Good Shepherd pledges monthly support of Florence Food Bank

Florence — A check for $430 was presented to the Florence Food Bank from the Church of the Good Shepherd in Kearny; the first installment in a series of monthly payments to the charitable group which serves the Copper Basin area, as well as the Florence/Coolidge areas.

The governing board of the congregation decided to encourage its members to make a financial gift for the work of the food bank on Sundays, in addition to the regular offering for the church's ongoing work. The special gifts totaled $430 in the first month.

Every third Thursday, the Florence Food Bank drives a truckload of food to Kearny for the food distribution. The foods have been given or bought through discount organizations. Volunteers unload the truck, organize the food, and give it out to registered families and individuals from throughout the Copper Basin. Various groups in the Copper Basin have donated generously; notably to the Kearny Elks Lodge. The volunteer workers often make financial contributions. This is the first group, though, to pledge monthly support.

"The amount will vary from month to month," said Pastor Nina Yardley. Pastor Yardley also noted, "We are hoping to maintain support at this level, depending on the gifts from the people. We hope other churches will develop a way to provide monthly support. The

The CV Clinics of Superior and Kearny welcomes new family practice physician

Since the opening of the new CV Superior Clinic nearly a year ago, there has been a steady increase of patients seeking healthcare at the facility. The clinic is flourishing, enabling Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center the ability to continue adding additional services, personnel, and now the benefit of gaining an exceptional new Family Practice Physician, Dr. Travis Charles, D.O.

Dr. Charles's stated, "I am excited and honored to be able to serve the towns of Superior and Kearny. When my wife and I first drove through the area, we were impressed by its natural beauty, and were warmly welcomed by the people we met. I look forward to joining a team dedicated to providing compassionate care, and also to developing many long-lasting relationships with the patients that will come to me for help. I hope to foster an environment of health and to help educate patients in ways to create the healthiest versions of themselves, so that they may enjoy life to the fullest."

Dr. Charles will spend his time practicing two days at the Superior Clinic and two days at the Kearny Clinic; replacing Dr. Douglas. With the increase of patients and services at the Superior Clinic, he will be working there on Thursdays, with his second day varying according to patient needs.

This comes with great excitement and happiness to CVRMC that the community of Superior is able to receive further health care by now being

Pastor's Corner: Connecting with God

By Joe Palmer
Pastor, Fellowship Baptist Church

A June 2011 Gallup Poll reported: "More than 9 in 10 Americans still say 'yes' when asked the basic question 'Do you believe in God?' ..." The numbers were "yes" 92%, "no" 7%, and "no opinion" 1%.

The reasons for believing that God exists are overwhelming. The order of the universe and of our own world cannot be explained apart from the assumption of an intelligent Maker.

Then it seems quite clear also that we cannot think rationally apart from the assumption of this Maker Who must also be the standard for what is right and the reason for living.

This being the case, it is not surprising to learn that 82% of Americans feel a need for a more intimate relationship with God. In the last twenty-four hours 66% of Americans have prayed to God, and 50% of people have sensed a strong presence of God in their lives.

Also, in the last 24 hours 50% of people have gone out of their way to help other people for spiritual or religious reasons. Does this describe you? If you want to help people more effectively, then plan on joining us on September 8 at Fellowship Baptist Church at 6 pm to watch videos of professional Christian counselors who will teach us how to care for people God's way.

Acts 17:26-28 says, "and He made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their habitation, that they would seek God, if perhaps they might grope for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us; for in Him we live and move and exist, as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we also are His children.'"

If you would like to talk with me (Pastor Joe Palmer of Fellowship Baptist) about it, email me at joeandsuzypal@yahoo.com.

must lift up victims and support them through programs like those offered through Gabriel's Angels. Providing assistance to victims and at-risk youth through pet therapy enables them to bond with an animal they can often feel more comfortable with and might be essential to ending cycles of violence and promoting positive, healthy lifestyles."

Pam Gaber, CEO said, "Gabriel's Angels is excited to receive support from the Pinal County Attorney's Office for four Pet Therapy Teams who are changing the lives of over 400 children. Through this RICO grant, Gabriel's Angels will be able to continue developing core life behaviors that allow these children to develop healthy relationships free of violence, crime and gang involvement."

Monsignor Trevizo celebrates 25 years as a priest

Monsignor Raul Trevizo

By John Hernandez
Copper Area News

On Thursday, Aug. 15, Monsignor Raul Trevizo celebrated 25 years of service as a priest. There was a mass to celebrate the event at 6 p.m. at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church, 602 W. Ajo Way, in Tucson. A reception followed at McCorkle Academy of Excellence, 4455 S. Mission Road from 7 - 9 p.m.

Monsignor Trevizo was born in Ray, Ariz. to Raul and Antonia Trevizo. He was raised in Hayden and attended school in the Hayden-Winkelman School District. He graduated from Hayden High School in 1970. The Monsignor said, "I'm grateful to have been raised in the Copper Basin area." He credits growing up in Hayden with laying the foundation of his faith. The lessons he learned from his parents, his grandmother's faith, an impassioned priest in Hayden and the relationships he built are at the center of his faith.

After graduating from college, Monsignor

Trevizo taught for 10 years in the Tucson Unified School District. He taught elementary, junior high and high school students. Upon receiving his calling, he attended St. Patrick's Seminary in California. After graduating, he was ordained as a priest at St. Augustine's Cathedral on Aug. 15, 1988. Aug. 15 is also the day of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary.

Father Trevizo's first parish was St. Monica's in Tucson. He is now pastor at St. John the Evangelist Parish and General Vicar for Hispanic Affairs for the Roman Catholic Diocese of Tucson which covers nine counties in southern Arizona. As General Vicar, Monsignor Trevizo represents the Bishop when working with the Hispanic and immigrant community. When talking about Hispanic and immigration issues, Monsignor Trevizo said that the church has stood against Senate Bill 1070 and believes that a comprehensive immigration bill must include a pathway to citizenship and the reunification of families. In 2012 Father Trevizo was appointed Monsignor by Pope Benedict XVI. Congratulations Monsignor Trevizo on your 25 years as a priest.

Lobos ready to play; scrimmage set for Friday

By Nolberto Waddell
Copper Basin News

The pads went on and the practice sessions became more intense. After suffering five-man sled drills, breathtaking wind sprints and never ending up-downs for mistakes committed Lobo Football is underway. While the hot and sticky weather and vigorous exercise may have caused some kids to exit the field; the proud lobo student-athletes still wearing the blue and white will represent LOBO PRIDE very well.

The quarterback development is coming along well and a couple of Lobo running back prospects have stepped up. The line, despite a couple of disappointments, will be a strong unit to deal with, both on offense and defense.

The hitting and tackling have been very intense to the point that coaches are getting worried about injuries. It will be interesting to see if the intensity continues in the upcoming three team scrimmage. The two teams joining Hayden in the scrimmage are no pushovers and seem to be in the state playoffs every season. The St. David Tigers always field a big and physical team that is led by a strong arm quarterback. The Pima High School Roughriders, with big number turn outs, never seem to rebuild, they just insert a new player for last year's stars and continue their dominance.

The tough scrimmage will give the Hayden coaches a good evaluation of the team and what will have to be done to get the Lobo team ready for a very demanding schedule. They start next Friday, Aug. 30, when the Mogollon High School team come to Hayden. The Mustangs are also a yearly fixture at state tournament time.

The three team scrimmage is set for Thursday Aug. 22. The hitting begins at 5:30 p.m. Hayden and St. David will probably tangle first with St. David and Pima going at each other next. Hayden and Pima will conclude the scrimmage.

The scrimmage sessions have no kicking game. The competing teams get 20 offensive plays and 20 defensive plays in each of the three scrimmage sessions. If the teams have enough players, they will sometimes have a 10 play session for the second team players.

Lady Lobos ready to bump, set and spike this season

By Nolberto Waddell
Copper Basin News

The Lady Lobo volleyball team started practice a couple of weeks ago in preparation for another successful season.

It will be hard for head coach Marissa Gallego to replace last year's senior players who played a major part in the winning season, but the cupboard was not left empty. There are six senior Lady Lobos stepping it up to take the leadership role. Four of the six seniors started at times with Devin Estrada and Kyana Garcia, and they will be counted on to lead this year's team. Also being counted on for their experience will be seniors Karina Serrano and Julissa Westrope. The other senior members of the team are Stephanie Encinas and Ariana Grijalva. The remainder of the varsity roster will be filled by a talented group of underclasswomen

Resolution Copper discusses tailing sites with public

By Nina Crowder
Superior Sun

Where are the tailings going?

That was the question of the night at last week's forum hosted by Resolution Copper Company.

Andrew Taplin, project director with Resolution Copper welcomed the public and many elected officials including Mayor Rankin of Florence, Lerry Alderman of Globe City Council, Dave Richards of Mesa, Superior Town Council members, Mayor Jayme Valenzuela, John Tameron, Mike Alonzo, "Kiki" Peralta and Steve Estatico. Pinal and Gila county boards were also represented.

"We have held many meetings and they have been very successful and we appreciate everyone taking their time to come to the meetings," Taplin said. "We desire to have a positive and constructive relationship with the Town of Superior, the Superior Town Council and public so that we can work through this world class project."

The purpose of last week's meeting was to inform the public about the Resolution Copper Mine Tailings Project and answer questions the public may have. Resolution Copper Mine (RCM) will create 3,700 jobs. $5 billion or more will be spent to design and build the mine, and close to $1 billion has already been spent to date. The mine will be in operation for 40 to 50 years. The mine will create $220 million in annual wages. It will produce $61 billion in total economic benefits to the state of Arizona. The mine will generate $20 billion in total federal, state, county and local tax revenue. They plan to produce one billion pounds or more of copper each year.

During the life of the mine, the tailings storage will require 3,000 to 4,000 acres (4.6 to 6.2 square miles) of land. The tailings consist of sandy, clay, dirt and leftover materials after ore has been mined. They are stored permanently in impoundments that must comply with strict environmental requirements for controlling dust, preventing acid, rock drainage and protecting water and other resources, as well as reclamation and closure.

RCM's first choice for the tailings site was Pinto Valley but since it has reopened the option of using that site has been eliminated. There are several places they are looking at now. There are competing interests for the land on U.S. 60 near Florence. RCM is looking to an area west of Superior on U.S. Forest Service land along with Potts Canyon/Hewitt Canyon, Gonzales Pass and Silver King.

RCM has recently submitted an application to the U.S. Forest Service for permission to gather baseline data over a general area west of Superior covering several tailings alternatives. This means they have asked to do research which includes some drilling on the site. No decisions have been made. The application involves a review process under the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA). It may take up to a year before RCM can gain permission to gather the baseline data. NEPA is a public process, which gives opportunities for public input.

Bearcats' football ready for start of season

By Andrew Luberda
Copper Basin News

The Ray Bearcats will begin their season a week earlier than most other schools in the state. They will travel to Elfrida, AZ and take on the Valley Union Blue Devils on Friday, Aug. 23, 2013.

Head coach Willie Jordan said it's been a challenge for the 'Cats to get their work in during training camp but the team has remained focused. He said the changes in the divisions and schedules have caused the unexpected challenges during camp.

"We've been, basically, two weeks behind instead of two weeks ahead," Jordan said. "We've been catching up to make sure we stay competitive."

With 11 returning players from last year's team, the 'Cats have the experience to overcome pre-season obstacles.

After finishing with a 5 – 3 record in 2012, the 'Cats will look to team captain Dominic Bravo (WR/SS) to provide leadership and direction. Coach Jordan said returning players Destry Yocum (QB/OLB), Julio Noriega (OL/MLB), Rexx Sosa (OL/DL), and Joe Rudy Lorona (QB/FS) will be counted on as the team looks to improve on last season's record.

Maintaining good health and avoiding serious injuries are always important for any team. The 'Cats will need at least three more components in order to achieve success this season.

"Mental toughness, physical toughness and endurance," Coach Jordan answered when asked for the three components.

Ready or not, the Bearcats season starts on Friday. Are you ready for some football?

Frank Deal, the tailings manager for RCM, provided a power point presentation explaining what tailings are. He explained how they are stored, how they will be transported (pipeline), and locations they are looking at that included before and after reclamation. Many of the questions from the audience were answered in the presentation by Deal. A few questions required a little more explanation. He explained how the 3,700 jobs will be broken down. According to Deal, 1,400 jobs will be directly employed with Resolution Copper while the remainder 2,300 jobs will be with contractors as indirect employees. The ore will be hoisted through the shaft onto a conveyor and transported. The old Magma tailings site will never be used again. Legally they are not allowed to build or put together a tailing site like the Magma tailings site any longer. The legal aspects have changed. A question was asked about the possibilities of earthquakes due to the drilling but the RCM panel said they are not concerned with earthquakes.

The Resolution Copper Mine appreciates public opinions and questions and hopes to continue to work with the public, the Town of Superior and surrounding communities. If you have additional unanswered questions, please feel free to email Resolution Copper at info@resolutioncopper.com or call 520-689-3409.
