Are Tacos More American Than Apple Pie?

DRY HEAT

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

We have all heard the phrase “As American as Apple Pie”, usually describing something many consider to be indicative of “American” life, culture, or ideals such as baseball, 4th of July fireworks or rock and roll. So, just how American is apple pie? The original apple pie came from England and was made from unsweetened apples surrounded by an inedible crust or shell. The crust was usually a couple of inches thick and hard and was used to hold and preserve the fruit but not for eating. When the Pilgrims landed in 1620, the only type of apple growing naturally in America was the crabapple, which was too bitter to be used in pie. The first orchards in New England appeared years later but most of the fruit was used for cider.

The pie as we know it now was influenced by the French who introduced butter to the thinner crust and the Dutch who added sugar to the recipe. Recipes for Dutch apple pie and similar pies appear in German, Italian and French recipe books dated before America was colonized. It can be argued that apple pie did not originate in the United States and therefore is not American. Contrary to myth, no pumpkin, pecan or an apple pie was eaten at

Hayden's National Night Out and a Community Yard Sale in Mammoth

I ran across Sergeant Marquez from the Hayden Police Department the other day, and he excitedly told me about the National Night Out celebration which will take place on Tuesday, Oct. 2, at Garms Park on 5th Street in Hayden.

"All of us are working together on this," said Sgt. Marquez, referring to the joint sponsorship of not just the Hayden Police Department and Fire Department, but also the Gila and Pinal County Sheriff's Offices, the Pinal County Attorney's Office, the Kearny Police and Fire Departments, the Winkelman Fire department, and various town leaders.

The National Night Out is familiar to me, but I thought it was an urban thing to "reclaim the night" from crime and disorder. Sgt. Marquez said that rural towns were using the night to show community solidarity, to make children familiar with police officers and fire fighters, and to encourage the development of community watch groups.

Well, Tuesday the 2nd of October is coming quickly, and I hope just about everyone in the Copper Basin will crowd into Garms Park in Hayden from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. to enjoy the evening which will feature a bicycle rodeo, food, games, prizes and fun. For more information, contact Sgt. Marquez at the Hayden Police Department at (520) 356-6205.

In Mammoth this Saturday, Sept. 29, an indoor/outdoor community yard sale is taking place at 115 Main St. from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. Indoor and outdoor spaces are still available. Just call Susan Sanchez (520) 447-6055, Ruben Hernandez (520) 429-5997 or Gilbert Hernandez (520) 400-0423. The San Pedro Valley Lions Club is sponsoring this sale. With this slightly cooler weather we've been having, the sale should be a pleasant experience.

The group of artists which meets in Kearny every Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. continues to seek new artists to join them. All art mediums are welcome and anyone, new or experienced, can benefit from working in the company of other artists. The group meets at Ray Hall of the Church of the Good Shepherd on Senator Chastain Street, below the schools. Come spend the day and see for yourself if this is something you want to do. For information, contact Sam Hosler at (480) 220-9349. Disclosure: Yes, I'm a happy member of this group.

The Copper Basin Chamber of Commerce met with area business people this past weekend to explore ways that the Chamber might be more responsive to the area's business needs. It was a good meeting, with lots of important sharing. This week the board of the Chamber will issue a notice of its desire to hire a new director for the Chamber to help with area events and to develop approaches for better business support.

San Manuel defeats Santa Rita for first win of the season

By Andrew Luberda
San Manuel Miner

The San Manuel football team notched its first win of the season last Friday night, defeating visiting and winless Santa Rita, 47 – 28.

The Miners' difficult early-season schedule finally paid dividends as they finished off the Eagles.

"We know our opponents in this part of the schedule are not on the same level as Yuma Catholic and Benson," San Manuel head coach Damon Lovato told The Miner. "The key for us was (staying with our plan) long enough to peak at the right time."

Caleb Quintero and Julian Rodriguez starred on the offensive side of the ball in last week's win, according to Lovato. Santiago Salazar had a "big game" on defense. Junior defensive back Jose Moreno had a pair of interceptions, both returned for touchdowns.

"It's the first time we've put four quarters together," Lovato said. "If the last three games would've ended after three quarters, our record would be, 3 – 1."

The victory increased the Miners' confidence, which combined with the return of injured players like Eli Davis and others, and buy-in by the players, there is reason for optimism regarding the outlook for the remainder of the season.

"At this point, we control our own destiny in the region," Lovato said.

Up next: San Manuel visits Chandler Prep this Friday. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

"We need to let our athletes be athletes," Lovato said. "That's what we did last week and that's what we're going to do this week. We're going to play to our strengths and let our player make plays."

Jr. Miners remain unbeaten with win against Ray

By Andrew Luberda
San Manuel Miner

The San Manuel Junior High football team improved to 3 – 0 following its 60 – 16 victory against Ray Junior High last week. The Jr. Miners first two wins were against Miami – an 11-man team – and San Carlos.

Quarterback Isaiah Ramirez, running backs Mathias Medina and Ralphie Valencia, and tight ends Noah Casillas and Richard Ivy all scored touchdowns against the Jr. Bearcats.

“(We) need to continue working together as a team,” San Manuel head coach Freddy Burnham said. “We have multiple weapons on offense and we can attack from every position on the offensive side of the ball. We have a strong offensive line that does a great job.

“On defense, we are a fast and aggressive team that is led by our linebackers, Isaiah Ramirez, Mathias Medina, and Aidan Lozoya,” he continued. “We play together well, and always have at least four players on every tackle. The defense has good field communication and is able to recognize where the play is going.”

Up next: The Jr. Miners host Oracle on Sept. 25. Check with the school for kickoff time.

Mathias Medina picked up a fumble for touchdown in the Jr. Miners' win over Ray.

Miner Swimmers shine at relay meet

Miner Swimmers competed in the Red Wolf Relay Meet at the Sahuarita Aquatic Center on Saturday, Sept. 22. Most of the events at the meet were Relays. Two individual events were held - the 200 Individual Medley (IM) and the 500 Freestyle. An Automatic Time system was used that allowed lead off swimmers on each relay to qualify for the State Championship Meet if a fast enough time was achieved. San Manuel, along with Douglas, Walden Grove, Sahuarita, The Gregory School and Tanque Verde High Schools were the six teams that competed at the meet. The San Manuel Boys finished in 5th place with 142 points, and the Girls finished in 2nd place (behind Tanque Verde HS) with 211 points.

Miner Swimmers won 4 events at the meet. The Girls 4 x 100 Medley Relay team of Darien Apuron, Star Chavez, BaiLee Hill, and Jasmine Smith won with a time of 5:45:35. Each swimmer swam at or near their fastest time of the season to hold off a good Douglas team. Darien's lead off time on the Backstroke Leg (100 Backstroke) was a 1:06.34 which is a school record (bettering her own record of 1:06.81 set Sept. 6) and has earned her a #2 ranking on the State Division III Leaderboard for the 100 Backstroke.

The Boys won the 4 x 100 Butterfly Relay. The team of Evan Apuron, Jayden Smith, Hunter Hill, and Daniel Garcia won with a time of 5:23.20. Evan's lead off split time of 53.38 broke a School Record (53.81) set by Will Newman in 2015. Evan's time has earned him the #1 ranking on the State Division III Leaderboard for the 100 Butterfly.

Darien won the 500 Freestyle in decisive fashion with a very good time of 5:52.77. She took an early lead and extended it as the race went on to win by more than 18 seconds.

Evan won the 200 IM, also by a large margin, with a sizzling time of 2:04.07. He won by 16 seconds against a very competitive field.

"I have always believed being successful requires grit. The Miners showed plenty of it at the meet." Coach Alex Gort said. "The Girls 4 x 100

Pearl Hart subject of talk at Acadia Ranch Museum

By John Hernandez
Copper Area News

On Friday, Sept. 28, 2018, Arizona historian and author, Rick Powers will be giving a talk on the infamous Pearl Hart and the stage robbery along the road near Kane Springs.

The lecture, titled “Murder and Mayhem Along the Old Toll Road in Kane Springs – The Making of a Legend, Pearl Hart,” will begin at 6:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served. It is free although donations are welcome.

Rick Powers is a longtime Arizona resident and an avid history buff. He is originally from Kansas and has a big interest in Arizona and local history. He lives in Globe with his wife Lee Ann, another history buff.

The Pearl Hart stage robbery was in 1899. It made her a nationwide celebrity due to her being a woman and the first female prisoner of Yuma Territorial Prison. She was known to have been around the Mammoth area at one time and stayed at the Mountain View Hotel in Oracle. It is said that she returned to the Globe area following her incarceration and lived near the Christmas Mine in the Dripping Springs area.

the first Thanksgiving.

Now tacos are a different story. Corn (Maize) was native to Mesoamerica including Mexico as well as Native American tribes in North America. It was not only a food staple for indigenous peoples like the Mayans and Aztecs but part of their religions and cultures. The Mayans believed that the gods made humans from a mixture of yellow and white corn. Maize and corn tortillas are thousands of years old and common sense says tacos, which is nothing more than a corn tortilla wrapped around a filling, should be just as old although an exact date of their origin has not been discovered.

By the time that Spaniard explorers reached the Americas in the 1400s, the indigenous Mesoamericans already had a sophisticated and flavorful cuisine based on native fruits, wild game, cultivated beans and corn, chilies, squash, and domesticated turkeys. Other native fruits and vegetables that were native to Mexico before the arrival of Europeans were cacao (chocolate), pumpkin, peanuts, tomatoes, jicama, avocado, tomatillos, sweet potatoes and papaya. When Hernan Cortez and his Conquistadores arrived in 1519, the flat corn cakes were known as tlaxcalli in the native Nahuatl language. The Spanish called them tortillas. The Spaniards would introduce beef, pork and wheat flour to the native cuisine.

There are several theories as to the origin of the taco. One is that it is definitely pre-Hispanic. Anthropologists have found evidence that an indigenous people, living in the lake region of the Valley of Mexico, traditionally ate tacos filled with small fish. It is also believed that the word "taco" may be derived from the Nahuatl word tlahco which meant "half" or "in the middle" as the filling would be placed in the middle of the tortilla.

Another historian, Jeffrey M. Pilcher believes that the taco started in the silver mines in Mexico in the 18th century. He believes that is when the word taco was first used to describe an explosive charge made of gun powder wrapped in paper shaped similar to the food taco and used to blast the ore. He came to his conclusion because it may have been the first time the word taco was used and that the first type of taco was known as "tacos de minero" or miner's tacos. The word taco first appeared in an archive or dictionary in the 19th century. Professor Pilcher also admits that this is his theory and the true origin of the taco is unknown.

As the Spanish moved north to what we now know as the United States in the 1500s, the corn tortilla and probably the taco traveled with them. Explorers like Coronado took members of indigenous tribes with them into what is now New Mexico where some settled with the Pueblo tribes who were also familiar with corn and corn tortillas. The Mexican indigenous tribe were agricultural people and brought seeds and seedlings with them including apples where they planted apple trees some 50 years before the Pilgrims.

By all accounts it appears that tacos were native to the Americas and arrived in the United States before apple pie and are definitely more popular than apple pie (4.5 billion tacos were eaten last year). A very good case could be made for tacos being more American than apple pie.

But just like America being a nation of immigrants, tacos have been influenced by the culture and cuisine of other ethnic groups. The Spaniards contributed beef and pork as fillings and the flour tortilla version of the taco, Lebanese immigrants gave us tacos al pastor, Mexican restaurants in the United States developed the hard shell taco in the 1940s and Taco Bell helped spread the popularity of the taco around the country. Now we have Korean tacos, Navajo tacos, and even spaghetti tacos. Yes America, tacos are as American as apple pie and then some!

GLOW! Bigger, better, brighter than ever

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

The opening night of GLOW was a wondrous evening of illuminated art, music, food, entertainment and fun.

This year's event appears to be bigger and better.

The sculpture path art is incredible! Food was being served by Nonna Maria's and Oracle Patio Café, and the Ore House Hilltop Tavern served up their new street tacos made with smoked meat. The music of the Carnivaleros was great and it seemed like more of the patrons were into wearing their own illuminated art and costumes this year.

On Saturday, Sept. 29, the theme will be Steampunk GLOW! Music on the mainstage will be provided by Los Puchos while on the paths Hypnopad and Mtn Lmn HiWay.

It should be an interesting and entertaining night!

Enjoy Spellbinding Promotions and Payouts in October!
