OBITUARIES

Robert 'Bob' Edward Kay

Robert "Bob" Edward Kay, 78, of Superior, Arizona, passed away in the comfort of his home, surrounded by his family on June 26, 2020.

Born in Providence, Rhode Island, Bob's family moved to Arizona when he was a young boy. He attended school in Tucson and San Manuel. At 17, he enlisted in the United States Army, serving in Germany during the building of the Berlin Wall.

Upon his honorable discharge he returned to Arizona where he met Sandra Jeffrey who would become his wife of 46 years. He was a resident of Superior for 58 years. He worked for Magma Copper in 1962 until the mine shut down in 1982. Then worked at the Pinto Valley Mill where he was injured and ultimately medically retired in 1992. Bob never adjusted to the disabilities associated with the accident, which caused great bitterness for the remainder of his life. He enjoyed music, the car hobby, dancing and occasional visit to the casinos.

He is survived by his children, Ron, Tracy, Jeff and CJ. He also leaves behind five grandchildren, Jennifer, Michelle, Robby, Andrew and Trinity. He is also survived by two brothers, Richard (Donna) and Jim. He leaves behind many, many nieces and nephews, and two dear friends, Alice Pierce and Ricki Huggins.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Sandra; grandson, Cameron; and parents, James and Amy Kay.

Bob was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend. He was loved by so many and will be deeply missed by all that knew him.

Your life was a blessing, your memory a treasure, you are loved beyond words and missed beyond measure.

A Celebration of Bob's life with military honors will be held at a later date due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

We Will Miss You, Mrs. Byrd

By Jeff Gregorich

Superintendent, Hayden-Winkelman Schools

It is sad to have to share with all our students and Lobo family the passing of Mrs. Kimberly Byrd on Friday, June 26. She was a beloved first grade teacher and friend to all. Our deepest condolence to her family, her husband, Jessie, her sons, John and Luke, and daughter, Marisa.

Mrs. Byrd was more than just a great teacher, she was a wonderful mother, a mentor, and a friend. She will be forever missed by many. She began teaching in 1982 in the Hayden-Winkelman School District.. She spent several years as an instructional coach in the San Carlos Unified School District before retiring. She missed teaching and children so much and returned back to the Leonor Hambly K-8 School to rejoin her Lobos family.

During her career she has touched the lives of thousands of students, parents, and staff. Anyone who has even known Mrs. Byrd would agree: she would always do whatever it took to help children learn. She loved and cared for her students.

Mrs. Byrd was truly a professional educator that was recognized as a master educator. When teachers had challenging situations on how to teach a program or reach a specific child, the first person they would turn to was Mrs. Byrd. She had a wealth of knowledge and a bigger heart. She was always willing to help anyone.

Mrs. Byrd can never be replaced. She is a one-of-a-kind educator and friend to all. She will be missed but not forgotten. We know she is looking down on us and wanting all of us to keep moving forward. She would want us to continue to help our students learn, even during these difficult times.

The Hayden-Winkelman Unified School District will dedicate the 2020-21 school year to the memory of Mrs. Byrd. She would expect us to work hard every day to ensure each student can have the best education we can provide them.

The Lobo Family will miss you!

Mrs. Kim Byrd

The Faded Flag

I had arrived early to pick up my grandson from school. As I waited for the bell of dismissal, I was moved by emotion as three careless students were handling the symbol of our freedom as if it were just a faded flag. My mind wandered into a place of fake nirvana, as I visualized the flag's behavior of her display during the course of the day. Here's the short clip of Old Glory:

It's a clear and brisk morning, and she was carried outside to the freshness of Mother Nature. She took a whiff of the clean refreshing air, which was definitely a lot better than being locked up inside an office, all folded up. Her first thought, after the big exhale of "Ahhh!" was one of exuberance. She knew she was going to have another opportunity to proudly display her beautiful colors of red, white and blue.

As the flag is hooked on to the cable that transports her to the top of her sitting place, she begins to sing aloud the Star Spangled Banner. Oh, you should have seen her smile as she burst into the victorious phrase, "o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave". Her colors were as sharp as ever; there was no sign of stress as she synchronized her first wave with the light breeze of the morning.

It's 8 a.m. and Old Glory is set high above where she can see the fruit of her labor. She proudly waved to the cluttered streets, the surrounding commercial buildings where the recipients of her accomplishments were going in and out. Mr. Wind – who, by the way, is her best friend – greets her with a soft poof of wind from the side that sports her stars.

Old Glory welcomes his gesture of camaraderie, for he provides her the ability to expand her colors. At the flow of the wind, Old Glory is waving her majestic decor toward the east. It is a great way to start the day, as she moves about with a swagger of pride, knowing that her stripes and stars are what allows people to freely move about in various activities. She is happy because they are helping their neighbors and working together to keep the peace and the hope alive.

Mr. Wind to the west where the flag is now experiencing a change of climate. What was a joyful wave to the east had now turned into a sad and painful wave of her colors. She thought of the children's song that says "his banner over me is love" and tearfully watched the church where the child sings that chorus is also rejecting the poor. It was the opposite of what she observed earlier that morning.

Old Glory was actually speechless as she saw people killing each other, kids suffering and the creation of the Almighty being abused. She was determined that America was not going to live like this, and started singing aloud, "America, America, God shed his grace on thee ...". The wind had ceased just as the clock struck noon.

The red, white and blue had, by now, waved two of her four motions. There was very little motion in the waves, as if someone was saying, "be still". This was the southside of her view from atop the pole, which gave her a clear vista of the commotion and confusion that plagues America.

In spite of the motionless wave of her colors, people were going everywhere in a rush, as they scrambled to different eating places, shopping malls, business meetings, political events and, most of all, the children were playing in the school playground. The flag waited for the first exhaling of Mr. Wind and burst out with funky song, 'Only In America'. The tune got Mr. Wind so excited that he blew and blew until his face turned blue.

In between billows of wind, Mr. Wind yelled out, "Keep on waving, Old Glory! For your colors are the reason America is so blessed and prosperous. " That moved the red, white and blue to say, "Amen!"

She was glowing as she remembered the many times she was waved after a victorious accomplishment by an American, and, also of the thousands of human beings that lived in dark worlds of tyranny; but, now enjoy the freedom of America.

"Oh, yes," she said. "Indeed it is true.;" and sang, "I'm proud to be an American ..." Whew! That was some windy time!

Now, it is 3 p.m. and Mr. Wind has shifted his direction to the north. Old Glory realizes that it is almost time for her to be put back inside the School Principal's office. In the remaining twenty minutes, she proudly waves her dressing; but, this time it is a different proudness. This is the look of dominance and victory. It seems contrasting, almost as if it's like a coin flip, with one side 'heads' and the other 'tails'. On the 'heads' side, there were the men and women who, throughout the history of our nation, served and fought for our colors. She was proud of the thousands of men and women who, today, serve our country as public servants.

What really moved the heart of her wave was the flag that was being created of different colors, as they sang "We are the world...". Just as Miss Flag was about to join in with the choir of diversity, Mr. Wind flipped the direction to the 'tails' side of the coin. This is where my emotion kicks in.

The three students are roughing up Old Glory, as if she hadn't been in enough wars. They tugged her as if they were battling with human rights, all while wrinkling her stars. Then, as she is folded, her tail touches the ground in which blood, sweat and tears have been shed for freedom during many battlegrounds. In spite of the warmness of that spring day, there was moisture on the ground, as if tears were dripping from the stars and stripes.

It was then that I saw the faded flag; but, for a moment, I returned back to reality, and I realized that even when my colors of red, white and blue are not respected, they still outshine any other colors.

Oh, yes! Old Glory sang, "And the rockets red glare, the bombs bursting in air, gave proof through the night that our flag was still there ..."

Governor Ducey orders some business closures and postpones back to school

Within weeks of the end of Arizona Governor Doug Ducey's Stay at Home order in May, the State of Arizona experienced a rapid increase of COVID-19 cases. The increase in positive cases has thrust Arizona into the national headlines for the State's inability to get the virus under control. The Governor issued these new executive orders to help flatten the curve of the virus growth. He also highly recommended that Arizonan's wear masks, but did not mandate a statewide mask requirement.

Governor Ducey's order mandated bars, gyms, tubing and water parks closed for 30 days. The order also called for the cancellation of any events with over 50 people in attendance and limits the use of private pools to less than 10 people. Bars with Class 6 or 7 liquor licenses may continue to sell alcoholic beverages to go.

The Governor also announced that in-person attendance at schools must be pushed back to Aug. 17, 2020. Schools

County offers financial relief to businesses in unincorporated Pinal affected by COVID-19; Rios urges businesses to apply

The Business Sustainability Program is a one-time reimbursement of up to $15,000 to qualifying businesses for rent, mortgage and/or utilities expenses for a three-month period. Qualifying expense periods are either March-April-May 2020 or April-May-June 2020. Applications will be accepted from June 15 - July 15, 2020. Funding will be awarded on a first come first served basis to qualifying small businesses in unincorporated areas of Pinal County, so applicants are encouraged to apply early.

"I encourage all eligible businesses to apply for this funding opportunity. Times are hard and I understand that COVID-19 has seriously impacted many small businesses. Please take advantage of this grant and apply soon," said Supervisor Pete Rios.

To qualify, applicants must be a for-profit business, located at a physical, commercial address in an unincorporated area of Pinal County. Individual Arizona franchised businesses may qualify if the applicant location is within unincorporated Pinal County and the individual franchise location is not owned by a national chain or out-of-state corporation. At this time, non-profit organizations and home-based businesses are not eligible. Applicants must have been negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic.

may start with an online class format, but cannot allow in person classes. Copper Area News will be working on a comprehensive story on how local school districts are working through these new timelines.

Public and private events with more than 50 people are ordered to be cancelled or postponed; some accommodations can be allowed if physical distancing can be assured. The State Liquor Board will not be issuing any special event liquor licenses during these next 30 days. County health officials and the local jurisdictions will be required to enforce these orders.

Due to the ongoing surging growth of the COVID-19 Pandemic, the State of Arizona is also offering $10,000 grants to nursing homes and long term care facilities to allow residents of those facilities to visit with their friends and family in a virtual format.

At press time, the Town of Superior has announced that its laser light show for the Fourth of July has been postponed and they will be closing the local swimming pool.
