OBITUARIES

Johnette 'Jo' Donaldson

Johnette "Jo" Donaldson entered into eternal rest in the wee hours of July 28, 2021, in Tucson, AZ with her loving daughter at her side. Jo was born in Virden, New Mexico on March 4, 1939, to John LaVar Lines and Emma Jean Jones Lines. Jo is the second of five children; Farrell, Gene, David, and Edna.

Jo grew up in Virden and was the last person to graduate from Virden High School before its closure in 1956. She accelerated her education, graduating her junior year and took the Arizona and New Mexico State Championship in tennis, due to the Virden school closing, and attending Duncan High School. After taking state, she moved to Safford where she attended the Safford Beauty College graduating with her cosmetology license.

She had begun dating Jimmy Donaldson while still in Virden and continued as he was attending Gila Academy, currently known as Eastern Arizona College. On May 28, 1957, after quite the mix-up with their marriage license, the couple married in the Mesa Arizona Temple. The couple was blessed with six children: Jayme, Joni, Kevin, Kyle, Krystal and Karson. The family lived in Tucson until 1970 so that Jim could continue his education at the University of Arizona, then moved to San Manuel, AZ where Jim was hired as the head basketball coach.

Jo worked several jobs as her children began to grow, driving the school bus and later working at Mervyn's in the Tucson Mall. The family was everything to Jim and Jo and they spent all of their time together as a family, camping, fishing, hiking, and hunting. Jo loved to crochet and has given everyone she knows a doily or two.

She also enjoyed working on puzzles, reading, and doing crossword puzzles. She hated the color yellow and loved the beach, she was a night owl, enjoyed going for rides at sunset, making special trips up north to see the fall colors, was very competitive, and above all, loved her family.

She leaves behind her loving high school sweetheart of 64 years, Jim Donaldson; her children, Jayme (Mike) Gauthier of Safford, AZ, Joni (Larry) Marshall of Payson, AZ, Kevin (Marcelle) Donaldson of Eagar, AZ, Kyle (SueAnn) Donaldson of Mesa, AZ, Krystal (Chuck) Bassett of Phoenix, AZ, and Karson (Becky) Donaldson of Mesa AZ; 29 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren, 2 1/2 great-great-grandchildren, and her siblings, Gene (Suzanne) Lines of Mesa, AZ, David Lines, and Edna Pacheco both of Queen Creek, AZ, and her sister-in-law Lucynthia Knudsen of Albuquerque, NM.

Jo was preceded in death by her parents, LaVar and Emma Lines; her brother, Farrell Lines; her son-in-law, Randy Lucas; her granddaughter, Sage Donaldson; and her great-great-granddaughter, Paisley Jade Stailey.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Rural Arizona Redistricting and the Five Eastern Counties

Many of you are learning about this redistricting issue for the first time. It happens every 10 years following the national census. In Arizona, we have a commission appointed to draw the new districts for Congressional and Legislative districts in our state. We citizens have an opportunity to have a say with the commission, and so we must make every effort to make sure our voices are heard. I want to give a quick update on the public hearing already held by the Commission, the upcoming hearing in Safford, and what we all can do still on this matter.

First of all, in the 2001 redistricting, rural Eastern Arizona was given a voice in the legislature with the 5 Eastern Counties District: Gila, Graham, Greenlee, southern Navajo and Apache. In the 2011 redistricting, we proposed keeping our rural 5 Eastern Counties district, and adding the Copper Corridor and the Verde Valley to it. 15 of our rural cities/towns adopted unanimous resolutions supporting this proposal. Sadly, the unsympathetic commission ignored us and splintered our region into several other districts, often joining us with urban and metro areas. In 2021, we again are advocating to a new commission to re-unite the 5 Eastern Counties and once again add to us the Copper Corridor and the Verde Valley. The 5+ Eastern Counties proposal.

Public hearings have already been held throughout our region.

REDISTRICTING

Eastern Arizona Counties United.

Reservations added.

In Florence/Superior, citizens of the Copper Corridor (Superior, Kearny, Hayden, Winkelman, Dudleyville, Mammoth, San Manuel), spoke overwhelmingly of restoring a rural district. I had the chance there to introduce the 5+ Eastern Counties proposal and people afterwards expressed surprisingly strong support of the idea, one saying that it made the most sense of any mentioned that night.

In Egar/Springerville, I was not present, but I had it reported to me that uniting the 5+ Eastern Counties was the strong message given by citizens attending.

In Show Low, Lakeside-Pinetop: I attended along with roughly a hundred people. The 5+ Eastern Counties was supported by citizens over and over again. One gentleman had the good sense to submit a printout of our map proposals to the commissioners.

In Payson, Globe-Miami, it was very frustrating. The commission scheduled the hearing for Sunday at 10 a.m. Predictably, extremely few attended, most being in church during that time. I was the only one to speak of the four in attendance at Globe. A few spoke in Payson. Everyone echoed the desire for a rural legislative district and how unacceptable it is to have little Gila County split into 3 different legislative districts.

Up next, the commission will hold a hearing in Safford and Clifton. This is the last stop in Eastern Arizona for this tour. I will be attending and it is important that you email everyone you may know in the Gila Valley. Attend the meeting and voice your support for restoring the 5+ Eastern Counties.

Friday, Aug. 6, 2021 at 5 p.m, Graham County Assembly Room, 921 W. Thatcher Blvd., Safford, AZ 85546. Remotely at: Greenlee County Courthouse, 253 Fifth St, Clifton, AZ 85533.

Northeastern Arizona spoke loud and clear about the 5+ Eastern Counties. Central eastern AZ spoke strongly of the creating a rural district. We need Southeastern AZ to bring it home with an overwhelming turnout and echoing 5+ Eastern Counties!

We have two map proposals for the commission to consider. One includes the San Carlos and White Mountain Apaches in our district. The other places them with the Navajo. In the second, it is designed with an uninhabited strip of land where all the reservations can be combined and still allow our rural communities to be united. That is a decision to be made by the people of each tribe of where they want to land. If you have any tribal connections, please reach out to them.

Please fill out the Communities of Interest Survey for the IRC at this link: <https://irc.az.gov/survey> Below is how I answered each question:

- A. Community Name: 5+ Eastern Counties
- B. The map is difficult to use, do your best. Attached is PDF instructions. Below is the rough map I drew for a guide.
- C. Community Description: 5+ rural Eastern Counties: Gila, Graham, Greenlee, southern Navajo and Apache, San Carlos & White Mtn Apache nations, Copper Corridor (Along SR 77/177: Superior to San Manuel), Verde Valley (Campe Verde etc.). We are natural resources focused, mining, farming, ranching, timber, tourism/recreation. Large amounts of National Forest and limited private land, making our issues of education, water, power, federal land management unique and focused. 5+ Eastern Counties: rural and natural resources focused.
- D. Additional Comments: Our region transcends partisan, racial, and gender in local and legislative elections. Our survival depends on navigating common issues in ways that are unique to rural Arizona. The vast majority of our area is federal public lands and tribal, leaving a very small percentage as private for economic development and taxation. From the years 2000 to 2010, the 5 Eastern Counties had a voice in the legislature. In 2010, 15 cities and town across the 5+ East Co.'s, unanimously adopted a resolution to keep 5+ East Co.'s united. That was ignored and we were splintered among the four winds. In 2021, please re-Unit the 5+ rural Eastern Counties.

We are considering another campaign of resolutions from our Counties and Cities/Towns. We will need people in every community willing to get that on their County's/Town's agenda for adoption. Stay tuned for that!

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Elected officials, I would love to speak with you more about this and share what information I have.

Thank you and I hope to see you in Safford!

Support Local: Mel's Drive-In

In April 2020, COVID-19 brought much of Arizona's economy to a screeching halt. All businesses not deemed "essential" were ordered closed by Arizona's governor Doug Ducey.

The lockdown continued for nearly two months. When Gov. Ducey finally gave the go ahead to reopen, businesses slowly began the road to recovery. Even those listed as "essential" had a challenge with this economic recovery.

Many small businesses and non-profits in Arizona didn't survive the lockdown. The businesses that did survive are hanging on as best they can. Copper Area News wanted to give something back to the local business community as a thank you for supporting us through these troubled times. Our newspapers (Copper Basin News, Superior Sun and San Manuel Miner) have been featuring local businesses and non-profits since the beginning of 2021, encouraging our readers to Shop at Home, stay local and support our local businesses. To date, Copper Area News has featured 90 businesses in the Copper Corridor.

Local restaurants faced some of the toughest challenges when the pandemic hit; they were forced to reduce their services to take out only and limit their capacity when they were finally allowed to re-open.

For 60 years, Mel's drive in has been serving San Manuel. The restaurant, owned by Val Childers, was open for take out during quarantine and remains open during the pandemic. The owner's granddaughter, Amanda Alvarado, is the manager.

Mel's began life in San Manuel in June, 1966, as "Weldon's Drive-In". The building was built by members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and was built with the idea that the young people in San Manuel had no place to go in the evenings. It gave them a place to "hang out." It was also a place to get something good to eat.

Being that it was located across the street from the high school, many students before the days of a closed campus used to eat lunch there. Students went there after school and after athletic games. Opposing teams from out of town often ate there after the games or picked up their food to go.

Weldon's Drive-In had a pool table and a juke box. The original jukebox can be seen at the Chaparral in Oracle which is owned by the Childers.

In 1967 or 1968 Mel and Val Childers became partners in the business and began managing it. They bought out their partner five years later and changed the name to "Mel's Drive-In".

Three generations of the Childers family have worked at Mel's: Val, her daughter Lisa Langhammer and granddaughter Amanda Alvarado who manages it now. Albertina Zazueta has worked there since 1979 cooking up "the burger we drive back home for" as expressed by Mel's T-shirts. Many former residents visiting family or friends in San Manuel often stop by Mel's for a burger while in town.

Lauren Carnes | Miner

Mel's offers a mix of American and Mexican food, one of these being their famous Mel's burger. They also serve ice cream and the famous "Chilly Willies".

Mel's is open 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Monday through Saturday, and 11:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Sundays. They are located on 50 E. Main St. in San Manuel. You can call in your order at (520) 385-4212.

"Thank you for supporting us through the pandemic," said Alvarado.

Find yourself craving a burger? Call Mel's!

Harmful Insects in the Summer Garden

By Laurie Bryant

Oracle Community Learning Garden

Each season brings its own challenges to the gardener. The life cycle of some of our more bothersome garden pests are also linked closely to the season of the year. Warm weather brings out most of the pests. We say they “overwinter” in the soils in our garden and emerge with the warmer weather..

We’ve had some much needed rain this summer. I couldn’t believe how green the desert and our yards became after the rains and how quickly it happened (dust off those lawnmowers!). But the increased heat and moisture makes a comfortable habitat for the insects, too, so we have seen an increase in the pests.

So we can look at different ways to prevent severe damage to our plants from harmful insects. There are many products available and this is a personal choice for your own garden. But here at the Oracle

Community Learning Garden, we choose to avoid any pesticide or harmful chemical sprays and treatment. If you do purchase commercial pesticides, research the long lasting effects on beneficial insects and pollinators.

The biggest step we can all take in the fight against the harmful insects in our garden is BE OBSERVANT. Look at your plants every day. These bugs are small. Often the first sign we have is a yellowing or wilting of our plant, or telltale holes on the leaves. By examining the tops and bottoms of leaves, and along the stem, we can often see eggs, or frass (poop left by the insects). Some of the larvae which do most of the damage are large, like caterpillars, but some are tiny or can be buried inside the vine. So watching your plant closely is the key to controlling the damage. If you see eggs on the leaves, you can wipe them off using an insecticidal soap at this stage.

Lace bugs: These are one of the first things we noticed. We had a lot of “volunteer” sunflowers around the garden, and this is a favorite plant of lace bugs. The lace bug is a tiny, gray and white bug that feed on the underside of leaves. With piercing-sucking mouthparts characteristic of a “true bug”, they pump out plant sap. The leaves then dry up and turn yellow. We handled them with daily water spray. Ladybugs and other beneficial insects will help control them, too

Tomato Hornworm: By the time we see these guys, they can eat all the leaves from a tomato plant before you can blink an eye. This is a larval stage of a large grey or brown moth. These hornworms can be handpicked and disposed of, and here at OCLG several of our gardeners have chickens which are happy to get these tasty snacks. They are fairly well camouflaged but once you’re used to looking for them they show right up. Especially at night with a black light.

Powdery mildew: Powdery mildew is a group of diseases caused by fungi. Powdery mildews are characterized by spots or patches of white to grayish, talcum-powder-like growth. We find them on all kinds of squash. We’ve seen several cases of this and have used a spray of 40/60 whole milk/water to the leaves of plants in sunlight. This has been used in many areas, as the milk proteins act as a deterrent. to this fungi.

PESTS

Aphids: Gardeners are pretty familiar with groups of light green aphids along the stems and underside of leaves, as aphids manage to get into almost every garden. The easiest way is daily inspection and wiping them off, but this can be time consuming. Insecticidal soap spray can be used. This year we released ladybugs and green lacewings; These beneficial insects will devour as many aphids as they can get. There also a parasitic wasp that eats aphids. You can order these from companies specializing in organic gardening supplies and natural pest control solutions.

Verticillium Wilt: This is a fungal disease that attacks many plants. We noticed it on our tomatoes. It enters through the root system and travels through the vascular system. The leaves wilt and turn yellow to brown. There really is no cure and if one plant is affected, it's better to destroy that plant. And please don't put diseased plant material in your compost pile.

Vine Borer Squash Bug: Since the pumpkin patch at OCLG is a favorite, this squash bug can be devastating. And they are hard to spot since the larva burrow into the base of the vine and live in there, eating all the nutrients as it grows. Look at the base of your squash vines for sign of a small hole and sawdust like material which indicates a critter is already in your vine. Also look for flat, oval brown eggs along the stems in late spring or early summer.

This is a just a brief overview of a few cases. There's a lot of information out there, Please share any ideas or experience you have had with combating harmful pests in your garden. Send us an email at oraclegardening@gmail.com or call Laurie at 910-670-5665.

NOTICE
POWER COST ADJUSTMENT
Pursuant to Section §175.235, Title 25 of the Code of Federal Regulations, notice is hereby given that effective September 1, 2021, the San Carlos Irrigation Project (SCIP) will apply a purchased Power Cost Adjustment (PCA) of $0.031/kWh to each kWh used by customers. In addition to hydro contracts for power from the Western Area Power Authority (Parker-Davis and WAPA – Salt Lake City Area Integrated Projects "SLCA/IP"), SCIP purchases power through short-term bilateral transactions. Recent weather-related events combined with the limited availability of summer energy resources has significantly increased power market rates. Due to this escalation current rates are estimated to under collect over the next 12 months; therefore, SCIP has determined the PCA, last revised in 2007, must be adjusted. This PCA will remain in effect until amended by the Western Regional Director. Please direct questions via e-mail to scipca@bia.gov or mail to San Carlos Irrigation Project, P.O. Box 250, Coolidge, AZ 85128. William Faltin is believed to be the first man convicted of murder and sentenced to death in Arizona following statehood in 1912. On Sept. 9, 1912, Faltin was arrested on suspicion of doing bodily harm to his roommate Carl Petersen after Petersen was reported missing and blood stains and what appeared to be brain matter was found at Faltin's ranch house on South 7th Street in Phoenix. Petersen's body was found on Sept. 11 in a shallow grave about 70 yards from the house. His head had been bashed in by someone wielding a metal bar that had been found near the grave.

WILLIAM FALTIN

On Jan. 26, 1913 after a two-week trial, Faltin was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to be hanged. He filed appeals with the last appeal being denied by the Arizona Supreme Court in November 1914. Also, in November of 1914, an election was being held on an initiative for the people of Arizona to determine if the death penalty would remain as law or be abolished. In the months preceding the election, Governor Hunt, who was against the death penalty, granted reprieves until Dec. 19 to 11 men who were scheduled to be hanged. The anti-death penalty bill was defeated by 1,146 votes. New dates for the hangings of the condemned inmates would be scheduled after the upcoming holidays.

Another law that was passed during the 1914 election was the creation of the Board of Pardons and Parole. This law was deliberately created by legislators wanting to take power from Governor Hunt who, prior to the creation of the Board, could grant reprieves, commutations, pardons and parole. Now Hunt could only dispense these actions if recommended by the Board. Hunt's liberal ideas on crime and punishment and his anti-death penalty activism led to this law being passed.

Following denial of all of Faltin's appeals, the new Arizona Board of Pardons and Parole refused to grant

Faltin a commutation of sentence. His execution date was set for Nov. 26, 1915. On Nov. 25, the Board denied his request for a reprieve. On the hour of the scheduled execution on Nov. 26, the prison Superintendent, R.B. Sims, refused to go ahead with the hanging. He claimed that Faltin was insane and provided two reports from two doctors attesting to Faltin's insanity. Because of his refusal to carry out the execution, Sims was charged with contempt of court by Arizona Attorney General, Wiley Jones. Many people including some newspaper editors believed that Faltin was faking insanity. Newspapers also reported that Faltin was suspected of two other murders, one in Alaska and another one in Arizona.

Faltin was sentenced again to hang on Dec. 4. His execution date was set for Jan. 7, 1916. The same day, Governor Hunt was asked by members of the press whether Warden Sims would attempt to interfere with the scheduled hanging of Ramon Villalobo on Dec. 10. Hunt replied, "You can say for me that no further legal obstacles are going to be placed in the way of the proposed execution and the condemned man is positively going to hang on Friday."

Ramon Villalobo was hanged on Dec. 10, making him the first man to be executed by the State of Arizona. Warden Sims, despite rumors that he would resign rather than participate in the execution, officiated the hanging. On Dec. 11, 1915, Warden Sims was found not guilty of the contempt charge by the Arizona Supreme Court although they said he overstepped his authority. On Dec. 13, a sanity hearing for Faltin was held in Florence. On Dec. 15, after hearing the testimony of prison guards and officials from the state prison and four "alienists", Faltin was found to be insane. (Alienists were what doctors who specialized in assisting patients suffering from mental illness were known as psychiatrists). Due to the finding of insanity, Faltin's execution date was suspended and he was moved to the Arizona State insane asylum in January 1916.
