CASA of Gila County honors grandparent caregivers

On September 8th grandparents around the nation will be honored for all the love and support they give to children in their lives but the Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) Program of Gila County would like to especially honor the grandparents in our community who've taken in grandchildren who were abused or neglected.

In Arizona 44 percent of kids in foster care are living with kin, either a blood relative or an adult with whom the child has a significant relationship, according to a Department of Child Safety report. Many of these kinship care providers include grandparents who've opened their homes to their grandchildren who have been abused or neglected.

While the state does provide many services to kinship caregivers, especially those who get licensed through the state, many are taken by surprise and are unsure where they can turn for support. For the thousands of children in unlicensed kinship care placements the average monthly reimbursement is only $45.60.

Court Appointed Special Advocates are every day community members who volunteer their time to be an advocate for children in the foster care system. When appointed to a case of a kinship care provider CASA advocates are often able to connect them with the support and services they need to care for their children.

Copper Basin Chamber director steps down

By Sam Hosler
Copper Basin News

Late last month, the Board of the Copper Basin Chamber of Commerce received the news that Veronica Bracamonte had given her resignation with a two-week notice. In an interview this week she said that she intends to remain active in the chamber as a volunteer, devoting herself to areas such as involving youth in community work, especially through the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Rodeo Queens.

Bracamonte has been the director for less than a year, serving in a whirlwind of activity. The Pioneer Days in Kearny were her "baptism under fire." Rosalind Padilla, who was retiring from chamber work, stayed on to help Bracamonte, who quickly learned the ins and outs of such a large project. Nancy Hinojos was a fountain of help.

In this cooperative way, Kearny's Pioneer Days turned out very well, and the funding received through carnival sales more than covered all expenses. Rosalind Padilla recently commented, "I've never seen the chamber have so much money."

It's not just money. The number of enrolled and sponsoring members has significantly increased during Bracamonte's time. During Pioneer Days she recruited five businesses, and in the months following she recruited thirteen more for a total of eighteen. She also made big strides in the chamber's use of social media, especially its web site and appearances on Facebook, and she renewed the chamber's licensing with the State of Arizona.

The Chamber also instituted the return of monthly "mixers" to make the chamber's work better known in the communities served, to invite new businesses in the chamber's membership, and to "keep in touch" with the needs of the communities and their businesses. The mixers take place on the third Thursday of each month, and are open to all.

The board of the Copper Basin Chamber intends to have a planning session and institute a working budget for the year before seeking a new director. The work will be easier since Bracamonte began a new accounting system and developed new financial project files.

Ginger Bentley, president of the chamber, expressed regret at Bracamonte's stepping down and gave thanks for all that she accomplished.

St. Joseph's Catholic Church

St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church in Hayden is letting the Copper Basin community know about the material help it can provide in cases of need. To apply, please call the church at 520-356-6046 and leave a clear detailed message with your needs and where you can be reached. St. Joseph's also provides food boxes on an appointment basis. Again the number listed above can be used.

And there's more from St. Joseph's. The congregation is sponsoring a benefit golf tournament on Saturday, Sept. 15, in memory of Andres Guzman and Mary Martinez. It's a 4-man scramble with one "A" player per group with a shotgun start at 8 a.m. There are various golfing contests too, not to mention a horseshoe tournament as well as bingo and a cake walk. It's at the Hayden Municipal Golf Course. To register a group, or for more information, call Bob Lorona at (520) 331-9236.

The churches in the Copper Basin do all sorts of good things for our residents, and their reach extends around the world. This past Labor Day, Fellowship Baptist Church and Calvary Kearny (both in Kearny) joined forces to sponsor a community observance of Labor Day at Hubbard Park. The people of the Copper Basin were invited to come celebrate, and many did. There was plenty of food, special games and prizes for the young people, a pie baking contest, a salsa making contest and a chili cook-off. The

The Hand Me Up Shop has provided all kinds of community support over the years. Most recently the Health Volunteers voted to provide $600 of sanitary supplies to the Ray Schools. The supplies included disinfectants, Kleenex and paper goods, and other useful items. Teachers at the high school can secure supplies through the school nurse, and elementary teachers can contact Virginia Maes at the primary school office.

Belen Chavez Cluff

06/05/1916 - 08/17/2018

The family of Belen were amazed at all the people reaching out, guiding us, contributing food and your time needed for a most beautiful mass and reception on the day of her burial. We thank and love the way the Winkelman people have honored her so many times including those from the outlying areas, Hayden, Kearny and Dudleyville. We were all blessed and thank the Lord that she was a part of our lives. She came from humble beginnings losing her mother at the age of 5, yet, she learned to overcome hardship and loss, staying positive, loving unconditionally, encouraging, sharing her blessings, wisdom and inspiring us to be the best we can be. She was devoted to the daily rosary and probably prayed for all of us at one time or another. Thank you, again.

Ray rebounds with big win

By Andrew Luberda
Copper Basin News

A week after a lopsided loss to Mogollon, the Ray football team rebounded with a one-sided victory last Friday night, defeating Phoenix Day School for the Deaf on the road, 72 – 0.

The win improved the Bearcats' record to 2 – 1.

"We were more prepared mentally for this game," Ray assistant coach Jimmy Fessenden said about his team's performance.

Dakota Willis, Romeo Varley and Jaden Pace starred for the Cats in the win. The score allowed a number of Ray's younger players to get some valuable playing time.

"This game was pretty much a confidence builder,"

Fessenden said. "We got to see what our younger players are capable of in a game situation."

Up next: Ray visits NFL Yet Academy this Friday. The Eagles suffered their first loss of the season last week at St. David, 70 – 24. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Hayden battles back, can't overcome early errors

By Andrew Luberda
Copper Basin News

It's been said that it's not how you start, but how you finish. It was, however, about the start for the Hayden football team last Friday. The Lobos finished well against Mogollon after falling behind 24 – 0, but they couldn't complete the comeback in a 48 – 36 loss.

"I was happy with how we played," Hayden head coach John Estrada said. "We made some mistakes early in the game that hurt us and the outcome of the game, but overall we played tough and very well."

Despite the loss, Estrada said the Lobos learned how to play through adversity, a challenge any team that hopes to reach the postseason must concur.

"Our kids never gave up," he said. "Take away our mistakes we made early in the game and the outcome would have been in our favor.

"We need to learn from this and move on. More importantly we need to believe in what we are doing as a team, our offensive plays, and especially our defensive play. We need to do our job."

Up next: The Lobos finally play a home game, hosting Baboquivari in their opener.

"We're excited to play at home and in front of our fans, even though we've had a good fanbase at our away games," Estrada said, adding the team has appreciated the support on the road. "Friday, we need to do our jobs, execute, and be physical."

Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

62 digs.

The Lady Bearcats are 2 – 0 after a pair straight-set wins against San Manuel (25-23, 25-11, 25-20) and Phoenix Day School for the Deaf (25-13, 25-15), 25-17) last week.

Hayden

The Lady Lobos are winless after losses to Superior (25-18, 20-25, 8-25, 17-25), Ft. Thomas and Mogollon (8-25, 9-25, 14-25) last week.

The Kearny Elks Lodge #2478 is working in cooperation with the American Red Cross to sponsor a blood drive on Monday, Sept. 24, at Constitution Hall in Kearny. It lasts from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Please make donor appointments by calling 1-800-733-2767.

The churches and all these wonderful organizations are "again out" in our communities. Times are tough for younger people, especially those with families, but good communities are cooperative communities, with young and old working and worshipping together. This is especially true in small towns. I hope that none of us will take our churches and organizations for granted, but come together to sustain and renew their work.

Finally, the First Friday food distribution is early Friday morning, Sept. 7 at the Kelly Haddad building in Kearny. The Coffee Chat at Norm's IGA is from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. that same day (and again on Sept. 20), with conversation and also free coffee and doughnuts for all retirees.

Next week I'll have a word about the new Ladies' Day Out at the Kearny Library. There's a lot going on along the Gila.

CASA

The CASA Program works because CASA advocates are able to focus on one case at a time, while most paid professionals in the foster care system have caseloads that are difficult to manage. The CASA advocate visits the child monthly and reports back to the judge with what's happening in the case and their recommendations for moving forward. The CASA advocate's unique outsider perspective helps them effectively advocate for the best interests of the child.

This Grandparents Day, CASA of Gila County encourages everyone to honor the caregivers in their life by volunteering to help a child in need. For more information on the CASA Program visit CASAofGilaCounty.org or call the Globe CASA office at 928-402-4427 or the Payson office at 928-474-7145.

Helicopter rescue in Aravaipa

Several agencies were called out Sunday to the Aravaipa Canyon to rescue some hikers that had become stranded when the Aravaipa Creek rose quickly during a monsoon thunderstorm. The Arizona Department of Public Safety utilized helicopters out of Tucson and Phoenix to conduct the rescues. They were called in to assist the Pinal County Sheriff's Office Search and Rescue. According to the Pinal County Sheriff's Office, a group of hikers were separated by running water. Eleven people were extracted including a family of five. All refused medical treatment. Also on scene were a crew from Pinal Rural Fire & Medical District and Kearny EMS.
