OBITUARY

Dr. F. Guillermo Patiño

Dr. F. Guillermo Patiño passed away peacefully at home in Tucson, AZ surrounded by his family on the evening of Sept. 6, 2015 after a long and courageous battle with emphysema. His family was blessed to celebrate his 83rd birthday and 52nd wedding anniversary this year.

Guillermo was born on April 17, 1932 in La Capilla de Tenza en Boyacá, Colombia, South America. He attended medical school at the Universidad Javeriana in Bogotá, Colombia which included a required 1 year service in a rural area clinic and his internship before graduating in 1959. He then worked in private practice until he moved to the United States. In 1961 he moved to Chicago, IL and began working at Mother Cabrini Hospital in order to learn the English language. He later worked at Belmont Community Hospital, and then in 1963 he returned to Ibaguè to marry the love of his life A. Lucia González on July 20, 1963. They both returned back to Chicago where he completed his American internship at the Illinois Masonic Hospital. In 1967 he moved to Tucson

AZ with his wife, daughter and newborn son, where he did his surgical residency in the rotating program at St. Mary's Hospital, Tucson Medical Center and also Kino Hospital. In 1970 he again moved his family which now included 3 children to Superior, AZ where he worked as a surgeon at Magma Hospital until 1981. Guillermo, Lucia, and his 4 children moved to Ajo, AZ where he began the final leg of his career. Guillermo worked for Phelps Dodge at the New Cornelia Hospital and then at the clinic once the mine shut down. During the last few years before his retirement, he was also required to travel often to Gila Bend to provide medical care there at the clinic owned by Phelps Dodge. Guillermo retired in 1996 and moved to Tucson, AZ in 1997 with his wife until the day of his death.

Guillermo was preceded in death by his parents Raphael and Paulina Patiño, and his brother Humberto Patiño. He is survived by his sister, Olga (FL); brother, Rafael "Rafico" (CA); wife, Lucia (Tucson, AZ); daughter, Olga and husband Manuel Escarcega (Gilbert, AZ); son, Carlos and Amy Allread (Tucson, AZ), son, Pedro and wife Marissa (Tucson, AZ), daughter, Bertha and husband Jaime Valenzuela (Tucson, AZ) and son-in-law, Paul Vasquez Jr. (Ajo, AZ). ## God Has the Right Answers

Isaiah 1:18 tells us – “Come now, let us reason together,” says the Lord. Does life frustrate you at times? Do you feel as if you were thrown a curve ball? You can’t find the answers you need?

Talk to the One who does have the answers – all the time. He desires to help you with the wisdom and understanding that you need.

You won’t have to argue your point. You explain your frustrations and the Lord gently fills your spirit with knowledge designed to heal your situation. He speaks directly into the point of your unrest.

Trust the Lord to see you through to your victory today. Open up the lines of communication. Talk with Him, not at Him.

Panthers continue to roll with win over Baboquivari

By Andrew Luberda
Superior Sun

The sixth-ranked Superior football team continued to roll last week, improving to 3 – 0 after a 71 – 20 thrashing at Baboquivari.

The Panthers scored 40 points in the first quarter alone and led 60 – 6 at halftime on their way to another lopsided victory.

Junior quarterback Nicolaus Cruz starred again, completing six passes in eight attempts for 182 yards and three touchdowns. He also rushed for 143 yards and two more scores.

Running back Edgar Galindo, a junior, rushed for 144 yards and two touchdowns in the win. He also kicked a 34-yard field goal. Senior receiver Elias Olmos was one of seven different receivers to catch a pass in the game. He was the leading receiver in the game with 81 yards and a touchdown. Sophomore Marcos Bueno had 68 receiving yards and two touchdowns.

As impressive as the Panthers' offense has been to start the season, the defense has been equally impressive, allowing only eight points per game so far.

The defense had three interceptions last Friday; one each from Olmos, Steven Ybarra, and Michael Salazar. Dominic Perea had a game-high nine tackles.

The schedule hasn't been the most difficult in the early part of the season, but it appears the Panthers are competing to execute as much as the victory against some inferior opponents. Their doing just fine based on the results and an undefeated record.

The Panthers host Arete Prep this Friday. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Help wanted! Leaders sought for Superior Little League

By Mila Besich-Lira
Superior Sun

It is that time of year, most residents and parents are thinking of football, cooler weather and the holidays. Baseball and Little League are the last things on our minds. However in order to host a successful season, it is important that the Superior Little League conduct its annual board elections in September.

The elections for the 2015-16 season will be held on Sept. 24, 2015 at 7 p.m. at the Superior Junior/Senior High School multipurpose room. Elections are required each year as per the league charter and by-laws.

For more information on the election process and positions available, please contact Arlene Diaz-Gonzalez at 480-309-4049.

The annual Fiestas Patrias hosted by the St. Francis of Assisi Catholic church is one of the longest running events in Superior. The event has grown significantly over the past few years with the addition of the car show. This year the car show doubled in participation with 247 cars registered for the event.

One of the traditions of the event is the crowning of the fiesta queen. This year 7th grader Jordan Lopez was crowned the 2015 Fiesta Queen. Her opponent in the fundraising race was Felicity Boltarez of Kearny. The two worked with their families to raise money for the parish and the candidate who raised the most funds wins the crown.

Food and game booths were open throughout Saturday and Sunday. Saturday evening the stage was filled with entertainment by the Superior Dance Company under the instruction of Superior native Billie Jo Villaverde. Mariachi Alma Jaliso also performed along with the St. Francis Church Choir. Saturday night closed out with band "Primo" playing until late into the night.

Baile Folklorico Alma de Superior under the instruction of Keana Torres also performed for a brief time on Saturday but returned to the stage for a full performance on Sunday.
