By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Superior Sun

The Superior High School football team is gearing up for this year's games under the Friday night lights.

"We had our scrimmage against Ft. Thomas, Thursday, and I was pleased with the growth of our players," said head coach Joshua Denhalter. "We returned all starters, and have added some key pieces through increased participation, and returns from injuries. I expect our team to continue to develop and contend. This week we play Mogollon, and will have our work cut out for us. Look forward to a good and challenging week!"

The Panthers have almost 40 players on their team this season. Their official season will kick off Friday with an away game at Mogollon with a kick off time of 7 p.m. If you cannot attend but would still like to support the Panthers, the game will be live-streamed via www.nfhsnetwork.com

Supervisor Jeff Serdy

Meet Your County Supervisor: Jeff Serdy - District 5

Every 10 years after the official US Census is complete, Federal State and Local governments must complete a re-districting process. On July 1, 2022, the Pinal County re-districting took affect and the communities of Superior, Kearny and Winkelman join Gold Canyon, Apache Junction, Queen Valley and parts of Florence in District 5.

Jeff Serdy is the County Supervisor for District 5. He ran for County Supervisor after serving on the Apache Junction City Council and as Mayor. He decided to get involved in local politics at the municipal level when the City of Apache Junction was considering new laws on firearm dispositions. He quickly realized he enjoyed serving and solving problems and ran for Mayor. During his term as Mayor, he focussed on marketing and promotions of the city's natural beauty and attractions.

Serdy grew up in rural community in Ohio. He has worked in a variety of professional fields including oil and gas, wildlife management, and also worked for Shamrock foods. He had the opportunity to open his own firearms store in Apache Junction and he has been focussed on his business since then.

Serving as County Supervisor since 2021, he is learning how Pinal County is quickly becoming a more

Superior to host 11th Annual Prickly Pear Festival Saturday

The 11th Annual Prickly Pear Festival will be held this Saturday. Event organizer Pete Casillas reported online via a Facebook video that this year the foraging would be cancelled as there is not enough prickly pear fruit to harvest at the Airport.

Vendors will be open throughout Downtown Superior at both indoor and outdoor locations between Besich Park and the Magma Hotel Tea Room. The pancake breakfast is scheduled for Saturday morning and will be held at the Silver King Smokehouse.

Many of the local restaurants will be having prickly pear flavored foods and drinks. Entertainment will also be ongoing with throughout the day, along with guest speakers and educational seminars. The Boyce Thompson Arboretum is also hosting a few activities, admission will be required.

An Edible Desert Dinner will also be hosted Saturday evening at the Superior Senior Center. Tickets are $45 and the menu features a variety of foods prepared by local vendors of the Superior Farm to Fantastic Market.

For updated information please visit the Prickly Pear Festival webpage online: <https://pricklypearfestsuperior.com> or call Pete Casillas directly at 520-827-0692.

Town Manager earns Certification

Superior Town Manager Todd Pryor recently completed the Arizona Certified Public Managers course at Arizona State University. Pryor was hired as the Town Manager officially in 2016 after he was appointed as the interim Manager/Clerk when the previous Clerk/Manager resigned abruptly.

Pryor has a long history with the Town of Superior, beginning his career with the Superior Fire Department. During his service to the fire department he eventually served as the Fire Chief until he was hired as the full time Town Manager in 2016, he has served as the Town Manager for six years.

Prior to working for the Town as a Fire Chief, he worked in computer sciences, construction and also worked with his father-in-law in his mining business. All of these skill sets has served Todd well in his role as Town Manager.

The ASU Certified Public Manager course was nine months long and included several six-week modules on public management and governance.

“One of the priorities the Town Council has set is to ensure that staff, department heads and our council are learning and training,” said Mayor Mila Besich. “We are very proud of Todd’s accomplishments and managing this course work while also working on many complex projects for the Town.”

While serving as the Town Manager, Pryor has helped to stabilize the town government and worked with the Council through many complex issues such as the Resolution Copper Federal Environmental Impact Statement and acquiring the original Superior High School to become the multi-gen center. Currently he is managing about $14 million dollars in state and federal grant funding with another $2 million that have been applied for.

Todd is married to his wife Cat Brown, they have pet dogs that they enjoy spending time with. Todd is a “self proclaimed nerd” so he enjoys sci-fi and Star Wars movies and playing the occasional video game or two.
