OBITUARIES

Virgil R. Weigand

Virgil R. Weigand, 80, longtime resident of Flagstaff, passed away on June 29, 2015, following a long-term illness. He was born in Fergus Falls, Minnesota on September 18, 1934. Virgil lived on three different farms in Minnesota before moving to Coolidge, AZ in 1945 with his mother and step-father. They later settled in Superior, AZ in 1948, where he met his wife, Annette J. Weigand (Tomerlin) and started his career with Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph. Virgil and Annette were married in 1954 and moved to Flagstaff AZ in 1956, where he resided at the time of his passing.

Virgil was passionate about his long career as a Teletype

Specialist. He traveled throughout Arizona, working on telephone lines from the time of the rotary phones to the digital phones we use today. After retiring in 1987, he started his own business, VRW Communications, where he worked in the Flagstaff area and often at the Wahweep Lodge in Page, AZ.

Anyone that knew Virgil knows he loved food and would insistently feed anyone, oftentimes a grilled steak or homemade ice cream at family cookouts. During his wife's career as a first grade teacher, he would frequently make chocolate milkshakes for students at Kinsey Elementary School; a memory past students share with the family. He also dearly loved animals and enjoyed bird watching.

Virgil is survived by his beloved wife, Annette; two children, Timothy and Gary Sr.; four grandchildren, Christi, Gary Jr., Nathan and Cole Lockwood; two sisters-in-law, Margaret (John) Clayborn and Sherry Tomerlin, and many other family and friends. Virgil is preceded in death by his mother Martha and father Ernest who untimely passed when Virgil was one year old.

A memorial will be held from 2-6 p.m. on July 25 at the Weigand household at 3505 S. Yaqui Dr. in Flagstaff.

Doyle Ray Vines

Doyle Ray Vines, 67, died at 1:50 p.m., Wednesday, June 24, 2015, in Heartland Regional Medical Center in Marion, Illinois. He was born Sept. 16, 1947 in Anna, the son of Raymond and Love (Karraker) Vines. They preceded him in death.

He was a graduate of Anna-Jonesboro High School, Southern, Illinois University and did post graduate work at Arizona State University.

He was a town manager in Jerome and Bisbee, and also a restaurant owner in Tempe. He had previously worked for Fidelity Insurance Company in Chicago, and a health care network for the indigent in Phoenix.

In recent years, he has been active in the Southern Illinois area at spoken word and open mic events where he performed his own poetry and music. He was a regular at the Transpoetic Playground of Carbondale, Broadway Books in Cape Girardeau, Kiki's Coffee Shop in Anna, Howlin' at the Moon in Cobden and other local venues. He was a member of the Illinois State Poetry Society, founder of Southpass Publications and the social media group Poet's Post. He had published two books of short stories, a poetic journal, and, edited, or was included in over 10 poetry anthologies.

He is survived by his loving partner, Susan Steck of Cobden and her children and grandchildren; daughter, Jennifer Mitchell of Phoenix; daughters of his heart, Shawna Landstrom and Kavari Gibson of Arizona; sister, Margie (Arthur) Oldehoeft of Ames, Iowa; two nieces, Kim (Jeff Trow) Oldehoeft of Loveland, Colorado and Gretchen (Steven) Snyders and family (Isabel, Elia, Ezra and Sylvia) of Missoula, Montana and numerous cousins. He also leaves behind his lifelong friend, Clark (Janice) Newton of Jonesboro, Illinois and many other friends.

Per his request, there will be no visitation or funeral service. Memorial remembrances may be made to the donor's choice.

On behalf of the entire Bryant family, we would like to extend our gratitude and say thank you to the Superior School Board, Rose's Flowers, Queen Valley Golf Course and all the friends and extended family for your prayers, cards and thoughts through our time of sorrow. Your attendance at Guy's memorial was overwhelming to our hearts. God bless you all.

Judge Bravo censured by Arizona Supreme Court

PHOENIX – The Commission on Judicial Conduct announced last week that on June 26, 2015, the Arizona Supreme Court censured Justice of the Peace Larry A. Bravo for misconduct while in office. Judge Bravo is presently the justice of the peace for the Superior-Kearny Justice Court in Pinal County, and also serves as the magistrate for the Town of Hayden.

In 2012, a litigant who had appeared in Judge Bravo's court on two prior cases acquired a mining claim in his name and Judge Bravo's name. Although he initially placed Judge Bravo's name on the mining claim without the judge's knowledge, he later disclosed this interest to Judge Bravo. In 2012 and 2013, this litigant appeared before Judge Bravo as a plaintiff in two separate protective order proceedings. Judge Bravo did not disclose his relationship or joint property ownership with this litigant to the other party in the protective order proceedings.

The court's decision was based on a stipulated resolution between disciplinary counsel and the judge, in which the judge did not contest that his conduct, as described in the stipulated resolution, violated Rules 1.2, 2.4(C), 2.9(A), 2.11(A), 2.11(B), 3.13(A), 3.13(C), and 3.15 of the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct. Additionally, the judge's actions constituted conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice that brings the judicial office into disrepute, a violation of Article 6.1, Section 4, of the Arizona Constitution.

Rule 1.2 requires a judge to "act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the independence, integrity, and impartiality of the judiciary," and to "avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety." Rule 2.4(C) provides that "a judge shall not convey or permit others to convey the impression that any person or organization is in a position to influence the judge." Rule 2.9(A) requires that a judge "shall not initiate, permit, or consider ex parte communications, or consider other communications made to the judge outside the presence of the parties or their lawyers, concerning a pending or impending matter." Rule 2.11(A) provides that a judge "shall disqualify himself or herself in any proceeding in which the judge's impartiality might be questioned." Rule 2.11(B) requires a judge to "keep reasonably informed

Superior new 'Softballtown' after another Championship

By Andrew Luberd
Superior Sun

After watching Superior High School win the Division IV State Championship earlier this year, the Superior Little League Senior Softball team followed with a championship of its own, winning the Arizona District 4 All-Star Tournament last Friday night.

Superior defeated Maricopa 5 – 4 in the championship game.

With two championships and a chance for a third in less than two months, perhaps Superior should be known as Softballtown. If cities like Detroit and Green Bay can be known as Hockeytown and Titletown, respectively, after a historic and successful runs by the Red Wings and Packers, then certainly Superior is worthy of its own nickname.

The new District 4 champions now advance to the Senior Softball Arizona State All-Star Tournament, which is scheduled to begin July 13 in Maricopa at the Copper Sky Recreation Center.

For more information in addition to complete results and brackets visit the Superior Little League Facebook page and www.eteamz.com/azstatell.

Season ends for pair of Superior Little League All-Star Teams

By Andrew Luberd
Superior Sun

The Superior 9/10 and 11/12 All-Star teams saw their season end after both teams lost in their respective Arizona District 4 All-Star Tournament last Thursday night.

The 9/10 All-Stars played in Coolidge, where Casa Grande defeated Maricopa on Monday night to advance to the 9/10 Arizona State All-Star Tournament in Kingman beginning July 14.

The 11/12 All-Stars were the host team in the 11/12 Arizona District 4 All-Star Tournament. San Manuel's All-Stars battled Casa Grande for the District 4 Championship on July 7 for a chance to advance to the 11/12 Arizona All-Star Tournament in Claypool beginning July 16.

Superior Mayor, QC Councilmen learn about one of Arizona's 5 Cs

Can you name the 5 Cs of Arizona? Ask Superior's Mayor and he will be able to tell you that one of those Cs is 'Copper.' A request was made by Towns of Queen Creek and Superior to tour our ASARCO's Ray Mine on June 27. They were introduced to on-site safety procedures and a short video on "Copper How its Made." Mike Kotraba (General Manager Ray Mine) gave a short presentation of the Ray Mine Operations and the area economic impacts before entering the field portion of the tour. The councilmen noted how they enjoyed the tour prior to leaving on the hot June day. School Board approves sponsorship agreement with Resolution Copper

The Superior Unified School District approved a sponsorship agreement with Resolution Copper in the amount of $75,000 for the 2015-16 school year.

The $75,000 will be disbursed throughout many programs at the district including funding for teacher training and the Beyond Textbooks program, which many districts across the state are using. These two programs will help to keep curriculum aligned in the district as well as provide additional instructional support for language arts and reading.

The JFK library will receive $15,000 of the funding to help purchase new books, check out system and computers for the elementary school. The district has been working diligently with the Superior Public Library and the Rotary Club to reopen the elementary school library, it has been closed for many years due to budget cuts.

Funding will also be allocated to the robotics program in both the Junior/Senior High School as well as the elementary school program. In addition to the robotics program at both schools, funding will be allocated to the Junior/Senior High Athletics program as well as a new intramural athletics program at the elementary school.

Resolution Copper will also continue to fund the Geology Courses and Nature Club Program which SUSD students participate in.

The Superior Unified School Governing Board approved the sponsorship agreement 4-0 at their July meeting. Board Member Max Magallanez recused himself from the vote.

Rule 3.13(A) provides that a judge is not to "accept any gifts, loans, bequests, benefits, or other things of value, if acceptance is prohibited by law or would appear to a reasonable person to undermine the judge's independence, integrity, or impartiality." Finally, Rule 3.13(C) requires a judge to "report the acceptance of any gift, loan, bequest, or other thing of value as required by Rule 3.15." Both the hearing officer appointed to hear the formal charges against the judge and the Commission on Judicial Conduct recommended the court approve the stipulated resolution.
