Slump in global economy - layoffs hit local area

By Mila Besich-Lira
Copper Area News

Sept. 1, the first day of the last quarter of 2015, Copper is selling at $2.31 a pound and 381 mine workers are looking for a new job.

Last week both ASARCO and Freeport McMoRan made announcements that they would lay off workers and reduce production at their operations in the Copper Corridor. The recent crumbling of the stock market in China has reduced the prices for commodities like copper and oil. This has left most investors worried and the trickle down effect of the slump in China has affected the main industry of the Copper Corridor.

ASARCO plans to shut down the concentrator at Hayden indefinitely and will reduce its stripping and leaching output. This reduction affected 211 jobs at the Ray Pit and Hayden operations. Freeport McMoRan will reduce its production and is expected to lay off 170 from Miami pit operations. The rod plant and smelter will not be affected by the reduction as this time.

It is unknown at this time if the majority of those laid off were from the Copper Corridor area or if they were workers from the metropolitan areas.

Following the announcements of the lay offs, Ray Unified School district announced that anyone with students at RUSD who was affected by the lay offs should go to the cafeteria to apply for the free and reduced lunch program. Pinal County and the Department of Economic Security have many resources to help those who may be looking for assistance during this time.

Why Americans Celebrate Labor Day

By John Hernandez
Copper Area News

On this coming Labor Day, remember those union activists, members, and their families that suffered, fought and died for a better way of life for the working man and woman. Some of the benefits that were won by the union struggle include: the eight-hour day, paid vacations, weekends, paid sick leave, higher wages, pensions, health insurance, safer working conditions and the middle class.

Samuel Gompers was a union activist and leader in the late 1800s and early 1900s. He was the founder of the American Federation of Labor and its first President. When asked what does labor want, he responded in a way that still speaks to the issues in our country today:

"We want more schoolhouses and less jails; more books and less arsenals; more learning and less vice; more leisure and less greed; more justice and less revenge; in fact, more of the opportunities to cultivate our better natures."

Layoffs and a Special Meeting

Despite a major stock correction this past week, economic indicators remain positive for upward employment figures in the United States. But that is cold comfort for the Copper Basin since it was revealed that the condenser operation at the Hayden ASARCO operations will close in October with a loss of 130 jobs and 78 people learned this weekend that they will be laid off from the leaching operation at the Ray Mine. Layoffs and restructurings are not new to us, but these announcements follow the layoffs earlier this year.

Let's hope that the price of copper will rise. Freeport McMoran is planning layoffs in Miami's open pit in response to the drop in value of copper. We're not alone in this but, again, having company in our loss is not much comfort.

Let's all help each other as much as we can. I remind citizens that the Kearny Library is part of the Arizona Workforce program. Help is available at the library with resumes, and dedicated computers will assist with job searches. There is no fee for this service. Additionally, at the urging of some citizens, I am asking for help in developing a job fair for temporary or full-time positions. Please e-mail me at sam_hosler@msn.com (that's an underscore and not a dash) if you would like to help pull this together as soon as possible.

Things are very busy at Town Hall. The scheduled audit begins this week, dealing not only with figures but with auditing procedures. The Keep Kearny Clean committee meets the following week to lay plans for the fall clean-up set for Saturday, October 17, from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. It will look much like this Spring's clean-up, with curbside pickups that day, volunteers going around the town to pick up trash, and special receptacles set up on the 400 block of Jamestown Road. I'll write more about this as the time approaches.

This Wednesday, Sept. 2 at 6 p.m., a special meeting of Town Council will deal with several items. The Chamber of Commerce is proposing a Farmer's Market on Saturday, Sept. 26; the Council will decide whether or not to have Richard Corso as the town's Chief of Police; and representatives from the City of Tempe will be on hand to propose the giving of one of their existing fire trucks to the Kearny Fire Department. Town Manager Anna Flores has long held the hope that this offer would be made, which will make the town safer and lower the fire insurance rates for all residents.

Labor Day is coming soon. Let us remember that there would be no economy without the labor of people. Value is created, not born.

Lobos get first win under new coach

By Andrew Luberda
Copper Basin News

New, and former, Hayden head coach John Estrada said before the season started that he wanted “to get it back to the way it was years back” at Hayden. Well, he and the Lobos certainly looked like they’re headed that direction after last Friday’s 60 – 21 victory at Arete Prep. Running backs Brandon Cruz and Ryan Donovan combined for more than 200 rushing yards and six touchdowns in the victory, which Estrada said was dedicated to injured Lobo Santiago Píña.

Junior quarterback John Henry Gaona completed 7 of 12 passes for 175 yards with two passing and two rushing touchdowns. His two touchdown passes were to Mike Guerrero, a junior, who finished with 111 receiving yards on just four receptions.

Sophomore multi-purpose running back Emmet Simms rushing for 22 yards in addition to racking up 55 receiving yards in the win.

Donovan led the Lobos’ defense with five tackles. Guerrero and freshman Omar Lopez each had three tackles in the game.

The Lobos will play their second-straight game on the road this week, traveling to face seventh-ranked Valley Union on Friday. The Blue Devils defeated Ray last week, 56 – 0.

Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Much the same in Bearcats loss to Blue Devils

By Andrew Luberda
Copper Basin News

For the second-consecutive week, the Ray football team gave up 56 points while showing little offensively.

Last week the Cats were able to score

12 points against third-ranked Gilbert Christian, but this week they were shutout out by seventh-ranked Valley Union, 56 – 0.

Things don’t expect to get any easier this week for the Cats, who will host fifth-ranked St. David on Friday.

Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Grant Writing 101

A handful of lucky people had an opportunity to learn everything you need to know to get started writing grants.

On Monday, Aug. 24, Cathy Melvin, who works in State District 1 Representative Ann Kirkpatrick's office, provided an intense introductory workshop about writing grants. The class was hosted by the Superior Chamber of Commerce in its new building on Main Street. Some attendees drove from as far away as San Manuel, which demonstrates the rising importance of the need for grant writers. With the price of copper falling as China's economy slows down, towns, schools, civic organizations and arts groups are all looking for ways improve their funding options by applying for grants.

Melvin provided a wide-ranging set of slides titled "Grant Writing 101." The first thing to do is make a plan that accurately reflects the needs and capabilities of your particular organization. You need to identify specific items that your group needs. Then you do research through a variety of grant-related search engines to match an advertised grant with your specific needs. If you discover a match, your work is just beginning.

A grant Request for Proposal, or RFP, usually provides itemized restrictions about what the grant money will be used for, and also has a very detail-oriented application process. It's important to pick the right RFP to go after, because there is a lot of work involved. It's also important to have some "outside eyes" to proof read your application.

Melvin shared some insights from her personal grant writing experience. Sometimes, she explained, it's worth the effort to build up a grant proposal even if you can't meet the deadline, because when that grant comes up next year, you will be better prepared to build a winning response.

Another key item is that modern grants typically do not provide up-front cash for a project. Usually the organization needs to win the grant, use their own money to do all the work, and then apply for reimbursement. This puts a high value on an organization's ability to get all the work done on time, and be able to document each aspect that qualifies for reimbursement. Arizona does not have a great track record for completing grant-funded projects on time, so our state sometimes sends money back because it wasn't spent in time to qualify for reimbursement.

Melvin provided copies of the slides as well as a detailed seven-page handout about how to prepare a competitive grant proposal. She also recommended a 47-page PDF file that is available on Representative Kirkpatrick's web site at: <http://1.usa.gov/1Kp1Zbe>.

There is also an organization called The Grantsmanship Center that offers training to people who want to become more professional and successful in their quest for grant funding. <https://www.tgci.com/>

Upcoming Grant Writing Classes are scheduled on Wednesday, Sept. 16, from 10 a.m. to noon at the Oracle Fire Station located at 1475 W. American Ave. and on the evening of Thursday, Sept. 24, 6-8 p.m. at the Globe-Miami Chamber of Commerce located at 1360 N. Broad St.,

Another minor capital project completed at Resolution Copper

Oddonetto Construction, a local contractor from Globe, recently worked with Resolution Copper to safely complete a pump house project in Superior.

The new upgrades will continue to supply water from the Arizona Water Company to Resolution Copper's current facilities. All employees on the job were from the local Copper Triangle area, including the San Carlos Reservation. They finished the job on time and incident free.

"We run our projects very systematically; Oddonetto came in and completed the job safely allowing us to have the water we need during the development of the project," said Resolution Copper construction superintendent Bo Deen.

For additional information about the project, visit our website at www.resolutioncopper.com or call the Resolution Copper community line at 520.689.3409.
