Local man involved in finding, returning stolen

By John Hernandez
Copper Area News

You may have read or heard the story about a valuable stolen painting that was recently found and returned to the University of Arizona Museum of Art.

What you may not have heard is that one of the finders is from the Copper Corridor and one of his partners has ties to the Copper Corridor.

If you have not read the story, here is a quick overview.

The story begins 31 years ago when a painting was stolen from the University of Arizona Museum of Art the day after Thanksgiving in 1985. The painting, Woman-Ochre, was painted by the famous Dutch-American abstract expressionist, Willem de Kooning. It was part of a series of paintings, painted between 1950 and 1955. Kooning died in 1997.

This summer, three partners who own Manzanita Ridge Furniture & Antiques in Silver City, New Mexico, Rick Johnson, David Auker and Buck Burns, purchased a household of items at an estate sale from a home in a small town outside of Silver City. Among the items was a painting which they brought back to their store. The entire estate including furniture, other artifacts and the painting was purchased for $2,000.

The painting was displayed in their store and some of their regular customers upon viewing it asked them if it was an original de Kooning. David took it upon himself to research Willem de Kooning and came upon an article about the stolen painting from the University of Arizona Museum of Art. Once they believed they may have the stolen painting, there was no hesitation on their part – the partners decided they must do the right thing.

“We knew within minutes of finding the article that we had the stolen painting and it needed to go back to the U of A Museum, where it was stolen from,” Buck said. “We ended up hiding the painting in the store bathroom, wrapped in a blanket because it was the only door that locked.”

David contacted the University of Arizona Museum of Art and the FBI and told them he believed they had the stolen de Kooning. The University sent their experts to New Mexico and confirmed that the painting was in fact the stolen de Kooning. It was taken back to the University.

At the time of the theft, the painting was valued at $400,000. The painting’s value has grown in the intervening years. It is now estimated at well over $100 million. A similar painting from the series was sold for $137.5 million 10 years ago.

Rick, David, and Buck were recently honored at the U of A Museum of Art and feted at a private dinner at the Tucson restaurant Café la C’art. It was a black-tie event and “very cool,” said Buck. The three will be back in Tucson when the U of A Museum of Art displays the painting to the public.

At no time were the three men interested in any money or a reward.

“Because it was stolen, it had to go home,” said Buck.

The men have been getting congratulated and receiving good wishes for their honesty from many who know them and from people on the internet that have read the story, which has been on the news worldwide. The story just appeared on the Sunday edition front page of the New York Times and the Inside Edition television program just called them.

The three men have ties to Arizona and the Copper Corridor. They owned the Manzanita Ridge store and Pickle Barrel Antiques & Interiors in Globe for a number of years before selling them. David grew up in Mesa, Arizona. Buck was born in Globe and raised in Aravaipa. He is the son of Maria and the late Pete Burns. Maria, “Mary” as she is known, says she is “proud of him.”

Buck is a graduate of Ray High School in Kearny. He is a proud Bearcat and says his Class of 1994 was “the best class of all.” He attended college at the Central Arizona College Aravaipa Campus.

Besides owning a business, Buck is an artist, actor and a fireman for the Los Pinos Altos Volunteer Fire & Rescue Department. He is studying to be a Firefighter I & II as well as an EMT. He is active in the art community and has worked with kids in art education projects and volunteered at the Youth Mural Camp. He directed the painting of the Silver City Bottling Mural. He was heavily involved in several of the downtown murals.

Buck is a leader in the theatrical community. He participates in a lot of local theater and has regularly participated in the annual . He helped found The Theatre Group New Mexico and manages The World is Our Stage theater group. Working with his theatrical group and the Virus Theater, he and others are raising funds to remodel and restore the El Sol Theater in downtown Silver City. He is trying to “jumpstart the drama program at a local school and bring back arts to our school”.

Buck has choreographed, set up, produced and directed Miss Teen New Mexico, Miss Grant County and Miss Silver City pageants. He has been involved in a number of motion pictures. He has acted in a local web series River filmed in El Paso, Texas; and has acting credits in the short films, Not Tonight Dear in which he starred and The Backroom; he has a part in the Sci-fi thriller The X Species; and has acted in a new film to be released this year, Rose, which stars Cybil Sheperd, James Brolin and Pam Grier.

Buck, David, Rick and Manzanita Ridge Furniture & Antiques believe in giving back to the community.

“I am all about doing right by our town so that it does right by us and we also love to make strangers smile,” Buck said.

These men from Silver City have made a lot of people happy and their honesty, integrity and kindness will come back to them in ways yet to be discovered. Thank you, gentlemen for returning the painting to Arizona. Let’s hope the remaining mystery is solved.

If you would like to send them a thank you, good wishes or just say hi, visit and like Manzanita Ridge on Facebook.

So Important to Shop Locally

The NAPA Store in Kearny saved me more than $200 and at least half a day of my time last week. My wife, Carol, drives a Yaris which was missing two wheel covers (I’m so old that I still call them “hubcaps”). She checked with the car dealer in Tucson and discovered that they would cost about $200, plus we would have to drive in to get them. Well, we checked at NAPA right here in Kearny and found wheel covers totaling only $42 for four. Shop locally, I say, or at least check to see if our local merchants can meet your needs.

The Copper Basin Chamber of Commerce, which serves Hayden, Winkelman, Kearny and the surrounding areas, invites all residents to an old-fashioned Ice Cream Social at the Pinal County Courthouse in Kearny. It will take place on Friday, September 15, beginning at 6 p.m. At the event, the drawing for the raffle will be held and the new director of the chamber will be introduced. There’s no charge for the event (unless you want to buy a last-minute raffle ticket). Former resident Belinda Ortiz Rodriguez will be consulting with our chamber as it develops some new approaches to make the Copper Basin known and to assist our business community.

I have noticed greater support developing for the work of our chamber. Businesses are looking at the benefits an active chamber can bring, and younger people are coming in to lend their aid. Individuals and not just businesses can purchase a membership (starting at $50) and take full part. Applications are at the Chamber office in the courthouse in Kearny.

Local artist Susan Mapes continues to introduce people to the joy of creating a painting with her occasional classes at the General Kearny Inn. Norm’s IGA sponsored similar events last summer. It is my hope that many of these just-beginning artists will continue their interest by taking part in the art classes which will begin Friday, Sept. 22, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Ray Hall of The United Methodist Church. There is no instructor. Rather, all the students are “teachers who learn

Bearcats rout Tigers, 52 – 20

By Andrew Luberda
Copper Basin News

The Ray football team improved to 2 – 1 on the season after its second-straight lopsided victory. The Cats followed up their 66 – 0 win against Baboquivari with a 52 – 20 rout of St. David last Friday night at home.

Junior quarterback Jaden Pace threw for 227 yards on 6-of-6 passing with three touchdowns, all of them to junior receiver Dakota Willis, who caught five of Pace's six completions. Pace also had a team-high 91 rushing yards.

Sophomore running back Jando Felix rushed for two touchdowns and Jayden Lagunas, also a sophomore, added another.

The Cats scored 24 points in the first quarter of Friday's game on their way to a 36 – 14 lead at halftime. They outscored the Tigers 16 – 6 in the second half.

Willis was a beast for the Cats' defense, finishing with a team-high 21 tackles. Christian Day and Eric Manriquez, a pair of sophomores, also totaled double digits in tackles with 13 and 10, respectively. Senior Gabriel Schwartz blocked a punt in the win.

Hayden posts shutout in win over Baboquivari

By Andrew Luberda
Copper Basin News

The Hayden football team improved to 2 – 1 following a 45 – 0 victory at Baboquivari last Friday night.

The Lobos bounced back after a 48 – 0 loss at Williams on August 28. The bye week between games certainly appeared to be beneficial.

“We had a good game,” Hayden head coach John Estrada told the Copper Basin News. “We corrected some mistakes we made in prior games.”

In its in two wins this season, Hayden had allowed only eight points.

“Our defense played very tough,” Estrada said. “We’re not quite there yet but hard work will get us there.”

A big test awaits the Lobos this Friday for Homecoming, when they’ll host undefeated Valley Lutheran.

“I just hope all the distractions from the festivities don’t affect our performance,” Estrada said. “We’ll be challenged on Friday.”

Up next: Valley Lutheran at Hayden on Friday, Sept. 15. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Churches welcome new pastors in Kearny

Pastor Michael Eaton Good Shepherd UMC

Two new Christian pastors have recently begun service to the new Calvary Chapel and to The United Methodist Church of the Good Shepherd.

The Rev. Ron Hazelwood is at Calvary Chapel, a new congregation located at 305 Croydon Rd. in Kearny in the building of the former Copper Valley Christian Center. Sunday worship is at 10 a.m. Classes are available for children, and fellowship follows worship.

Pastor Hazelwood is now commuting from San Tan Valley, but he and his family expect to be in the church's parsonage by December. They are enjoying working with the congregation now, and look forward to residing in Kearny. Pastor Ron, as he likes to be called, has served several Calvary Chapel congregations in Arizona.

The Rev. Michael Eaton began his call at The Church of the Good Shepherd in Kearny in late summer, after the retirement of The Rev. Nina Yardley, who had served for five years. Pastor Eaton is an ordained member of the Desert Southwest Conference of The United Methodist Church. He will divide his energies between St. Paul's Church in Globe and Good Shepherd in Kearny. Sunday worship in Kearny is at 9 a.m., and a social hour both precedes and follows the service. A bible study, open to all, is held in the Little Gallery of Ray Hall at 9 a.m. on Thursdays. Pastor Michael will regularly be in Kearny on Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Pastor Michael is a cyclist who loves long-distance riding. He throws his bicycle in his car to have it available at any time.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Frost on the Pumpkins

It's great to feel the mornings start to cool down a bit after the hot Arizona summer! Back in Ohio, we would look for the first "frost on the pumpkins". Here in our desert it's the "fruit on the prickly pear cactus"!

However you look for it, there is a feeling of fall in the air! Here at Family First it's "Chuck Wagon Round Up time"! This is our annual fall fundraiser that helps us continue to provide our services free to our clients.

We are in our 14th year serving the Copper Corridor, building and strengthening families; and providing educational classes from child development to life skills. Our story time program teaches our toddlers social skills needed to enter the world of "higher education". "Ten for Teens is a mentoring group learning office skills, team building, and preparing them for their future. Our "Earn While You Learn" program enables parents to buy needed baby items from our store, while learning valuable parenting skills at the same time!

In the past several years, we have seen severe cutbacks and elimination of many services here in our rural communities. During these years Family First has stepped up and increased services to our families to help meet growing needs.

The Chuck Wagon Round Up fundraiser provides us with the necessary funds to continue serving the rural communities of Arizona, our community where we live. We count on local businesses, churches, and individuals like you to keep our doors open!

This event will be held on Saturday, Oct. 7, 6:30 p.m. at the Summer Institute of Linguistics in Catalina, 16131 N. Vernon Way. You can purchase tickets by calling 520-896-9545 or on line at www.familyfirstpcc.org. You can also support our programs by donating a filled basket for an auction item, or sponsor a table if you cannot attend.

We thank God for all of you who have supported us these past 14 years. Thank you and see you at the Round Up!

God Bless,
/s/ Frank and Clare Grochocki

and learners who teach.” Painters use both oil and acrylic, and some students are pencil artists. There are two sessions on Fridays, fall and spring, and the session fee of $25 helps to pay for heating and cooling. On top of it all, new artists are welcomed and are given a set of starter supplies at no cost, and easels are available. Contact Gary Hill at 520-363-7206 for more information.

Pinal County has been working on the going up to the two wells being redeveloped by the Town of Kearny. The road is pretty much done, with the next task being a large culvert across one of the washes. Arizona Public Service is close to finishing the electrical work.

Two representatives from Arizona Parks and Trails met with Ray Camacho, Kearny’s public works director, and assessed the ATV campground and trails with an eye toward developing a grant to repair damage done by vandals. The town will also apply for a law enforcement grant to help patrol the campground once it is repaired.

The good news I bring this week is that my recently-deceased nephew, Jim Ahrens, will look from heaven upon a special disaster-relief trailer which contains washing machines and dryers and a large generator. The victims of disasters, as well as relief workers, all need their clothes washed and dried. Jim saw this need and designed the trailer to meet the need, working on the plans until his dying day. His fellow Christian relief workers took his plans, finished the work, and are now in Texas helping people. We all need some good news like this.

To work for the solution of the problems of the farm and ranch, the rural home and the rural community, by the use of the recognized advantages of organized action, to the end that those engaged in the various branches of agriculture may have an opportunity for prosperity and happiness in their chosen work. 2. To represent, protect, and advance the social, economic, and educational interest of members who shall be actively engaged in or interested in various branches of agriculture. 3. To receive or to raise funds by solicitation, borrowing, or by gifts, legacies, devises, or other lawful means to accomplish the objects of this corporation. 4. To affiliate, contract, coordinate, or operate with other organizations, associations, corporations, or individuals, including, but not limited to, the Arizona Farm Bureau Federation and American Farm Bureau Federation, in carrying out and conducting the activities and endeavors for which this corporation is formed, and in effecting the benefits and results sought to be gained. 5. To purchase, lease, option, contract for, or otherwise acquire, take, own, hold, exchange, sell or otherwise dispose of, pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, encumber, any and all classes of real and personal property necessary to the fulfillment and furtherance of the objects and purposes of the corporation, within the limits prescribed by law. 6. To purchase, acquire, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise acquire, dispose of, hold, or deal in the shares of stock, bonds, debentures, notes, or other securities or evidences of indebtedness of this or any other corporation, association, or individual, and to exercise all the rights, powers, and privileges or ownership, including the right to vote thereon, to the same extent as a natural person might or could do. 7. To lead or invest its funds, with or without security, upon such terms and conditions as shall be prescribed or determined by the Board of Directors. 8. To borrow money, and to issue bonds, debentures, notes, contracts, and other evidences of indebtedness or obligation, from time to time for any lawful purpose, and to mortgage, pledge, and otherwise hypothecate any or all of its properties, property rights, and assets to secure the payment thereof. 9. To act as surety or guarantor, agent, trustee, broker, or in any other fiduciary capacity when appropriate to the fulfillment and the furtherance of the objects and purposes of the corporation within the limits prescribed by law. 10. To make gifts, grants, donation, or loans for the purpose of attaining and furthering any of its objects. 11. To establish the terms and conditions of members in the corporation. 12. To make and to perform contacts of every kind and description and in carrying on its business, or for the purpose of attaining and furthering any of its objects, and in general to do and perform such acts and things, and to have and exercise all of the powers and to transact such business in connection with the foregoing objects as may be necessary and required. ARTICLE IV This corporation shall have no power to issue capital stock, and no dividends or pecuniary profits shall be declared or inure to any member, director, officer of the corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no member, director, officer of the corporation, shall possess any property rights in or to the property or assets of the corporation. In the event property or assets not otherwise disposed of shall be distributed and given by the Board of Directors for one or more exempt purposes as defined by Section 501(c) (3) International Revenue Code of 1954, or to the Federal Government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. ARTICLE V The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be the day these Articles of Incorporation are filed, and its termination date shall be twenty-five (25) years thereafter, with the privilege of renewal as provided by law. ARTICLE VI The corporation will have members. The Bylaws of the corporation shall prescribe the type and classes of members, the qualifications of members, the mode of election and the terms of admission to membership, provided that the voting rights of all active members shall be equal and all active members shall have equal rights and privileges and be subject to equal responsibilities. Such Bylaws shall also provide the fees of admission, dues and assessments to be paid by members and the grounds and the manner in which members may withdraw, be suspended or expelled. No membership shall be transferable, and no assignee or transferee thereof, whether by operation of law or otherwise, shall be entitled to membership in this corporation or to any property rights or interest therein, except as shall be provided in the Bylaws, of the corporation. Any person ceasing to be a member voluntarily, by expulsion or death, shall not be entitled to any membership rights or privileges in this corporation or to any property rights or interest therein, except as shall be provided in the Bylaws of the corporation. ARTICLE VII The affairs of this corporation shall be conducted by a Board of Directors. The number of directors shall be no less than three nor more than 25, as shall be provided in the Bylaws. The officers of this corporation shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be combined into one office. # Hayden Homecoming to be celebrated Friday

Hayden High School's Homecoming festivities will get underway this Friday with a parade starting at 4 p.m. Anyone participating in the parade will need to be at the school by 3:30 p.m. to get in line. The parade route will be the same as in years past.

Following the parade a Hayden Lobo Tailgate Party is planned in the high school parking lot.

The Lobos will take on Valley Lutheran with a kick-off at 7 p.m. and this year's Homecoming Royalty will be crowned during half-time.

The 2017 Royalty includes Josiel Rodriguez and Sarrah Perez, Freshmen attendants; Emiliano Camarena and Cassandra, Sophomore attendants; and Robert Manriquez and Ariana Allen, Junior attendants. Homecoming Queen and King are Aliyana Perez and Angel Sandoval.

Natural Gas Safety

Wherever you live, work, or play.

NATURAL GAS LINES

can be buried anywhere, even in areas where homes don't use natural gas. So it's important that EVERYONE knows how to recognize and respond to a natural gas leak, wherever they are.

A LEAK MAY BE PRESENT IF YOU:

SMELL:

a distinct sulfur-like odor, similar to rotten eggs, even if it's faint or momentary.

HEAR:

a hissing or roaring coming from the ground or above-ground piping.

SEE:

dirt or water blowing into the air, unexplained dead or dying grass or plants, or standing water continuously bubbling.

IF YOU SUSPECT A LEAK

- Exit the area or building immediately. Tell others to evacuate and leave doors open.
- From a safe place, call 911 and Southwest Gas at 877-860-6020, day or night, whether you're a customer or not. A Southwest Gas representative will be there as soon as possible.
- Don't smoke or use matches or lighters.
- Don't turn on or off electrical switches, thermostats, or appliance controls; or do anything that could cause a spark.
- Don't start or stop an engine, or use automated (garage) doors.

For more information about natural gas safety visit
