OBITUARIES

Richard M. Hernandez

Richard M. Hernandez, 71, of Superior, passed away on Tuesday, Aug. 20, 2019 at Banner Baywood Hospital in Mesa, Arizona.

He was born on April 27, 1948, in Jerome, Arizona, the son of Benjamin and Katie Hernandez. Richard grew up in Superior, Arizona, and graduated from Superior

High School with the class of 1966. On Jan. 15, 1968 he was united in marriage to Sylvia Hernandez in Superior, Arizona.

Richard served in the U.S. Air Force and U.S. Army for 12 ½ years. He also retired as a lieutenant from the Arizona Department of Corrections. Richard was a Catechism teacher, Catechist aide, Catholic grief counselor volunteer, and a member of the Knights of Columbus.

In his spare time, he enjoyed listening to music, watching baseball, reading, and spending time with his friends, and family. He liked the Arizona State Sun Devils, Arizona Cardinals, Denver Broncos, New York Yankees, and Arizona Diamondbacks.

He is survived by his two sons, Richard (Nicole) Hernandez of Florence, Arizona and David (Michelle) Hernandez currently stationed at Travis AFB in California; one grandchild, Sylvia K. Hernandez; and a brother, Benjamin (Virginia) Hernandez of Superior, Arizona. He was preceded in death by his father, Benjamin Hernandez, and his mother, Katie Hernandez.

Funeral services will be held Friday, Aug. 30, 2019 at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Superior, Arizona with visitation at 9 a.m., followed by Rosary at 9:30 a.m. and Mass at 10 a.m.

Family was assisted with exceptional service by Superior Funeral Home.

OBITUARIES

Charles Elden Thompson

On Tuesday, Aug 13, 2019, Charles Elden Thompson, loving husband and father, passed away at the age of 67 at his home in Superior, Arizona.

Charles was born on Aug. 28, 1951 in Salem, Ohio, to Richard and Mary Virginia Thompson. Charles went to David Anderson Junior/Senior High School in Lisbon, Ohio, where he was known as Pugsley and was part of the Class of 1969.

Charles served in the US Navy as an engine mechanic from 1970-1972 when he received an honorable discharge as a proud E1 after his service in Vietnam. On Dec. 21, 1984, he married Teresa Marie Rhoden. They spent 42 years together. They raised four sons, Charles Eugene Thompson, Daniel Lee Thompson, Dustin Allen Thompson and Kyle Aaron Thompson and one daughter, Shannon Marie Thompson.

Charles was a diehard Pittsburg Steelers fan and he was an avid veterans rights activist. He loved the outdoors, watching thunderstorms, playing his guitar and spending time with his dogs: Mr. Foxy Brown, Sissy and Blinky Marie. His main love was his family and those who knew him also knew his love for music. In 1993 he had become A Luthier and built a line of Thompson Guitars.

Charles was preceded in death by his grandfather, John Bethel Thompson, grandmother, Olga Thompson, father, Richard, mother, Mary Virginia Thompson, brother, Richard Lee Thompson and his sister, Jeanie Lin Hiner. He is survived by his wife, Teresa Marie Thompson; his five children, Charles, Daniel, Dustin, Shannon (Alex) and Kyle; four grandchildren, Benjamin Aaron John Thompson, Rohen Erin Thompson, Alex Navarro III and Dax Curzon Navarro; two brothers, Harold Wayne Thompson (Melanie) and James William Thompson (Elizabeth); sister, Jackie Lou Hiner (Jim); and many nieces and nephews.

Rest In that better place, pops. Could have sworn you'd live forever and we know that you knew how much all of us loved you. But we didn't get a last time... We love you so much, pops, nobody could have asked for a cooler dad. And if you are watching down on all of us, we will ride the waves on our own just as you did and we all do. You were a great man and stayed strong in times that demanded you to pull through. With a house of five it had to be a battle but I'd like to think you won. And there's five pieces of you around and that special piece in mom who you shared your life with. We are glad for everything dad.

"When you lose the one you love, you think your world has ended. You think your world will be a waste of life without them in it. You feel there's no way to go on. Life is just a sad, sad song. But love is bigger than us all, The end is not the end at all."

Paul Wiley

Paul Wiley, 37, passed away on Aug. 4, 2019 in Anchorage, Alaska in a crash of a small sightseeing plane.

Paul is survived by his parents, Steven and Nancy (Bowers) Wiley; brother, Preston Wiley II of West Lafayette, IN; nephew, Tanner Wiley of Spokane, WA; grandma, Gertrude Wiley of Mishawaka, IN; aunts and uncles, Sharon Steffy (Douglas) of Kingsford Heights, IN, Thomas Wiley (Terry) of Goshen, IN, Janet Teller (Thomas) of Mishawaka, IN, William Bowers (Diane deceased) of Port Charlotte, FL, Raymond Bowers (Joyce) of Mishawaka, IN, Linda Maynard (Jess deceased) of Elkhart, IN, Judith Whitney (Kirk) of Stanton, MI, Cheryl Bowers (Paul deceased) of Michigan and Beverly Bowers (Leroy deceased) of Mishawaka, IN; and many cousins and friends.

Paul attended Penn High School, graduating in 2001. He also attended Indiana University of South Bend. He worked for Best Buy and AT&T. Paul moved to Ocala, FL.

He enjoyed roller coasters, working on cars, fishing, wildlife, and traveling. He was a caring person, always ready and willing to help anyone. Paul always lived life to the fullest, doing the things he loved.

Interment will take place at Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens, 10776 McKinley Highway Osceola, IN 46561 on Aug. 31, at 2 p.m.

Go Panthers! Our team is rooting for Superior High School victories in all the sports throughout the year.

Superior prepared to defend state championship

By Andrew Luberda
Superior Sun

After winning its first state title in 54 years last season, the Superior football program doesn't expect another 50-plus years to pass before winning another state championship. As a matter of fact, the Panthers are poised to win another championship this season.

"Last season was historical and a tremendous accomplishment. I am so proud of that group of young men," said Superior head coach Ryan Palmer, the reigning 1A Coach of the Year. "Winning the state championship is a shared experience that team will celebrate for years to come.

"This is a new year, new season, and new team. In our preseason meeting I told the team we can hang our hats on last year's championship, and say mission accomplished, or we can use that accomplishment as the new standard of excellence, and say we are just getting started. The unanimous response was the latter.

"Superior football has a motto," Palmer added. "We don't rebuild, we reload. Winning the state championship is the goal of the program each year."

The Panthers do, in fact, have plenty of talent to reload with, including four seniors and two juniors who are three-year starters.

Seniors Daniel McConnell (OL/DE), Gabriel Castillo (NT), Gabriel Otero (RB/LB), and Sammy Lopez (WR/DB), along with juniors Adam Navarrette (Off & Def Flex) and Matthew Diaz (RB/LB) are the returning three-year starters. Sophomore center AJ Lara is also a returning starter.

The Panthers have arguably fielded one of the top two quarterbacks in the conference the last six years in Nicolaus Cruz and Steven Ybarra. This year, sophomore Matthew Cruz will play the most important position on Palmer's offense. Expect more success at that position, especially considering Cruz' lineage: he's the younger brother of Nicolaus, a four-year starter and one of the best to ever wear the Superior uniform.

Palmer expects four players to make immediate impacts as new starters: Joshua Marquez, Andrew Martinez, Julian Navarro and Marc Mendoza.

Experience will be the Panthers greatest strength, not just the number of returning starters but their experience in the playoffs: three semifinals appearances in as many years and two state championship game berths in 2017-18.

Still, the Panthers have another strength in 2019.

"Speed will also be a strength of this team," Palmer shared. "Four skill-position players ran 4.8 seconds 40-yard dashes, or under. I have never coached a team with more than two or three players that ran the 40 under five seconds, let alone 4.8."

Superior begins the defense of its state championship this Friday at home versus Valley Union. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Superior Schools welcome new teachers for 2019-2020

There are some new faces roaming the halls of John F. Kennedy Elementary and Superior Jr./Sr. High School (and we're not talking kids).

There are six new teachers who join the ranks of the educators.

Leonard Cestaro will be teaching 6th Grade at John F. Kennedy Elementary.

Cestaro was born in New York City. He received his undergraduate degrees at Palm Beach Atlantic University and at University of South Florida. He received his graduate degree at the University of Oregon. Cestaro has taught elementary school at Klamath Falls School District and in a Yupik Eskimo village in Alaska for three years. He retired from the Anchorage School District in Alaska. He is married with three children and two grandchildren.

"I love working in Superior, the area is beautiful and so are the people who live here," he said.

Denogean is resident of Superior, Arizona. She is 29 years old and enjoys hunting and being in the outdoors. She is married to Brandon Denogean and they have two children: Gunner, who is the oldest at 6, and Kaylee, who is 4. Both are enrolled at John F. Kennedy Elementary.

Denogean has been with the Superior School District for a few years working as both a CVIT Relief Driver and a Substitute Teacher.

Bruce McClelland will be teaching 5th Grade at John F. Kennedy Elementary School.

McClelland was born and raised in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He graduated from ASU in 1995 with honors, where he earned his BS in Finance/Business.

McClelland is a returning teacher to Superior Unified School District, having taught High School Math and Business from 2004-2005.

Robert Meeks is the new JH Math/Algebra I teacher at Superior Jr./Sr. High School.

Meeks is married with four adult children and 10 grandchildren. He worked for 35 years in the aerospace sector, as a research mechanic.

He has a bachelor's degree in sociology and more than 45 credits in education. Meeks left aerospace and has been teaching math for five years.

Susan Thiem will be teaching Special Education at John F. Kennedy Elementary.

Thiem was raised in Michigan in a farming family, in a small town with lots of family around. She went to Western Michigan University for her BA and MA. She lived in San Francisco Bay Area, CA for 25 years, then Las Cruces, NM for four years before landing in Arizona in May, 2013. She has some family and high school friends in this area.

Thiem has two Australian Cattle dogs, a son and daughter-in-law and two grandchildren.

"I like working in Superior and feel like I found a family here," she said.

Jacqueline Tiedens will be teaching JH English/English 9 at Superior Jr./Sr. High School.

Tiedens grew up in Bergen County, New Jersey. She went to school at Ohio State, where she received her Bachelors and certification. She lived in Ohio for 10 years. Tiedens has also taught in Daegu, South Korea.

She loves art, reading, hiking, and travelling anywhere. She also has a dog named Butterscotch.

Carolyn Gray to offer art classes in Superior

Carolyn Gray will be offering art classes in Superior through a grant provided to the town for extra activities.

Though, Carolyn was raised in the south, she has lived in the southwest for over 30 years. Both environments have contributed to her artistic growth, providing a rich heritage that can be seen in her love for diverse cultures and people, as well as nature, color and design.

Students can choose between either drawing or painting. The classes will be offered for a six-week commitment with each class being two hours long. One will be in the mornings from 10 a.m. to noon. Another in the evening, from 6 to 8 p.m. The cost for all six classes is $60. Classes will begin on Thursday, Sept. 5.

A registration fee of $60 can be made through Pay Pal, using her email address: spiritvision@theriver.com or a check mailed to Carolyn Gray, 511 W. Heiner Dr.,

Superior, AZ. 85713. A supply list will be provided after payment is made.

Carolyn has a Bachelors of Visual Arts from Georgia State University, Atlanta and a Masters of Fine Arts from the University of Arizona, Tucson. She has done continual study in art therapy, as well as studying with noted portrait artist, Roberta Carter Clark.

Her portrait work has been commissioned in Scottsdale, Bisbee, Sedona, Atlanta, Georgia, Carmel and San Jose. She has taught art for most of her life, including at Sedona Art Center, Sedona, Yavapai College, Cottonwood and in Tucson at the University of Arizona, Pima Community College and Tucson Association for the Blind.

Carolyn retired from the Superior school system where she taught both Art and English. A life of service has been her life's priority.

Olga Lopez recognized for 16 years of service to Superior Town Council

The League of Arizona Cities and Towns recognized Olga Lopez for serving on the Superior Town Council for 16 years during its annual conference last week in Tucson. Councilmember Lopez began her political career in 2003. She has served in the capacity of Councilmember and Vice Mayor during her tenure on the Council.

She has always been an active member of the community supporting organizations such as Little League, Saint Francis of Assisi Catholic Church, Social Club de Damas and she was a founding member of the Superior Optimist Club. Most often you will find Councilwoman Lopez at school and athletic events supporting her children and grandchildren in their activities. Currently, she is representing Superior on the Copper Corridor Census 2020 Complete Count Committee.

“Councilmember Lopez is a shining example of leadership in our community and we are grateful for her service. She is always willing to support community activities and takes the lead on many important initiatives, it is an honor to serve with her,” said Mayor Mila Besich.

Superior Mayor Mila Besich with Councilwoman Olga Lopez.

Be Obedient to God

In the small book of Jonah, in the Old Testament, we find him booking passage on a ship headed to Tarshish. Normally, this would have been okay, but this time God had instructed him to go visit Nineveh, in the opposite direction.

He knew God had a work for him to do there, but he had his own ideas, so he ran away from it. Nineveh was the last place he wanted to be. A great storm suddenly showed up, the winds tossing the ship so badly, it started to break up. And where was Jonah in all this? Asleep in the hold; even with the violent tossing of the ship.

At times, we know what it is that we should be doing, but we are just not interested, so we also run away. We become tired and sleepy, when we should be active and busy, getting things accomplished. It is amazing how disobedience causes us to fall asleep, just like Jonah.

When he admitted his sin to the others and took the consequences of his actions, the storm ended. We must realize that the results of our disobedient actions will affect us and others also. We become insensitive to what is going on around us and the needs of others. God is still in charge – so do what He asks and not what you think is most desirable. You will be blessed for being obedient to God.

Input sought for potential assisted living center and tiny house village

The Kearny United Methodist Church is in the preliminary planning stages for an assisted living center and tiny house village on its property adjacent to the church building. Developing such a project is a multi-year project requiring many planning steps.

At this point, to get investors, the church needs a sense of how many people in the Copper Corridor area would be actively interested in such a development. To that end, it is asking people to complete a questionnaire available locally at several locations. Participation in the survey does not legally bind participants but does indicate a strong possibility of utilizing the service in the future. Though there are no guarantees that the project will ultimately be built, there is a strong commitment on the part of the church and strong support from the Town of Kearny, Pinal-Gila Council for Senior Citizens, Pinal County Economic Development and the housing department.

The vision is to build 12-16 rental tiny houses for elders, young teachers, millennials and adventurers. The village will be for people wanting to downsize or to live simply in a friendly, mutually supportive neighborhood. All units will have a view of the mountains to the south. Tiny houses are stand-alone dwellings of 400 square feet or less similar to studio apartments. All will be designed for independent living but will be accessible to those with limited mobility. Meals, housekeeping and home healthcare are not included but residents may contract independently for such services.

Nearby there will be an assisted living center for an undetermined number of people so that local elders or people with disabilities do not need to be placed in facilities far from home.

The natural desert setting of the land will be maintained to the highest extent possible. All will be supported by the availability of the parish hall as community center. The planning effort is being led by local resident and church member Carol Hosler.

If the above represents a real present or future commitment – to either a tiny house or the assisted living center, the questionnaire can be found at several local businesses, filled out, and mailed to: Carol Hosler, Church of the Good Shepherd, PO Box 729, Kearny, AZ 85137.

Travel ID getting more attention

With the federally-imposed deadline of Oct. 1, 2020 drawing closer, as of this past Friday the Transportation Security Administration will advise passengers passing through airport security checkpoints that it's important to consider getting a Travel ID in order to meet upcoming new federal identification requirements.

The Arizona Department of Transportation Motor Vehicle Division offers the federally-compliant Travel ID at all MVD locations statewide. It's also available at those Authorized Third Party providers that offer license and ID services.

"This is a significant step for the TSA," said MVD Director Eric Jorgensen. "It's important for the flying public to be aware of these new ID requirements. While those requirements are a federal mandate, licenses and IDs are issued by the state, and we encourage all Arizona motorists to strongly consider getting the Travel ID. It's the simplest way to ensure you have the proper ID needed to pass through airport security starting on Oct. 1, 2020."

He added, "The Motor Vehicle Division has made this process very simple. People can make an MVD office appointment at servicearizona.com. Prior to coming to an office, a visit to azdot.gov/travelid will help begin the application process. Those who make an office appointment will typically be served in fewer than 30 minutes."

In order to get a license or ID, customers need to bring three forms of documentation, including:

1. Proof of ID such as a birth certificate or valid U.S. Passport
2. Proof of Social Security number, such as a Social Security card
3. Two documents proving Arizona residency such as a utility bill, rental statement or similar items

For a full list of acceptable documents and for more general information about the requirements for the Travel ID, visit azdot.gov/travelid
