OBITUARIES

Cory Michael Saunders

It is with a heavy heart that the Saunders family announce the sudden passing of Cory Michael Saunders on July 18, 2021, at the age of 44. Words cannot express the shock and sadness that we all feel! We will miss him terribly! Yet, we also find peace knowing he is with our father (Robert Saunders) in heaven, as well as other family members that have preceded him.

Although Cory spent nearly 20 years as an Arizona resident who loved the views, the city, and the mountains, he was born and raised in the Tamaroa, IL area. The sports loving, energetic, giving, sometimes over-protective brother, was many things to many people over the years.

In his youth, Cory loved all sports and had an all-around natural ability to play them. He could often be found at the local elementary school playing a pick-up basketball game with buddies. At a young age Cory found his lifelong love of the St. Louis Cardinals and Dallas Cowboys. As an adult, he cherished opportunities to fish and bond with our father in the AZ mountains over a gold prospecting hobby. He also loved nothing more than a good pool day and a refreshing adult beverage with family.

The highlights of his adult life were his career as a long-haul truck driver and being a dad of two (Hannah and Mason Saunders). He reveled in all things his children loved, from sports, to art, to video games. If they loved it, so did Cory.

Cory is survived by fiancé, Melissa Snyder and her three daughters of Tucson, AZ; and prior spouse, Christal Saunders, son, Mason Saunders, and daughter, Hannah Saunders, all of San Manuel, AZ. Cory is also survived by mother, Catherine Saunders of Pinckneyville, IL and the following siblings: Melinda Saunders-Bushey of Washington, Debbie (John) Johnson of DuQuoin, IL, Ryan Saunders (Brad Sauer) of Cathedral City, CA, Jennifer (Tom) Alvis of Pinckneyville, IL, Jamie (Scott) Fitzgerald of Scottsdale, AZ, and Andrew Saunders of Tucson, AZ, in addition to several other extended beloved family members and friends.

He is preceded in death by his father, Robert B. Saunders, brother-in-law, Todd M. Myers, uncles, John and Duke Saunders, aunt, Kay Saunders-Carter, and both sets of grandparents, Lester Saunders and Ruby Dasher-Saunders, Henry E. Stevens and Beadie C. Mitchell-Stevens.

A special thanks to all the family, friends, and strangers that have reached out to us during this tragic and difficult time. The absence of Cory leaves a huge hole in the hearts of all who were always entertained by his stories and sometimes inappropriate sense of humor. He truly brought the life to the party!

A Memorial Service open to all who wish to pay their respects will be held on Aug. 21, 2021, at 11 a.m. at Marana Mortuary, located at 12146 W Barnett Rd, Marana, AZ 85653.

Laying Cory to rest will be determined at a later date.

Jose Jesus Arbizo

Jose Jesus "Negro" Arbizo, 71, entered eternal rest on Tuesday, Aug. 3, 2021 at his ranch in Aravaipa. Joe was a great, loving husband, father, grandfather, brother and tio who cherished his family with all of his heart. He was always so proud of all of "his kids" whether they were his kids, his grandkids, nieces and nephews and so many friends.

Joe was a socially active man who was deeply involved with his church. He sang in the choir every Sunday and was very well-known for singing for countless funerals.

Joe was a proud Army veteran and fought in Vietnam from March 1969 through December 1971.

Music has always been a huge part of the majority of his life. He sang in bands, choirs, but most of all he loved to sing with his family and friends.

Negro's passion which was instilled in him by his parents was his love for his farming and ranching. He had the best hand at training horses and loved to rope with his family.

Joe is survived by his wife, Eva, of 49 years; his son, Chris Padilla (Heather); his son, Rene Arbizo, Sr. (Elisa); and his son, James "Jap" Arbizo.

Joe is also survived by his sisters, Mary "Jita" Ramirez (Robert), Lucy Lopez (Richard) and Elizabeth "Pelona" Parra (Mauro). He has nine grandchildren, Savanna, Brianna, Kassandra, Selina, Ahleah, Rene Jr. and Makena. Joe also had six great-grandchildren, Jubencio "Jubi" and Janicia Garcia, Alejandro "Jando" Estrada and Miah "Tortilla" Lopez.

He is preceded in death by both his parents, Bruno and Artemisa Arbizo; his sister, Ernestina "Tina" Contreras; his brother, Raymond "Monchie" Arbizo; and brother who died as an infant "Cookie" Arbizo.

Joe will forever live in our precious memories.

Services will be held Friday, Aug. 13, 2021, at Blessed Sacrament Church on Hwy. 77 in Mammoth. A viewing will be held from 9-10 a.m., rosary from 10-10:30 a.m. and a mass from 10:30-11:30 a.m. A luncheon will follow at the parish hall.

OBITUARY

Joe Duarte Rios

On Monday, Jan. 4, 2021, Joe Duarte Rios, beloved brother, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, uncle, and friend, passed away at the age of 73 from complications related to COVID-19.

Joe was born on March 18, 1947 in Hayden, Arizona to Santiago and Angela Duarte Rios, their 12th child. A few years later, the family would be complete with a total of seven brothers and seven sisters. He often told stories of a rough childhood, especially after losing his mother at a young age. However, he and his siblings always found a way to make sure everyone had enough.

Joe served his country honorably, enlisting during the Vietnam War and serving two tours. After returning from Vietnam, Joe married and started a family. He also started working at the Ray Mine where he would stay until retirement. After retiring, Joe served as an organizer for the United Steelworkers of America.

Outside of work, Joe was dedicated to his political views. He supported those in his family who held political office and served as a delegate to five Democratic National Conventions. Joe also donated his time to be a baseball coach for many years. It was obvious from his stories, which he told for decades, how much those teams and players meant to him. Joe loved hunting, horses, the outdoors, and had an obsession for classic cars. His creative talent allowed him to draw and paint impressive pictures. He also enjoyed playing the guitar and carving animals out of wood. Joe cherished old photos of his family, often spending hours on the computer making sure those images live on. Joe had a strong connection to his Catholic faith. For many years of retirement, he donated his time and effort to the church. Above all, Joe's most meaningful passion was for his family. Whether it was a weekend or a holiday, he wanted to be at the house of a brother or sister, where he always looked forward to the next game of Trivial Pursuit. Christmas was always about time with family and then mass. His love for his family lives on in those who knew and loved him.

Joe was preceded in death by his father, Santiago, his mother, Angela, his brothers Manuel, Chente, Tony, Jimmy, and his sisters Helen, Maria, Carmen, Jenny, and Emmie.

Joe is survived by his brothers, Peter and Tommy; sisters, Ruth and Angelita; four children, Annette, Joe Jr., Kenny, and Danielle; 11 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, many other relatives, and Evangeline, to whom he was married for 37 years before they went their separate ways.

Services for Mr. Rios will be coordinated by Griffith Mortuary with Rosary at 7 p.m. Friday, Aug. 27, 2021 and funeral mass at 9 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 28, 2021 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, 300 Mountain View Dr. in Hayden, AZ. Interment will be held after the mass at Mountain View Cemetery in Hayden, AZ, with a gathering at the clubhouse of the Hayden Public Golf Course at 624 Golf Course Rd. to follow. Support Local: W.C. Industries

In April 2020, COVID-19 brought much of Arizona's economy to a screeching halt. All businesses not deemed "essential" were ordered closed by Arizona's governor Doug Ducey.

The lockdown continued for nearly two months. When Gov. Ducey finally gave the go ahead to reopen, businesses slowly began the road to recovery. Even those listed as "essential" had a challenge with this economic recovery.

Many small businesses and non-profits in Arizona didn't survive the lockdown. The businesses that did survive are hanging on as best they can. Copper Area News wanted to give something back to the local business community as a thank you for supporting us through these troubled times. Our newspapers (Copper Basin News, Superior Sun and San Manuel Miner) have been featuring local businesses and non-profits since the beginning of 2021, encouraging our readers to Shop at Home, stay local and support our local businesses. To date, Copper Area News has featured 93 businesses and groups in the Copper Corridor.

It is hard enough making it as a small business in a small town during normal times. But to balance those difficulties during a pandemic adds an entirely different twist to things. Auto repair businesses were considered to be essential and didn't have to shut down. Still, local small auto shops struggle to make it even in the best of times, making it all the more important to use local mechanics whenever needed.

Walt's Place, also known as W.C. Industries, has officially been open for a little over two years. He opened just prior to the pandemic. The owner, Walt Campion, operated out of his home before opening his shop in Mammoth.

W.C. Industries offers auto repairs in the form of engine repairs and major repairs like part replacement. They also offer welding. The only thing they don't do is offer tire services.

W.C. Industries is located at 341 N. Hwy. 77 in Mammoth between Dollar General and the Rancheros Market. Hours of operation are 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. You can reach them at (520) 891-7564.

Walt is grateful for the response to his business.

"Thanks for supporting local business," he said.

Your car in need of engine repairs? Why not call W.C. Industries?

Walt Campion works on a vintage Chevy Bel Air at his shop in Mammoth.

The Man Who Cheated the Hangman, Part 2

Copper Area News has received some articles from a former corrections officer from Arizona State Prison. This retired officer spent 25 years with the Arizona Department of Corrections working all custody levels from juvenile detention units to Death Row. The author wishes to remain anonymous. He hopes to provide the readers with a view of what it is like working with inmates and what life is like behind prison walls.

INTRODUCTION

The job of a corrections officer is not easy. The nature of the job, working with men or women behind bars can be stressful. Working in high custody units can add to the stress. The Arizona Department of Corrections has a high staff turnover rate. One in five staff members quit within the first couple of years of being hired or use the training and experience they receive to transfer to Sheriff departments or Federal corrections.

Maximum custody inmates are either there because they are doing long sentences, are convicted of violent crimes or they are problem inmates while in prison. Inmates on Death Row are under a sentence of death and have nothing to lose by acting out against staff or other inmates. Officers must always be on the alert to prevent these inmates from harming other inmates or staff. To understand the type of inmates that are housed on Death Row, I will provide you with a few of their stories, the crimes they committed and some of their prison life.

BEHIND THE WALLS

Stories from Arizona State Prison
Compiled by John Hernandez

Upon Faltin's arrival at the state hospital, the Superintendent complained they did not have adequate facilities to hold a criminally dangerous patient. Three additional guards had to be hired specifically to guard Faltin. The guards were armed when escorting Faltin on the asylum's grounds during his walks and there were no cells to lock him in. The Attorney General was asked if it was possible to hold him at the prison but his legal opinion said that he must stay at the asylum until he is judged to be sane.

Following the execution of Francisco Rodriguez on May 19, 1916, an editorial appeared in the Tucson Citizen newspaper. The editorial said that Spanish-American residents felt "that only men of their blood can be hanged." It pointed out that four "Americans" had been saved, two by insanity proceedings. "Of the 16 condemned men, only Mexicans had been hanged." They claimed racial discrimination and "complained that the authorities do not go to so great a length to save men of Mexican blood." On July 7, 1916, Miguel Peralta, another Mexican was hanged.

The November elections of 1916 resulted in Governor Hunt losing to Thomas E. Campbell. The death penalty was also abolished by Arizona's voters although those condemned prisoners sentenced before the new law would still be subject to execution including William Faltin. On Dec. 30, 1916, Faltin escaped from the Arizona State Asylum for the Insane. A $100 reward was offered for his capture. He would be caught a few days later in Buckeye, Arizona. In August 1917, Faltin was discharged from the state asylum and found to be sane. He was returned to Arizona State Prison in Florence. Governor Campbell said he would commute Faltin's sentence to life in prison. Governor Campbell was embroiled in a legal fight to keep the position of Governor. He had won the election by a mere 30 votes. Governor Hunt had refused to leave his position as Governor and had filed legal actions claiming that the election had been fraudulent. In December 1917, the Arizona Supreme Court determined there were election irregularities and declared Hunt the winner of the election. Campbell would have to leave office Dec. 25, 1917. He never acted on the commutation for Faltin.

In 1918, petitions were filed by a pro-death penalty group to allow the voters of Arizona to again vote on capital punishment. They argued that 85 murders had occurred in the state since the death penalty had been abolished while there had been 36 while the death penalty was law. It cited several murder cases including Faltin's, a case of a young child murdered by a Yaqui Indian and Star Daly who murdered a man, kidnapped and raped the man's wife. Daly was taken from sheriff's deputies and lynched by vigilantes in Pinal County. It said that reinstating the death penalty would prevent

Another case that may have tipped the scale in the election was the murders of Graham County Sheriff McBride and his two deputies by the Power brothers, Tom and John, and Tom Sisson in a shootout in the Galiuro Mountains in February 1918. Tom Campbell was running for Governor again against Hunt. Campbell now said he was for the death penalty although he admitted that he had been against the death penalty previously due to his ignorance.

Proposition 306 reinstating the death penalty passed in November. Tom Campbell defeated Hunt for Governor. In December, newspapers began reporting that Faltin was due to be executed. An execution was scheduled for April 17, 1920 but it wasn't Faltin. Simplicio Torres had been convicted and sentenced to death in August 1919. Despite an attempt by the editor of the Spanish language newspaper Justicia presenting evidence that Torres may be insane, no insanity hearing was held and Torres was hanged.

In 1923, Faltin filed a plea with the Board of Pardons and Parole. Faltin's request said, "Either hang me or commute my sentence to life imprisonment and end the terrible suspense of uncertainty." No attempt had been made to execute Faltin since the death penalty had been reinstated. Eight men had been hanged since then, six of them Mexicans. They had all been sentenced after Faltin. The board did not act on Faltin's request.

There was some question on the legality of Faltin's case with the death penalty

NOTICE POWER COST ADJUSTMENT

Pursuant to Section §175.235, Title 25 of the Code of Federal Regulations, notice is hereby given that effective September 1, 2021, the San Carlos Irrigation Project (SCIP) will apply a purchased Power Cost Adjustment (PCA) of $0.031/kWh to each kWh used by customers.

In addition to hydro contracts for power from the Western Area Power Authority (Parker-Davis and WAPA – Salt Lake City Area Integrated Projects “SLCA/IP”), SCIP purchases power through short-term bilateral transactions. Recent weather-related events combined with the limited availability of summer energy resources has significantly increased power market rates. Due to this escalation current rates are estimated to under collect over the next 12 months; therefore, SCIP has determined the PCA, last revised in 2007, must be adjusted. This PCA will remain in effect until amended by the Western Regional Director. Please direct questions via e-mail to scippca@bia.gov or mail to San Carlos Irrigation Project, P.O. Box 250, Coolidge, AZ 85128.
