Celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month

By John Hernandez
Copper Area News

September 15 was the beginning of National Hispanic Heritage Month, a time for Americans to celebrate, honor and learn about the many contributions Hispanics have made to the United States. President Lyndon B. Johnson signed into law National Hispanic Heritage Week back in 1968. It was expanded to a month-long celebration in 1988 by President Ronald Reagan. The begin date was chosen as Sept. 15 because it is the date that the countries of El Salvador, Guatemala, Costa Rica, Honduras and Nicaragua all declared their independence in 1821. Mexico, Chile and Belize also celebrate their independence in September.

There are over 50.5 million Hispanic/Latinos in the United States making up nearly 17% of the population. They are the second fastest growing minority in the country next to Asians. Hispanics have been in what is now the United States since before the landing of the Pilgrims. They have been a part of American history from the beginning. During Hispanic Heritage Month communities will be celebrating the achievements and contributions of Hispanic and Latino Americans with community events, government sponsored activities and educational activities for students.

To honor Hispanic and Latino Americans some stories of their achievements and history will appear in the paper throughout the month.

Marcario Garcia

Marcario Garcia was born on Jan. 20, 1920 in Villa de Castaños Mexico in the state of Coahuila. He was one of 10 children born to Josefa and Luciano Garcia. When Marcario was four years old his family immigrated to the United States and settled in Sugarland, Texas where they worked in the fields picking crops. In November 1942, Macario was working as a field hand when he was drafted into the United States Army.

Marcario participated in the D-Day landings at Normandy in June 1944 where he was wounded. After his wounds healed he returned to his unit and the front lines. On Nov. 27, 1944 near the town of Grosshau, Germany, Marcario, acting as a squad leader, found himself and his men pinned down by German machine gun nests.

Sign up for Teens Sew Cool sewing classes

Want to learn to sew? Teens Sew Cool, in conjunction with the San Manuel Jr./Sr. High School's After School Program, delivers a sewing class that meets on Wednesdays from 3-5 p.m. for nine-week sessions in the Fall and Spring.

Students in third grade through high school are welcome. Teens Sew Cool has their own classroom at the school in a wonderful setting to learn. Class size is between 10-12 boys and girls. Each student has a sewing machine to use during class. Fabrics and notions for the various projects are provided to the students at no charge by Teens Sew Cool program. There is no charge to sign up for the sewing sessions.

During each of the sessions, students learn sewing basics and apply them to make various projects, such as pillows, stuffed animals, tote and cargo bags, raggedy quilts, notepad and binder covers, fleece hats and scarves. In addition to sewing for their own use or as gifts for their family members, each year students complete a community project. Most recently they made stuffed dinosaurs for children going into foster care.

Teens Sew Cool group wants to teach the art of sewing to young people with the goals of giving them a sense of self-esteem, pride of accomplishment and skills for future use in family and possible income production.

Fall session starts on Wednesday, Oct. 5, at 3 p.m. at the San Manuel Jr./Sr. High School, 711 S. McNab Pkwy. in San Manuel. Space is limited 12 students, so don't wait to sign up.

If you are interested, contact Linda Shannon-Hills at dash2linda@icloud.com and you will be sent an application form immediately. The first 12 students registered will be able to attend.

Spring session will start on Feb. 8, 2017.

Young seamstress Neveah shows off her full size quilt that she made at Teen Sew Cool.

VOTE RIOS

DON'T BE FOOLED
BY SORENSEN

- Supervisor RIOS has been just as fiscally conservative as his 4 Republican colleagues on the board, if not MORE.
- 2015 tax rate was increased by 20 cents, a 5% increase, by a Republican controlled board.
- In 2016 we all voted to reduce the tax rate by 13 cents or 3%.
- "Chicken Little" Sorensen believes the sky is falling because a Republican controlled board raised the tax rate by 7 pennies over 2 years!!
- Out of every dollar collected in taxes in Pinal County, the county ONLY gets 25 cents. Of the 25 cents, over 60% goes to Public Safety.

Miners still winless, hope for Homecoming victory this week

By Andrew Luberda
San Manuel Miner

The San Manuel football team is still winless this season, its most recent defeat a 62 – 16 lopsided loss to Tombstone last Friday night.

The Yellow Jackets dominated the Miners from the start, leading 35 – 0 at halftime, and continuing into the second half, where they increased their lead to 55 – 0 at the end of the three quarters.

The Miners did outscore Tombstone in the final quarter, 16 – 7.

Despite its most lopsided loss this season, in addition to surrendering a season-high points allowed, the Miners scored a season-high 16 points in the game.

The Miners have four games left to break through with a win, beginning this Friday at home versus Benson.

Kickoff for the Homecoming game is scheduled for 7 p.m.

HISPANIC HISTORY MONTH

The Americans came under fire from mortars and artillery as well as the machine gun fire. Marcario although wounded in the shoulder and foot crawled forward across ground with little cover. He advanced towards the machine gun nests taking them out with hand grenades. He killed six Germans and captured four allowing his men to move forward and capture their objective. For his valorous actions he was nominated for the Congressional Medal of Honor and promoted to the rank of Sergeant.

On Aug. 23, 1945 at a ceremony at the White House, President Harry Truman presented Marcario Garcia the Medal of Honor. Marcario became the first Mexican immigrant to receive our nation's highest honor. He also received a Bronze Star for Valor and a Purple Heart. He would later receive the Meritor Militar, Mexico's equivalent of the Medal of Honor from the Mexican government.

A month later, Marcario returned to Sugarland, Texas a hero. Texas newspapers told his story and he was invited to meetings and banquets around the state. The League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) honored him at a special ceremony in Houston.

One night in September in the small town of Richmond a few miles south of Houston, Marcario while wearing his uniform entered the Oasis Cafe to get a bite to eat. The owners refused to serve him because of his Mexican heritage. Outraged that he had fought for his country but was being refused service, he began arguing with the owners. It soon turned into a fight and the police were called. One of the owners struck Marcario on the back with a baseball bat.

The police took Marcario to the police station but did not arrest him even though they later claimed that he was drunk and had fought with them. A few days after the incident, Walter Winchell told the story to the nation on his popular radio show. He talked about the prejudice in Texas and asked the question of how an American hero could be denied service after risking his life for his country fighting for liberty and justice for all.

A few days later, Marcario was arrested and charged with aggravated assault. It was alleged that he had struck the female owner of the Oasis Café and had damaged some of the café's property. Marcario denied committing any violence. LULAC came to the support of Marcario and soon many citizens began donating money for Garcia's defense. Vice President of the Richmond chapter of LULAC Johnny Herrera was a defense attorney and became Garcia's lawyer. Herrera had also been the one that notified Walter Winchell about the story. Texas newspaper editorials soon began taking up Marcario's cause and disparaging the Fort Bend County officials and the town of Richmond. Winchell charged the people of Fort Bend County with "racial discrimination".

The trial was originally scheduled for December 1945 but was postponed until February 1946. A few days before the February trial, a Mexican American veteran by the name of Bruno Garcia, no relation to Marcario, was refused service at the Oasis Café. The police were called and Bruno was arrested for trespassing. He was found guilty the following day and fined $132. The publicity from this case brought up Marcario's story once again. The trial was then postponed until June 1946.

A new attorney of record for Marcario soon appeared. His name was James V. Allred. Allred was an icon of the Anglo Texas political and legal establishment. He was a former attorney general and governor of the state of Texas. He had been a federal judge before stepping down to run for governor. He would be reappointed as a federal judge by President Truman following the Marcario Garcia incident. He was a rarity in Texas, a true liberal Democrat.

The authorities of Fort Bend County, seeing the writing on the wall as well as the mounting criticism by the media, quietly dropped all charges against Marcario. Marcario would become a U.S. citizen in 1947. He would marry and raise three children. He would rise to the rank of Sergeant Major in the Army Reserve. He worked as a counselor for the Veteran's Administration (VA).

On Nov. 21, 1963, Marcario greeted President John F. Kennedy at the Rice Ballroom in Houston at a gathering of Hispanic civil rights advocates, veterans and political activists. The President spoke on the subjects of American foreign policy towards Latin American countries and the importance of recognizing and acknowledging Hispanic organizations such as LULAC. First Lady Jacqueline gave a speech in fluent Spanish of encouragement and hope for the Hispanic community. This unprecedented meeting with Hispanics by the President is considered by many to be the beginning of the emergence of the Latino vote in the U.S. The next day Kennedy was assassinated.

Marcario would work for the V.A. for 25 years. He even volunteered to go to South Vietnam in 1968 and counsel soldiers who were returning home. He was killed in a car accident in 1972. He was buried in the Houston National Cemetery with full military honors. The city of Houston renamed a street in his honor. In 1983 Vice President George Bush dedicated Houston's new Marcario Garcia Army Reserve Center. A middle school in Sugarland is also named after him.

St. Helen Catholic Church Fall Fiesta set for Saturday in Oracle

This year's Fall Fiesta at St. Helen Catholic Church will be on Saturday, Oct. 1, 2016 beginning with the traditional mass officiated by Rev. Msgr. Ambrose Nwohu with accompaniment by the local Local favorite Genaro Moreno will perform again at the St. Helen's Fall Fiesta Saturday.

Knights of Columbus at 10:00 a.m. The blessing of the grounds and booths will follow immediately after.

The kitchen, and the fiesta, officially opens at noon for the sale of delicious green and red chili, rice, beans, salsa and tortillas; there will also be booths selling delectable food such as menudo, posole, hot dogs, hamburgers, tacos, chicken, nachos and corn-on-the-cob along with treats such as Sno cones, cotton candy and popcorn. Fun activities will include the cake walk, face painting, two piñata games, live fish pond, toy fish pond, helium balloons, balloon dart game and the dime toss game.

The fiesta committee has been working attentively on the entertainment agenda that is sure to be enjoyed by everyone. Local talented groups and individuals traveling near and far will be performing along with two new Folklorico dancing groups. Various raffles for money prizes, expensive art pieces, 50/50 drawings, glassware, baskets or gift certificates are available for the winning.

Musician Jim Ham will be back again to provide sound and DJ music. Jim grew up in San Manuel attending St. Bartholomew Church throughout his childhood. In 1979 he and his family moved to Oracle becoming parishioners at St. Helen Catholic Church. Jim has been playing guitar since the age of 12 with his start in acoustic folk music thanks to his Aunt Leona. He played semi-professionally at the age of 16 with the local band, "Sonidos Del Desierto" providing music for many local parties, wedding receptions and family gatherings. He has played with a rock band from the Phoenix area called "Rock Addix" since 2008. Jim also provides sound reinforcement for any venue just short of a major concert and has been providing the sound system and DJ music for the Fall Fiesta since 2008.

Professional Mariachi singer Genaro Moreno will be performing during the celebration mass at 10 a.m. and then again from noon to 1:30 p.m. He started singing at the age of six through the influence of his grandparents in Michoacán, Mexico. Genaro moved to Mammoth when he was 11 years old and continued his singing performing at the Lion's Club as well as for several Mammoth fiestas. The first Mariachi band he sang with was Mariachi Valencia from Tucson of which he still performs with today. The highlight and beginning of Genaro's career was performing for his idol, Vicente Fernandez. Throughout his musical career he has opened for many great Mexican artists such as Los Tigres Del Norte, Little Joe, Tierra Tejana and Antonio Aguilar. While these performances have sent him through several states, he loves coming back to the Tri-Community and his hometown of Mammoth to sing for all the people that have helped him along the way.

Mariachi Alma Mexicana from Tucson will be performing from 2:30 – 4:30 p.m. This talented, mood setting group under the direction of Rick Murillo has amazing instrumental skills and beautiful vocal talent. They arrive decked out in the traditional Mariachi flair and perform a venue of music ranging from the traditional to Patsy Cline. Singer and violinist Victoria Sanchez will charm you with her angelic voice and harmonious backup from the rest of the group. Mariachi Alma Mexicana has performed for several years now for this festival.

The Oracle Folklorico Dancers, under the direction of Danielle Maestas will be performing from 4:30 – 5 p.m. These youngsters range in ages from 6-12 and have been requested to perform at special events in SaddleBrooke, school functions and church events. Previous director, now retired, Suzie Smith stated that Danielle was a student of the group for many years and that she was proud to pass down the duties of the "Maestra" to her. These little ones will appeal to your heart in their colorful dresses and hair ribbons. Welcome!

The talented Ballet Folklorico del Sol dancers from Eloy, AZ will perform from 5–6 p.m. These young ladies perform at several events including the Fiestas Patrias – Corazon De Latino Unidos in Eloy. This grass root organization of fine dancers are dedicated to preserving and promoting the rich Hispanic culture. The group was established in 2013 with five students and have since grown to twenty-five. They are a nonprofit donation based group led by Maestra Anissa Castillo. They pride themselves in being able to bring culture and joy to all.

Father and son musicians, Frank and Rocky Martinez will be performing from 6-7 p.m. Both these fine musicians are known due to their vocal and instrumental skills. Frank and Rocky have been playing music together for over 17 years. They play a variety of genres but mainly traditional country standards mixed with upbeat oldies.

Traveling from Douglas, AZ is Banda Gemini. They will be performing from 7-11 p.m. The band will be performing their instrumental and vocal songs including cumbias, corridos, romanticos, country, tejano and classic rock. During the time that this talented band is not driving from Douglas to Oracle, they are performing at events such as Douglas Days, the Cochise County Fair, weddings, parties, Mammoth Fiesta and other events. Their performance is the highlight of the fiesta where the crowd dances and continues their good time well into the night. Pararse y bailar o cantar tus canciones favoritas jugado por esta gran banda.

Please stop by on Saturday, Oct. 1, 2016 at the St. Helen Parish – Oracle Fall Fiesta to enjoy delicious food, great entertainment, perhaps win a raffle or prize and enjoy good company. See you there!
