On John McCain, Jan Brewer and Other Arizona Elites; And for Muhammad Ali

What's up with John McCain? The former Maverick. I say former because he is now just an old wishy-washy version of himself, another politician who moves whichever direction the wind blows. He was quick to join the blowhard wind of Donald Trump and offered his support despite Trump insulting him along with other prisoners of war when Trump said McCain wasn't a hero and was a loser for being captured. McCain was willing to overlook the insult and Trump's stand on torture of prisoners, hoping that supporting Trump will bring back the far right Republican vote that may help him win reelection.

No self respect left.

It is time for a new Arizona Senator.

Then there is former Governor Jan Brewer telling Trump she is willing to become his Vice Presidential candidate.

Seriously, Jan? You may meet his Mexican-hating requirements and support his wall but unfortunately you do not live up to his beauty queen looks expectations. Michele Reagan, Secretary of State, has already displayed her incompetence (or as I suspect corruption), receiving her marching orders from ALEC and the Koch brothers via Il Ducey. The lack of polling places during the primary election and now the failure to mail out 200,000 publicity pamphlets to voters which may have impacted the vote in Proposition 123 which barely was passed and Proposition 124. Think of the money wasted in having those pamphlets printed.

Do you really think these failures by our Secretary of State are simple mistakes? If they were, she needs to be impeached or recalled. If not keep your eye on our

Court knocks Jones off ballot for District 1 Supervisor; inadequate signatures cited

Donald Jones has been ruled ineligible to run in the Aug. 30 Democratic Primary for Pinal County Supervisor District 1 by Pima County Judge Jeffrey T. Bergin.

In a court ruling issued on June 28, Judge Bergin found that nominating petitions for Jones, who is currently mayor of Mammoth, contained only 39 qualified signatures. This is less than the 43 signatures necessary to be placed on the ballot.

The challenge to Jones' petitions was raised by current District 1 Supervisor Pete Rios, who will now run unopposed in the Democratic Primary for that position. The challenge was heard in Pima County Court as all Pinal County judges recused themselves from the case.

Jones has been unavailable for comment on the court ruling.

The Pinal County Board of Elections confirmed on July 1 that Jones has been removed from the Aug. 30 ballot.

Ted Sorensen remains the only candidate running in the Republican Primary for Pinal County Supervisor District 1 and will thus face Rios in November.

Approximately 1,000 endangered Arizona Hedgehog cactus grown on Resolution Copper's JI Ranch were collected and replanted.

Resolution Copper recognized for environmental leadership highlighting efforts to help protect and preserve the endangered Arizona Hedgehog Cactus

The Arizona Mining Association (AMA) announced the recipients of the 2015 Sustainability, Preservation and Diversity in the Environment (SPADE) award for environmental excellence. The award, which is AMA's top recognition for exemplary achievement in environmental stewardship, recognizes individuals, businesses, organizations and agencies that have made a remarkable contribution to invest in creative ways to protect and preserve Arizona's precious natural resources. This year's awardee is Resolution Copper.

"AMA member companies are leading through action, forging new alliances and developing innovative ways to help Arizona achieve a healthy environment and a robust economy," said Kelly Shaw Norton, president, Arizona Mining Association. "We are honored to recognize the exceptional efforts of Resolution Copper employees, our 2015 SPADE Award winner, who have gone above and beyond to ensure that Arizona's natural resources and beauty will be enjoyed today and by future generations."

Resolution Copper is developing one of the largest copper deposits in the world in the area of the former Magma Copper mine near the town of Superior, 65 miles east of Phoenix, Arizona. The company plans to operate a world-class mine while protecting the area's unique natural surroundings and cultural heritage. The Arizona hedgehog cactus (ACH; Echinocereus triglochidiatus var. arizonicus) occurs in the vicinity of the project and is listed as an endangered species under the Endangered Species Act. # Charlotte's Way Rescue hosts Oracle Spay and Neuter Clinic

Oracle - The Oracle Spay and Neuter Clinic has been reported as a success, due to the many people behind the lines, both professionals and volunteers. More than 100 animals were spayed or neutered, severely lessening the risk of strays or unwanted animals having to be euthanized.

One of the workers stated, "With great success comes great pride and I can truly say I'm proud of the job we all contributed to yesterday."

Some of the people who made the day so successful are Katie Powers - Spay and Neuter Solutions, Joanne Carrillo - Santa Cruz Veterinary, Rose Steve Rice - Animal Crusaders /SCV, Jan Pede - SaddleBrooke Pet Rescue Network, Michele Ochoaski - Team up For Tucson, Pat Hubbard - Humane Society, Pauline Haas-Vaughn - Friend of All Rescues, Nicole Linneen - Little Bit of Love, the Oracle Fire Department, Oracle Patio Cafe and Demarcos. Dr. Karter Neal and her staff also stepped up to the challenge and helped to make the day a success for the workers, for the animals in their care, and, for the pet owners.

legislators and governor and the dark money providers that they worship.

There has been a concerted effort in Arizona and other Republican-controlled states to disenfranchise minority and poor workers. Most notable is the state of Kansas where the Secretary of State is Kris Kobach, the same man who helped author Arizona's "show me your papers" Senate Bill 1070. Arizona and Kansas are the only two states in the nation that are enforcing voter ID laws. Kobach has ties to White Nationalist groups and some Arizona politicians. He is also Trump's immigration adviser.

On Muhammad Ali

Like most of the world, I was saddened by the news of Muhammad Ali's death. Muhammad was one of my heroes. I followed his boxing career as a young man and was amazed at his boxing skills and quickness which was unheard of in the heavyweight division at that time. I grew to admire this handsome brash young man known as Cassius Clay who bragged and boasted but backed up his words with his fighting skills.

When he became a Muslim and changed his name, I was surprised but supported his decision. His views on the Vietnam War and racism in the country mirrored my views and many of the youth of America at the time.

When he was stripped of the heavyweight title for refusing to be inducted into the military after being drafted, I grew to admire him more. That he was willing to give up millions of dollars, fame and his freedom for what he believed in earned my respect.

After being vindicated in the courts, what he accomplished as a boxer after losing three years of his prime made history. That he continued to speak out for freedom, equality and justice during and after his career made him a great man and a great American. He was an ambassador for peace around the world.

Ali, you are the Greatest. Rest in Peace.

*I have been given the opportunity to express my opinion and viewpoints on politics, national, state, and local issues as well as life in general. I hope to inform you as well as entertain you, make you smile or make you mad. I will use humor, sarcasm and occasionally anger to express my views. My intention is to hold politicians accountable sometimes bringing some heat on them and if my views make you angry or hot, remember that like my humor, it is a dry heat.
