OBITUARIES

Donetta Wright

Donetta Wright, 58, passed away at her home in San Manuel on July 9, 2020, of unknown cause.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Gregory Bryan Arnett; sister, Darla Wright Starks; grandson, Bently Adonis Wright; grandparents, George Wright, Lillie Belle Wright Wall, Donald (duck) and Edna Graham; and aunts and uncles.

She is survived by her parents, Donald and Donnie Wright; sister, Kimberly Wright; brother, George Wright; best friend, Tammy Valenzuela; children, Kristie Arnett, Jennifer Arnett, Bryan Arnett, Kimberly

Arnett and Nicholas Wright; 11 grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and two nieces, Chelsea and Jessie Starks.

Donetta was born in Superior, where she received her formal education. In 1985, she made her life in San Manuel. She was a homemaker and loved having game nights with her parents, children and grandchildren. Donetta loved helping people and was with the Lions Club for many years. Dancing was an enjoyment to her. She will always be remembered as a wonderful, loving, caring person. Her heart was beautiful as she was.

Services will be held Saturday, Aug. 15, at 11 a.m. in the San Manuel First Baptist Church, located at N. First Ave. in San Manuel, with lunch to follow. Pastor Kevin Duncan will officiate.

Jacobo Gonzales Kame

It is with great sadness and sorrow but also with heartfelt joy in knowing that he is now in heaven that the family of Jacobo Gonzales Kame (aka Kamei) announces his passing on Saturday, July 25, 2020. Jacobo was the second son of Yonegiro "JY" Kamei and Genoveva Gonzales.

Jacobo married Luz Quesada on March 24, 1941 and had 5 children, Jaime (Catalina), Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Guzman, deceased (former husband Abe), Jacob "Jake" (Danira), Roxane "Roxie" Alvarado (Arturo) and Joe Michael "Jomiko" (Andrea). In addition to his 5 children, Jacobo also is survived by 14 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren, and 8 great-great-grandchildren. Jacobo was preceded in death by his loving wife of 74 years Luz, his daughter Lizzie, brother Alfredo G. Kame, and parents, Yonegiro and Genoveva.

Jacobo unfortunately experienced a part of United States history that now is viewed as a racist over-reaction to persons of Japanese ancestry in the United States. Jacobo, Luz and Jaime were interred at the Poston Internment Camp in Poston, Arizona after President Franklin Roosevelt issued Executive Order 9066 on Feb. 19, 1942 requiring the relocation or internment of all persons of Japanese Ancestry. Unfortunately, while driving to the Poston Internment Camp on May 2, 1942, Jacob, Luz, Jaime and Yonegiro as well as 7 relatives of the Yoshikawa family were in an automobile accident in Mesa, Arizona, from which Yonegiro died of his injuries a few days later.

Jacobo was raised and educated and lived his entire life in Hayden. Jacobo's first job was working as a butcher at Kame General Merchandise, the family grocery store in San Pedro and was known to make the "best" chorizo in town. Jacobo worked for Kennecott Copper Corporation for over 30 years and retired because he wanted to travel. He especially enjoyed Las Vegas and Hawaii. Jacobo also worked as a police officer for the Town of Hayden for a number of years.

Our Dad was a very good man but a man of very few words. If we did something wrong, his look would convey his disappointment in us. His look also made you straighten up real fast. Our Dad taught us to be responsible, hard-working, and a person that could be trusted and counted on not only by words but also by example. He was always working hard yet he never complained. Dad taught his sons how to repair all things in our home or vehicles as well as how to hunt and fish or even to just enjoy camping.

Dad was a special "partner" to Roxie in her "after school chores" as he always gladly helped her so that she could spend time with friends or even watch TV. Dad was a man whose family came first as there is nothing he enjoyed more than visits from all his children and grandchildren.

Thank you Dad for being the loving, kind, compassionate Man you were. Roxie was especially blessed and honored to take care of you and share the last years of your life. May God Bless You. Until We meet again in Heaven to experience eternal life, we will love you and will miss you every day of our lives.

Services for Jacob were held Saturday, Aug. 1, 2020 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Hayden, AZ. He was laid to rest at Fairview Cemetery in Superior.

A Thank You to Artists

Sheltering at home during this pandemic has been an eye-opening experience. Temporarily, (I hope), the world has become a different and strange place. I have learned to appreciate the little things in life and I have found myself reflecting more about life and death. One other thing I have grown to appreciate is artists. Without them, my time in isolation would be pretty dull and more depressing.

Like me, you have probably found yourself spending more time reading, watching movies, television shows, playing video games, listening to music, etc. – all of these things created by artists. From my morning coffee served in a handmade decorative mug or a cup with a beautiful Hawaiian print design or Oracle Run picture inspired by Dia de los Muertos to reading a book in bed, my day begins and ends with something created by artists. In between I listen to my favorite music, usually oldies: Beatles, Santana, Neil Young, Moody Blues, Van Morrison, etc. but mixed in with Hawaiian musicians and reggae. I have listened to some of the classical music put out on Facebook by the Oracle Piano Society and enjoyed watching their videos.

In the evening, I have been watching Netflix series such as The Borgias about Pope Alexander VI who in the 1400s and 1500s had mistresses, illegitimate children, and had his enemies and rivals murdered and tortured (I wonder who heard his confession). The Borgia “crime” family became powerful in the church and European politics. Enjoyed Stranger Things, Frontier with Jason Momoa (Aquaman) and Peakey Blinders. I even liked the new controversial series Hunters, starring Al Pacino is about a group of Holocaust survivors, fellow Jews and friends hunting Nazis in 1977 New York City. In turn Nazis are hunting them and plotting to create a 4th Reich in the United States. The series has a comic book feel to some of the episodes as well as a serious tone with flashbacks to the Nazi concentration camps. Conspiracy theorists will like it.

DRY HEAT

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

Late at night I curl up with my latest book, Neon Rain, a mystery by James Lee Burke or a non-fiction book, currently No Angel about Jay Dobyns, former University of Arizona football player who became an undercover agent for the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF). Jay infiltrated the Hells Angels motorcycle gang in Arizona. I was so glad to see the Oracle Public Library open and offer curbside service. Books are such a great escape to other worlds and help sharpen your imagination.

As you can see, a lot of my down time is spent among the creative works of artists. I would like to thank my Facebook friends, some of them artists, for posting beautiful photographs of sunsets and sunrises, nature, their latest paintings, sculptures or ceramic work, murals and art work from around the world plus our local artists. Thank you, artists, for helping me get through each day with a smile and a better appreciation for humanity. It's a better world because of artists!

Water Emergencies, Drownings on the Rise in Pinal County

From the beginning of 2020 to July 31, there have been 90 water-related emergency incidents for Maricopa and Pinal County. Most of these incidents have involved children. Some of the victims were as young as two years old.

During this period, there were a total of 32 water-related fatalities, including 11 drownings of children under the age of 5. This is a significant increase from the 25 total fatalities and four pediatric drownings by the end of July 2019, according to numbers provided by the Drowning Prevention Coalition of Arizona.

AIA modifies fall sports calendar amid pandemic

By Andrew Luberda
Copper Area News

As professional sports leagues and collegiate sports continue to be affected by COVID-19, so too is high school sports in Arizona. The Arizona Interscholastic Association modified its fall sports calendar and provided guidance for schools to follow in each fall sport.

“The health and safety of our student participants, coaches, officials and essential personnel, including volunteers, is the primary concern for the return of interscholastic athletics and activities,” said AIA Executive Director David Hines in a release distributed to the media. “We are very grateful to those who share our commitment of a return to these highly beneficial educational activities and athletics.”

The following details the calendar modifications:

Golf

First practice – Aug. 17

First competition – Aug. 24

Championships – Oct. 26-29 (Div. I), Nov. 2-5 (Div. II)

Cross Country

First Practice – Aug. 24

First Competition – Sept. 9

Championships – Nov. 12-13

Swimming & Diving

First Practice – Aug. 24

First Competition – Sept. 14

Championships – Nov. 5-7

Badminton

First Practice – Aug. 31

First Competition – Sept. 14

Championships – Nov. 7 (Individuals), Nov. 9-12 (Teams)

Fall Soccer

First Practice – Aug. 31

First Competition – Sept. 16

Championships – Nov. 4-7

Volleyball

First Practice – Aug. 31

First Competition – Sept. 21

Championships – Nov. 12-21

Football

First Practice – Sept. 7

First Competition – Sept. 30-Oct. 3

Championships – Dec. 11/12 (4A-6A & Open)

Among the notable calendar changes is the start of the football season, which was scheduled to start on Aug. 17. The new start date comes on the heels of a proposal submitted to the AIA by the Arizona Football Coaches Association, which sought a later start date, in part, to accommodate those districts and schools that lag behind others around the state due to executing different stages of their re-entry phases.

Additionally, according to the release, “(the) new schedule does allow for schools and districts who are not able to start on the earliest possible date to join competition when feasible and still be eligible for the postseason, provided those school teams meet conference minimums.”

“We would like to thank our member schools and our school communities for their patience as we worked through the challenges to develop this plan,” Hines said.

Coaches around the Copper Corridor share both concern and optimism about completing the fall season.

“The virus is real, and it is a killer,” Superior football head coach Ryan Palmer wrote in an email to the Copper Area News. “It should not be taken lightly. The safety of the students is the most important aspect to consider.”

“There are a lot of different opinions on the virus and a return to normalcy. There is no perfect path or simple solution. The AIA and government officials are doing the best they can with a seemingly impossible situation. The AIA has done well in providing guidance and modifications for schools to follow in accordance with NFHS, state and local restrictions and recommendations.”

San Manuel Athletic Director Damon Lovato supports the modified schedule too.

“I like the staggered start modification,” he wrote in a text. “I still have questions about how schools re-entering in the middle of the season would look, but I think it’s great for (our) student-athletes.”

Social distancing practices give Palmer the greatest trepidation in protecting the health and safety of the students, but it is possible.

“If there is a high school football season, I believe that the 1A Conference has the best opportunity in successfully completing it,” Palmer said. “Although our resources are limited, so are our numbers. “I feel safer on a 200-yard practice field, outside in the sunshine, with 20 student-athletes split into groups of 10 or less, than I do stopping at a busy grocery store on my way home to grab a gallon of milk. Football is a contact sport, but there is also only one game played per week, which limits the opportunity for exposure with other schools.”

In an effort to address some of the concerns of Palmer and most certainly other coaches in all sports, the AIA provided member school athletic directors and administrators “guidance” and modifications to follow.

Included in those modifications is how teams prepare during warmup and pregame, social distancing in the bench area, the wearing of masks by coaches, how the game ball and/or equipment will be cleaned and sanitized, and the “handshake line,” which aims to prohibit “handshakes, high fives, fist bumps, hugs, etc. should occur pre or post-game/match.”

Volleyball, for example, will not switch sides between games.

Limits on invitational tournaments for some sports will be imposed as well.

Team personnel and game officials will also be required to adhere to modifications that, in addition to face masks, include how to report game results, communicate with each other and players, and, perhaps most importantly, stay away from the court or field if they are feeling any symptoms related to COVID-19.

“We owe it to our members to provide a direction,” Executive Board President and Safford Athletic Director Toni Corona stated in the AIA’s released statement.

“It may be challenging to get everything going for all the schools at one time but with good communication, we can provide the best possible experience for our students in this unprecedented time. This Board and the AIA staff will continue to provide information and guidelines as we proceed.”

Copper Area News is committed to providing our readers with as much information as possible. We post a daily update on our Facebook page with the total positive COVID-19 Data. This graph shows the daily counts of positive cases for the past week as of press time on Aug. 11, 2020.

There are a few points we would like our readers to consider when following this data.

1. This will continue to be a rolling total of positive cases. It does not reflect recoveries or deaths. The Arizona Department of Health Services does not break out this data.
2. If you see a reduction in numbers from day to day it is most likely due to a data entry error or mis-coding of a zip code (at the state level).
3. This is all zip code based data; most of our zip codes include unincorporated areas. There is no way to track exactly which areas each of the positive cases are. Example, Kearny and Winkelman each have small communities in their zip code that are not in the Town's incorporated boundaries.
4. If you live in Gila County, please follow the Gila County Health and Emergency Management, Facebook. They have maintained their data on recoveries and current positive cases.
5. You can follow other data such as ICU bed use, Ventilator use and hospital capacity online: <https://bit.ly/3inh280>

Working together, we can slow the spread of the virus across the Copper Corridor. Wear a mask in public, remain physically distant (6 feet apart or more), practice good hygiene (wash your hands frequently, sanitize high touch areas) and stay home if you are not feeling well.

Copper Town Days event cancelled

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

The Copper Town Association has cancelled its popular annual event Copper Town Days. The event, which is held every October and includes a car show, is being cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Copper Town Days is the largest fund raiser for the non-profit Copper Town Association which helps support programs in the Tri-Community.

Also, at the Copper Town Association meeting held on Tuesday, Aug. 4, Liza Noland from the Arizona Rural Development Council gave a presentation on some of the early results of the Community Needs Assessment Survey that the San Manuel Revitalization Coalition is conducting. Liza said that they need more participation from the community and would like to see more input from the Hispanic population in San Manuel.

The survey is available on the San Manuel Revitalization and Copper Area Facebook pages. A link can also be found in the related story.

The Copper Town Association Board meets at the Sun Life Family Health Care Center in San Manuel.

Ore House offering outdoor dining and service

The Ore House Hilltop Tavern is now offering outdoor dining on their patio. You can now enjoy their delicious smoked meats, street tacos, burgers, pizza and more while dining outdoors. Two sanitizing stations and an outdoor hand washing station are available and the tables are placed to be socially distant. They have a mist system and shaded dining areas to keep temperatures down while you enjoy your meal and favorite cold beverage. The patio area has a wonderful view of the evening sunset. They also have takeout service and are still offering grocery deals. The current hours are Sunday through Thursday noon to 8 p.m., and Friday and Saturday noon to 10 p.m.
