the Congressman, obtain a mailing address or phone number to one of his offices.

Jax Ethan Formo

Jax's Heart Journey – family hosts raffle to help with expenses

It's every parent's worst nightmare. Healthy pregnancy. Normal delivery. By all appearances everything should be perfect at this happiest of times. Your baby's born, but something is wrong.

One Copper Corridor family is taking that painful journey.

Jax Ethan Formo was born on April 17, 2020 to Hyrum and Camille Formo, weighing 7 pounds, 8 ounces. He has a very proud big sister, Madelynn Odelia Formo.

On Thursday, May 28, Jax was admitted to University Medical Center in Tucson and then was transferred to Phoenix Children's Hospital. He has been diagnosed with Williams Syndrome which is a rare genetic disorder that can cause a wide variety of health issues and developmental delays. In Jax's case, it has caused severe heart problems; left coronary ostial stenosis and heart failure. Jax is awaiting a heart transplant.

Jax has undergone several surgical procedures but with Williams Syndrome, anesthesia tends to alleviate bad reactions thus Jax is always high risk. Currently, Jax is stable, placed with a ventilator, a feeding tube and is being sedated to help keep him from not moving too much and also keep him comfortable.

His family asks, first and most important, for your help in prayer.

"We pray a healthy, strong heart is gifted to our little boy. Pray it comes to Jax very soon and we can move towards his recovery," his grandmother, Laura Lopez said.

Jax is listed at level 1A, the highest level due to his condition.

Currently, because of COVID-19, the family and friends of Jax cannot plan any type of tournament because of disallowing large gatherings. Instead, the family has organized a raffle. The family's permanent residence is in Oracle and monies would assist in travel, lodging, meals, etc. during Jax's stay at Phoenix Children's Hospital.

If you would like to purchase a ticket, you could be the winner of a three-day cabin stay in Greer, AZ, or a 48-quart Calavera Cooler w/two tumblers. Many other prizes have been donated by local hair stylists and restaurants. All tickets will be $10 per chance and can be purchased by calling Laura E. Lopez at (928) 200-0426 or Hyrum Formo at (520) 425-1114.

Editor's Note: There are a few families in the Copper Corridor (mine included) who can say with absolute conviction that the strongest hearts are those with scars. Our thoughts and hearts go out to this little boy and his family.

COVID-19 Positive Case Weekly Report

Copper Area News is committed to providing our readers with as much information as possible. We post a daily update on our Facebook page with the total positive COVID-19 Data. This graph shows the positive cases as of press time on July 14, 2020.

There are a few points we would like our readers to consider when following this data.

1. This will continue to be a rolling total of positive cases. It does not reflect recoveries or deaths. The Arizona Department of Health Services does not break out this data.
2. If you see a reduction in numbers from day to day it is most likely due to a data entry error or mis-coding of a zip code (at the state level).
3. This is all zip code based data; most of our zip codes include unincorporated areas. There is no way to track exactly which areas each of the positive cases are. Example, Kearny and Winkelman each have small communities in their zip code that are not in the Town's incorporated boundaries.
4. If you live in Gila County, please follow the Gila County Health and Emergency Management, Facebook. They have maintained their data on recoveries and current positive cases.
5. You can follow other data such as ICU bed use, Ventilator use and hospital capacity online: <https://bit.ly/3inh280>

Working together, we can slow the spread of the virus across the Copper Corridor. Wear a mask in public, remain physically distant (6 feet apart or more), practice good hygiene (wash your hands frequently, sanitize high touch areas) and stay home if you are not feeling well.

Superior Superintendent addresses COVID-19 concerns

The Superior Unified School District has been busy planning for the 2020/2021 School Year. At times, it has been frustrating because of the lack and or change of information provided by our state government. However, in collaboration with other Pinal County Districts and our membership organizations across the state, we believe we have developed a plan to begin the 2020/2021 school year.

School is set to begin either in-person or remotely for all students on Aug. 17. This is a result of Governor Ducey's Executive Order 2020-44. Please refer to our updated academic calendar on our website. Social-distancing, enhanced cleaning, and hygiene procedures will be in place. Our guidelines and procedures are posted on our website. The implementation of these guidelines and procedures are in place not only as a condition to reopen school but also are also necessary to keep our students and staff safe.

Superior Schools is preparing to provide access to our curriculum through remote-learning. SUSD has purchased electronic devices for all students. We have also purchased WIFI hotspots for those students that do not have access already. We have placed additional information regarding our remote-learning program on our website. In addition, our teachers and staff will be reaching out to all students in order to communicate classroom collaboration and pertinent information.

All parents/guardians can complete and submit a registration packet online. We will be holding a drive-through registration event on July 30. The details of that event will be coming soon. Parents/guardians can also call each school site to arrange to pick-up or drop-off packets. Please also check are website for more additional information.

We are heading into a new era of teaching and learning. There will be some roadblocks and setbacks along the way. Only by working together will we accomplish our goals.

Sincerely,
/s/ Stephen Estatico

Wildfire Safety

Much of the southwest is considered a high-hazard fire environment. Within this hazardous environment are individual homes, and entire communities ill-prepared to survive an intense wildfire. It is not a question of "if" a wildfire will occur, but when. The odds of losing human life and property are growing. The Town of Kearny would like to protect you and the community from the dangers of wildfires. The Fire Chief is very concerned about this upcoming fire season. Even though we have received more rain than usual, it has caused more weeds. Once the rain stops, the weeds will dry out and this will make for a dangerous fire season. Please clear weeds, dry grass, dry shrubs or dead trees surrounding your property. Thank you for your support.

competition resumes on fields and courts, Hines addressed the subject in the YouTube video.

“That’s a governor and CDC decision,” he said. “Bottom line is Governor Ducey and our state has a planned approach, a phased approach to kind of coming back to some type of normalcy.

“Currently, we are in Phase I. Phase II allows groups of up to 50 then in Phase III it opens up where now you can have more people involved,” he continued. “Those decisions will be based on the current numbers in Arizona, the current numbers going on around each county because our schools are really encouraged to pay attention to their county health departments across the state. That will really dictate if we’re going to be able to have some fans around.”

Hines understands the importance of competition for student-athletes, including the mental aspect of it. Of course, the unfortunate experience of the absence of the spring championship season is still fresh in everybody’s mind too. Still, the No. 1 priority remains the safety of the students.

“It is our intention that everything we can do to have the opportunity to participate and compete, we’re going to be able to do that with the understanding that the governor sets the priorities of what we can and can’t do,” he explained.

There remains concern among some coaches about the difficulties of overcoming the challenges this pandemic presents in a return to playing.

“I am concerned,” Superior football head coach Ryan Palmer said. “We can set any guidelines and precautions we want, but the reality is that it is hard to social distance in schools and in sports.

“My current understanding is that the more time that passes, the more knowledge and guidelines will be available. I hope our student-athletes, especially the seniors, get to play this season. They are dedicated and work hard. I know they want a chance to showcase their talents and abilities on the playing field.”

It should be noted that any proposed modifications by the AIA for the fall season are contingent on students being schooled in-person sooner rather than later, which is a hotly debated topic the Copper Area is all too familiar with.

What if schools do not re-open?

“That takes us right out of the mix,” Hines said.

Our Patient Advocacy program works with all patients, regardless of insurance (even those without insurance), to make sure that out-of-pocket costs are affordable for them. This has resulted in an average out-of-pocket cost in Arizona of just $147 (including co-pays and deductibles) for our patients.
